

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 31.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1893.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR

Special Notice.

We respectfully announce to our patrons and to the citizens of Newton, that we have removed from 546 Washington Street to our well located and finely appointed Store, 346 Boylston Street, opp. Arlington Street, Boston.

With ample floor space and greater facilities, we hope to increase our custom in Newton.

All are invited to inspect our stock.

PUTNAM & SPOONER.

METALLIC BEDSTEADS
AND FINE BEDDING.

MINER ROBINSON,
ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton. 12 Pearl St., Room 27, BOSTON.

The fitting of private residences for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT

a specialty. High grade electrical work of every description. Agent for the

MATHER SYSTEM

Complete electric light and power installations. If your electrical gas lighting system is constantly giving trouble, have a

“ROBINSON” ELECTRICAL GAS LIGHTING SWITCH

installed. Satisfaction guaranteed. Send for estimates.

Telephones, Boston, *3311; West Newton, 234.

Concrete Walks and Driveways.

The season for this work is now open, and we should be glad to receive orders or make estimates for parties wishing work in private grounds.

Having laid the Newton public sidewalks for the past sixteen years, the quality of our work is well known. Communication by mail will receive prompt attention.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, Newton.

Boston Office, 166 Devonshire St., Room 58.

BUY THE BEST.
ASK YOUR GROCER FOR
“C. and H.”

EXTRA CREAM LUCCA

OLIVE OIL.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

If your Grocer does not keep it, order of

CODMAN & HALL, Sole Agents,
34 HAMILTON ST., BOSTON

This space reserved for Howard & Doane,
Provision and Fish Dealers,
400 Centre St., Newton.
Telephone 253-3.

Physicians.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jewett Sts.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith.)
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoft and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-4.

J. FRANKLIN FULLER, Jr.,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor,
12 PEARL ST. BOSTON,
Rooms 24 and 25.
Surveys, Plans, and Estimates, for the Improvement, Drainage, and Development of City
and Suburban Real Estate.
Residence Highland St., West Newton 1-p
Tel. 2-33-61

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS
Turner Centre Cream,
FOR SALE BY

C. P. ATKINS
Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

—: JOB PRINTING :—

Instruction.

MISS CLARA E. WADE,
TEACHER OF PIANO FORTE,
Cypress St., Newton Centre.
6 25c

HARRY BROOKS DAY,
TEACHER OF PIANO-FORTE
Organ, Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION
Elliot Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

THEORY of Color and Art instruction.
Water Color PORTRAITS.
NEWTON STUDIO, opp. Public Library, Centre St.
Millinery.

MILLINERY!
The Milliners at the Juvenile have been in New York the past week selecting the Latest Novelties for Spring and Summer
trade, and are now prepared to show all the NEWEST IMPORTATIONS.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,
Elliot Block, Newton.

Chandler & Co.

CLOAK DEPT.

LADIES' CAPES in black and colors
New designs constantly arriving.
Prices from

$8 to $80.

BLACK and COLORED CAPE JACK-
ETS and TOP COATS,

$10 to $35.

TEA GOWNS and WRAPPERS for spring and summer wear in large variety.

CHANDLER & CO.,
Winter Street, BOSTON.

Dressmakers.

MRS. H. S. BARROWS,

Dress Maker,

No. 62 Elmwood Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

DRESSMAKING

Evening and Street Costumes in Latest Designs.

Moderate Prices.

S. A. MERRITT, 33 PARSONS STREET,
NEWTONVILLE.

Waltham & Newton electric cars pass the street.

JAMES PAXTON,

Manufacturing

Confectioner.

Cakes in Variety, Ices and Creams,
Fancy Ices, Frozen Pudding.

Pure Candies of our own Make.
CHOICE WEDDING CAKE.

Bicycles.

Union Bicycles

Sold on the Installment Plan. Also Second Hand Wheels taken in part payment for New Ones. Call and see them before purchasing and get Catalogue.

A. W. PORTER, 63 Richardson St.
28-St

EDW. P. BURNHAM,
BICYCLE DEALER,
Agent for the Victor and all the Leading Wheels
Machines Rented to Responsible Parties.
Residence, 25 Park Street, - Newton.
6m

THE POPULAR
NEW MAIL.
1893 MODEL.

Diamond Frame.
Highest Possible Grade.
All Drop Forgings.

Pneumatic Tires, - $125.
LADIES' PATTERN.....$105 and $125
The Handsome Ladies' Wheel made.
BOYS' NEW MAIL, a High Grade
boys' wheel.....$60 and $65
Cheaper Quality Boys' Wheels $25 and $35.
Call and get a Catalogue.

BARBER BROS., Agents.
OPPOSITE LIBRARY, - 415 CENTRE STREET.

Tailors.

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor
326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

NEWTON.

—At Hahn's fresh homeopathic medicines.
—Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Davis leave here about June 1, for Chicago on a trip to the World's Fair.

—Mr. Charles Gay of Franklin street is soon to remove with his family to Boston.

—Mr. Richard Robinson has taken one of Alderman Emerson's new houses on Boylston street.

—The Social Science Club will meet at
Mrs. James French's, Washington street,
Wednesday, May 10, at 10 a. m.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brackett are expected to arrive in New York today, on their return from Europe.

—Mr. Frank Blackwell and family have arrived here from London, on a visit to his father, Mr. E. B. Blackwell.

—Mr. D. W. Farquhar was one of the reception committee who arranged for the complimentary dinner to Governor Mc-Kinley of Ohio, which was such a successful affair.

—Mr. Geo. Strong and family have removed to their new home at 510 Commonwealth avenue, Boston.

—Dr. P. F. Coady, late of the Victoria Hospital, Halifax, N. S., is about to locate in Nonantum.

—Mr. James A. Herne of "Shore Acres" visited Newton on his cycle, last Sunday, and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stearns.

—Mr. Goddard has taken possession of the latter estate on Park street, which he has recently purchased.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hammett are at Princess Anne Hotel, Virginia Beach, this week.

—Mr. C. S. Decker has reopened his tailor store in one of the stores in Elliot block, Elmwood street, with a full line of spring and summer goods.

—Meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Y. M. C.
A. Hall Monday, May 8, at 8 o'clock.

Remember "Our Corner Market" when ordering fine dinners.

—Mr. John Leavitt of Peabody street has become a member of the firm of Otis E.
Weld & Co., successors to John D. and M.
Williams, of 185 and 187 State street, Boston.

Messrs. Edward Elms and Eben H.
Ellison were ushers at the double wedding of Mr. Atherton Loring and Miss Sawyer, and Miss Emily Loring and Mr. H. C.
Wirth, in Cambridge, Monday evening.
The reception was held at the residence of Mr. Harrison Loring in South Boston, and was a brilliant affair.

—This city was well represented at the Home Market Club dinner to Gov. Mc-Kinley, Wednesday night. Among those present were Messrs. E. W. Converse, D.
W. Farquhar, Allen Spauld, J. Howard
Nichols, Mr. Ayers, C. S. Luntzweiler,
Edward Sawyer, Moses G. Cram, Arthur
F. Luke, Geo. W. Pope, Jr., and Lewis R.
Spauld.

—The Newton Centre Cooking Class will have four additional demonstration lessons by Miss Fannie Merritt Farmer on successive Saturdays, beginning May 6th at 2 p.
m. in the Unitarian church kitchen, entrance from Centre street. Tickets for the course $1.50, for single lesson 50 cents, on sale at the door.

—Mr. Albert B. Potter, of the firm of Turner & Brother, Boston, left for Europe on a business trip to Europe, and will be gone about three weeks.

—Music in Grace church Sunday evening:
Processional, "The King of Love my Shepherd is," H. B. Day

Magnificat, H. B. Day
Nunc Dimittis, H. B. Day
The cantata, "The Daughter of Jairus,"

Solos and verse parts sung by Mr. Geo. Parker,
Mr. Chas. Sladen, Mr. F. O. Brown,
Masters T. Grafton Abbott and Harold Fred Hill.

Offertory Solo.
Recessional, "There is a blessed home," —Watertown has begun the work of cleaning up the bank of the Charles river.

A large force of men is at work on the south bank of the river, which is owned by the town and has been used as a dumping ground. The bank is being leveled off, and is to be graded over and made into a small park. Other improvements are contemplated which will add to the beauty of the spot. It is probable the place will be termed Pequotset park.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Gowdy Baker has finished an excellent water color portrait of Winifred, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Burnham, and the picture is on exhibition in F. A. Hubbard's window and attracts much admiration.

—Mr. F. P. Burnham set the pace for the couriers in the Boston Post's relay race to Chicago, from Coolidge's corner to the reservoir, Sunday night. The couriers were the McDuffie Brothers, and the time for the 31.8th miles covered was 8 minutes and 40 seconds. Mr. Burnham coming in ahead. He rode a new machine, the "Rambler," geared to 70.

—The third anniversary of the choir of Grace church will be celebrated next Sunday night. There will be first of all the ceremony of receiving new chorists to full membership. Then the shortened evening prayer, and this will be followed by the cantata of "The Daughter of Jairus." The solists will be Mr. Geo. J. Parker, Parker, Grafton Abbott, Frederick Hill and Mr. F.
O. Brown. The choruses will be rendered by the full choir, of 52 voices. All the seats in the church are free at night.

—The beautiful estate of Mrs. Francis on Centre street, comprising house, stable and some eight acres of land, has been sold to Mr. Andrew B. Will, and Mr. E. W. Converse, Jr., who will occupy it next month.

—Mr. Charles F. Rogers is for some weeks engaged in his duties as assessor, and will be unable to be at his office. Mr.
Chas. F. Rogers, Jr., will be at the Newton office till 10 a. m., and after 3 p. m., and at the Boston office from 10 to 3.

—Mr. Johnson has a beautiful display of Easter Lilies at his Thornton street Conservatory, which were late in coming out, owing to the unfavorable weather, but are now at the height of their beauty. He has also a fine assortment of pansies, just ready to be set out, and his bedding plants are coming along finely, and will be ready as soon as the danger from frost is over.

—There will be a full choral service at Elliot church, Sunday evening, as follows:
Anthem, "I will set his dominion in the sea,"
H. W. Parker
Agnus Dei, Chadwick
Quartet, "Lord to whom we look up blindly," Molique
Duet, From "Abraham," Organ Postlude, Grand Choeur, E. flat. Guilmette

The choir will be assisted in the service by Mr. Willis Nowell, violinist, who will play an Adagio, by Merkel, and the prelude to the oratorio of "The Deluge," by St. Saens.

—A surprise party was tendered Miss Edith Carney last Wednesday evening at her residence on Oakland street. The party consisted of Miss May Evans, Emily Stanley, Dora Daniels, Florence Hithings, Katherine Whittemore and Mr. Harold E.
Travis, Edward L. Robinson, Edward E.
Howard, Charles Howard, Frederick Tardy and Mr. Barton. The evening was spent in playing progressive whist and the prizes were awarded to Miss Katherine Whittemore and Mr. Harold Travis. A collation was served during the evening and the party adjourned about 11.15 after having spent a very pleasant evening.

—Alderman Bothfeld is improving after his attack of the grip, but is not yet able to be out.

—In accordance with instructions from Washington, Postmaster Morgan has had to shorten up the noon trip of the carriers.
In order to bring their work within the limit of 8 hours per day. He has applied for another carrier, but it is hardly probable that the request will be granted as the eight hour law has caused similar requests to be made from nearly every city in the country.

—The cottage, No. 10 Fayette street, owned by Mrs. L. Lewis is being thoroughly repaired and renovated, and has been leased to Mr. Chas. A. Worth of the Watertown Enterprise office. He expects to occupy it early next month.

—The Cantata, "The Holy City," to be given at the Methodist church next Tuesday evening, is in aid of the new church building fund. The society is now fully awake to the necessity of a new house of worship. The frame structure built as a temporary chapel, where they have met over 30 years, is quite dilapidated and cannot be raised or enlarged. The growing congregation is subject to very great inconvenience, and needs a large and more substantial edifice, which will cost $50,000, and which Methodists, who move into Newton, will not be ashamed to call their church home. Surely the more favored members of our communions established in their beautiful temples, and public spirited citizens belonging to no church, will gladly aid in setting forward this public enterprise. Tickets for the Cantata, (50 cents) are on sale at Hubbard's Drug store and at Barber Bros.

Dr. Stainer's Cantata "The Daughter of Jairus."

Persons who have not heard this extremely beautiful composition can hardly realize its exquisite value as a piece of dramatic musical interpretation.

Its aim is to describe musically Christ's miracle of raising to life the daughter of Jairus, and the words are nearly all taken from the sacred narrative. It begins with a choral recitative.
"In that day shall the Lord of hosts be for a crown of glory" which is followed by a treble recitative telling the story of Jairus' visit to Christ.

Then come parts for bass and for tenor with recitatives between.

A fine choral effect is the wailing,
a most plaintive portion, using the words
"Sweet, tender flower, Born for an hour,
Now by death's cold hand stricken."

Later on comes the chorus of unbelievers, "In the death of a man there is no remedy."

The final trio and chorus are exultant and uplifting. Nothing more joyous can be conceived than the "Hallelujahs" in this part.

Although the cantata is not so grand a composition as some of the great Oratorios it is singularly full of the most delightful melodies and superb harmo-nies without a dull part anywhere.

It will be sung in Grace church on Sunday night at the third anniversary of the choir.

Base Ball.

The following schedule has been arranged for the Newtons. The games at home will be played on Walworth's field. Games have not yet been arranged for August and September:

May 20, Walworth High school, at home.

May 27, Lincoln, at home.

May 30, Bridgewater Normal, at home.

June 3, Allens school, at home.

June 10, Bridgewater Normal, at Bridgewater.

June 17, open.

June 24, Newton High school, at home.

July 1, West Medford A. A., at home.

July 4, open.

July 8, Wellingtons, at Wellington.

July 15, West Medford A. A., at West Medford.

July 22, open.

July 29, Wellingtons, at home.

Newton High v English High.

The Newton High team defeated Boston English High in an interesting game of base ball on Walworth's field last Friday by a score of 7-4. English High tried in every possible way, both by "bumping" and "kicking," to take the game from the home team, but the boys played a steady game, and by successful batting at "opportune" moments, established a lead which the visiting team was unable to follow. The game was also largely won by the steady battery work at critical points, and the splendid support given throughout by Newton High fielders.

Next games for following week:
Monday, May 8, English High vs Newton High, at home.

Wednesday, May 10, C. M. T. S. vs Newton High, at home.

Saturday, May 13, Millbury Y. M. C.
A. vs Newton High, at Millbury.

Newton High School, 7: Grotons, 7.

The Newton High school nine visited Groton Saturday, and played a very interesting game with the fine team located in that town. The score was a tie at the end of the ninth inning, when the N.
H. S. club was obliged to leave to get the train. The Grotons led in batting, while the N. H. S. excelled in fielding. Batteries, Ryan and Brown, N. H. S.; Haug-hton and Sturgis, Groton. Score by innings.

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
N. H. S.....2 1 1 0 0 3 0 0 0-7
Groton.....3 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-7
Earned runs, N. H. S. 3, Groton 4, Base hits, N. H. S. 9, Groton, 20. Base on balls, Ryan 4, Haughton 7. Struck out, Ryan 7, Haughton 4.
Stolen bases, N. H. S. 5, Groton 3, Umpire, Mr.
Billings.

Next games for following week:
Monday, May 8, English High vs Newton High, at home.

Wednesday, May 10, C. M. T. S. vs Newton High, at home.

Saturday, May 13, Millbury Y. M. C.
A. vs Newton High, at Millbury.

Newton High School, 7: Grotons, 7.

The Newton High school nine visited Groton Saturday, and played a very interesting game with the fine team located in that town. The score was a tie at the end of the ninth inning, when the N.
H. S. club was obliged to leave to get the train. The Grotons led in batting, while the N. H. S. excelled in fielding. Batteries, Ryan and Brown, N. H. S.; Haug-hton and Sturgis, Groton. Score by innings.

Readers of the Boston Journal would do a great kindness by sending their vacation coupons to Mrs. H. S. Crowell, Hunnewell avenue, who is trying to secure one of the vacations for a young man who has been ill for a long time, and who would be greatly benefited by one of the vacation trips. Mrs. Crowell has secured already a good number of coupons, but the competition is very brisk, and the help of all the kindly disposed Newton readers of the Journal will be needed, if the effort is to meet with success.

The New Mail

is on exhibition at Barber Brothers, who have the agency for Newton, and have samples of various styles. Call and get a catalogue.

NEWTON BOWLING TOURNAMENT.

INDIVIDUAL AND TEAM PRIZE WINNERS HAVE BEEN SELECTED.

The final match in the Newton Boat Club bowling tournament was rolled last Friday evening, and the prize winners were at last selected from the list of forty men who entered in this interesting competition.

Several of the games have been extremely close, one match having been won by three pins.

The team prize goes to team 1, C. W.
Cole Captain, and was won after a very close fight.

Team 7, F. J. Burrage captain, takes second place, and was "in the race" from the start until the final game.

The contest for the "individual prize" proved to be very exciting, and was not decided until the very last string in the final match. F. J. Burrage finally won the prize with an average of 155 7-7, C.
W. Cole finishing second with a 154 2-3 average. J. F. Linder of team 7, a fifth class man with a rating of 90 pins, ended the tournament with an average of 140, and E. B. Stearns of the same class finished with a 130 average.

The standing of the teams at the end of the tournament is as follows:

Team	Name of captain	Total pins	Won	Lost
1	C. W. Cole	14,980	7	0
2	F. J. Burrage	14,415	6	1
3	W. H. Gould	13,425	4	3
4	W. G. Bancroft	12,945	3	4
5	J. F. Linder	12,863	3	4
6	H. N. Baker	12,263	2	5
7	F. H. Loveland	12,275	1	6
8	R. W. Buntin	12,275	1	6

The individual figures are given below:

Name and team	High score	High string	Average
F. J. Burrage, 7	291	536	155 7-7
C. W. Cole, 1	184	519	154 2-3
W. H. Gould, 3	188	506	144 5-21
C. S. Dole, 7	191	491	140 11-21
W. G. Bancroft, 4	182	496	140 8-21
J. F. Linder, 5	183	502	140
H. N. Baker, 6	188	488	139 11-21
W. E. Plummer, 1	188	443	138 8-21

CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE GRADE CROSSING COMMISSION REPORT.—TWO STREET RAILWAY LOCATIONS GRANTED.

The board of aldermen met Monday evening, Mayor Fennel presiding, and all the members present except Alderman Bothfield.

The Grade Crossing Commission made their report, which was submitted without reading, slips being furnished to each alderman, and a summary of it is given elsewhere.

City Engineer Noyes made his report on the widening of Washington street. The cost of widening to 75 feet, exclusive of land damages, was estimated at $97,800; and to 100 feet, $130,000.

PETITIONS.

C. A. Harrington asked for license to build lumber storage shed 55x20 feet on Crafts street.

Residents of Wards One and Seven petitioned to have better drainage of the Woodward estate on Church and Centre streets, and of portions of Church street near the planing mill, as cellars had been flooded the past season and the present drains were stated to be insufficient to carry off the water even with the new sub-drains connected with the sewers. It was signed by L. E. Coffin, John S. Potter and others.

John A. Newton was granted license to move a building from Margin to Curve street, as Alderman Hunt said the removal could be managed without interference with trees.

The highway committee reported in favor of accepting Eliot avenue from Waltham street easterly, and a hearing was appointed for June 5 before the common council, both at 7.45 p. m.

M. O. Rice asked for crosswalk at corner of Homer and Centre streets.

John Johnson and 30 others asked to have the sidewalks on Station street graded and covered with gravel.

The Newton & Boston Street Railway Co. asked to have their location on Homer street from Cedar to Walnut changed from the center to the side of the street, and a hearing was appointed for May 14 at 8 p. m.

An order was presented for the widening of Lincoln street from Walnut to Hartford street, and hearings were appointed for June 5 and June 12, at 7.45 p. m.

The quarterly report of the overseers of the poor was received and referred.

On recommendation of Chief Bixby, L. L. Cook of Hose 5 was discharged for neglect of duty.

Hearings were given on taking land for sewers on Gay street, Cladin place, and on the widening of Washington street.

Alderman Rolfe presented a batch of junk and wagon licenses which were granted.

Thomas L. Williams gave notice of intention to build a house 28x31 on Hawthorne street; E. M. Thayer, house 38x42 on Walnut corner of Lowell street.

F. B. Sisson asked for license to build stable 14x17 feet on Washington street, Ward 2.

N. C. Whittaker and Geo. W. Shinn asked for concrete walks on Hunnewell avenue and Linder terrace.

A. H. Fewkes was granted license to move building from Hyde street to Centre street.

J. H. Mitchell was granted license to build barn 38x39 feet on Oak street, Ward 5.

Arthur J. Jones asked for concrete walk on Franklin street.

Geo. T. Garrison and others asked for concrete walk across Fairview terrace corner of Chestnut street.

E. H. Ferry and others asked for fire alarm station at the corner of Prince and Berkeley streets.

A. H. Harrington was granted license for two hacks, J. H. Carpenter, two; S. L. Pratt, six, and S. P. Whitman, one.

H. S. Crowell and Frank A. Day were appointed auctioneers.

Jacob Enrich was granted license for band of street musicians.

Ellen E. Wiswall of Newton was granted license for intelligence office.

Thomas F. Kelley & Co. of Nonantum were granted a sixth class liquor license.

Horace Cousins was granted license to erect block on Station street.

E. A. Leveridge was granted license to build stable on Waters street and O. C. Ryan was granted license for stable.

H. W. Croll was granted license to build wagon shed on Church street.

The highway committee reported in favor of laying out and accepting Edinboro street from Watertown to Lowell street, under the betterment act, and hearings were appointed for June 5 and 12.

CHESTNUT HILL SEWER.

John Lowell and other residents of Chestnut Hill asked that the town of Brookline be allowed to build sewer on Middlesex road, on a private way, and on Chestnut Hill road, to connect parts of Brookline, and the selectmen of Brookline petitioned to the same effect.

There was a hearing on the matter and City Engineer Noyes explained that the Brookline authorities had met Newton in a friendly manner, and certain parts of Chestnut Hill would find their natural outlet through the Brookline sewer, and that arrangements were being made to that end.

An order was passed granting the petition, the sewer to be laid with the approval of the Newton committee on sewers, and a provision added that the Newton abutments should be allowed to connect with the sewer.

TWO MORE STREET RAILWAYS.

Alderman Rolfe for the street railway committee reported in favor of granting a location to the Newtonville & Watertown street railway, on Walnut and Watertown streets, and the report was accepted and the location granted under the usual conditions.

The Wellesley & Boston street railway location was also granted on Margin street from Highland to Washington, and on Washington street from the railroad crossing to the Wellesley line, the location being changed from the east side of the street, to which so many objected, to the westerly side of the street.

MOVING A BUILDING.

A hearing was granted to the remonstrants against giving a license to E. H. Tarbell to moving a building from Lincoln street to Erie avenue.

E. H. Tarbell appeared for the remonstrants and said that Erie avenue was only 27 feet from one edge of the concrete walk to the other, while the building was 32 feet 1 inch, and with the bay window 35 feet 1 inch. There was only 30 feet 6 inches between the branches of the trees, and the moving would damage them. Erie avenue was also now having good buildings placed upon it, and the residents objected to having an old building moved there. The last house moved along the street did a great deal of damage.

Mr. Butler also said that the trolley wires would have to be cut to allow the building to pass, but Mayor Fennel said that was of no importance as it always was done in such cases.

Mr. Tarbell said he should take off the bay window, and the building would not interfere with the shade trees in any way, as they were set back from the street and should move it back from Lincoln street to Bowdoin across private property and only 400 feet down Erie avenue. He said he was willing to leave the matter to the Improvement Association of the Highlands.

The hearing was closed and the license was granted.

The grade crossing commission were authorized to expend $450 in having 1000 copies of their report printed, after which the board adjourned.

FAVOR RAISING THE TRACKS.

COMMISSION'S PLAN TO ABOLISH GRADE CROSSINGS.

At the meeting of the Newton aldermen, Monday evening, the special commission of civil engineers, comprising A. F. Noyes, C. A. Allen and George S. Rice presented its report on the several plans proposed for separating the grade crossings of the Boston & Albany railroad in Newton.

The Langford plan is first considered, that of the removal of the B. & A. tracks to a location farther north, placing the tracks at sub-grade and constructing suitable bridges to span all needed high ways; also the acquisition of the present roadbed of the main line of the railroad between Newton and Auburndale to be used in connection with Washington street and the property intervening between the railroad and the street for the construction of a boulevard and park system.

The route selected, upon which estimates of cost have been made, diverges from the main line of the B. & A. railroad at a point about 800 feet east of St. James street, curving to the north and crossing Centre street at its intersection with Pearl street, thence westerly, parallel to and southerly of Gardner street, and again crossing Pearl street, parallel to and south of Webster street. It then continues westerly, parallel to and south of Webster street, for some distance, and finally joins the present location of the railroad at Auburn street, Auburndale, and is 120 feet longer than by the present line of railroad.

To place the grade of the railroad at the lowest possible point consistent with proper drainage, and to elevate the streets so as to insure 16 feet head room between the top of the rails and the under side of the bridges, the following changes would have to be made, beginning at Rowe street.

Rowe street, raised 21.6 feet; Crescent, 19.8; Elm, 18.9; Cherry, 17.4; Waltham, 19.2; Eden avenue, 12; Davis, 9.8; Eliot, 2.2; Cheesecake boulevard, 13; Edinboro street, 4.5; Linwood avenue, 10.2; Walnut street, 6.1; Crafts, 1.1; Broadway, 4.1; Watertown street, 3.5; Adams, 11.5; West, 13.7; Chapel, 10.0; Cook, 17; Pearl, 14.1; Gardner, 7.9; School, 5; Emerson, 5; Carleton, 5.2; Centre, 3; Nonantum place, 15; Nonantum street, 12.2.

The plan of elevating the tracks on the same route is considered in detail. Aside from the question of cost, it calls for comparatively few changes in the street grades.

The estimates of the two methods for constructing the railroad on the proposed new location to the north of the present line are as follows:

Estimate of a four-track railroad on a new location through West Newton, Newtonville and Newton, with the railroad passing under the streets, $2,455,700.

Acquisition of present roadbed of B. & A. railroad, $344,000; acquisition of land and buildings north of the B. & A. railroad to Washington street, $1,022,000; total, $1,366,000.

Estimate for a four-track railroad with earth embankments on a new location through West Newton, Newtonville and Newton, with the railroad passing over streets, $2,647,000.

Acquisition of roadbed and land and buildings as above, $1,366,000.

If the roadbed were constructed with masonry retaining walls instead of earth slopes, the estimated cost is $3,741,000.

The report next considers the separation of grades of the railroad and highways, streets and ways with the railroad in its present location, by the elevation of the roadbed and depression of the highways, streets and ways where necessary, and providing suitable stone arch bridges for spanning the same, the plan providing also for the acquisition by the city of the land intervening between Washington street and the railroad, to be used for park purposes, and the widening and constructing of Washington street to the width of 100 feet.

In considering this plan, it is assumed that the railroad would be raised sufficiently so that the changes in the streets will not be radical. Fortunately, this can be done without materially increasing the grades of the railroad beyond what it now has. It is provided in the estimates of cost for placing the streets in as good condition as at present. The number of tracks will be the same as at present, and, in some locations, side tracks. The freight yards will remain in their present location.

Beginning at Rowe street and going easterly, the changes in the streets would be as follows:

Rowe street, railroad raised 7.5 feet, street lowered, 8.00 feet; Waltham, 11.45, 3.65; Putnam, 15.19, 1.31; Highland, 16.40, 0.85; Chestnut, 16.45, 1.05; Felton's crossing, 16.73, 0.47; Allston, 14.07, 1.9; Lowell, 14.00, 2.80; Walnut, 14.50, 3.00; Harvard, 12.10, 5.10; Church, 11.89, 5.51; Richardson, 13.72, 2.60; street at subway, 15.18, 1.07; Centre, 16.50, 1.50; Washington, 13.43, 4.57; Bartlett's crossing, 9.50, 6.75.

The estimate of cost of constructing the railroad in accordance with the above plan is:

Estimate of a four-track railroad with earth embankments through West Newton, Newtonville and Newton, with the road elevated on its present location and passing over the streets, $1,965,300.

Washington street widened to 100 feet, if land between the street and the railroad is required, $221,000; if land intervening is not acquired, $589,000.

Acquisition of remaining land and buildings between the railroad and Washington street widened to 100 feet, $420,800.

If the railroad were constructed with masonry walls instead of earth slopes the estimated cost is $2,251,500, and the acquisition of remaining land and buildings between the railroad and Washington street widened to 100 feet, $515,000.

The plan of separating the grades by the depression of the roadbed at its present location, and the elevation of the highways, streets and ways, where necessary, with suitable highway bridges, has also been considered by the commission. The streets would have to be raised as follows, beginning at Rowe street and continuing easterly:

Rowe street, 18.5 feet; Washington, 9.0; Putnam, 9; Highland, 7.7; Chestnut, 7.7; Felton's crossing, 7.3; Allston street, 3.3; Lowell, 3.9; Walnut, 3.3; Harvard, 4.9; Church, 4.7; Richardson, 4.2; street at subway, 3.3; Centre, 2.5; Washington, 2.3.

The estimate of cost of constructing the railroad in accordance with this plan is as follows:

Estimate of a four-track railroad with earth slopes through West Newton, Newtonville and Newton, with the road depressed on its present location and passing under the streets, $2,000,300.

With masonry walls along its entire length instead of earth slopes, $2,370,000. After a study of the three plans described, the commission sums up as follows:

It must be evident to every impartial observer that, by making radical changes in the location of the railroad, a complete revolution in the values of property in Newton would be effected. It is a thing that cannot be estimated in dollars and cents, but it would undoubtedly result in great hardship and serious loss in the one case, while it would immediately benefit land owners in the other.

Changes of this character should not be made in a city or town where real estate values are settled, unless it is imperatively necessary.

In this case, it is not necessary. The same result can be obtained by changes on the present location; and we are of the opinion that whatever changes are made should be confined to the present line of the railroad.

The estimates of cost show that the expense of depressing the tracks would be somewhat in excess of that for raising them. This in itself is not a sufficient reason for recommending this method of abolishing the crossings. There are many other things to be considered.

For instance, the comfort and convenience of people taking and leaving the trains should be considered. The forms located below the general level of the ground are apt to be damp and unpleasant waiting places. It is very much more difficult to maintain proper drainage of the roadbed of the railroad in a long, continuous cut than on an embankment. The cost of operating the road in winter is much greater where the tracks are depressed than where they are elevated.

It may be urged that a railroad embankment passing through the centre of a town is unsightly. But this need not be so, and would not be so if properly constructed. We have provided for handsome bridges over the streets, and wherever walls are used, that the masonry shall be not only substantial, but shall be laid in such a manner as to present a good appearance. Where walls are not used, we recommend that slopes be sodded or sown with grass seed, which shall be properly cared for afterward.

These and other reasons of greater or less importance, together with the fact that the cost would be less, have influenced us in concluding that the proper thing for the parties interested to do is to elevate the tracks substantially as recommended in the plans accompanying this report, to construct arch bridges of masonry or steel spanning the streets, which should be noiseless and watertight, and to provide stations that shall be attractive, convenient and comfortable.

In fact, that all the general details set forth in that portion of the report referring to elevating the tracks on the present location should be followed, especially as the changes in the street grades are very much less by this plan than by any other.

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

As a matter of convenience, a summary of the estimates is given below:

Big Bicycle Tournament Decoration Day.

The Massachusetts Division, L. A. W., assisted by the Associated Cycling Clubs, will hold their meet at the new Waltham Bicycle Park, May 30. The valuable prizes will be distributed as follows:

One mile novice (Division championship)—1st prize, gold medal; 2d, silver medal; 3d, bronze medal.

One-third mile invitation (special permission chairman of the National racing board)—diamond, $150; filled travelling bag, $40; meerschaum pipe, $25.

One mile handicap (Division championship)—rolltop desk, $50; field glasses, $25; cyclometer, racing shoes.

One mile invitation (special permission chairman National racing board) 1st prize—safety, $150; candlestick, $35; oak table, $15.

Two mile team race (Division championship) upright piano, easy chair, wall pump and fittings.

One mile invitation, 2d heat—safety, $150; banquet lamp, $30; 3d prize to be announced.

Two mile handicap—safety, $140; tennis suit, $25; suit of clothes, $20; dress suit case, $12; shoes, $3.

One mile invitation, 3d and final heat—safety, $150; diamond, $100; gold watch, $50.

When you speak or even think of saving medicine, how quickly Hood's Sarsaparilla comes into your mind. Take it now.

I suffered from acute inflammation in my nose and throat for a week at a time. I could not see. I used Ely's Cream Balm and in a few days I was cured. It is wonderful how quick it helped me.—Mrs. George S. Judson, Hartford, Conn.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE $15 LONG DISTANCE BOYS AND GIRLS. OUR ART CATALOGUE gives description of both the Boys' and Girls' patterns, with letters from purchasers, and is sent Free of charge to all applicants. Bradshaw Mfg. Co. 615 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Financial.

NORTHERN INVESTMENT COMPANY.

Regular Dividends 6 1/2% Per Annum.

INVESTS IN CHOICEST BUSINESS CORNERS, in a large city where real estate continually increases in value and increased rentals will add to the income from year to year.

Cash Capital paid in March 1st, over $900,000.

Price of Stock 103 80-100 per share.

H. L. Warner, Pres. of Nat'l Bank of Sioux City (Capital One Million) Says:

"Everything considered, I can assure you that, in my judgment, the NORTHERN INVESTMENT COMPANY has shown great wisdom and foresight in the selection of its real estate in this city, and it seems to me almost impossible that its investments here should prove otherwise than safe and profitable."

For further particulars apply at the Company's Office, 7 to 11 Adams Street, Boston, Mass., where Plans and Photographs can be seen, to GEORGE LEONARD, Pres.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

INCORPORATED 1831. Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. Banking Rooms in Newton National Bank Building. JAMES F. C. HYDE, President.

JOHN WARD, Vice President. TRUSTEES: Joseph N. Bacon, Jas. F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lane, Francis Murdock, Samuel M. Jackson, William Dix, William C. Strong, Charles A. Miner, Elliott J. Hyde, John Ward, Jas. T. Pulsifer, Warren P. Fyler and Harry W. Mason.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT: JAMES F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock, Charles A. Miner, Clerk and Auditor.

JOHN W. MASON, Attorney. Quarter days, TENTH day January, April, July and October. Dividends declared the Tuesday following January 10th and July 10th, are payable the next day.

West Newton Savings Bank.

INCORPORATED 1887. West Newton, Mass. AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President. JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer. ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Prescott C. Bridgman, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Cate, Adams K. Tolson, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter.

Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m., 1.30 to 4 p. m. Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

JOHN N. BACON, President. B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

Business Hours: From 9 A. M., to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M. On Saturdays, from 9 A. M., to 2 P. M.

JOHN N. BACON, President. B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

Livery Stables.

Daniels' Nonantum Stables. HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR. Livery and Hacking.

Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.

Landaus and Hacks, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING. Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses, and comfortable stables; careful and prompt attention. Telephone 19-3.

GEO. W. BUSH.

Livery, Hack and Boarding Stable. Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses. Hacks at depot for conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages at for business or pleasure.

ELMWOOD STREET.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION. Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable. (Established 1861.)

Barge, "City of Newton." Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."

S. F. CATE, West Newton. Carpenters and Builders.

G. W. RIGBY, Carpenter and Builder. ALL JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO. Shop: WASHINGTON ST., opp. WABAN NEWTON MASS.

S. K. MacLEOD, Carpenter and Builder. Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.

Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's Work a specialty. Shop, Centre Place, opp. Public Library. Residence, Boyd street, near Jewett. P. O. Box, 650, NEWTON, MASS.

Plumbers.

M. C. HIGGINS.

PRACTICAL PLUMBER. Sanitary Engineer. (Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)

Sumner's Block, Newton. PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES. Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city, perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

ESTABLISHED IN 1896. T. J. HARTNETT, PLUMBER & SANITARY ENGINEER.

Iron Drainage and Ventilation a Specialty. Jobbing promptly attended to.

375 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON.

Veterinary Surgeon. MADISON BUNKER, D.V.S.

Veterinary Surgeon. BUSH'S STABLE, ELMWOOD ST., NEWTON, MASS.

Telephone connection.

R. J. BARTON, VETERINARY SURGEON. Graduate of the Royal Veterinary College, London, England.

Horses examined as to Soundness previous to purchase. Hospital for dogs, (25 years practical experience), Office, Centre street, cor. Trowbridge, NEWTON CENTRE, MASS.

Telephone 34-2, Newton Highlands.

LUMBER.

GILKEY & STONE, ARSENAL ST., WATERTOWN.

C. A. HARRINGTON, LUMBER.

IN MEMORY OF BISHOP BROOKS.

NEW HALL FOR GRACE CHURCH CHOIR GUILD OF NEWTON.

Ground was broken Monday afternoon for the building for the choir guild of Grace church parish, Newton, to be erected in memory of Bishop Brooks. In connection with the exercises it was expected that Rev. Leighton Parks, D. D., rector of Emmanuel church, Boston, would deliver an address on the "Life and Work of Phillips Brooks." That feature was, however, necessarily omitted, owing to the sudden illness of Dr. Parks, who was confined to his home by a severe cold. A telegram from Dr. Parks, announcing his inability to be present and expressing his regrets, was read by Rev. G. W. Shinn, D. D., rector of Grace church.

Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather, the character of the ceremonies, and especially the significance attached to any movement seeking to honor and perpetuate the memory of the distinguished prelate, brought out a large congregation.

A 4 o'clock choir entered from the east door, singing the hymn, "O, What the Joy and the Glory Must Be," as they marched to their respective stations on either side of the chancel. Following this processional hymn, prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Shinn, after which the chorists rendered the anthem, "The Sun Shall Be No More Thy Light by Day."

Rev. Dr. Shinn next spoke of the enforced absence of Rev. Dr. Parks. He said that it had been impossible to fill his place. It would be difficult, indeed, he added, to fill the place of one who had prepared himself especially to speak upon such an occasion. "I am reminded, however," he continued, "that no formal address is necessary to perpetuate the memory of Phillips Brooks. His memory is enshrined in the hearts of the people. Here in this parish, while taking part in the exercises of the Grace church choir."

HIS CLOSING WORDS WERE SPOKEN.

"Some significant sentences that were spoken by him at that time have since been quoted by the clergy and press of the country in commenting upon his life and character. Of special interest to the chorists of Grace church were those words, since often repeated, 'Go through life singing the glorious songs of God, making life richer and richer in the love and fear of God.' It was his idea that one should avoid the tendency of going through life grumbling and unhappy. He pictured the joy and happiness of a cheerful disposition, and that thought was embodied in those words: 'Go through life singing the songs of God.'"

"It was only a short time ago that our beloved bishop passed away. Many tributes have been paid in recognition of his Christian character and the noble efforts of his life. The most eloquent tongues have been inspired. The collection of published reminiscences from those who had known him would comprise material for several volumes. One of the most interesting of the many articles that have been written comes from the pen of Rev. Mr. Day, a Methodist clergyman. 'Phillips Brooks,' he said, 'was enshrined in the memory of the times. He will live in the hearts of the people. Marvelously he brought out the truths of the gospel. He touched the hearts of all classes. The scholar, he is of us; the unlettered, he is of us; the poor, he is of us; the rich, he is of us. All men of all classes and conditions claimed him.'"

Rev. Dr. Shinn concluded his address with a poem, written by a member of Grace church parish, and suggested by Bishop Brooks' last address.

The hymn for the festival of St. Philip and St. James, "There Is One Way, and Only One," was fluently sung by the chorists after the close of Rev. Dr. Shinn's address.

The ceremony of breaking the ground was next proceeded with. The chorists marched from the church through the grounds to the site of the proposed memorial building, followed by the clergy and congregation.

A hollow square was formed, practically enclosing the lot of land selected for the structure southeast of the church. Rev. Dr. Shinn, the church wardens and the president of the choir guild, Mr. E. S. Hamblen, turned the first sods, and the spade was then consigned to the members of the choir, each in turn throwing up a shovelful of dirt. The prayer for God's blessing upon the work was offered by Rev. Dr. Shinn.

The thought of a guild hall has been in the minds of members of Grace church parish for some time. It has been regarded as a necessity to provide additional accommodations for instruction for the singers of the choir and the meetings of the choir guild. The choir is much larger than was originally intended, and now numbers 52 members. The choir guild has 90 members. The consequence is that the parish house is inadequate for the accommodation of so many, with the added demands of the other church organizations.

After Bishop Brooks' last address was delivered to the choir it was determined to push the project of a guild hall toward completion, incorporating the idea of a memorial. The work was at once proceeded with and greatly aided through the generous contributions of members of the parish and others and by Mr. W. P. Wentworth, who gave his services in getting out the design and the preparations of plans of the building.

The building is of gothic architecture, with a central tower, and is in the form of a Maltese cross. Its dimensions are 39x55 feet. There is a large room for rehearsals and meetings, and a smaller apartment for the uses of the officers of the choir guild. The interior finish will be in the natural wood, with tinted walls and ceilings. The windows will be stained glass, and four of them are to be given by the confirmation class of 1892. The others will be gifts of private individuals. Work on the new building is to be commenced at once.

High School Debate.

On the 18th of May, at 7.45 o'clock, a joint debate will be held in the lower Town Hall, Brookline, between the Newton High School Debating Society and the Brookline High School Debating Club. The subject for discussion is: "Resolved, that the conduct of the strikers in the recent Homestead trouble was unjustifiable." Newton has the affirmative and Brookline the negative side. Messrs. Brewer, Boynton and Burgess will speak for Newton. They are all clear, forcible speakers, and will undoubtedly make it interesting for the Brookline boys. The B. H. S. Debating Club has chosen William G. Nash, Marshal Stearns and Neils Christensen to represent it in the debate.

WHERE STANDS THE BAY STATE?

HER EXHIBITS IN MANUFACTURES, MACHINERY, ELECTRICITY AND EDUCATION.

Massachusetts at the fair ought to assume her proper position among the states of the Union. There is something of a mineral and agricultural exhibit, but of course no one expects the old Bay state to compete with Nevada or Montana in minerals or with Kansas and Dakota in cereals. In horticulture the state will appear to advantage and her art exhibit will not be disappointing. The carriage manufacturers of Massachusetts, her bicycles, her boat-builders, her harness-makers, her railroads and a thousand and one other interests will add to the pleasure and profit of a visit to the transportation building.

The cities of Boston, Gloucester and New Bedford will each contribute toward making the exhibit within the fish and fisheries building a pronounced success. A stroll through the electricity building will immediately convince one of the high rank held by Massachusetts in the field of electricity. In electric lighting, in electric motors, in the telephone and in the many other ingenious machines of which electricity is the motive power, the commonwealth is well to the fore. It is, however, in the three great departments of manufactures, machinery and liberal arts that the commonwealth will make her grand display. By those exhibits which mark the advances in inventions which bear testimony to the skill and intelligence of the mechanic, and which make prominent the far-reaching influence of education and its many varied branches, the state of Massachusetts will establish her position as among the most important and influential communities of the world. Her factories will furnish over one quarter of the exhibits in the textile department of the United States.

When consideration is given, however, to the part which Massachusetts will play in the great department of liberal arts, one finds himself surrounded by difficulties in attempting adequately to tell the story within the limits of an article such as this. It is not too much to predict that in the many bureaus which together compose the great department, the Bay state will by right take a position second to no other state or inferior to no other country. Be it in hygiene and sanitation, in charities and correction, in literature or in education. Who so ignorant as not to know that no state in the Union can compare with correctional work? In the department of education the state will surely meet the full expectation of those who believe that she is the state where she has always stood, in the front rank of all peoples. The best tribute which can be paid to her acknowledged pre-eminence in educational work is the fact that her exhibit will occupy about one-ninth of all the space allotted to education. Her university and her colleges, her public and her technological schools will be represented as never before.

CRICKET.

THE ALBIONS OF HIGHLANDVILLE WIN A GAME AT NEWTON.

At Newton, Saturday, the Albions of Highlandville defeated the Newtons by a score of 52 to 30. Winkley, Bastow and Sheehan did good work for the home team, while Jessop, Beach, Carter and Crisp did well for the winners.

ALBIONS.

Dawson, c. Winkley, b. Bastow.....	0
Ray, b. Bastow.....	0
Carter, b. Winkley.....	15
Crisp, c. D. Sheehan, b. Bastow.....	11
Farrand, b. Bastow.....	0
Thorp, b. Bastow.....	0
Jessop, c. Leonard, b. Winkley.....	2
Beach, not out.....	8
Godfrey, b. Bastow.....	0
Tomlinson, b. Winkley.....	0
Lyons, c. and b. Winkley.....	0
Extras.....	0
Total.....	52
NEWTONS.
Winkley, b. Beach.....	11
Stones, b. Jessop.....	0
Dyson, c. Tomlinson, b. Beach.....	1
D. Sheehan, b. Winkley.....	0
Mockford, b. Beach.....	0
Hatten, c. Crisp, b. Jessop.....	4
Farrall, b. Jessop.....	0
Stevens, b. Beach.....	12
Steward, not out.....	0
Leg bye.....	1
Total.....	30

Smart Cows.

Among all the stories of animal intelligence none is more noteworthy than that which was told in debate in the House the other day on the bill to reduce the standard of milk. If it does not prove our Massachusetts cows to be of the highest grade of intelligence, then our cows don't know how to read, that's all. It is part of the law regarding the standard of milk that the liquid may contain in May and June only 12 per cent of milk solids, instead of 13 as at other seasons of the year, and still not render the owner liable to prosecution. It is said to be a fact, established by over 100,000 analyses of milk, that the quality of milk always drops every year just the permissible 1 per cent between April 30 and May 1. That does not prove that the cows know when the law is off, nothing can, for it is impossible that there should be collusion between the milk dealers, of course, to weaken the standard of purity of this article of bibulation.—Springfield Republican.

The Sunday Herald's Great Issue.

No student of the legitimate development of modern journalism can fail to recognize and admire the notable issue of the Sunday Herald, and the new Post takes pleasure in extending its congratulations to the editor and the publishers of this really remarkable newspaper. It contains sixty pages—the largest newspaper ever printed in Boston—and there was not an unattractive page in the lot. The illuminated cover was superb. There were 261 1-4 columns of high-class advertising—the largest amount that ever appeared, to our knowledge, in any newspaper ever issued anywhere. This was a fitting climax to a month of big business wherein the Herald led its contemporaries in this city by a large amount of advertising.

Nevertheless, the most notable feature of the issue was the fact that the interests of the reader of news and special articles did not suffer, as so often happens in special editions, from the in-roads of the advertisers. There was the making of a half-dozen good magazines in the Sunday Herald. The Post, itself a rapidly growing property, is not so blinded by prejudice that it hesitates to pay this tribute to a record-breaking feat of modern journalism.—Boston Post.

THE SPARROWS.

Outside my garret window there's a roof,
And there the lively sparrows love to come
In wintry days, eager to get a crumb.
Though feathered warm, in brown and gray,
Not poor
Are they 'gainst hunger. From a ledge aloof
They flurry down, alert and frolicsome,
And then again they're sober-eyed and glum,
Anxious that I should give for their behoof.
They are abused by some, I freely own;
And when I gave food I have seen them flare Away awhile, as if they had a fear
Of unexpected harm, but ne'er a stone
Would I throw at these gossipers of the air
That the dull weather fills with chatty cheer.
—Edward S. Cremer in New York Sun.

The Modern Shave.

"The nose pulling barber is hard to find now unless one goes into the cheap shops," said George D. Hamilton of Memphis. "There was a time not so many years ago when a barber would take you by the nose if he had to shave your upper lip and almost pull the protuberance up by the roots. A friend of mine told me he went into a shop once, and the barber asked him if he would have a thumb or a spoon shave, meaning thereby that if my friend was fastidious about having the barber jab his thumb in the corner of his mouth to extend his jaw he would use a spoon for that purpose. But those days are gone. Even the talking barber is a missing link between the new and the old tonsorial schools. All the disagreeable features of a shave have disappeared, and the operation is now smooth and pleasant. The only people who find anything disagreeable in the process are those who shave themselves or who get a shave in a 5-cent shop."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Minnie's Yearly Expenses.

"Minnie can afford to marry a poor man," said a friend of Minnie's mother, speaking of the daughter's evident liking for an impecunious young lawyer. "That is just where you are mistaken," answered Minnie's mamma. "She has $6,000 a year of her own, and she spends every penny of it upon her clothes. Her dresses last year cost about $4,000, her hats and bonnets about $500, her lingerie another $500, and besides there are her jackets, gloves and all the other accessories of the toilet. And she is no exception in her world; most of her friends spend quite as much and many a great deal more. No wonder that young men cannot afford to marry nowadays and only rich girls are in demand, though—if men did but know it—it is more expensive to marry an heiress than a girl who has been accustomed to manage with very little."—New York Tribune.

A Queer Business in China.

In China a baldheaded man of almost any age can within the space of 48 hours be transformed into a blooming youth, as far as the hair is concerned; or a beardless youth of 18 can be made to look like 60 within the same length of time by having planted upon his face a genuine gray beard four feet long; or an old maid without eyebrows can be transformed into a girl of sweet 16 by being fitted out with a beautiful pair of brand new eyebrows or eyelashes of any color. It is not a very costly operation in any case, although it is a little painful, but then as it is only temporary, what matter does it make to have beauty restored to you if you do have to suffer a little pain for only 24 hours or even 48 hours. Without it you may have to be poor and homely all your life.—Wong Chin Foo in St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Population of the Moon.

There is plenty of authority for believing that there is a man in the moon; in fact, there is authority for believing that there are women and other animals there. Dante declares that Cain was banished to the moon, and that he can be seen there at any time. Chaucer declares that the man in the moon was guilty of larceny, and that he carries a thornbush. Shakespeare loads him with thorns and gives him a dog. According to the general version, he was banished there for gathering sticks on Sunday, and the Germans have amplified this theory by giving him a woman who had been caught churning butter on Sunday.—New York Telegram.

Disgusted With Chicken Raising.

A Frenchman living in this city has been an enthusiastic poultryman, but this season finds him disgusted with the business. Meeting a friend the other day, he said: "You know that Schooin pullet wai I buy some day las' week? she's a rooster; she crow like every ting dis morning. I cut his head off and have her for my supper next Sunday morning."—Springfield Graphic.

Ointments from Whales.

Spermoceti, which is often used internally in catarrh and other affections, as well as in the form of ointments for wounds and excoriations of the skin, is obtained from the head of a monster of the whale kind which abounds in the south seas, while the highly esteemed ambergris is only a condition of disease in the same animal.—London Tit-Bits.

An Italian Woman's Earrings.

Some persons profess to be able to guess approximately from what part of Italy a woman comes by the length of her earrings. Italian earrings lengthen as one goes southward, and in the extreme south of Italy the earrings of the women reach almost to the shoulders.—Exchange.

A manifest bit of wisdom is to refrain from criticism of food. The sauce may not be quite piquant enough, the salad may be wilted, but in the name of decency say nothing about it in either case.

The carnation by reason of its real merit has since 1860 rapidly forced itself into an important place in the flower trade of the northern and central parts of our country.

Professor Bell, of telephone fame, is a large, strongly built man who looks as though he enjoys life. He has a most contagious smile.

It was not until 1890 that the New England mackerel fisheries were prosecuted with any appreciable success.

A Tempest Over Rocking Chairs.

Boston is much stirred over the refusal of the commissioners of public institutions to accept a present of rocking chairs for the aged and infirm pauper women at Rainsford island. A fund of $700 had been subscribed by private benevolence, and the chairs had been bought and shipped to the island, but the commissioners would not let the old women have them, and they remain on the wharf. The mayor of Boston, who appoints the commissioners, wrote a note requesting them to accept the chairs. The commissioners still refused, and referred the matter to the common council. The common council voted unanimously in favor of accepting the chairs, and the aldermen concurred with only one dissenting voter.

Strong pressure was, however, brought to bear upon the council and aldermen by the commissioners. Some of the aldermen were taken down the harbor to Rainsford island and came back reporting that there was already one rocking chair for every three women, and more chairs would be a needless luxury. The result was that the council and aldermen were induced to reconsider their vote and refer the whole matter to the committee on public institutions, which means shelving it indefinitely.

The insolent and unreasonable behavior of the commissioners is understood to be due to a grudge against Mrs. Alice N. Lincoln, who was active in raising the money for the rocking chairs, and who has aroused the ire of the commissioners by previous efforts to better the condition of the paupers and to reform certain abuses which have caused the loss of more than one life.—Boston Woman's Journal.

His Pronunciation Fatal.

One of the comorants who, with broad wings aslant, are sweeping the political sea just now in quest of food walked into the office of a western correspondent last night and said, "I am from California, and I am after an office."

"Sit down," said the newspaper man; "glad to do anything for a Californian. What part of the state are you from?"

"I," he said, "am from San Joos."

"What?"

"San Joos," said the entertainer, "I pity you. The name of that town is San Josay. Take a couple of nights off, come around both nights, and I will endeavor to coach you a little on Bret Harte nomenclature. You might get tangled up with San Joaquin, Cohahulla, Cajon, Calabasas, Escondido, Gualala, Manzanita, Nijoqui, San Mateo, San Miguel, San Luis Obispo, San Pablo, Santa Margarita, Santa Maria, Santa Monica, Santa Paula, Santa Ynez—all the male and female saints in the calendar. You might go to the White House and attempt to tell Private Secretary Thurber that you are from San Aguardienteindolcedelsud. He is dead on to all of those names. Come and see me again before you tackle him."—Washington Post.

Reform in Liquor Traffic.

On and after May 15 next licenses issued to storekeepers in this city to sell liquor not to be drunk on the premises will cost $200 a year instead of $50 as heretofore. The new rate, which applies to those whose sales aggregate less than $2,500 a year, was agreed upon by the excise board on Tuesday. Its adoption is a salutary, practicable and proper measure of excise reform.

It is salutary because it will tend to restrict the evil of surreptitious drinking in grocery, provision and drug stores which are patronized by women, and in which the charge for liquor is added to the cost of household commodities. It is practicable, because it will augment the city's excise revenues without a corresponding increase in the number of saloons or in the amount of liquor sold.

It is proper, because it will do away with the unfair distinction which has heretofore existed between ordinary saloons where liquor is sold openly and stores where the same article is sold privately.—New York Sun.

Colonel Shepard's Kindness.

The late Colonel Elliott F. Shepard of New York is gratefully remembered by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church of Lafayette, Ind. He was trainbound in that city one day, and on inquiring his way to church a boy pointed out the First Presbyterian and incidentally remarked that it was to be sold for debt. This influenced Colonel Shepard to attend services there, and he dropped a $20 bill on the contribution plate. After the services he made the acquaintance of the pastor, and before leaving the city he deposited with him a letter which he enjoined should not be opened until the next Thursday evening prayer meeting. This letter contained a check for $500. With this as a nucleus the congregation lifted a debt of something over $6,000.—Indianapolis News.

Lime Juice and the Pole.

We are glad to be able to state that, warned by the fate of the Nares expedition, Dr. Nansen has determined to carry with him an ample supply of concentrated lime juice in his arctic expedition. Notwithstanding the angry feelings which were aroused some years ago by our demonstration that the failure of the Nares expedition was largely due to the neglect of the lime juice ration and the consequent outbreak of scurvy in the exploring party which was aiming at the north pole, it is now an accepted axiom that the "north pole will never be reached without lime juice," so that the concentration of that requisite to economize space and carriage will be a matter of great importance.—British Medical Journal.

"The Line of White."

Trousers are very wide. Morning coats are single or double breasted sacks or 3-button cutaways. Vests are cut very high, and with black clothes many gentlemen fill in the space above with a square folded scarf, which is apt to be black also, and separate the scarf and vest with a line of white—I forget what the men call this band—placed inside the vest.—London Letter.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

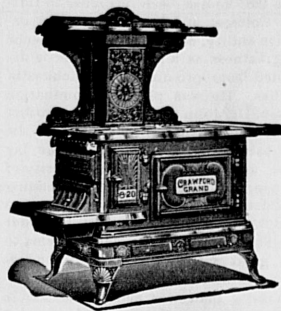

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City, Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kila Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., "The Winthrop," 135th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK.

Ranges,
Parlor Stoves,
Water Heaters,
Steam Boilers.

AT FACTORY STORE 107

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.

GALEN STREET, WATERTOWN, MASS.

TELEPHONE NO. 30, NEWTON.

—ALL KINDS—

Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work.
FURNACES AND RANGES REPAIRED.

We have a few Second-Hand Ranges at a Bargain

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS,

STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY

MAYNARD MASS

On and after July 2nd next, our Salesroom will close at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday.

THEODORE L. MASON,

Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American

Watches always in stock.

Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather and American Clocks a specialty.

All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Eliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

J. H. LOOKER,

French Cleansing and Dyeing

Dry Cleansing and Repairing a specialty.

Particular attention paid to

Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine

Linen and Hand Laundry

Work of all kinds.

No. 21 Carlton Street,

NEWTON, MASS.

Slate, Copper, Tin and Gravel

ROOFING.

Special attention given to repairing.

John Farquhar's Sons,

Nos. 20 and 22 East St., Boston.

Established 1836. Telephone No. 162.

CHAUTAUQUA NURSERY CO

A fine and healthy stock of Fine Specimens of Agents Wanted.

Cultivated by us. Address: Chautauqua Nursery Co., PORTLAND, ME.

Railroads.

Boston Revere Beach and Lynn R. R.

Fall and Winter Time-Table, Sept. 11, 92.

Leave Boston for Lynn at 6.50, 7.30, 8, 8.30,

10, 11 A.M., 12 M., 1, 2, 3, 3.30, 4 (Express), 4.30

(Express), 5.30, 6 (Express), 6.30, 7.30, 8, 9.30

10.20 and 11.25 P.M.

Leave Lynn for Boston at 6.10, 6.50, 7 (Express)

7.30 (Express), 8 (Exp.), 8.30 (Exp.), 9, 9.30

(Exp.), 10, 11 A.M., 12 M., 1, 2, 2.45, 3.15, 3.45,

4.15, 4.45, 5.15, 5.50, 6.45, 7.15, 8.15, 9.15 and 10.15

P.M.

SUNDAY TRAINS.

Leave Boston for Lynn every hour from 10 A.M.

to 9 P.M., inclusive, and at 10.15 P.M.

Leave Lynn for Boston every hour from 9 A.M.

to 8 P.M., inclusive, and at 9.30 P.M.

All trains stop at West Lynn.

JOHN A. FENNO, C. A. HAMMOND

G. T. A. Supl.

Boston, Sept. 11, 1892.

WEST END STREET

RAILWAY COMPANY.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

WEEK DAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 5.30 A.M., then every thirty minutes until 9.30 P.M.

Returning leave Bowdoin square 7.00 A.M.

then every thirty minutes until 11.00 P.M.

SUNDAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 7.00 A.M. then every

thirty minutes until 3.50 P.M.

Returning leave Bowdoin square 8.30 A.M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P.M.

First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.3

A.M. C. S. SERGEANT,

6 ly General Manager

PURE - MILK

supplied daily from

PROSPECT VALLEY FARM

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

65 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN,

Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

GRADE CROSSING COMMISSION.

The report of the grade crossing commission is an exhaustive affair, and considers in detail the three plans for the removal of the grade crossings which have been submitted. The plan for moving the tracks is treated at length, the great number of street crossings shown and the reasons pro and con stated very fairly, but the commission concludes that the objections are so weighty, especially in the matter of unsettling values, that the plan is not feasible.

The depression of the tracks in their present location is also treated in detail, but the commission finds that is not advisable, and recommends the elevation of the tracks in their present location. Their reasons are fully stated, and their decision is in accordance with the general sentiment of the public.

If this report is to decide the matter, as seems probable, there is now nothing in the way of the city coming to an agreement with the railroad company, and having the work pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

The commission has drawn up plans for the work, which contain many new features, which have much to recommend them. One change is to have the two tracks for through traffic in the center, and one local track on each side, so that passengers can step directly from the station platform on to the car platform, without crossing the tracks, and a sub-way could connect the two. As the stations at Newton, Newtonville and West Newton will have to be rebuilt, this could be done without much additional trouble or expense.

The grade at first proposed is not materially changed, but the commission gets over the difficulty of building a stone arch at streets which cross at an angle, by recommending steel bridges for such crossings, made water tight and so solid as to be noiseless, with stone arches at the other crossings, all the bridges to be made as ornamental as the nature of the case will allow.

These are the main features of the report, which printed in full would make about twelve columns of the GRAPHIC, and those who have time to devote to it, can obtain a copy at City Hall. A full summary is given on another page, containing the main points, all that most readers will care for.

The City Engineer has also made his report on the widening of Washington street, which is a matter more nearly affecting the public. The grade crossings must be changed anyway, and the effect of this has been discounted long ago, but the widening of Washington street is something that will affect so many property owners, and is an improvement so urgently needed that it is hoped the board will take decisive action as soon as possible, so that the property owners along the street can make their plans. There is no question but that the street now is so narrow as to be in a dangerous condition.

THE RELIEF GRANTED.

The Legislature has granted the people of Newton relief in the matter of sewer assessments, and the bill granting the City Council power to amend the present sewer ordinance has passed both houses and now awaits the Governor's signature.
The chief argument for the relief was the decisive verdict given by the people at the last election, and Mayor Fenn and Alderman Bothfield of the legislative committee have left nothing undone in their efforts to carry out the wishes of the people.

It is a rather remarkable victory and shows the importance of city officials being guided by their acts in some degree by public sentiment, as the will of the people is bound to prevail in the end. Now the City Council should hasten to amend the ordinance so that the sewer assessments will not bear so heavily on people in moderate circumstances.

As a supplement to this bill the legislature has passed the act allowing the city to issue $750,000 in bonds outside of the debt limit, for the construction of sewers, which will enable the work to go on, and make those who are to enjoy the benefits in future years share some of the expense.

The scheme of the suburban railroad to build a freight line across Newton was defeated on Tuesday, in the House, by the adoption of an amendment proposed by Mr. Dwight Chester, which limited the operations of the road to their present charter, which grants them a location in the Oak Hill district only. An amendment proposed by Mr. Abbott of Watertown was also adopted, which provides that the road must pay all the expense resulting from the crossing of any highway by said road. The time for extending the road from Cook street to Roxbury is extended two years. Newton people will feel greatly relieved now that the danger of such a disfiguring structure across the most attractive part of the city is over, and the credit for this is largely due to the active fight against it made by Representatives Estabrooks and Chester. The scheme may be revived another year, or may come up again this session, but an active watch will be kept and the vigorous protests already made by the City Council of Newton, the selectmen of Watertown, and the citizens of both places will have its influence in defeating any similar schemes.

The Episcopal Convention in Boston elected Rev. Wm. Lawrence, dean of the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, to be bishop of Massachusetts.
He is 43 years of age, was born in Longwood, and graduated at Harvard in 1871.
Since 1888 he has been preacher at Harvard College, and is a man of great executive ability, combined with eloquence and greatness as a preacher. He is descended from prominent Massachusetts families. He was placed in nomination by Rev. Dr. John Cotton Brooks, brother of the late Bishop Brooks, and on the first ballot had a majority of the lay votes, and on the second a majority of the clerical vote. The other leading candidates were Bishop Hare, who was nominated by Mr. Robert H. Gardiner and Father Hall. The choice seems to give great satisfaction, and it is a fortunate thing for the diocese that a Massachusetts man was chosen, one who is in sympathy with the work here, and who is so satisfactory to all parties.

Two more street railways have been granted locations in Newton, one from Newtonville to Watertown, and the other from West Newton to Lower Falls. It is said that this is as far as the aldermen have decided to go, and that no more locations in narrow streets will be granted. The people will approve of this decision, and Newton seems now to be very fairly provided with street railway accommodations.

MR. EDWIN P. SEAVEY of Waban, in his report as a member of the commission on manual training in the schools, takes very decided ground in his report as will be seen from an extract, reprinted elsewhere in another column.

COL. J. W. COVENEY has been appointed postmaster of Boston, to succeed ex-Mayor Hart, who tendered his resignation some weeks ago.

The Right and Left.

The buttons on coats, etc., are placed on the right side and the stud of the hair in boys to the left, evidently to snit manipulation by the right hand. The great philosopher Newton records that at first he confined his astronomical observations to his right eye, but afterward he managed to train his left. But there are persons who could not do this, owing to the unequal strength of their eyes. Strange to say, the Chinese assign the place of honor to the left.

At Kunyene, in Africa, Cameron relates being introduced to the heir presumptive to the throne, the nails of whose left hand had been allowed to grow to an enormous length as a sign of high rank, proving that he was never required to perform manual labor, and also providing him with the means of tearing the meat which formed his usual diet.—Chambers' Journal.

New York Oculists Receive Large Fees.

Oculists in New York perform the most delicate surgical operations. There are two or three in the city whose incomes from their profession range above $200,000 a year and who treat thousands of patients every year. They conduct their work with the most absolute disregard of the worldly position of their patients. From many of their patients they receive no fee for their services.
Should any man in this profession refuse advice on the ground that a patient was unable to pay a fee, he would be ruined if the fact were to become known.—Cor.
St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Hypnotism in a New Light.

Hypnotism is apparently a distinct Portland fad. A nervous young lady in that city, who was to read a paper before a literary society, got a doctor to hypotize her so that she shouldn't become rattled, and the result was perfect composure during the ordeal. The literary essay quite often succeeds in hypnotizing the audience into a deliciously devitalized condition, but the idea of putting the reader to sleep is brand new.—Bangor Commercial.

The Waiter's Mistake.

He had made a hearty meal at a restaurant, and getting up he said to the waiter, "I declare if I haven't forgotten my purse!" The waiter fished up and hurled big words at him for fully three minutes before pausing for breath. When a chance came the stranger continued,
"But I have a £5 note here in my waistcoat pocket!" The waiter could not smile to save his life.—London Tit-Bits.

Instances reciting the actions of people while under the somnambulistic control are numerous in early writings on the subject, while the more modern reports are deductions rather than relations of actual occurrences.

To abstain from superfluous apologies is also the habit of discretion. There should seldom be the occasion for apology in the household, where all would do well and wisely to be constantly gentle and courteous.

Appomattox Anniversary.

Sunday, April 9, was the anniversary of the surrender of Lee at Appomattox.
Twenty-eight years have elapsed since the fall of the confederacy and the end of the civil war. During that short time the bitterness of the past between the sections has died out, and the recurrence of the anniversary saw the nation reunited whole, the grandest government and the best country on the face of the globe.

Immediately after Appomattox the south accepted the situation and went to work with a will to retrieve her lost fortunes, in which she has been remarkably successful. As an example of the efficacy of intelligent industry, the growth of the south during the last 28 years is without a parallel.—Savannah News.

The Goat to Have His Day.

The most popular place in New York,
if the cholera comes, should be Shanty-town, and the proudest animal on the island will be the goat, for Dr. Klem-perer of Berlin, after going over the subject of securing immunity against cholera, and after trying all methods of vaccination, including the swallowing of a pint of cholera bouillon, finds that the milk of an immunized goat does the work best and most easily. The price of goats has been $5 and upward. When cholera comes, this much ridiculed animal may take a position in history higher than the sacred bull of Egypt or the vaccinated calf of Jenner. Harlem, too, will become the center of New York and not an up town annex.—Medical Record.

Public Dinners Are Too Serious.

Dinners are much too serious, particularly for the speakers. In Boston, in the week ending March 18, two men dropped dead at public dinners. One of the feasts thus visited was a Tammany club dinner on St. Patrick's day, and the fatal visitation did not come until 4 o'clock in the morning. That case may have been simply one of exhausted nature, but about the other there was something almost suggestive of a judgment, for it happened at the annual supper of a Women's Christian Temperance union, and the brother who fell was a Presbyterian clergyman who had just arisen to respond to the toast,
"The Temperance Outlook."—Harper's Weekly.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes is trying by a most methodical mode of life to see how much he can prolong his ripening years. Among other things, he never rises in the morning until the temperature of his room is at just the right heat.

MARRIED.

FISKE-KIDDER—At Newton, April 20, by Rev.
John Worcester, Edward Fiske and Ethel Warren Kidder.

ROGERS-CASEY—At Newton, April 27, by Rev. J. F. Gilfeather, John Joseph Rogers and Elizabeth Casey.

COTTER-TOOMEY—At Newton, April 27, by Rev. M. Dolan, Wm. Joseph Cotter and Annie Toomey.

McGRAHAM-BUCHANAN—At Lower Falls,
April 27, by Rev. P. B. Murphy, Richard Mc-Graham and Mary Buchanan.

JEFFERSON-ALLEN—At West Newton, April 20, by Rev. J. C. Jaynes, H. E. D. Jefferson and Harriet Allen.

McHARDY-DALEY—At Newton, April 30, by Rev. J. F. Gilfeather, Geo. McHardy and Bridget Daley.

BUCKLEY-BURKE—At Newton, April 27, by Rev. M. Dolan, Cornelius Buckley, and Margaret Burke.

GINNIS-FORSYTH—At Newton, April 27, by Rev. J. J. Holmes, Robt. Ginnis and Jane Forsyth.

KELLEY-McMAHON—At Newton, April 27, by Rev. J. F. Gilfeather, Walter Kelley and Mary McMahon.

GRAY-KEEFE—At Newton, April 30, by Rev.
J. F. Gilfeather, Edward Gray and Ellen Keefe.

HAYES-LA POINT—At Newton, April 30, by Rev. J. F. Gilfeather, Joseph S. Hayes and Ann La Point.

CONLEY-PALMER—At Wellesley, April 30,
by Rev. W. Fellows, George Conley of Newton Upper Falls, and Alma French Palmer of Wellesley.

DIED.

TROFITER—At Newtonville, May 4, Edward
T. Trofiter, 62 yrs. 11 mos. 24 days.

RYDER—At Newton, April 26, Bridget M.
Ryder, 75 yrs.

BOND—At Newton Centre, April 28, Mrs. Orissa
Bond, 79 years.

NEWCOMB—At Newton, May 1, Jos. A. New-comb, 65 yrs.

KEIBE—At West Newton, May 2, Jesse M.
Keibe, 36 yrs.

HOLMES—At Newton, May 2, Amy Florence
Holmes, 17 yrs.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest United States Government Food Report.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

CORNS CURED
By Mrs. Drs. Craven and May
CHIROPODISTS AND MANICURERS.

Corns, Bunions, and all ailments of the feet,
skillfully treated at our office,
21 AVON ST., BOSTON.
Opposite Jordan & Marsh. 1 flight only.
Chiroprapist and Manicure Taught 21 lbs

CALL AT Bent's Furniture Rooms,

—FOR YOUR—

HOUSEKEEPING GOODS!
We carry one of the Largest
Stocks outside of Boston.

Carpet Work and Upholstery.

BUSINESS NOTICES

RATES—50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 25 cents each time thereafter, in advance.

Wants.

WANTED—By an experienced child's nurse, a position to take care of children, or to care for an invalid lady. Address 28, 11
Morse street. 31 it

WANTED—Board for three adults in Wards
One or Seven, about June 1. Private family preferred. Best References. Address Board, Graphic office. 31 it

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework, for small family. Apply 135
Vernon street. 31 it

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Apply at 18 Hovey Street, Newton. 30 it

WANTED—A young man as assistant civil engineer. Inquire of A. S. N. Estes, C. E., Central Block, Newtonville. 30-31

For Sale.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—One house, all modern improvements, 11 rooms, lawn, shade trees, etc. Four minutes from station, five minutes from church and schools. 15 A. White, Newton Centre. 31 it

FOR SALE—New 9 room house, Colonial style, finishing every convenience, hard wood floor, decorations of the finest, very large closets, laundry, electric appliances, etc. Four minutes from station and stores. Terms easy. D. A.
White, Newton Centre. 31 it

CARRIAGE FOR SALE—A family carriage, extension top, in best of repair and good order, price about one-third of new cost. Address Box 327 Auburndale or see Carter at Lee's Hotel stable. 11 it

FOR SALE—A new pattern top buggy, used one year, with high spring back and side curtains. Just from the paint shop, and the easiest riding buggy in the city. Price $100.
Address Bargain, Graphic office. 31 it

FOR SALE—Seven houses in Newton Centre.
Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 30

WEST NEWTON—Shaw Street, house of 11
rooms, modern conveniences, city water, sewer, 2700 feet land, near depot. See Mrs.
Lucas or H. F. King, West Newton. 30-31

FOR SALE—A two seated second hand carry-all, in fine order, cost $300 and now offered at half price by A. W. Ward, Carriage Maker, West Newton. 31 it

MILK ROUTE—For sale in the City of Newton. Money in it for somebody. Apply to Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 28

To Let.

TO LET—Very pleasant large furnished rooms on Brighton Hill. Convenient to Hotel Hunnewell. References required. Address 177
Washington Street. 31 it

TO LET—In Waltham, boarding house 21
Robbins Street, near Watokery and fine open rooms, large dining room. Steam heat, all modern improvements. Inquire 143 Crescent Street, Reference Required. 31 it

TO RENT—House of 10 rooms on Elmwood street. Apply to H. R. Coffin. 11 it

TO LET—At Newtonville, an apartment house, also a suite of rooms for housekeeping, all modern conveniences. Curtis Abbot,
5 Tremont St., Boston. 23

TO LET—On Walnut Street, house of eleven rooms, wholly or partially furnished, fine open fire places, new furnace and plumbing. Every modern convenience. Opposite ex-Gov. Claflin estate. Moderate rent. Address Box 255, Newtonville. 30

TO RENT—A farm with good buildings, near
Newton Centre. Also 9 houses in Newton
Centre. Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 30

TO LET—Near New depot, a nice house for two families, six rooms and bath room for each, also gas, furnace, open fire place, screens and double windows. Low rent to small family.
Also for the summer, a new house of ten rooms, nicely furnished, every convenience. Address
W. Graphic Office. 30-31

TO LET—Newton Highlands, sunny house of 10 rooms, choice location; modern fine open fire places, new furnace and plumbing. Every modern convenience. Opposite ex-Gov. Claflin estate. Moderate rent. Address Box 255, New-
tonville. 30

TO RENT—A nice house, 8 or 10 minutes from station, 9 rooms, bath and furnace. $20 per month. To the right family, on long term. One 5 minutes from station, modern conveniences, $350 per year. Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre.
27

TO LET—House of seven rooms and bath room
Inquire at 114 Newtonville Avenue. 27 it

TO LET—Cottage of 5 rooms on Cabot street, Newtonville. Rent, $12.00 per month. Also Tenement of 4 rooms. Apply to D. F. O'Sullivan, Cabot St. 26 it

TO LET—A small house, all conveniences, supplied with double windows and wire screens, 19 Boston St., Newton, Apply to Bruce
R. Ware, 200 A, Devonshire St., Boston. 20 it

TO LET—A comfortably furnished room on the same floor with bath room. Suitable for one or two ladies or gentleman and wife. Apply at 10 Avon Place. 17 it

TO LET—Shops for mechanical purposes, near Washington street railroad crossing. Apply to P. A. Murray. 27 it

TO LET—One-half double house, 3 minutes from depot, 10 rooms and bath, furnace, etc. Good garden. Apply to J. B. Turner, Newtonville, Mass. 49 it

Lost, Found, &c.

LOST—In Newtonville, Monday evening or Tuesday, a black pocketbook containing a sum of money in $1s, and papers, finder will be liberally rewarded by returning to F. L. Tainter Newtonville Square, News stand. 31

Miscellaneous.

CARPETS CLEANED—By hand and put down. Also Lawn Mowing done satisfactorily. Terms reasonable. Good reference Address, Bernard Connolly, Newtonville, Mass.
17-25

OFFICE HOURS of Secretary of the Association of Charities, Monday 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. 9 to 10 every week-day. Fridays and Saturdays 7.30 to 8.30 p. m. 1 it

Shirts Made to Order
By E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.

A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c; Neckbands, 15c; Wristbands, 15c; Cuffs, 30c; Collars 25c; Centre
Plait 25c.
Badly fitting shirts made to fit well

MRS. E. A. SMITH,

MILLINERY!

202 Moody St., opp. Walnut St.

WALTHAM, MASS.

ESTIMATES

On all kinds of Printing cheerfully furnished at the GRAPHIC Office.

Seashore Lots
at Wessagussett

On the site of the second settlement of white men on New England soil, on the south shore of Boston Harbor, 8 miles from Boston. Beautiful and attractive now, as it was when settled in 1623. The best place accessible to the towns of Eastern Massachusetts to spend the summer months. A summer home at Wessagussett will prove a splendid investment—because it will save doctor's bills, give your wife and children new life, and increase daily in value. A lot is the first step.

POINTS of interest about WESSAGUSSETT.

Good Bathing Beach. No mud flats.
Boat landing at all stages of the tide.
Steamboat Pier on the property.
3 ways to reach it:
Steamer from Boston;
Old Colony to North Weymouth;
Quincy and Boston Electric from Quincy.
Cool in summer. No mosquitoes.
High land. Splendid views. No cheap houses.
Nothing to attract transient visitors.
A clean, respectable resort for summer homes exclusively.

Send for plans—or better, come to Boston, take a ride of an hour down the Harbor on our Steamer (it goes down every day), and see Wessagussett. S. D. HANNAH & CO., 109 Ames Building, Boston.

CARPETINGS!

Nothing makes a better Carpet for the Summer than STRAW MATTING.

We can show you an excellent line in all grades. Also a full stock
BRUSSELS, TAPESTRIES, EXTRA SUPERS and OIL CLOTHS.

Window Shades and Drapery Goods.
CUSTOM WORK A SPECIALTY.

WARREN F. EMERSON, 698 Main St., Waltham.

Real Estate.

Mortgages.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.

SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES
in the above villages.

Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES;
—OFFICES—

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

RUBBER GARDEN HOSE.

BEST

ORDER

BOSTON

BELTING

Company's

MAKE.

in the WORLD.

BOSTON BELTING COMPANY,

256, 258, 260 Devonshire St., Boston.

By Edward F. Barnes, Auctioneer, 27
State Street, Boston.

M

DAD'S OLD GRINDSTONE.

Under a spreading russet bough,
Unscarred for an age,
Through summer's sun and winter's snow
Has stood dad's old grindstone.
An old friend to me,
Almost with weeds o'ergrown.
How well I recollect each morn
That dad would call to me
At break of day to come and turn
The stone beneath the tree,
An every whirl she'd squeak and groan,
An much exerted be.
My hands would blister, peel and tear,
But I made no face;
'Twas better to be blither there
Than on some other place.
So while the lark songs filled the air
The grindstone went apace.
I steal from town life off in rith
An look the old scenes through,
And though it sounds a bit uncouth
I find these words come true,
'The work I dreading so in youth
I now would gladly do.'
I'm turning now the stone of life,
A grindin fortune's blade,
With nicks an cracks extremely rife
An rather poorly made,
An off the stone squeaks in the strife,
Like dad's beneath the shade.
—Boston Advertiser.

CURED OF JEALOUSY.

Mr. Andrew Frosty chanced to reside in one of a long, straight row of houses, no one of which bore any special mark on its front by which it could be distinguished from another. Each had seven steps and a portico.

Tack on another item—Mr. Frosty was terribly jealous of his wife. Now, it is an awful thing for a man to be jealous of his wife at all, with or without reason. When a man or wife falls into such a habit as that, they may as well draw their cotton caps over their eyes and say good night to the world. Living is no sort of an object to them.

But whether Mr. Frosty had any reason to be jealous of his wife is not what we are going to settle. And yet we never thought he could have, for a more amiable wife than she made him it would be hard to find. Mrs. Frosty was young and beautiful, and her manners were very taking. It may be that these were Mr. Frosty's reasons for his jealousy, but if so why didn't he marry a plainer woman?

Not many doors off in the same row of dwellings lived Colonel Sawyer, who rather prided himself on being esteemed a gentleman. Without assuming to be what is popularly known as a ladies' man, he nevertheless was extremely particular in his carriage toward them, aiming always to impress them with a sense of his perfect purity, chivalry and truth.

No one in the neighborhood ever suspected him of being capable of insulting any one—least of all a lady. Mothers held him up to their sprouting sons as an example of the lofty and true, and fathers spoke of him to their daughters and hoped that if they ever thought of marriage they would be satisfied with nothing less than a character like his. Coming home musingly and with his head bent one evening the colonel thought no such accident was possible as that he should mistake his own house, especially as he had been in and out that way so many times.

Perhaps the very fact that he felt such a confidence was the greater reason why he should make a mistake after all. But as he was very much occupied with his reflections he abandoned himself entirely to what he knew of the way home and thought he should reach there all in good time. The consequence was that he quietly slipped himself in through Mr. Frosty's front door, hung up his hat and coat in the hall and started for the dining room.

As all the houses in the row were so much alike on the outside, their internal arrangements were pretty much on the same pattern. Mr. Frosty's hall seemed like his own, and the dining room door opened where his did.

The instant he opened the door he began to awaken to his error. The table was spread in the middle of the room, and Mrs. Frosty sat near the grate reading.

"Ah," he exclaimed, bowing and scraping confusedly, "I beg pardon! Really, Mrs. Frosty, I beg pardon!"

In a moment the astonished lady was on her feet, her face flushed with the natural excitement of so unlooked for a visitor. She knew not what to say.

"This is a ludicrous mistake, I declare, Mrs. Frosty," said the colonel. "Here I am invading your house when I thought I was safe and snug in my own. This comes of these houses wearing such similar faces. But it is my first mistake, and I hope you will excuse me."

Mrs. Frosty comprehended instantly and laughed heartily.

"I may get caught so myself, you know," she said, "and we are always grateful for a call from you, Colonel Sawyer. Now you are here and dinner will soon be on the table, why don't you sit down with us? I am expecting my husband every minute."

The colonel began to thank her and excuse himself on account of urgent engagements for the evening, but while he was doing so the front door was heard to open.

"There," said Mrs. Frosty, "my husband is coming now. You'll not be detained any longer than you would at home. Come, I think you'd better stay." Along came Frosty through the hall, and his sour face would have turned sweet milk in a twinkling.

The instant he caught the sound of a male voice in the dining room his old suspicions began to flame up again. As soon as could creep along as far as the door in his stealthy way and look in through the crevice and see who was there his rage burst all bounds and made him a temporary madman. Colonel Sawyer and his wife were in the room alone! That was quite enough.

"Now, what does this mean, sir?" shouted the enraged husband, dashing up before the thunderstruck colonel. "This is just what I've been expecting for a long time. I knew there was some mischief like this afoot. What are you doing in my house? Tell me, sir, or march yourself out sooner than you can in."

The colonel had got over his astonishment enough to commence a calm explanation, when Mrs. Frosty, bursting into tears, threw herself before her angry husband and implored him to be silent, for it was a trifling mistake, and Colonel Sawyer would immediately explain it all.

But the enraged man would hear nothing.

"Leave the room!" he exclaimed to his wife. "I'll hear nothing from you! I've had disgrace enough brought on me already. Leave the room!"

Mortified and in tears, she passed out to brood over her misery and mortification alone.

Colonel Sawyer essayed to begin, though it was exceedingly hard work, and he could accomplish nothing but with almost superhuman effort.

"I mistook the house, sir, that is all," said he. "My intentions were perfectly honorable, and out of this house, sir, you shall not call them in question without being held personally responsible. I am quite ready to leave the place, I assure you."

He began to do so. "That is very well to say," replied the jealous husband. "I should advise you for the future, however, to be a little careful before you go into other persons' houses and see if your own number extends the whole length of the street!"

Colonel Sawyer withdrew, resolved to have no further words with such a creature. He saw that he was beside himself with jealousy, and he knew that speech would be wasted on him.

Perhaps it was a couple of months after this that a party of gentlemen lingered rather late at luncheon at a tavern and forgot that it was fairly 4 o'clock in the afternoon until they found it had long ago struck 6.

They were all jolly fellows. Their eyes were flashing, and their cheeks were getting rosy. The luncheon must have put them in the best of spirits—or, rather, the best of spirits in them. Among them was Mr. Andrew Frosty.

If there was any one of them particularly "mellow," it was but fair to say it was Frosty. He had evidently improved his opportunities during the luncheon.

Going out into the bracing air after such a banquet, Mr. Frosty began to feel the effects very sensibly. By hook and by crook he finally sailed round to the street in which his domicile stood, pushing along till he thought he had gone about where he ought to live and went up the steps.

After hanging up his greatcoat and hat in the hall he stepped along to the door of the dining room and opened it. Who should suddenly appear to him as he looked around the room but Colonel Sawyer's wife. Frosty rubbed his eyes, stammered, made half a bow, felt wholly lost and finally gave it up.

"I declare!" he exclaimed, looking blanker than the wall, "I've mistaken the house!"

"Oh, no, my dear sir," said Colonel Sawyer, immediately rising and going up to him, "you have done no such thing; you know you have not! You have only stolen in here to bring disgrace upon my family. I've been suspecting this, sir, for a long time, and now, sir, I'll just walk out myself with you and be at the trouble of finding your own house for you."

Upon this the colonel put on his coat and hat and insisted on accompanying Mr. Frosty home. Not a syllable of explanation would he listen to.

"Oh, no, no!" he would say, whenever Frosty began to apologize. "I understand it all well enough. I see how it is. It's all very well to say you've lost the way into my house, but I should for the future advise you before going into other persons' houses to just look and see if your own number runs the length of the street."

Just the language Frosty had before used to him, and just what sealed his lips. Frosty was floored completely. But that was not the best of it. The colonel insisted on going home with him and going in, and he offered his services in such a pleasant yet persistent way that Frosty could not have shaken him off, even if he was not himself rendered submissive by reason of his own mortification.

The colonel, therefore, went in and told Mrs. Frosty about it, which she thoroughly pleased that amiable lady that, in view of previous circumstances, she set up a resistless laugh in the face of her humble lord, in the midst of which his very polite escort took occasion to quietly withdraw.

But Frosty was thoroughly cured of his jealousy, for he admitted that it was quite possible for a respectable man to mistake even the number of his own door.—Boston Globe.

A Natural Supposition.

A woman planning to remain very late in her country home found difficulty in persuading her city servants to consent to remain. She thereupon tried to procure some native assistance and found it necessary to begin with a maid of the village who was willing to see what she could do in the waitress line.

The methods of the work were carefully explained to her, and she seemed to understand its requirements.

How hopeless the situation really was showed to the amused employer when the girl finally said, "I suppose after I've set the dishes on the table you can do your own reaching, can't you?"

She was not engaged.—New York Times.

Clerical Criticism of Gladstone.

A reverend personage named Porter, preaching the other day at St. Thomas', Nottingham, actually announced from the pulpit that he "abhorred" Mr. Gladstone and went on to compare the premier to Judas Iscariot in this strain, "Judas," he said, "sold his Master for 30 pieces of silver, but Mr. Gladstone sold his mother, the church, for 30 Welsh votes." It is only fair to say that the gentleman who informs me of this sells avows himself an anti-Gladstonian, but he says that he draws the line somewhere. He, however, is not a minister of religion.—London Truth.

AMERICANS' CRESTS.

WARD M'ALLISTER FAVORS A TAX ON COATS OF ARMS.

Mr. McAllister Also Advocates the Establishment of a Herald's Office as One of the Government Apartments—Right of Americans to Wear Crests.

The number of persons using crests and coats of arms in this country is very large, and there is no way of ascertaining how large it is. The American who wants a coat of arms and has not got one usually adopts one which pleases his eye, without regard to any other considerations. In England supporters are seldom granted with coats of arms to any but members of the peerage. But Americans must have everything of the finest, and therefore they usually take supporters to themselves. There is one very rich and famous family in this city, though of humble origin, which displays a coat of arms with four supporters instead of the two which usually satisfy English ducal families.

There is, however, a great deal of dissatisfaction with this irregular state of things. Mr. Ward McAllister, the arbiter of fashion, said it should not be tolerated. Coats of arms, he says, should be registered at a herald's office, as they are in England and other well regulated European countries. Then we should know who were entitled to them, how they got them and so forth.

"I propose," said Mr. McAllister, "that the American herald's office should be established as one of the departments of the federal government at Washington. This is a very practical suggestion. The government would be able to put a tax on armorial bearings and in that way raise a large revenue, as the English government does. It is one of the happiest ways of raising a tax I can think of. Members of fashionable society and all the other persons taxed would be pleased by it, and no one, I think, can show any good reason against it."

"I know it is easy for you to assert that Americans have no business with coats of arms and such things because they are relics of feudalism, but that is nonsense. They are not any more harmful relics of feudalism than many of our social customs. Fashion requires us to use them, and fashion must be obeyed. It is merely a matter of fashion. A man with a coat of arms is not likely to be a more dangerous plutocrat than a rich man without one. Besides, armorial bearings are ornamental and look well on silver and china. That is one of the best reasons for having them."

"I must say a few words as to who has the right to use them. It is not necessary that a family should obtain them by grant from the English or some other European king. It is enough if they have been used since the beginning of the country's history, or for three generations. In England any respectable person not in retail trade can get a coat of arms by paying for it."

"Unquestionably many younger sons came over to this country who had a right to bear the arms of their family. Their descendants settled in different parts of the Union and are now in the fullest manner entitled to use arms. On the other hand, many men of wealth and high social standing, but not of aristocratic origin, have adopted them since the practice became fashionable, as they have a perfect right to do. These families will transmit their arms to their descendants until they become as interesting as those of aristocratic European origin."

"There are some interesting anecdotes to be told of the introduction of coats of arms into the general society of this city. Of course there are a few New York families who have used them continuously since the creation of the colony, but when the practice first became general it was received with a good deal of opposition. Gordon Hamersley used to say that his crest was useful to tell him which was his carriage. Colonel Thorne, who married Miss Janney, went to Europe 50 years ago and established himself in Paris, living as no other American had ever done. He took the British minister through his hotel, who, after viewing its interior and its stables, turned to Colonel Thorne, exclaiming, 'And you say you do all this on $12,000 a year! It is marvelous.' On returning to America to live the colonel turned out in this city postillions with his coat of arms embroidered on the left sleeve of each postilion. This created such a rumpus, the population hissing him as he drove by, that he was compelled to withdraw them."

"Some of our best people were pilgrims and Huguenots, who on reaching this country and establishing themselves here abjured such vanities as coats of arms, as a monarchical institution. This was all very well in the beginning, but the blue laws have faded. We no longer cultivate primitive simplicity, but with wealth and age we turn to luxury and find among its necessities the use of coats of arms. The necessity and love of the American for title or some designation of distinction, plain Mr. 'not filling the bill,' is illustrated in the west and south. For 50 years or more it has been a universal custom to bestow a military title on all men who have risen above mediocrity, such as governor, general, captain, colonel, it being purely honorary. Such titles mean carry through life with this love of ours for individual distinction, which is one of our marked characteristics. When a man wants to seal his letters, mark his plate or decorate his harness, he wants a crest, and as Americans with money own the universe this crest must be forthcoming. Of course it is only an accessory to the arms, and now the question is, How shall Americans get them? And how shall they be able to keep them?"

"Let me repeat that society would welcome the establishment of a herald's office for the better regulation of these matters."—New York World.

"When you walk," says a Russian proverb, "pray once; when you go to sea, pray twice; when going to be married, pray three times."

Manual Training in the Public Schools.

A commission composed of Edwin P. Seaver, George E. McNeil and Mrs. Louisa P. Hopkins, appointed to investigate the existing systems of manual and industrial training and their relation to the public schools has made a report to the Legislature. All agree in advocating a very general extension of such methods among the appliances of popular education. Mr. Seaver, in his report, thus describes the changes in New England life which have made some change of educational methods necessary:

Until within a generation the conditions of New England life have been such as to permit full scope to this education by and through work. No better kindergarten was ever invented than a New England farm, provided only that the conditions of life were not so desperately hard as to leave the mother no time to superintend the occupations of her children. For the growing boy there were the occupations of the fields, the woods and the garden, and rainy days there were the tools in the tool-room, or if these failed to interest him there was the neighbor's shop, where he might begin to learn his chosen trade. But railroads and factories have wrought a profound change in New England life. The conditions are changed. People have gathered themselves into great and growing cities. Farms are deserted, gardens are few, and the neighbors who had workshops for their various crafts are now employed in the great factories. Thus has come to exist in all cities a profound educational want. All the people feel it, some see it and understand it, but heretofore little has been done to relieve it.

The commissioners unite in recommending that the principles and practice of the kindergarten and of manual training, so far as applicable in the primary and grammar schools, be taught in the normal schools; that the principles and practice of domestic science be taught in the normal schools; that high schools with a course in the mechanic arts for boys be established in cities having a population of 20,000 or more; that high schools with a course in domestic science, including sewing and cooking for girls, be similarly established; that where any city or town establishes a school or schools for manual training or industrial education open to boys or girls 14 years of age and over, the state shall appropriate as much money for the school as the town or city has, but to an amount not exceeding $500; that the state make provision for the training of teachers for the mechanic arts by establishing scholarships in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology or the Worcester Polytechnic school or both, open to such young men as agree afterward to teach in the public schools of the state; and that the state board of education be required to appoint qualified agents to advise and instruct public school officers in relation to introducing and promoting these systems of education.

Honest.

In these days of adulteration and fraud, in all branches of business and pursuits, it is pleasing to know that there is one medicine prepared which is strictly pure. Such a medicine is Sulfur Bitters in curing scrofula; you can depend on them every time. W. B. Everts, A. M., Charleston, S. C.

For three weeks I was suffering from a severe cold in my head, accompanied by a pain in the temples. Ely's Cream Balm was recommended to me. After only six applications of the Balm every trace of my cold was removed. —Henry C. Clark, New York, appraiser's Office.

It Cures Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages. And a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by druggists everywhere. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Ripans Tabules relieve scrofula.

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

RENNE'S PAIN KILLING MAGIC OIL

CURES Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lameness, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Burns, Sprains, Strains, Galls, Cholera Morbus, Dyspepsia, Stomach, &c.
Sold Everywhere. 25 cents.

Don't Drink Impure Water longer use a good filter. They will fit a faucet whether it has thread or not. Call and see at Barber Bros.

How About Letter-Heads?
Those Don't wait until they are all gone. Place your order now. The GRAPHIC Office can supply you Ripans Tabules relieve headache.

ESTIMATES

On all kinds of Printing cheerfully furnished at the GRAPHIC Office.

Blanchette W. Bridges
Newburyport, Mass.

Burning Accident.

Followed by Extreme Nervousness

Hood's the Panacea for the Shattered Nerves.

"I was burned badly about my face and hands, and the doctor had little hope of me. When I recovered from the burn it left me very nervous, so that I could not keep still a moment, even when asleep. I tried various remedies but all to no effect, and I then got a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and tried that. Before I had taken a half bottle I began to feel better. I have taken but three bottles and I find myself entirely cured. I can sleep good every night. I can heartily recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to the public." BLANCHETTE W. BRIDGES, 11 Market Street, Newburyport, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

N. B. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOOD'S PILLS are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25c.

Expressmen.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 6.30 A. M., to 8 P. M., where a call may be left, or leave orders at G. P. Atkins, Grocer, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Froster's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing of every description promptly attended to.

Residence: 152 Adams Street, Newton, Mass.

PEARSON'S NEWTON AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

BOSTON OFFICE: 91 Kilby St., 105 Arch St., 88 Court St. Order Box, 91 Faneuil Hall Market. NEWTON OFFICE at H. B. Coffin's. Order Boxes at Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins'. Leave Newton at 9.30 a. m. Leave Boston at 3 p. m.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER, NEWTON & BOSTON EXPRESS.

Leave Newton, 7.30 and 9.30 a. m.; leave Boston, 12 m. and 3 p. m. NEWTON OFFICE: 334 Centre Street. Order Box: Newton Office Market. BOSTON OFFICES: 16 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court Square, 25 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave. Extension. Post Office address Box 420, Newton.

Personal Attention Given all Orders.

Undertakers.

GEO. W. BUSH, Funeral and Furnishing UNDERTAKER,

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON. Coffins, Caskets, Robes. And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand. Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

JOHN PHILLIPS would respectfully inform the citizens of Newton, that he can be found at the above address and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over ten years experience in the business, under the instruction and in co-operation with the late Mr. Wm. H. Phillips, I trust I can attend to all calls that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker.

S. L. PRATT, FUNERAL AND FURNISHING UNDERTAKER

Newton Centre, Mass. First-class Appointments and Competent A assistants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the office of Fanning Printing Co., which will immediately be forwarded to me by telephone. Also shall continue in the Black, Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand corner of Beacon and Station Streets.

S. F. CATE, FURNISHING - UNDERTAKER

WASHINGTON STREET, WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 8119

HOWARD ICE CO., SUCCESSORS TO HOWARD BROS.

Orders can be left at 342 Centre Street, - Newton. Office Hours: 7.45 to 11 A. M.; 3 to 5.45 P. M.

ABRAHAM L. HOWARD, Proprietor

OFFICE, 46 GALEN ST., WATERTOWN.

NEWTON COAL CO. HILLS, BULLENS & CO., COAL & WOOD

Family Orders a Specialty. OFFICE, ELIOT BLOCK.

BRANCH OFFICE:

JOHN F. PAYNE'S DRUG STORE, NEWTONVILLE.

What's Come to Stay?
Old Honesty
PLUG
CHEWING TOBACCO
WHY?

Because it's the Chewer's delight
Just what he wants and will have, now that he can get it.
It's the finest in the market.
Gives a delicious and lasting CHEW.

Get a sample from dealer
John Finzer & Bros.
Louisville, Ky.

JOB

PRINTING

All Kinds and Styles

Can be obtained at the Graphic Office

GOOD WORK

AND

Reasonable Prices!

Fish and Provisions.

Newton City Market.

ALL KINDS OF

Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME.

Fish and Oysters

Butter, Cheese, Eggs,
Canned Goods, Fruit,
and Vegetables.

413 Centre St., Opposite Public Library.

Wellington Howes, Proprietor

FISH, OYSTERS,
Vegetables & Fruit of all KindsBunting's Fish Market,
COLE'S BLOCK.

Established 1877. Connected by Telephone.

SULPHUR BITTERS

Poor Weak and Weary Mothers Raise Puny, Pindling Children.
Sulphur Bitters
Will make them Strong, hearty
And healthy.

Send 2-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co.,
Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

Ripans Tabules banish pain.

DO YOU WANT
To learn Watchmaking?

If so, attend the American-Wal-ham Watchmakers School, where any and all parts of the trade are taught in the most thorough manner.

For further information address or apply toSAUL BROTHERS, 135 Moody St., WalthamT. F. GLENNAN.
Carriage Trimming & Harness
MAKING.BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c.
Washington Street, Newton.J. J. JOHNSON, FLORIST.CONSERVATORIES,
School Street, Newton.
Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions,
etc., etc.
Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

J. HENRY BACON

Successor to Francis Murdock & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishing Goods

OIL and STRAW CARPET,

Trunks, Bags, &c.

BACON'S BLOCK,

Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St.
NEWTON.

Scientific American Agency for PATENTS CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, DESIGN PATENTS,
COPYRIGHTS, etc.
For information and free Handbook write to MUNN & CO., 311 Broadway, New York.
Oldest bureau for securing patents in America.
Every patent taken out by us is brought before the public by a notice given free of charge in the Scientific American Largest circulation of any scientific paper in the world. Splendidly illustrated. No intelligent man should be without it. Weekly, $3.00 a year; $1.50 six months. Address MUNN & CO., Publishers, 361 Broadway, New York City.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- Barker, Edward Harrison. Wanderings by Southern Waters; Eastern Aquitaine. 35,304
- Barrie, James Matthew. An Auld Light Manse, and other Sketches. (also) Biographical and Literary Estimate by Elliot
Henderson. 54,819
- Papers collected for the purpose of presenting specimens of each of Mr. Barrie's different styles of writing.
- Bernard, George S., ed. War Talks of Confederate Veterans. 77,212
- A series of addresses delivered before A. P. Hill, Camp of Confederate Veterans of Petersburg, Va.
- Boies, Henry M. Prisoners and Paupers; a Study of the Abnormal Increase of Criminals and the Public Burden of Pauperism in the U. S.; the Causes and Remedies. 82,170
- Contains valuable facts and statistics on the many causes of the problems discussed, such as intemperance, immigration, etc.
- Bolles, Frank. At the North of Bear-water; Chronicles of a Stroller in New Eng., from July to December. 31,412
- Chapters devoted to the many beautiful aspects of nature, as seen in the region around Mt.
Chocoma and the Bearcamp River.
- Bridgman, A. M. Souvenir of Massachusetts Legislators, 1892. 96,376
- Biographical sketches of the members of the Mass. Legislature.
- Brooks, Phillips. Addresses (Perfect Freedom); with Intro. by J. H.
Ward. 91,765
- Brown, Horatio F. Venice: an Historical Sketch of the Republic.
The endeavor has been to state facts and then to suggest causes and consequences.
- Crawford, Francis Marion. The Novel; What it is. 51,572
- An essay, in which Mr. Crawford defines the aim and object of the novel.
- Dobson, Henry Austin. Ballad of Beau Brocade, and other Poems of the XVIIIth Century. 54,822
- Elliott, Annie. White Birch. 64,1392
- Garner, Edouard. The Soft Porcelain of Seville, with an Historical Introduction. Ref.
- 50 plates representing 250 water color subjects after the originals.
- Henley, William E., and Stevenson,
Robert Louis. Three Plays,
Deacon Brodie, Beau Austin,
Admiral Guinea. 55,480
- Her Heart was True; a Story of the Peninsula War. 62,993
- Laszowska, Emily V., and Gerard Dortche. Waters of Hercules; by F. and D. Gerard. 67,405
- Macaulay, Thos. Babington, 1st Baron.
Second Essay on the Earl of Chatham; edited by W. W.
Curtis. 91,770
- Nitsch, Helen Alice. Catherine Owen's
Lessons in Candy Making. 101,658
- Owen, Catherine. Tales, as told among the Negroes of the Southwest; collected from Original Sources; Intro. by Chas. G.
Leland. 66,725
- Rimmer, Caroline Hunt. Figure Drawing for Children; Papers of Special Value to all interested in the Development of Art among the Children. 107,210
- Spear, Mary A. Leaves and Flowers; or Plant Studies for Young Readers. 101,665
- A series of supplementary lessons, every one of which presents an obvious fact in descriptive botany.
- Thoreau, Henry David. The Succession of Forest Trees; Wild Apples. 52,525
- Two papers and a biog. sketch by Emerson, taken from Tho-reau's Excursions.
- Tucker, Benjamin R. Instead of a Book, by a Man too Busy to Write one; a Fragmentary Exposition of Philosophical Anarch-
ism. 83,181
- Vogel, E. Practical Pocket-book of Photography. 101,664
- A short guide to the practice of all the usual photographic processes for professionals and amateurs.
- Wharton, Anne Hollingsworth. Through Colonial Doorways. 71,396
- Seven papers depicting certain phases of social and domestic life of Colonial days.
- Wiltse, Sara E. Kindergarten Stories and Morning Talks. 64,1281
- E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.
May 3, 1893.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Shakespeare's always fascinating love story, "Romeo and Juliet," will be given an elaborate production at the Grand Opera House, Boston, next week. It will be a noteworthy event, for it will present Miss Annie Clarke as Romeo, and will bring into professional life Miss Maud Hoffman as Juliet. The play will be handsomely mounted. The debut of Miss Hoffman is an event of more than ordinary interest with Boston's smartest society, for she has entertained Back Bay circles with her rare elocutionary talent for several months past and has made hosts of admirers wherever she has appeared.
The support has been carefully selected from the Grand Opera House stock company and includes in the important roles
Mr. Charles Barron as Mercutio, Mr. H.
M. Pitt, Mr. Frank J. Keenan, Mr. Justin
Adams and others. For the matinee Saturday "Little Lord Fauntleroy" will be repeated. It was the original intention of the management to close the season with "Romeo and Juliet," but the plays which have been presented by the stock company have met with such great success that the season will be continued.
A grand production of "Tom Taylor's famous 'Ticket of Leave Man'" will follow the week of "Romeo and Juliet."

COLUMBIA THEATRE.—Comic opera has during the past week again claimed a considerable share of public attention.
Thomas G. Seabrooke and "The Isle of Champagne," now in their fifth week, have continued their well-merited success at the Columbia Theatre. In conception, in plot and in development, it is unique among our American comic operas. It is original in design, its dialogue is exceptionally bright and witty, yet thoroughly consistent with the subject matter and the scene of action. The music is melodious, pleasing and contains some numbers that are far above the average.
Furthermore, with one or two exceptions, all of Seabrooke's episodes are organic and are evolved quite naturally from the sequence of events. But it matters very little what the plot, the music or the merits of the libretto—the comedian is eminently successful in eliciting exuberant bursts of laughter, and that after all is his chief aim. Mr. Seabrooke will continue to impersonate the impecunious monarch in the opera that has enabled him to display his talents to such good advantage for only two more weeks.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE.—Bronson
Howard's new drama of social life, "Aristocracy," has proved to be one of the greatest successes of the dramatic year at the Hollis Street Theatre, where it entered upon its second week on Monday night. Despite the criticisms of the English people and those anglophobes, who are held up in their true light in this play, the piece continues to please the great mass of theatregoers. The method adopted by the wealthy millionaire of getting his family into the highest New York society by first renting a bankrupt lord's house in London with the impecunious peer included, is a whole story of itself. Bronson Howard has not in "Aristocracy" written a popular play as "The Henrietta" or "Sheen-andoh," but it is a drama that will attract the attention of all intelligent and thinking people, and in many respects it is the most important production of the season. "Aristocracy" will be continued until further notice.

PARK THEATRE.—A souvenir night celebration of a 150th performance of any play running continuously for that number of times in Boston would be quite sufficient excuse for a great deal of enthusiasm from a theatre attendance that was limited only by the four walls of the theatre, and so it was with the 150th performance of Hoyt's "A Temperance Town," last Monday evening, at the Park Theatre. Every lady patron received a handsome souvenir containing excellently mounted engravings of scenes from the play that the happy possessor can never look at it without being reminded of an entertainment which has afforded so much amusement and has had such a remarkable run by the kindness and appreciation of the theatregoers not only of Boston, but of all New England. At the end of the third act, after the Church Scene, repeated and loud calls for Mr. Hoyt brought that gentleman before the curtain. He was presented with a magnificent large bou-quet of "Jack" roses. His remarks were brief and happy. There are now but two weeks more of performances of "A Temperance Town."

BOWDOIN SQUARE THEATRE.—The lasting popularity of "Peck's Bad Boy" as a theatrical attraction can hardly be questioned after its having held a place in the favor of the public for eleven successive seasons. It is announced at the Bowdoin Square Theatre for the coming week, and its production will be by a very clever company of comedians. The lively scenes in the grocery store will again be enjoyed and the later action will be enlivened by the introduction of the latest songs, dances and specialties. The engagement is for a single week, and will be followed by that of James O'Neill for three weeks, opening on Monday, May 15th, in his own romantic drama of "Fontinelle." A summer season of light opera then follows, in which the Baker Opera Company will be seen in a brilliant repertoire.

"LED ASTRAY"—On Thursday evening,
May 11, Manager John Stetson of the Globe Theatre, will revive Dion Boucicault's great emotional comedy, "Led Astray," in five acts and six tableaux. It has always been a strong play and was the one in which Stuart Robson and Charles Thorne made their reputation in London, at a great production of the piece. The cast of Mr. Stetson's "Led Astray" includes Mr. Robert Hilliard,
Mr. Julius Steger, Mr. Charles Dickson,
Mr. Charles Collins, Mr. John Flood,
Mr. J. B. Atwell, Miss Carrie Turner,
Miss Rose Eyttinge, Mrs. Col Smith,
Hattie Russell and Miss Ruth Carpenter.
Each name has been associated with some important role in a successful play during the past season.

MRS. JOHN STETSON AT THE GLOBE—
On Monday evening, May 8, Mr. Saul Hamblin, the popular treasurer who presides at the Box Office of the Globe Theatre, Boston, will have a benefit. The attraction for the occasion will be "The Crust of Society," the great social comedy, with Mrs. John Stetson, wife of the millionaire manager of the theatre, in the leading role of the adventuress, "Mrs.
Eastlake Chapel." For some months
Mrs. Stetson has been playing the leading role of "Mrs. Eastlake Chapel" in "The Crust of Society" on the Western Slope. Judging by the tiny bits of theatrical work with which Mrs. Stetson has favored Boston in the past, it is safe to presume that she will make much of the part.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

Harpers' Magazine for May opens with an illustrated article on early New York life, by Thomas A. Janvier, followed by a description by Candace Wheeler of the latest achievement of Chicago, "A Dream City"—the marvellous buildings of the World's Fair. In "A Discontented Province" Henry Loomis Nelson gives one phase of life in Quebec—the French farmer's struggle with the worst soil and the heaviest taxes. Other articles of more than usual interest are "Phillips Brooks," by Rev.
Arthur Brooks; a paper on James Russell Lowell, by Charles Eliot Norton;
"The French Scare of 1875," by M. De Blowitz; and "Colorado and its Capital," by Julian Ralph. A Conan Doyle's historical romance, "The Refugees," is continued, and there are some delightful chapters of Miss C. F. Woolson's story,
"Horace Chase." Short stories are contributed by Brander Matthews and Eva Wilder McGlasson, and the series of Shakespearean comedies is continued by Love's Labor's Lost, with nine illustrations by Mr. E. A. Abbey, and commented by Andrew Lang. Outside the Editor's Drawer, there are no verses in the number.

Scribner's Magazine for May has been more than a year in preparation; is one-fourth larger than usual, since it has been intended for an exhibit at the World's Fair. It contains Washington's own account of the disastrous Bradock campaign, published for the first time, from his manuscript; W. D. Howells's experience as a boy in his father's Ohio printing office, illustrated by A. B. Frost; short stories by Bret Harte, Henry James,
H. C. Bunner, G. W. Cable, and Sarah Orne Jewett; verses by R. E. Stevenson and T. B. Aldrich; a forecast of life in the 20th century, by Walter Bennett;
"The Fiddler of the Reels," by Thomas Hardy, and Mrs. F. H. Burnett's account of her childhood and coming to America, illustrated by Birch. The cover of the magazine is designed by Stanford White.
The frontispiece is by Blum, and many are the artists, American and foreign, otherwise represented.

The May Arena (Copley square, Boston) has for feature articles, "An American School of Sculpture," by William Ordway Partridge; a "Symposium on Social and Economic Problems," in which Helen Campbell contributes a valuable article on "Women Wage-Earners," and "Suicides and Modern Civilization." The number is an excellent one.

The May Forum contains unique articles by eminent writers on three topics of vitally absorbing interest—Monism or Satan's mission to America, the Toledo labor decisions, and the Russian Extradition Treaty. Frank B.
Tracy, of Omaha, utters an emphatic warning concerning "Menacing Socialism in the Western States." Charles Francis

Adams considers shrewdly the Administration outlook in "Mr. Cleveland's Tasks and Opportunities." Dr. John S. Billings, the well-known medical expert, in "Municipal Sanitation; Defects in American Cities," initiates a suggestive series of studies of American city sanitation, based on expert original investigation.
Thomas F. Dennis, a prominent officer of the Pension Bureau, narrates an almost incredible story of private pension abuses urging a plan for instant reform; and Major J. W. Powell, Director of the United States Geological Survey, furnishes an able discussion of the interesting question, "Are Our Indians Becoming Extinct?" Dr. J. M. Rice continues his educational articles; and a racy sketch of "Scientific Cooking-Studies in the New England Kitchen," appropriately rounds out a timely, varied, and interesting literary bill-of-fare.

It is Useful

for young ladies who are troubled with freckles, pimples, moth and tan and a bad skin generally to use liquid paints or dry powders, for they only make the skin look well for the time being.
To have a good complexion you must have pure blood. Use Sulphur Bitters and your skin will be fair and complexion rosy.—Young Ladies' Magazine.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

MIDDLESEX, ss. PROBATE COURT.
To the next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Lucius M.
Pinkham late of Newton, in said County, deceased, interested:
Whereas, application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Maria J. Pinkham of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, and to exempt her from giving surety or securities on her bond pursuant to statute;
You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the fourth Tuesday of May, A. D.
1893, at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause,
if any you have, against granting the same.
And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic, printed at Newton, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

S. H. FOLSON, Register.

By James F. C. Hyde & Son, Auctioneers, 31 Milk Street, Boston, Members of Real Estate Exchange and Auction Board.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Edward C. Frost to Bernard Billings dated July 25th, 1892, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, lib. 2133, folio 463, will be sold at public auction for breach of the conditions in said mortgage, on the premises, on Monday the 22nd day of May 1893, at Four and a half o'clock, in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely:—a certain parcel of land, situated in that part of Newton in said County of Middlesex, called Newton Upper Falls, and bounded Northerly by Chandler Place, Fifty-three feet, Easterly by land now or late of Beal, One Hundred and one and 67-100 feet, Southerly by land of the New York and New England Railroad Company, Fifty-three feet, and Westerly by land now or late of Clapp, One Hundred and one and 67-100 feet. Being the same premises conveyed to said Edward C. Frost by Herbert M.
Beal by deed duly recorded with said Middlesex Deeds.

Subject to a mortgage to the Newton Co-operative Bank, for $1400, dated June 30th, 1892, duly recorded with Middlesex Deeds.

$100 will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of sale.

BERNARD BILLINGS,
Mortgagee.

BLAIR'S PILLS.

Great English Remedy
for GOUT & RHEUMATISM.

AT THIS OFFICE.

JOB PRINTING

AT THIS OFFICE.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 70c.

Lane's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. In order to be healthy this is necessary.

Coughing Leads to Consumption, Kemp's Balm stops the cough at once.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Newton and Watertown
Gas Light Company.

All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.

TELEPHONE 28-4

Ripans Tabules relieve nausea

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE
For 1893, just issued, contains Colored Plates of Alpine Aster, Begonia, Dandelion, Campanula, Clematis, Dutchman's Pipe, Pansies, Corn and Potatoes. Descriptions and prices of the very best Flowers and Vegetables, and many Novelties. Try Chamber Pea and Golden Nugget Corn, they pleased everybody last year. Hundreds of beautiful and appropriate quotations from the best authors makes it The Pocket Number. Every lover of a good garden should send to us, for Guide, which can be deducted from first order.—cost nothing.
James Vick's Sons,
Rochester, N. Y.

SEEDS

For your Vegetable or Flower Garden, we want you to see our Catalogue. It is free. We have some particularly fine
New Varieties
That you want.

The Eastman Seed Co., - East Summer, Mo

Will it Pay?

WHAT? An Advertisement in The GRAPHIC. Try it and see It has paid others.

Ellys Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

Water Bugs and Roaches
XTERMINATOR CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR
No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.
BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON
FOR SALE BY BARNER BROS. NEWTON.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

WHITE'S NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COM'Y.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels, Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster; 5 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Bindings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE.

P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

HAVE YOU SEEN AROUND THE HUB
—AND—
THE QUESTION BOX
—IN—THE BOSTON HERALD
EVERY EVENING?

Suburban news treated as it should be. New features. Ladies' column. Answers to Queries. Everything of interest to suburban readers collected together and printed Every Evening.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre

Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions. Also makes collections for it. He also makes, on terms, for advertising, hand-bills and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Ivers & Pond piano, Farley, Newton.
—Mr. Henry McMann and family have moved from Bowen to Knowles street.

—Crystal Lake Division, Sons of Temperance, enjoyed a dance in their hall Wednesday evening.

—One of W. E. Armstrong & Co's horses got frightened and ran on Parker street, Saturday. The wagon to which he was attached was overturned and badly wrecked, and the contents well scattered.

—Mr. H. R. Reynolds, Jr., and family of Station street, have moved out of town.

—Mr. Charles Graham has taken a vacant house on Maple Park.

—Mr. C. Howard Wilson will occupy the pulpit of the Unitarian church next Sunday. Service at 10.45, Sunday school at 12.

—D. A. White has two fine houses for sale and to let on easy terms.

—Mrs. Derby of Maple Park is seriously ill with the grippe. She is over 80 years old and her recovery is thought to be very doubtful.

—Rev. D. A. Morehouse of Oak Hill is supplying the pulpit of the Congregational church at Sudbury.

—Mr. Henry Hodson of Centre street has moved away.

—Mr. C. W. Harris has moved to West Newton.

—Mr. Eugene W. Pratt and family will occupy the Capt. Cousens' house on Willow street, recently vacated by C. W. Harris.

—Mrs. Daniel Bond of Paul street died Friday morning after a short illness, at the ripe age of 80 years, lacking one day. The funeral services took place Monday afternoon at 1.30. Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes of the Baptist church officiating. The interment was at Newton Cemetery.

—Mr. Charles Bragdon expressed control of Wilson Bros. express business, Monday, May first. The expressing for the Newton Rubber company at Newton Upper Falls, which Mr. Geo. Wilson at first reserved for himself, has been sold within a few days to D. Atkinson, expressman, of Highlandville.

—Cousens' new block is framed and is being boarded in.

—Mr. John A. Baldwin has leased his house on Institution avenue to Mr. W. L. Church of Pleasant street, for a term of three years, the latter occupying his new residence this week. Mr. Baldwin and family are stopping at the Huntington, Boston, until the summer season opens, when they expect to go to the beach.

—The student's singing class at the Newton Baptist Theological Institution gave a few friends and their fellow students a rare treat on Tuesday evening. It was in the form of a concert. It was greatly enjoyed, and a pleasing feature of the entertainment was a French song and encore by Mr. Ed. Ramette. After the close of the concert the usual social features were enjoyed.

—There are at the postoffice letters for the following persons: Daniel Abraham, August Johnson, P. B. Lacey, Dr. Lowell Mason, Sydney P. Oakes, Mrs. Renn, Catherine Scully, H. S. Willard.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Breitkreutz are receiving congratulations. A girl.

—The residence of Mr. James S. Carey, Oak Hill, was entered by burglars last Friday night. A watch belonging to a school teacher who boards there and in the evening articles of less value were taken. Entrance was effected through the front door, which was found open. There were seven or eight men who work for Mr. Carey in the house at the time.

—The Newton Centre Cooking Class will have four additional demonstration lessons by Miss Fannie Merritt Farmer on successive Saturdays, beginning May 6th, at 2 p. m. in the Unitarian church kitchen, entrance from Centre street. Tickets for the course $1.50, for single lesson 50 cents, on sale at the door.

—The May Day festivities at the Unitarian church parlors Monday and Tuesday were very liberally patronized. On Monday afternoon at 5.30 the children gathered about the May pole and enjoyed the May pole dance, and in the evening was the hoop drill. On Tuesday afternoon a cat cantata was held for the little ones amusement and in the evening a grand march was held. Needles, Mr. Baldwin and children enjoyed themselves immensely.

—Messrs. Benis & Jewett are brightening up Newton Centre and suburbs by painting the houses of Messrs. H. N. Smith, Col. Haskell, Deacon Coffin, McWain, W. E. Webster, Dr. Loring, Dr. Huntington, Dr. Bigelow, Alden, Peare, Alexander Montgomery and others.

—Alford Bros. & Co., successors to Alvord & Ward, have leased Mr. Chas. Everett's house on Parker street, formerly occupied by V. J. Loring, to Chas. Brewster of New York city.

—It is pretty generally thought by those who are familiar with the recent breaks at Oak Hill that the perpetrators can be found not far from that immediate neighborhood. The break at Rev. Mr. King's was too timely to be wholly accidental, and articles dropped by the rascals show pretty plainly from whence they came. The Oak Hill district seems to be a good one to work and the burglars go at it very boldly.

—Mr. Charles Dickens of Oak Hill was surprised by a large company of friends on his last birthday and presented with a gold watch and easy chair. Mr. F. Estey making the presentation speech. Mr. Dickens responded very appropriately. Supper was furnished by Oak Grove farm and dancing was then enjoyed.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—See card of Miss Mary E. Thompson.

—Pianos, rented and tuned, Farley, Newton.

—Mrs. Pottle is visiting her brother who is ill, at Bath, Me.

—Mr. Frank R. Moore, who has been suffering with an attack of bronchitis, has gone to Old Point Comfort.

—Mrs. Logan and her son Arthur have gone to Chicago, and Miss Margaretta Logan, who was visiting friends at Hartford, has also accompanied them.

—Rev. and Mrs. Phipps attended the reception at Wellesley College on Monday.

—Sunday's music at the Congregational church will include:
Anthem, "It is the Lord's own day." Krutner Response, "Heavenly Father."
Arranged from Beethoven
By request after the sermon, "I am wandering down life's shady path." Solo by Mr. Morgan.

Male Quartet, Messrs. Huntington, Estabrook, Ayer and Morgan. Miss Stone, organist.

—Mr. John Glover has sold the fine new house on Hillside avenue to Mr. Tarbell.

—Mr. A. R. Bushland family, who have occupied the Chas. Reed house the past winter, have removed, and the Reed family who have spent the winter in Bermuda, have returned.

—The part of Mrs. Cobb's double house, formerly occupied by Mr. S. W. Jones, has been taken by G. B. Hanford.

—A cellar for a house has been staked out on the land of J. F. C. Hyde, Esq., on Cushing street. His son, Mr. Frank C. Hyde, will occupy when completed.

—Rev. Mr. Headley has removed to Huntington avenue, Boston.

—Mr. Hurlbert and family now occupy their house on Bowdoin street, lately purchased of Mr. E. H. Tarbell.

—Mr. A. B. Parkhurst, who has occupied one of Mrs. Holmes' houses on Columbus street, has removed.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. Peter Clark have gone to Chicago, and of course will attend the World's Fair.

—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. George M. Stone, Walnut street. A paper will be read by Mrs. George on "Faust."

—The Ladies' Society of the M. E. church will have a supper and entertainment at the home of Mr. E. J. Hyde next Wednesday evening. "My Aunt's Heiress" will be acted during the evening. All interested to aid the society are invited to attend.

—The Chautauqua Circle will meet next Monday at Mrs. Whittemore's.

—Meeting of the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society at Congregational church, Tuesday evening, at 7.30, topic "Humility." All cordially invited.

—The Edmonds estate have started another cellar for a house on Erie avenue.

—Rev. Dr. Dunning will conduct the services at the Congregational church next Sunday.

—Mr. E. Moulton and Messrs. Thorpe & Co. have returned to the stores formerly occupied by them, which have been fitted up in a superior manner.

—Many of the young friends of Florence May Hardwick met with her May day evening, to help her celebrate her fifteenth birthday. The time was spent most pleasantly. After refreshments were served, the merry guests departed, leaving behind many loving gifts for the fair hostess.

—Mrs. S. Snyder has taken the old club house and has opened a boarding house.

—The ladies of the Congregational Sewing Circle at a meeting held on Wednesday, voted to hold a strawberry festival, June 1st.

—Rev. Mr. Priest will have charge of the funeral services in the Episcopal chapel, next Sunday, at 4 o'clock p. m.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Baldwin are receiving congratulations from friends, cause a new comer, a 10 pound boy.

—Mrs. Elliott J. Hyde gave an afternoon tea last Tuesday. Mrs. Hyde was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Geo. Horace Bryant and Mrs. Frank Charles Hyde. About two hundred guests were present from Newton, Brookline and Boston.

—The M. E. Society will resume services in the hall next Sunday. Dr. Chadbourne, the presiding elder, will preach in the morning, at 10.45. In the evening the pastor will conduct a unique and interesting praise service, including a variety of music, vocal and instrumental. Cornet solos will be played by Mr. Herbert Williams of Newton Centre. Everyone is cordially invited to attend both services.

—The Newton Centre Cooking Class will have four additional demonstration lessons by Miss Fannie Merritt Farmer on successive Saturdays, beginning May 6th, at 2 p. m. in the Unitarian church kitchen, entrance from Centre street. Tickets for the course $1.50, for single lesson 50 cents, on sale at the door.

—There are letters at the postoffice for the following persons: Daniel Abraham, August Johnson, P. B. Lacey, Dr. Lowell Mason, Sydney P. Oakes, Mrs. Renn, Catherine Scully, H. S. Willard.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Breitkreutz are receiving congratulations. A girl.

—The residence of Mr. James S. Carey, Oak Hill, was entered by burglars last Friday night. A watch belonging to a school teacher who boards there and in the evening articles of less value were taken. Entrance was effected through the front door, which was found open. There were seven or eight men who work for Mr. Carey in the house at the time.

—The Newton Centre Cooking Class will have four additional demonstration lessons by Miss Fannie Merritt Farmer on successive Saturdays, beginning May 6th, at 2 p. m. in the Unitarian church kitchen, entrance from Centre street. Tickets for the course $1.50, for single lesson 50 cents, on sale at the door.

—The May Day festivities at the Unitarian church parlors Monday and Tuesday were very liberally patronized. On Monday afternoon at 5.30 the children gathered about the May pole and enjoyed the May pole dance, and in the evening was the hoop drill. On Tuesday afternoon a cat cantata was held for the little ones amusement and in the evening a grand march was held. Needles, Mr. Baldwin and children enjoyed themselves immensely.

—Messrs. Benis & Jewett are brightening up Newton Centre and suburbs by painting the houses of Messrs. H. N. Smith, Col. Haskell, Deacon Coffin, McWain, W. E. Webster, Dr. Loring, Dr. Huntington, Dr. Bigelow, Alden, Peare, Alexander Montgomery and others.

—Alford Bros. & Co., successors to Alvord & Ward, have leased Mr. Chas. Everett's house on Parker street, formerly occupied by V. J. Loring, to Chas. Brewster of New York city.

—It is pretty generally thought by those who are familiar with the recent breaks at Oak Hill that the perpetrators can be found not far from that immediate neighborhood. The break at Rev. Mr. King's was too timely to be wholly accidental, and articles dropped by the rascals show pretty plainly from whence they came. The Oak Hill district seems to be a good one to work and the burglars go at it very boldly.

—Mr. Charles Dickens of Oak Hill was surprised by a large company of friends on his last birthday and presented with a gold watch and easy chair. Mr. F. Estey making the presentation speech. Mr. Dickens responded very appropriately. Supper was furnished by Oak Grove farm and dancing was then enjoyed.

—The prize of $5 offered by the Quinobquin Association for the best 3-string total made on the bowling alleys during April was awarded to Michael J. Dwyer, whose total was 500 pins. The next highest totals were 577 made by Geo. Wright and 566 by Tom Coughlan. The $3 prize for the best single string went to Louis P. Everett, who knocked over 205 pins.

—Mr. H. C. Forbes, formerly of this place, but now in charge of the office of the Boston Chair Mfg. Co. in Ashburnham, has been chosen musical director of the Congregational church in that place.

—One of the largest crowds that has been here were out at Echo Bridge park on Sunday last, over 200 people being on the grounds at one time. It is suggested that now the Suburban road through the centre of Newton is not to be built, why could not the management build from Highlandville on the Woonsocket branch running along the other side of the river near the Upper to the Lower Falls, thence through Wellesley and Weston to the Weston station on the Massachusetts Central, thus completing the direct communication with New York from the Boston & Maine system. We have now two steam railroads, electric, a grove, dance hall and foot ball grounds and with this road the future of Upper Falls would be pretty definitely established.

WABAN.

—Woodward street is being widened and improved by the city.

—Mrs. Wm. Dresser gave a tea party to a few of her Upper Falls friends last Friday.

—Miss Sallie Morse is visiting her brother Mr. James Morgan.

—The Whist Club met with Mrs. J. H. Robinson last Monday afternoon.

—The Misses Collins gave a May party to a few of their friends on Monday evening.

—Mrs. I. E. Norris is indisposed with malaria.

—Waban contributed quite a large sum this month to the coffers of the Boston & Albany Railroad.

—Mr. Michael Cummings has accepted a position with the Shady Hill Nursery Co.

—Mrs. Putnam and Miss Putnam are at Mrs. Fred Henshaw's during her visit to the West.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—The plans are now out for the erection of a nurses home that is to be built on an elevated piece of ground at the rear of the Cottage Hospital. The work, it is stated, will soon be commenced.

—The Ladies' Society, connected with M. E. church, held a May festival followed by an entertainment in the church vestry Monday evening. The affair was largely attended and a good sum realized by it.

—Rev. R. H. Howard, the new pastor appointed to the M. E. church here, has taken up his residence in the Heckle house.

—Health officer French has been kept quite busy the past week tacking cards up on honoraria where needed are within. There are but very few places here left without a visitation of this disease.

—About 200 wheelmen representing many of the bicycle clubs in this part of the state, congregated on the bridge Sunday afternoon where the third change in the great Boston, New York and Chicago relay race was made by Clark Bros., who carried the message to Hoyland Smith stationed here, making their 4-2 miles in thirteen minutes, lowering the scheduled time almost one minute and a half. Much interest was taken in the race along here.

—The Sullivan Dramatic Co., a travelling troupe, gave entertainments Wednesday and Thursday evening at Freeman Hall. The entertainment Thursday evening met with good success, being a comedy and originated for the special purpose of making the audience laugh.

AUBURNDALE.

—Mrs. N. W. Farley is absent in New Jersey.

—Mr. Arthur Farley has been South.

—Mr. Edward Strong has taken a house in Newtonville.

—Rev. Dr. Mackenzie of Cambridge, preached on Friday evening, at the Congregational chapel, which was crowded. His subject was the question of St. Peter, "What shall we have?" It was a most eloquent discourse, listened to with great interest.

—Miss Longfellow is in Cambridge.

—A charming "Colonial High Tea," was given at the Congregational chapel last Thursday evening. Though the weather was forbidding, a good attendance encouraged the young ladies of the Mission Circle.

—The Newton Centre Cooking Class will have four additional demonstration lessons by Miss Fannie Merritt Farmer on successive Saturdays, beginning May 6th, at 2 p. m. in the Unitarian church kitchen, entrance from Centre street. Tickets for the course $1.50, for single lesson 50 cents, on sale at the door.

—There are letters at the postoffice for the following persons: Daniel Abraham, August Johnson, P. B. Lacey, Dr. Lowell Mason, Sydney P. Oakes, Mrs. Renn, Catherine Scully, H. S. Willard.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Breitkreutz are receiving congratulations. A girl.

—The residence of Mr. James S. Carey, Oak Hill, was entered by burglars last Friday night. A watch belonging to a school teacher who boards there and in the evening articles of less value were taken. Entrance was effected through the front door, which was found open. There were seven or eight men who work for Mr. Carey in the house at the time.

—The Newton Centre Cooking Class will have four additional demonstration lessons by Miss Fannie Merritt Farmer on successive Saturdays, beginning May 6th, at 2 p. m. in the Unitarian church kitchen, entrance from Centre street. Tickets for the course $1.50, for single lesson 50 cents, on sale at the door.

—The May Day festivities at the Unitarian church parlors Monday and Tuesday were very liberally patronized. On Monday afternoon at 5.30 the children gathered about the May pole and enjoyed the May pole dance, and in the evening was the hoop drill. On Tuesday afternoon a cat cantata was held for the little ones amusement and in the evening a grand march was held. Needles, Mr. Baldwin and children enjoyed themselves immensely.

—Messrs. Benis & Jewett are brightening up Newton Centre and suburbs by painting the houses of Messrs. H. N. Smith, Col. Haskell, Deacon Coffin, McWain, W. E. Webster, Dr. Loring, Dr. Huntington, Dr. Bigelow, Alden, Peare, Alexander Montgomery and others.

—Alford Bros. & Co., successors to Alvord & Ward, have leased Mr. Chas. Everett's house on Parker street, formerly occupied by V. J. Loring, to Chas. Brewster of New York city.

—It is pretty generally thought by those who are familiar with the recent breaks at Oak Hill that the perpetrators can be found not far from that immediate neighborhood. The break at Rev. Mr. King's was too timely to be wholly accidental, and articles dropped by the rascals show pretty plainly from whence they came. The Oak Hill district seems to be a good one to work and the burglars go at it very boldly.

—Mr. Charles Dickens of Oak Hill was surprised by a large company of friends on his last birthday and presented with a gold watch and easy chair. Mr. F. Estey making the presentation speech. Mr. Dickens responded very appropriately. Supper was furnished by Oak Grove farm and dancing was then enjoyed.

—The prize of $5 offered by the Quinobquin Association for the best 3-string total made on the bowling alleys during April was awarded to Michael J. Dwyer, whose total was 500 pins. The next highest totals were 577 made by Geo. Wright and 566 by Tom Coughlan. The $3 prize for the best single string went to Louis P. Everett, who knocked over 205 pins.

—Mr. H. C. Forbes, formerly of this place, but now in charge of the office of the Boston Chair Mfg. Co. in Ashburnham, has been chosen musical director of the Congregational church in that place.

—One of the largest crowds that has been here were out at Echo Bridge park on Sunday last, over 200 people being on the grounds at one time. It is suggested that now the Suburban road through the centre of Newton is not to be built, why could not the management build from Highlandville on the Woonsocket branch running along the other side of the river near the Upper to the Lower Falls, thence through Wellesley and Weston to the Weston station on the Massachusetts Central, thus completing the direct communication with New York from the Boston & Maine system. We have now two steam railroads, electric, a grove, dance hall and foot ball grounds and with this road the future of Upper Falls would be pretty definitely established.

—Waban contributed quite a large sum this month to the coffers of the Boston & Albany Railroad.

—Mr. Michael Cummings has accepted a position with the Shady Hill Nursery Co.

—Mrs. Putnam and Miss Putnam are at Mrs. Fred Henshaw's during her visit to the West.

ed with people. The decorations of the room and the tea tables, which were arranged about the sides, presented a fine appearance in dainty rainbow colors. Each table representing one rainbow color, was decorated by its attendants and each tried to excel in its ornamentation and daintiness. A short musical was given, commencing at 7.45, the numbers including songs by Misses Helen and Mable Johnson, a piano number by Fred Gulick, and banjo solo by Erden Ayers. The hoop drill was under the direction of Mrs. Bates and was participated in by 16 little girls dressed in white, with hoop wound in rainbow colors, the exhibition being very pleasing. The seven tea tables were then taxed to the utmost by those present, sandwiches, cake, chocolate, tea and coffee being served, the ladies who poured and served, wearing costumes in colors corresponding to their table. The violet table was in charge of Miss Pluta, yellow table, Mrs. Winslow and Miss Hunt, pink table, Miss Mabel Sawyer and Miss Shepherd, blue table, Miss Mattie Dyer and Miss Florence Bourne, red table, Miss Dillingham and Miss Huestis, green table, Miss Eager and Miss Tower, orange table, Miss Cordingley and Miss Pluta. The tea and drill was highly successful, the society netting over $40, a portion of which will go to their annual contribution to the Union Rescue Mission of Boston for which they have been working.

Lasell Notes.

The Lasell party attended the Saturday evening Symphony concert, as usual, notwithstanding the extra attraction at the seminary on that evening.

A small party of the students attended on Saturday evening the Rescue Mission meeting in Boston.

During the dinner hour on Saturday everyone was startled almost out of her seat by the grand crash of music with which the Waltham Crescent Band, cunningly hidden away in the club room at the rear of the dining room, announced its presence. In another instant the music was drowned by the enthusiastic clapping of hands, and the meal continued with alternate accompaniment of music and applause. After chapel the girls went to the gymnasium, where they spent a very pleasant evening, the band furnishing delightful music for the votaries of Terpsichore. This is a sample of the surprises which Professor Bragdon so enjoys giving to the girls.

On Sunday evening the Lasell girls of the M. E. choir, assisted by the Amphion Quartet and others, gave under Mr. Davis' direction, a rare musical treat to the public, rendering with fine effect and great success the Cantata of Ruth. The service was held in the M. E. church.

Monday's cloudy skies necessitated the postponement of the anticipated excursion to Salem, to the disappointment of many.

If any friends of the seminary are willing to accommodate with board or lodging guests of the seminary during the coming commencement season, it will be a kindness to such guests and the seminary, if such persons will send to the seminary office their names stating what accommodation they are prepared to furnish. There are indications for an unusual number this year.

From a letter of Marion Harland's, written February 5, 1892.)

"A like quantity of

Cleveland's

Baking Powder goes further and does better work than any other of which I have knowledge. It is therefore cheaper."

Marion Harland

Miss MARY E. THOMPSON, graduate of New York City Training School for Nurses.

is prepared to do medical, surgical and obstetric nursing. Residence, Hartford Street, Newton Highlands. Telephone 24-4.

W. A. PARKS & CO. DEALERS IN—Boots, Shoes and Rubbers.

All Kinds of Repairing a Specialty. Also Special Agents for

THE VICTOR, LOVELL DIAMOND, and Gormally & Jeffries Machines.

Complete line of Sundries on hand. NEWTON CENTRE MASS. 3m

ADVERTISE IN THE

Watertown Enterprise.

HAMPDEN CREAM.

The reputation of the Hampden Cream is fully established, as the best to be found in the market. Endorsed by physicians as the best for invalids and infants.

TO BE FOUND ONLY AT Brackett's Market Company, Newton; H. P. Dearborn, Newtonville; F. M. Dutch, West Newton; Geo. F. Richardson or Armstrong's Market, Newton Centre.

AGENCY, 23 Windom Street, Allston, Mass.

23 44

EASTER!

Plants! Plants! Plants!

Easter Lilies, Azaleas, Hydrangeas, Spiraea, &c.

IN FULL BLOOM FOR EASTER.

10,000 Cut Easter Lilies, and other choice flowers, at (Doyle's) conservatories, formerly Hovey's Nurseries, 1509 Cambridge St., Cambridge, or at the Store, 43 TREMONT ST., BOSTON.

WILLIAM E. DOYLE.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.,

Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

Fashionable Garments for Men.

You cannot afford to lose the opportunity of seeing our exclusive styles of fine Spring Woolens for Gentlemen's wear. Moderate prices prevail.

C. B. SOMERS, Tailor,

149 A Tremont St., cor. West St., BOSTON.

Newton Horse Shoeing Shop

DELANEY, LELAND & HEWITT,

Successors to

P. A. MURRAY,

Washington Street,

NEXT TO

Murray's Carriage Manufactory,

Having purchased the horse shoeing branch of the business formerly conducted by Mr. P. A. Murray, we desire to state that we have worked at his stand several years and established a first-class reputation and we therefore feel assured of a continuation of your patronage. The shop in which we will continue the business is fitted up exclusively for horse shoeing and we can guarantee to give better satisfaction than ever. Special attention will be given to over reaching, interfering and tender footed horses, and also gentlemen owning trotting horses, can have them shod in any of the various styles of weighted shoes desirable for track work.

15

P. A. MURRAY, Carriage Builder.

FOR REAL COMFORT IN RIDING Use Rubber Tires.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED. Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGHS WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Pearmain AND Brooks, Bankers and Brokers.

(Members Boston Stock Exchange.) Have Removed to New Stock

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 32.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1893.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR

Special Notice.

We respectfully announce to our patrons and to the citizens of Newton, that we have removed from 546 Washington Street to our well located and finely appointed Store, 346 Boylston Street, opp. Arlington Street, Boston.

With ample floor space and greater facilities, we hope to increase our custom in Newton.

All are invited to inspect our stock.

PUTNAM & SPOONER.

METALLIC BEDSTEADS
AND FINE BEDDING.

MINER ROBINSON,
ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton. 12 Pearl St., Room 27, BOSTON.

The fitting of private residences for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT

a specialty. High grade electrical work of every description. Agent for the

MATHER SYSTEM

Complete electric light and power installations. If your electrical gas lighting system is constantly giving trouble, have a

"ROBINSON" ELECTRICAL GAS LIGHTING SWITCH

installed. Satisfaction guaranteed. Send for estimates.

Telephones, Boston, *3311; West Newton, 234.

Concrete Walks and Driveways.

The season for this work is now open, and we should be glad to receive orders or make estimates for parties wishing work in private grounds.

Having laid the Newton public sidewalks for the past sixteen years, the quality of our work is well known. Communication by mail will receive prompt attention.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, Newton.

Boston Office, 166 Devonshire St., Room 58.

This space reserved for
Howard & Doane,
Provision and Fish Dealers,
400 Centre St., Newton.
Telephone 253-3.

Physicians.

Clara D. Whitman-Keed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,

Corner of Washington and Jewett Sts.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith).
Office Hours: 9 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoef, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-5.

J. FRANKLIN FULLER, Jr.
Civil Engineer and Surveyor,
12 PEARL ST. BOSTON.
Rooms 24 and 25.
Surveys, Plans, and Estimates, for the Improvement, Drainage, and Development of City
and Suburban Real Estate.
Residence Highland St., West Newton
fo-3-93-6m 1-p

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS
Turner Centre Cream,
FOR SALE BY
C. P. ATKINS
Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

BRACKETT'S MARKET
COMPANY.

Established 1851. incorporated 1892.
Telephone No. 16-3.

The Best
Meats, Poultry, Game, Cream, Butter, Eggs,
Fruits and Vegetables
AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

This Market intends to fill all orders as if the customer was present. Goods which are found to be as represented may be returned.

7 & 8 COLE'S BLOCK,
Washington near Centre Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

Instruction.

MISS CLARA E. WADE,
TEACHER OF PIANO FORTE,
Cypress St., Newton Centre.
6 28c

HARRY BROOKS DAY,
TEACHER OF PIANO-FORTE
Organ, Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION
Eliot Block, or Hotel Hunnewell, NEWTON.
Millinery.

MILLINERY!

The Milliners at the Juvenile have been in New York the past week selecting the Latest Novelties for Spring and Summer
trade, and are now prepared to show all the NEWEST IMPORTATIONS.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,
Eliot Block, Newton.

MRS. E. A. SMITH,

MILLINERY!

202 Moody St., opp. Walnut St.

WALTHAM, MASS

FREE CIRCULATING LIBRARY
of Swedenborg's Works,
and other New Church Literature, at the Church
of the Newtonville New Church Society.
Open immediately after the morning service,
and from 4 to 6 Sunday afternoon. 11

Chandler & Co.

CLOAK DEPT.

LAIE S' CAPES in black and colors
New designs constantly arriving.
Prices from $8 to $80.

BLACK and COLORED CAPE JACK-
ETS and TOP COATS,
$10 to $35.

TEA GOWNS and WRAPPERS for spring and summer wear in large variety.

CHANDLER & CO.,
Winter Street, BOSTON.

Dressmakers.

MRS. H. S. BARROWS,
Dress Maker,
No. 62 Elmwood Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

DRESSMAKING
Evening and Street Costumes in Latest Designs.
Moderate Prices.
S. A. MERRITT, 33 PARSONS STREET,
NEWTONVILLE.
Waltham & Newton electric cars pass the street.
Bicycles.

Union Bicycles

Sold on the Installment Plan. Also Second Hand Bicycles taken in part payment for New Ones. Call and see them before purchasing and get Catalogue.

A. W. PORTER, 63 Richardson St.
28-8c

EDW. P. BURNHAM,
BICYCLE DEALER,
Agent for the Victor and all the Leading Wheels
Machines Rented to Responsible Parties.
Residence, 25 Park Street, - Newton. em

THE POPULAR NEW MAIL.

Diamond Frame.
Highest Possible Grade.
All Drop Forgings.

Pneumatic Tires, - $125.
LADIES' PATTERN..... $105 and $125
The Handsome Ladies' Wheel made.
BOYS' NEW MAIL, a High Grade
boys' wheel..... $60 and $65.
Cheaper Quality Boys' Wheels $25 and $35.
Call and get a Catalogue.

BARBER BROS., Agents,
OPPOSITE LIBRARY, - 415 CENTRE STREET.

Tailors.

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor
326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

JAMES PAXTON,

Manufacturing
Confectioner.

Cakes in Variety, Ices and Creams,
Fancy Ices, Frozen Pudding.

Pure Candies of our own Make.
CHOICE WEDDING CAKE.

NEWTON.

—Prescriptions compounded at Hann's.
Remember "Our Corner Market" when
ordering fine dinners.

—Miss Wagstaff has removed from Church street to No. 6 Centre place.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Higbee, Jr., are being congratulated on the birth of a son.

—Fine bedding plants at Irving's greenhouse, 161 Pearl street. Come and see. tf

—Lots on the hill at Fannell were sold at auction the past week for from 6 to 15 cents a foot.

—Postmaster Morgan has secured his extra carrier, and H. H. Bennett, who has acted as substitute, will begin regular trips next week.

—For the summer months the Newton postoffice will be open on Sunday from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m., beginning next Sunday.

—Mr. J. C. Brimblecom, assistant in the City Clerk's office, has removed to West
Newton.

—J. Herbert Parks is negotiating for the dry goods store conducted by George C.
Lunt in Barnard's block, Watertown.

—The Emory house, Galen street, is to be altered for two families. Two new double houses, it is understood, will be erected on the estate, one facing on Galen and one on Morse street.

—The Social Science Club will meet at Mrs. Biedegott's, Centre street, Wednesday,
May 17, at 10 a. m.

—Alderman Bothell has so far recovered from his severe attack of the grip that he is able to be out again on pleasant days.

—Mr. Luke Ashley, who has cut meat at Wellington Howes' market for so many years, will cut meat at Our Corner Market on Saturday.

—Mr. John T. Wells has purchased land at Wellesley Farms, with the idea of making his residence there in the near future.

—Rev. Mr. Byington, who has been quite seriously ill at The Hollis, is able to be out again.

—Mrs. B. S. Luther, whose estate on Park estate Mr. Goddard has leased for two years, is now at 483 Beacon street,
Boston.

—The Messrs. Hahn have bought the French roof house on Nonantum place, owned by Mrs. Brazier, and will occupy it in a few weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Truesdell have returned from a short visit to Sioux City, and will probably make their home in Newton for the future.

—Druggist F. A. Hubbard informs the public he is ready to supply the trade with ice cream soda for this season. Paxton is to make the cream especially for this trade.

—The engagement of Miss Mabel Landell to Franklin street, Philadelphia, and Dr.
Sidney R. Bartlett of 2 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, and Newton, is announced.

—Mrs. Geo. S. Downs and Miss Maud
Draper Downs, now of Boston, start for Chicago and the World's Fair Monday next and will proceed from there to Denver, Colorado.

—The report in a Boston weekly paper that Alderman Biddell had bought land in Wellesley Farms and intended to remove there, is not correct. He is one of the men that Newton could not afford to lose.

—The annual festival of the vested choirs of the Episcopal churches will be held in Boston this year, in three divisions.
Grace church choir will sing with the division at the Immanuel church, and Master Grafton Abbott will be one of the soloists.

—Recent arrivals at Hotel Hunnewell are Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Meacham of Newton; Mrs. Curtis and Miss Curtis of the Coppy Square Hotel, Boston; and Mr.
Wm. White and family of Boston.

—Mr. W. J. Farquhar has been spending a few days with his parents. Mr. Farquhar is now in the Purchasing Agent's office of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, New York City.

—The engagement is announced of Miss Elizabeth A. Spaulding, daughter of Mr.
George B. Spaulding of Allston, and Mr.
Will S. Fuller, son of the Hon. Granville
A. Fuller of Brighton.

—Henry D. Pigeon, while operating a saw lathe at the factory of the Hickory Wheel Company, Wednesday afternoon, lost his finger caught. He sustained a terrible wrench, and a piece of flesh was torn off. Several stitches were taken in the wound.

—Music for Grace church, Sunday evening:
Processional hymn, "Look ye Saints." Stanford Mendelssohn
Nunc Dimittis, Stanford Offertory Anthem, "Arise O Jerusalem, and stand on high," with solo for boy. Oliver King Recessional Hymn, "Forward be our

—Mr. Chas. F. Rogers has a tree of the Magnolia Conspicua now in full bloom, and it presents a very beautiful sight. Last year it bloomed on April 21st, and this year on May 9th, a difference of 18 days, which shows what a late spring we are having.

—The alarm of fire Thursday afternoon from box 16 called out a great crowd of people to the corner of Church and Centre street, and disproved the old story that no one remained in Newton during the fire. The fire was in a barn off Oak street.

—The very successful entertainment,
"Dairy Maid's Supper," under the direction of E. L. Bacon, was given at the North church, Nonantum, Tuesday evening. It consisted of bright and attractive songs, a milk maid's drill in costume, and a supper served by the young people. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

—Music at Eliot church, Sunday evening:
Organ Prelude. Mendelssohn
Anthem, "While the Earth Remaineth." Tiers Wagner
Cantata, "Immo."
Duet, "The Lord is my Shepherd." Buck
Soprano solo, "With Verdure Clad." Haydn Organ Postlude. Merkel

—The friends of Mrs. Emory Hill of Sax-onville, who as Mrs. Thompson, conducted the millinery business here for so many years, will be sorry to learn of the death of her husband, which took place quite suddenly at his residence in Saxtonville, from apoplexy.

—The great crowd of cyclists upon the streets every pleasant evening shows how popular the sport has become, but only a few take the precaution to light their lanterns and only extraordinary good luck prevents accidents, as the cyclists are out till long after dark and Newton's streets have many dark places.

—Miss C. Blanche Rice assisted at the farewell ball of Mr. H. G. Gattus Lonsdale at Hotel Ikley. The Boston Times said Miss Rice proved herself a great favorite and her recitations were a delightful feature of the evening's program; about one hundred and fifty of Boston's best society people were present.

—There was a very pleasant party at Mrs. Warren's, corner of Vernon and Centre streets, Wednesday evening, some twenty-five guests being present. Rev.
Dillon Bronson gave a very interesting talk on Japan with stereopticon views, which was followed by music by the Misses Warren and songs by Mr. Howe of Boston and a collation was served.

—Watertown is taking steps toward the widening of Watertown street from the Newton line to Galen street, as it is in certain places too narrow to permit of the Newtonville & Watertown electric road being operated with safety to teams. Steps are also being taken to have Mr. Ashurst street widened to 75 feet, the West End having promised to lay a double track and run electric cars every fifteen minutes if the street is widened.

—Real estate men say that business is unusually dull this year, and there are very few calls for houses to rent. The cause is said to be that every one is going to the World's Fair, and economy in all other things is the rule. Many Boston people who usually come to the suburbs during the summer have decided to occupy their city house when not absent; on their Chicago trip.

—Work has begun on the clearing up of the debris left by the fire in French's block, and a three story brick block, with three stories underneath and tenements above to be erected on the site. Mr. Henry F.
Ross has the contract. It would add much to the appearance of the square if the place of the present one story buildings.

—Newton was well represented at the Jamaica Plain Theatricals, Tuesday night.
The Players orchestra furnished music.
Miss Annie Payson Call appeared in "Afterthoughts," and directed the rehar-sal for the three plays given, and Mr.
George R. Pulifer and Miss Emily A.
Whiston of Newtonville, Mr. E. C. Burrage of West Newton and Miss Louise Whitney. A large audience witnessed the performance the first night. It was repeated with the same cast Wednesday evening.

—The drama "Bread on the Waters" was given by the choir boys in the parish house of Grace church Tuesday evening. The piece was neatly staged and creditably enacted. The parts were distributed as follows: Dr. Harlem, Mr. E. S. Hamblen; Harry Harlem, Master T. G. Abbott; Fred
Harlem and Bob Windsor, pupils of Dr.
Harlem; Master Fred Hill and Master
Howard Hackett; Jonathan Wild Butts, Master J. C. Stonemetz; Lucy Harlem,
Master C. A. Potter; Mrs. Loring, Master
R. E. Phillips; Dilly, Master Phil H.
Whitney. A large audience witnessed the performance the first night. It was repeated
with the same cast Wednesday evening.

—The grounds of the Waban Racquet Club are now in condition for play. It was intended to open the courts last week but on account of the poor weather the courts could not be put in condition. Three gravel courts have been laid out and the lines of the courts have been laid by a civil engineer so that they are perfectly true.
Provided sufficient players signify their intention of entering there will be an open tournament on Memorial Day, for which three prizes will be offered, a first prize, second prize, and a consolation. The tournament will be for singles and entries may be made to the secretary, W. L. Sampson, from whom full particulars may be obtained. The tournament is opened to any player in Watertown or Newton and it is hoped that sufficient entries will be made to make the tourney interesting. Tennis players desiring to join as associate members may do so on payment of a fee of $5.
All tennis players are invited to examine the courts on Boyd street.

—Miss Sears, who designed so beautifully the Boston window for the Woman's Building at the Columbian Fair, is a native of Boston and a sister of Mrs. Henry Tolman of Washington street, this city, who likewise shows great artistic taste, even in small matters of everyday life. Miss Sears' original design for this Boston window would have been, even more beautiful than the one selected, but was objected to on account of its lack of harmony with other windows previously selected. This window design was that of a Puritan dwelling entering through an open door with the blue sky and sea with its shipping seen through the door in the distance. It is much to be regretted that this design, at once so suitable and suggestive, could not be used, but for it surely would have been accorded a place among the things most beautiful.

—A. R. Gaul's cantata, "The Holy City," was given by the young people of the Methodist Society in the Methodist church.
The object of the entertainment was to raise funds toward a new church structure, and a handsome sum was realized. The cantata was given under the direction of Mr. Hugh Campbell and was sung by an admirable chorus of 30 voices, assisted by these soloists: Mrs. W. I.
Howell, Mrs. Van Buskirk, Miss Fannie
Barber, sopranos; Mrs. George W. Barber,
Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. J. W. Barber, contraltos;
Mr. C. N. Sladen, tenor; Mr. W. W.
Cole, bass. The concerted singing was excellent and the soprano parts very well sustained. Mr. Sladen gave a fine rendering of "My Soul is Aching for God," and Mr. Cole sang with great expression and an appreciation of the devotional character of the work. Some of the fine numbers were a solo and choral song,
"The Lord is my Shepherd," by the choir (soprano and contralto), "They Shall Hunger No More" and the quartet and chorus,
"List, the Cherub Host."

—The third anniversary of the vested choir of Grace church was observed Sunday evening. The large auditorium was completely filled, many being unable to obtain seats and upward of 1000 persons being present. The exercises consisted of the processional hymn, reception of new members to full membership, the evening prayer, the rendering of the sacred cantata,
"The Daughter of Jarius" by the full choir and soloists, offertory solo and closing prayers and benediction by the rector, Rev. George W. Shinn, D. D. The choral recitatives and solos of the cantata were finely given. The duet for tenor and soprano in the "Chorus of Unbelievers" was sung by Messrs. George J. Parker and T. Grafton Abbott. Mr. Parker also sang the solo "My Hope is in the Everlasting." Master Abbott is one of the finest boy soloists the choir has had, his voice being remarkably full and sympathetic. Master Harold Fred Hill was heard in several difficult solo recitatives, in which he acquitted himself with great credit, taking the high notes with perfect ease. The vested choir of Grace church sang for the first time, Sunday, April 20, 1890. It now numbers 32 voices. The choir master is Mr. Harry Brooks Day.

Artistic Wall Papers.
J. A. Glass & Co. of 119 Washington street, Boston, have a high reputation for artistic work, and they have the contract for ex-Mayor Hibbard's new summer residence at Wood's Hill, and also a new house of Mr. Harding, the artist, at the same place. See advertisement in another column.

10,000 Fansies
now ready at Mansfield's finest shades and odd colors a specialty. P. O. Box 111, Crafts street, Newtonville. 23 tf

The New Mail
is on exhibition at Barber Brothers, who have the agency for Newton, and have samples of various styles. Call and get a catalogue. 23 tf

NEWTON CLUB BOWLERS.

The crucial game in the Newton Club bowling tournament was played Tuesday evening between teams 3 and 10. It was won by the former and gives its players a lead of two games for the championship, with only one more match to play. The result practically settles first place, although a tie is possible between teams 3 and 15. The recent games are given below:

TEAM THREE.
Bowlers.	1st string.	2d string.	3rd string.	Total
Brown.....	173	100	170	503
West.....	128	147	150	445
Langdon.....	143	161	133	438
Baker.....	150	181	190	489
Beysong.....	146	156	168	370
Team totals.....	749	755	829	2333

TEAM TWO.
Bowlers.	1st string.	2d string.	3rd string.	Total
Mandell.....	159	159	142	460
Richards.....	142	139	157	469
Sleeper.....	149	132	175	456
Ballie.....	145	132	175	452
Coffin.....	145	121	132	398
Team totals.....	790	683	788	2261

TEAM EIGHTEEN.
Bowlers.	1st string.	2d string.	3rd string.	Total
Plummer.....	145	145	145	435
Raymond.....	156	169	156	481
Felton.....	152	139	141	432
Payne.....	115	115	115	345
Sprague.....	146	119	118	383
Team totals.....	691	669	630	1990

TEAM TEN.
Bowlers.	1st string.	2d string.	3rd string.	Total
Keller.....	127	130	170	427
Cunningham.....	163	116	143	422
Adams.....	149	136	119	404
Briggs.....	119	172	115	397
Mitchell.....	100	100	100	300
Team totals.....	649	654	647	1950

May 8, won by team 18, 40 pins.

TEAM FIFTEEN.
Bowlers.	1st string.	2d string.	3rd string.	Total
Dearborn.....	155	170	168	493
Loring.....	153	173	141	467
Bartlett.....	143	168	127	438
Chase.....	115	115	115	345
Harding.....	152	163	172	487
Team totals.....	680	789	723	2192

TEAM TEN.
Bowlers.	1st string.	2d string.	3rd string.	Total
Kimball.....	172	138	180	490
Pray.....	147	171	149	467
Johnson.....	130	130	130	390
Somers.....	133	133	133	399
Wheelock.....	128	146	178	452
Team totals.....	700	710	769	2179

May 5, won by team 15, 3 pins.

The Elms-Coffin Wedding.

The Unitarian church at West Newton was the scene of a notable society wedding Wednesday evening. The contracting parties were Miss Anna Balch Coffin, daughter of Mr. George R. Coffin of Auburndale, and Mr. Edward Everett Elms of Newton.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

The meeting of the common council Monday evening, was very short and pleasant, President Weed presiding as usual, and Councilmen Keapp, Turner, Bennett and Staples being absent.

After the records of the last meeting had been read and approved, the docket, which was short and uninspiring, was taken up, and the council concurred in everything with the aldermen.

At 7.45 hearings were opened on the taking of land for sewer purposes in Clafin place, Gay street, Green court, Green street, Hillside terrace and a private way off California street, but no one appearing to remonstrate they were quickly closed.

Councilman Parker of Ward Six presented a petition from W. B. H. Dawse and others, asking that the upper corner of Hunter street, West Newton, might be rounded off and graded. This was referred, and also a petition for concrete sidewalk on Washington near Elm street, from Dr. Albert Nott and others.

J. A. Whitman and others petitioned for a police signal box at Chestnut Hill, to be situated near the Chestnut Hill depot. Referred to police committee.

Councilman Green presented petitions from Florence E. Curtis for concrete sidewalk on Newtonville avenue, and from Joseph Byers and C. B. Somers, Lowell street, for sidewalks, with edgestones, both petitions being referred.

Councilman Tolman's order that the committee on public parks be instructed to consider and report upon the advisability of taking under the park act, Kendrick, Walnut and Waban Parks in Wards Seven and One, was passed without dissent, and at 8 o'clock the council adjourned.

Allen School Reunion.

The following has been arranged for the program for the reunion of the former pupils of the Allen school on Wednesday, June 21st:

Exhibition day exercises of the West Newton English and Classical school, President of the day, John Howard Ricketson, '54, of Pittsburgh, Pa. During the morning hours, old "family pupils" desiring to visit their former homes will be permitted to do so.

The afternoon and evening "Session," to consist of exercises in the three R's, Reviews, Recitations and Refreshments, will be held at the Woodland Park Hotel, Auburndale, from 2 to 12 p. m. Music furnished by the American Watch Co. band of twenty-five pieces.

Only parents' excuses for absence or tardiness of pupils will be accepted, but on this occasion boys will not be required to wear slips.

2.00 to 3.00 p. m. Teachers' reception in the large tent. All past and present teachers are respectfully urged to be present, and receive. The customary Wednesday's moral lecture will be omitted.

3.00 to 3.30 p. m. By special permission, the boys and girls may meet and take short walks together.

3.30 to 4.30 p. m. In the large tent, reception of invited guests, "Declamations," singing and election of officers for school association.

Salutatory, by the president of the day; addresses, by distinguished guests; poem, by a lady pupil; teacher's remarks, Nathaniel Topliff Allen; election of officers, school association; Valedictory, James Theodore Allen, '58.

5.00 to 8.00 p. m. Collation. "Day pupils will be dismissed in time to take their respective trains."

6.00 to 9.30 p. m. Promenade concert. 9.30 p. m. The "Dancing Class" will meet in the hotel dining hall.

Recitations during the afternoon and evening must not interfere with "Study Hour," but may be made the subject of "several pages" in the "Journal."

100 YEARS OLD.

MRS. SALLY CASE OF WELLESLEY HILLS REACHES THE CENTURY MARK.

Mrs. Sally Case of Wellesley Hills observed informally, on Sunday, her 100th birthday.

Through the long vista of years she has been, until quite recently, in the possession of vigorous health and preserving her faculties unimpaired.

She resides in the family of her brother, Mr. John Sawyer, who owns a beautiful place off the old turnpike in Wellesley Hills.

The house sets well upon a high hill and commands an admirable view of the surrounding suburbs.

Mrs. Case was born in that part of Lancaster which in 1850 became a part of Lincoln, May 7, 1793. She is descended from the Sawyer family on her paternal side, and her ancestors were among the early settlers of New England.

There is an apparent vein of longevity in the blood, as many of Mrs. Case's relatives lived to enjoy ripe old age.

Mrs. Case was married quite late in life. Her husband was a farmer, and she lived with him happily for 40 years. During her marriage, she resided in North Coventry, Ct. After the death of Mr. Case, about 20 years ago, she returned to her native town, but for the past 16 years passed a great deal of her time at her brother's home. It was her custom for many years to go from Wellesley Hills every summer to her ancestral homestead. For the past three years, however, she has not attempted the journey.

Her health has failed considerably during the last 12 months, and she is now quite feeble, although as keen and bright mentally as ever.

She was only able to greet her immediate family and intimate friends upon the occasion of her centennial anniversary, and many who had looked forward to meeting her on that occasion were obliged to defer their visits.

Mrs. Case has been a woman of strong character, very devoted and possessing an unusually bright mind.

One of the notable events which she distinctly recalls is the memorial funeral service held in her native town on the death of George Washington.

She also remembers many of the interesting features of the inauguration ceremonies at the White House of all the Presidents following Washington.

A Harmonious Effect.

(From Vogue.)

Mrs. Witherby—That chair you are sitting on is a genuine antique.

Miss Elderby—Then perhaps I had better not sit in it.

Mrs. Witherby—Oh, don't get up. It is very becoming to you.

Serious medicine and Hood's Sarsaparilla are synonymous terms, so popular is this great medicine at this season.

Newton Cottage Hospital.

The floors of the wards and corridors of this institution have been renovated, and the walls and ceilings tinted, a much needed improvement from a hygienic as well as an aesthetic standpoint.

The Board of Trustees has authorized an addition to the administration building, rendered necessary by the inadequate size of the dining room and kitchen. This work is now under way, and will cost somewhat under one thousand dollars. The new dining room will seat between thirty and forty persons.

The contract for the nurses' home has been awarded to H. H. Hunt, who will commence work immediately. This beautiful structure will be erected on the high ground east of the main building, will command an extensive view, and will be in every respect a restful home.

A committee has been appointed to design a suitable badge, to be presented to the nurses as they graduate. Such a badge, from an institution whose nurses have already earned a high reputation, will be an added incentive to all who may acquire it.

At the last meeting of the Executive Committee it was announced that a generous friend of the hospital had signified his intention to erect a surgical ward. This is a matter of great importance, and is hailed with intense satisfaction. The over-crowding of the male ward last winter proved the need of enlarged accommodations. While the building of a ward to be devoted exclusively to surgical cases is needed for securing the best results, it will also relieve the pressure for room in the general wards. A committee of the staff, consisting of Drs. Loring, Porter, Uiley, Eaton and the Superintendent, have been appointed to confer with the donor, and consider all questions relating to the new building, its location, plan and equipment.

The Seashore Tendency.

Every year finds a larger number of people going to the seashore during the hot months of summer, from our inland towns. The change works wonders in the health of the family, and it is coming to be a thing that is considered economical to do.

Gradually the available localities along the New England shores are being occupied as summer resorts, until it is said that, within five years, an available tract of land will hardly be left for this purpose. This year another one of the historic spots in New England has been opened for sale in house lots.—We mean Wessagussett, the place on which was made the second settlement of white men on New England soil, and where, later, was fought the decisive battle with the Indians by Miles Standish and his army of 11 men.

A beautiful spot this is, with fine views, bracing air, good beach, and deep water shore; only about 8 miles south of Boston, and connected by electric and steam cars and by boat. The owners advertise a free trip down the harbor every day, on their own boat, to Wessagussett, and those of this city who want a lot on the shore would do well to take advantage of this offer.

In going to Boston, make it a part of your visit to see this historic spot.

BISHOP-ELECT LAWRENCE.

HIS LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE TO THE SECRETARY OF THE DIOCESE.

Bishop-elect Lawrence has sent the following letter of acceptance to the secretary of the diocese:

EPISCOPAL THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL, CAMBRIDGE, MASS., May 8, 1893.

Reverend and Dear Sir: I acknowledge the receipt of your letter of May 4, giving me official notice of my election by the diocesan convention to be the bishop of the diocese of Massachusetts. Should the election receive the confirmation required by the church, I shall accept the sacred office. The gracious spirit that prevailed during the convention, and the cordial greetings that I have received from different parts of the diocese, assure me that the church in this state will give all support and encouragement to one who hesitates to accept a position which has been so nobly filled by the past. Believing that the call of the church thus given is also the call of God, I pray that his blessing may rest on our common work. I remain your friend and brother.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE.

Rev. Dr. William H. Brooks, Secretary of the Diocesan Convention of Massachusetts.

New Electric Cars.

Two of the eight cars from the J. M. Jones & Son's manufactory at West Troy, N. Y., have been received at the car station of the Newton Street Railway Company at West Newton. These cars are box cars numbered 24 and 25, and are provided with the revolving signboards showing the route taken, and can thus be run either between Newton and Waltham or between Waltham and Watertown. They are longer than any other box cars of the Newton Street Railway company, are mounted on trucks of the very latest design, and are painted red and gold. The new cushions are of leather of terra cotta color, and the interior decoration and carving are in keeping with the standard of excellence set by the J. M. Jones company.—[Waltham Free Press.]

After the Money.

(From the New York Tribune.)

Aspiring young author—I have here a few pastels in prose, which I venture to think will create a sensation in the literary world. I have tried to throw into them the divine afflatus of poetry, tinged with the tragic pathos of human life.

Editor of the Literary Vortex (glancing over the pages)—Hm! Afraid that sort of stuff won't go any more. Nothin' in it in the first place, and done to death. Sorry, but—tell you what, though! Suppose you let us print it in our funny column as a burlesque on the prose pastel business! It'll be the creamin' est thing we've had in a long time."

"What'll you pay?"

"Three dollars."

"Cash down?"

"Yes."

"Gimme the money."

It is Useless

For young ladies who are troubled with freckles, pimples, moths and tan and a bad skin generally to use liquid paints or dry powders for they only make the skin look well on the time being. To have a good complexion you must have pure blood. Use Sulphur Bitters and your skin will be fair and complexion rosy.—Young Ladies' Magazine.

WABAN.

—The steam roller is at work on Beacon street.

—Mrs. I. H. Harlow is spending the week in Medway with friends.

—Mrs. J. H. Robinson has been quite ill but is now improving.

—Mr. Harlow is expected home next Thursday from his European trip.

—The Matinee Whist Club celebrated the last of their meetings for the year by a theatre party on Saturday afternoon.

—The gypsies left town this week.

—Mrs. Whitman addressed The Readers, on Ruskin, last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. L. M. Flint. This is the last meeting of the club for this year.

—Miss Maude R. Kendrick delightfully entertained the Zephyr club at home last Saturday evening by a cobweb party. First prizes were awarded Miss Lillie Collins and Mr. Maynard Collins, while the boobies were captured by Miss Vivien Norris and Mr. Richard Rand.

—Rev. F. N. Peloubet will conduct the services here next Sunday and Rev. H. J. Patrick on Sunday, May 21.

Lasell Notes.

On Saturday evening the school was again treated to the pleasure of music, during dinner by the Waltham Crescent band, who after chapel service, played for the fair dancers.

Mr. Shepherd has returned from Chicago where he went to attend to the arrangement of Lasell Headquarters at the Lasell exhibit therein. He says the enclosure built for this purpose, and recently described in the GRAPHIC, wins praise from all, and has received some very complimentary notices. It was the only section in the Woman's Building, that was complete on the opening day, a fact which the Chicago papers duly noted.

The Monday excursion party to Salem numbered about fifty. The day was just right, and all enjoyed the trip immensely, taking in all the most noted of the places of historic interest in which Salem so abounds. Witchcraft and Hawthorne were the topics of the hour, and the hours were discussed at length, if not exhaustively.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—How does the watering cart suit?

—The assessors have been busy this week.

—Mr. James Leach is having his house repaired.

—Mr. O. G. Billings is driving a fine new team.

—Mr. R. B. Day's of Woonsocket spent Sunday with Dr. W. H. McOwen and family, Chestnut street.

—Several members of Echo Bridge Council, R. A., visited Triton council at West Newton Monday evening, and were hospitably entertained.

—Mr. W. J. Burnett is grading about his house.

—Alderman Thompson is making improvements about his pleasant residence on Oak street.

—A still alarm called out hose 7 Wednesday afternoon for a fire in the woods near Circuit avenue.

—Mr. Daniel Haggerty has returned from his trip to New York.

—Mr. W. H. Dunham has moved from High street to a house on Pennsylvania avenue.

—Mr. Wm. Dyson of Pennsylvania avenue is having the grounds about his residence finely laid out.

—Mr. Fred Stockman of Kentucky was visiting friends in town this week. He is east for some weeks with a load of fine Kentucky horses.

—Mr. R. W. Carvin, station agent at the Newton Upper Falls depot, has gone to Connecticut, and the position here has been taken by Mr. G. W. Avery.

—The Pettie Machine Works have commenced the erection of several houses on their land across the river, opposite the Newton Water Works pumping station.

—Echo Bridge is beginning to prove an attraction and it has had many visitors the past few days. On Sunday a large crowd were coming and going most of the day, and many visited Echo Bridge Park, which is only a few rods distant, and enjoyed a stroll through the beautiful grove surrounding the grove. The new grove being cleared up by the silk mill proprietors is progressing very rapidly, the undergrowth being burned away and the high board fence surrounding the grove is nearly completed. The remodeling of the grounds is being rapidly pushed forward, and when completed this grove will be one of the most attractive spots in the vicinity of Boston. Near this grove and adjacent to Echo Bridge Park is one of the most wonderful natural beauties of the Charles River in what is called the "Devil's Den" where New Pond has its outlet. The water having worn its way forms a miniature rocky canon with walls 15 or 18 feet above the surface of the water.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

THE ATLANTIC.

A brilliant paper on the World's Fair, written by the well-known architect Mr. Henry Van Brunt, is a fitting contribution to the Atlantic Monthly. Judge Caton, who was employed in the first lawsuit recorded in Cook County, Illinois, has an interesting descriptive paper called "The Sixty Years Since" in Chicago. A three-part story, by Mary Catherine Lee, entitled "An Island Plant," is begun in this number. Captain A. T. Mahan contributes an interesting paper on Admiral Saumarez. A delightful paper is written by Sir Edward Strachey on "The Old Hall and the Portraits," a rambling old-fashioned paper on a country house. Mr. Lafado Hen has a puzzling paper on "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is another of those side-lights on Hawthorne's character. Professor James Jay Greenough discusses very ably "The English Question." Some good poetry, and criticisms on Mr. William Watson's poetry, Flagg's Life of Alston, Julian's Life of Joshua, "The Japanese Smile," and Professor Shaler's paper on "European Peasants as Immigrants" considers a social question which is one of the most important of our period. An article by Henry Lee on Frances Anne Kemble shows us this clever, passionate woman in an interesting light. Bliss Perry's paper on "Hawthorne at North Adams" is

"Praying Up the Steps."

The Catholics of Cincinnati gave a remarkable demonstration of the faith that is in them when they "prayed up the steps" on Mount Adams. This peculiar custom has been in vogue for about 30 years, and the Church of the Holy Cross, standing on the brow of the cliff on Mount Adams, has become celebrated far and near for the miracles performed there. Fully 10,000 men and women "prayed up the steps" on Good Friday. There are 267 of the steps in all and about 35 landings. The pilgrims who visit the chapel must remain silent for three hours.

The pilgrim upon reaching the stairs on Third street repeats a "Hail, Mary." Stepping upon the first step, she pauses and repeats the prayer. That done, she steps up one and silently repeats "Hail, Mary," and thus step by step she prays to the top, pausing on the platform to repeat the Lord's Prayer. All this time she keeps in mind a certain wish she hopes to have accomplished within the year. Arriving at the church, the barefooted monks bless them, and they go about their business.

One of the fair penitents said most of the married women pray for husbands. The married women pray for their wayward children. Those having sick friends pray for their recovery. It is said cases of rheumatism have been cured by the patients "praying up the steps." Every Good Friday the steps are blocked with penitents from noon to dark.—Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Comment on Political News.

It is with extreme regret that the men who are urgent for the reform of the civil service read of the wholesale removal of fourth class postmasters which are being made by the ready ax of Headman Maxwell. The feeling is just as strong against this vicious practice as it was against the same policy under Clarkson, and prominent men who supported Cleveland have no more charity for the evil under a Democratic than under a Republican administration. In fact, the assurances which have been given of the purpose to extend the civil service rules and to follow the spirit of the civil service law makes such doings as Maxwell's all the more exasperating.

One of the active Mugwumps of the campaign of 1884, who has supported Cleveland ever since, speaking today of Maxwell's policy, said that "he ought to be snaked out of his office." It is already proposed to enter a formal and vigorous public protest against this policy of removal for political reasons, and unless there is a change the administration will lose rapidly in the good will which it evoked when it was said that the claims of office hunters would not be suffered to interfere with the public business.—Springfield Republican.

A Reprehensible Practice.

Nepotism is bad enough, but there is a practice that has worked its way into the government which is worse. It is nepotism in its most reprehensible form. It is the practice of senators, representatives, cabinet officials and government officials in general of fastening their relatives upon the public treasury. An example is the United States senator whose wife's mother, sisters and a lot of cousins are all in the departments. There are several similar cases, besides cases of congressmen who have thrust their relatives into the public service in a variety of ways.

Cabinet officers have their sons thrust upon the treasury. It is bad enough for senators to make their relatives clerks to senate committees and otherwise provide for them in document rooms and other places, where they will be remembered in at least one of the numerous appropriations at the close of the session, but the practice of colonizing them in the departments is the worst kind of nepotism.—Washington Letter.

Would Die Rather Than Testify.

Mrs. Carrie E. Welch, about 25 years of age, entered station 2, Cambridgeport, late Tuesday night and dropped a note on the captain's desk. It was an announcement that the writer intended to take her life rather than testify in the divorce case of her parents, which was to be called the following day. "You will find my body," said the note, "in the Charles River near the Western avenue bridge." A policeman was sent after the woman, who had hurried away, and in a short time he overtook her and carried her back. When they reached the station, physicians were sent for, and it was discovered that she had taken poison. She was finally pronounced out of danger and was placed in charge of the matron of station 1 for the night, and the next day was taken to her home.—Boston Transcript.

Lived on Elk and Eagle Meat.

Four hunters were snowbound in the mountains at the headwaters of the Winochee river, Washington, for five weeks during February and part of March. When the storm which snowed them up came, they exhausted their stock of provisions and had killed 11 elk. They lost their game and were three days without food when they killed an eagle. Later they found an elk powerless in the deep snow. They lived on elk and eagle alone for over a month. The snow was 8 to 15 feet deep, and they could not make any progress through it. Eventually they reached a deserted camp and found an ax with which they split wood and made rude snowshoes, by means of which they got back to civilization.

May Be Rube Burrow's Plunder.

News comes from Lamar county of the finding of about $2,000 in coin, which was dug up in a field on a farm not far from where Rube Burrow, the train robber, formerly resided. It is thought that this money was some of Burrow's ill gotten gains. He was known to have had about that amount of money a year before he was killed, and it was never accounted for. Some of his relatives say he buried it. The express companies he robbed may recover it. The man on whose farm it was found has it.—Alabama Cor. St. Louis Republic.

New Officers at the Capital.

Some of the new public officials who are making their debut on the public stage have a great deal to learn. As a rule officials acquire cerebral enlargement in inverse ratio to the length of their service. A new appointee generally has an exaggerated and exalted notion of his own importance. It takes time and the natural shifting of the tides to bring him to a realizing sense of the position he occupies and its relation to others. Mr. Olney is an able lawyer and a man of great ability, but he has never before held public office and is inclined to be both petulant and arrogant. The other day Representative Moses of Georgia called upon the attorney general to offer some suggestions about one of the Georgia appointments under the department of justice. When Moses had stated his business, Attorney General Olney said curtly:

"You will have to be brief." Mr. Moses flared up. "Things have reached a pretty pass," said he hotly, "when a representative in congress can be spoken to in that fashion by a cabinet officer upon whom he has called on public business. I am not accustomed to be told that I must be brief. Good morning, sir," he added as he turned on his heel and departed. The attorney general realized that he had made a mistake. He tried to correct it, but the irate Georgian refused to listen.—Washington Cor. Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not Just Right.

Here is a little story for which every reader may furnish his own moral. In a New England city a bright young woman who earns her own living had saved $75 with which to go to the World's fair. A few weeks ago a sensational Boston newspaper started a contest for free trips to the fair. The young woman's friends thought they would surprise her with one of these free trips. They began buying the newspaper coupons and sending them in to be credited to her.

Some indiscreet friend let her know what was going on. As her friends were spending so much money for her benefit she felt bound in honor to assist. In the end her $75 went into the pool, and in the total over $400 were spent, but this sum was not quite enough. The free trip went to somebody who had 20,500 coupons against her 20,000. She gets nothing for the $400 spent in her behalf, and she will not go to the fair. Hundreds more tried and failed. The newspaper pocketed thousands of dollars for which it makes no return. But did the newspaper get this money honestly?—Buffalo Courier.

The Treaty With Russia.

The principal point of objection in the proposed treaty with Russia is the exceedingly loose definition of political offenses in article 3, which exposes a large class of people who come to this country for a refuge from political, social and religious oppression to the malicious machinations of a foreign power, which affords no such guarantees of a fair and just trial under the law as those which constitute the chief pride and privilege of the American people.

Standing as this nation does for universal liberty and human rights, we stultify our own principles and deny our own history when we deprive one worthy refugee who has been persecuted out of his native land of the guardianship of our beneficent laws and the protection of our courts of justice. Under this treaty the Russian government can come into this country by means of its agents and pursue any Russian whom it may see fit to charge with an extraditable offense and demand his immediate surrender, even though he has become a fully naturalized American citizen.—New York Mail and Express.

Engallant Criticism of Gladstone.

An edifying exhibition of judicial taste and humor was given by Sir Richard Harington at a church defense meeting at Hereford recently. The county court judge presided, and in closing the meeting he remarked that there was only one person in the universe who would be dissatisfied with their proceedings.

"That person was usually described as an old gentleman. He did not mean Mr. Gladstone. He meant the devil." Sir Richard's elegant persiflage was a fitting supplement to that of Mr. W. Morris, who, speaking on the same day at a meeting held under the presidency of the bishop of Hereford, suggested that if Mr. Gladstone persisted with the Welsh suspensory bill "he might be accused, probably rightly accused, of treading in the steps of Judas Iscariot." Mr. Morris, however, is but a layman.—London Truth.

For He Might Have Been a Russian.

The case of Lup Chue, the Chinaman who was arrested for violating the United States registration law, was heard before United States Commissioner A. J. Williams yesterday. Judge Blandin, the attorney for Lup Chue, charged that the state could not prove that Lup Chue was a Chinaman. There was no expert testimony to demonstrate that Lup Chue was not a Japanese, or a Russian, or a Turk, or any other nationality. The state was utterly unable to show what constituted a Chinaman, and Lup Chue was discharged.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mrs. Astor Is Edging Into the Inner Circle.

There seems to have been a misstatement in asserting that Mr. Astor will take up his permanent residence in England. Mr. Astor's financial interests will demand his frequent presence in New York. Mrs. Astor will, however, be more constantly in this country, where she has received the most friendly attention from the aristocracy. It was noticed that at the drawing room Mrs. Astor was received into the inner circle as a special mark of the queen's favor.—London Court Journal.

The southern strawberry crop is going to be very large this year, Louisiana experts say. The first crates of berries have already been sold. The acreage in strawberries in Louisiana this year is almost double that of 1892.

Warning Words From a Woman.

Mrs. Jane G. Austin, who has been decidedly opposed to the suffrage movement, writes to the Boston Transcript:

I am really afraid that the inexorable logic of events is going to lay upon the already overburdened shoulders of women the added burden of suffrage.

If public officials generally were women, would they play with the lives of men and women as gamblers play with dice? Or if women were voters would they allow such officials to remain in power?

A few weeks ago scores of the wards of a neighboring state were burned to death because the men in charge of them provided maniacs with matches and then locked them up without fire escapes. Would women have created such stupendous folly? Or when the crisis came would women have lost their heads and been unable to devise some means of extricating those wretched victims? I guess not.

When political selfishness and greed become official inhumanity and brutality, it is time for the underlying forces of our community to rise up and come to the front. Nobody, I imagine, doubts that women, if they choose to assert themselves, can do anything they see fit to do, from knitting off the heads of kings and queens to preventing cruelty to animals, children and poor old women, but it would be so much better, O ye men, if you would behave yourselves decently in the position we have conceded to you and not put all the work of the common household upon our poor shoulders!

The Bottle Flies In Time of Suspense. Within the memory of man there has not been a mysterious disappearance at sea without the subsequent finding of a corked bottle floating or thrown upon land, containing what has purported to be a message from the sinking ship. This happened as usual in the case of the lost White Star liner Naronic. On a beach near the mouth of Chesapeake bay a champagne bottle was found, inclosing a paper telling that the Naronic struck an iceberg early in the morning of Feb. 19 in a blinding snowstorm, and at that time was sinking. While it is not impossible that the Naronic may have met her fate at the time and in the way mentioned, it is practically impossible that this bottle with its message could come from that vessel.

The ship on the 19th of February would have been in the neighborhood of the Grand Banks, from which point the ocean currents would have carried a floating object anywhere rather than to the coast of Virginia. Moreover, if the bottle were fairly launched on the Labrador current, a trip of 1,100 miles in 38 days would be next to incredible. The practical joker did not calculate with exactness in this instance.—Boston Commonwealth.

The Queen Doesn't Count In Politics.

We are a self governing country. The occupant of the throne reigns, but does not rule. The queen's political opinions are her own. They have no more to do with those of the electors than those of any other lady in the realm. Her majesty's subjects neither know nor, with all respect be it said, care what she thinks upon home rule or upon any other political issue. On such matters they take the liberty to act upon their own opinions, and no revolutionist can do a worse service to the crown than by attempting to make political party capital by asserting that she favors one party and disfavors another.

In 1880 there were many reasons why the Tories were defeated. Not the least of them was that Lord Beaconsfield endeavored to convey an impression that the queen was strongly opposed to their defeat. Yet, unwarmed by experience, it is obvious that it is intended to appeal to the country to put an end to Mr. Gladstone's government by asking it to regard this government as injurious to the queen's health because she is so fervent a Conservative and Unionist.—London Truth.

Because He Is a Jew.

However viewed, the refusal of the Union League club to admit Theodore Seligman to membership is reprehensible, unmanly and un-American. How the well fed and well satisfied gentlemen who lounge in the stuffed chairs of the Fifth avenue palace expect the Republic, an party to become popular and keep in touch with the people when the Union League club, the representative organization of the country, deliberately and unitedly rejects as a member a well recommended young man of signal abilities, clean life, and the son of so eminent a philanthropist as Jesse Seligman, is beyond comprehension.

The only reason for the rejection, when facts are sifted, is because of his religion. It is an unfortunate occurrence. It was neither an cosmopolitan, republican, American nor Christian. The Union League club has made a mistake.—New York Commercial Advertiser (Rep.).

A Legacy to Charleston.

The bequest of the late John Thomson to the city of Charleston of a residuary estate, which it is estimated will amount to a sum exceeding $100,000 and possibly twice as much, has naturally caused a good deal of talk around town, and the talk in most instances resolves itself into the question, "What shall we do with it?" It is no secret that Mr. Thomson at one time intended to leave a handsome legacy to the museum of the College of Charleston—in fact, a will was made to that effect—but it seems that the present will was made subsequently to that. The money is given to the city absolutely, which gives every citizen and taxpayer a right at least to express an opinion as to what the city council should do with it.—Charleston News.

A Change In Men's Calling Cards.

A careful sister might whisper in her brother's ear that calling cards for men have been appreciably larger this year than have been used for some time past. Men are, most of them, careless in these little matters of change, but if they pretend to keep up with the altering styles at all they should be assisted once in awhile by their womankind.—New York Times.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

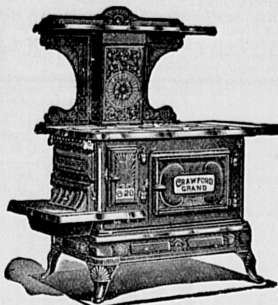

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City, Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eruption, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., "The Winthrop," 15th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK.

Ranges,
Parlor Stoves,
Water Heaters,
Steam Boilers.

AT FACTORY STORE OF

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.

GALEN STREET, WATERTOWN, MASS. TELEPHONE No. 30, NEWTON.

—ALL KINDS—

Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work. FURNACES AND RANGES REPAIRED.

We have a few Second-Hand Ranges at a Bargain

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the

varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS.

STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY

MAYNARD MASS

On and after July 2nd next, our Salesroom will close at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday.

THEODORE L. MASON, Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American Watches always in stock. Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather and American Clocks a specialty. All work warranted to give satisfaction. Eliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

J. H. LOOKER,
French Cleansing and Dyeing
Dry Cleansing and Repairing a specialty.
Particular attention paid to Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine
Linen and Hand Laundry
Work of all kinds.
No. 21 Carlton Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

Slate, Copper, Tin and Gravel
ROOFING.
Special attention given to repairing.
John Farquhar's Sons,
Nos. 30 and 32 East St., Boston.
Established 1838. Telephone No. 192.

CHAUTAUQUA NURSERY CO.
A full line of Nursery stock. Agents Wanted. Also Specialties in fruit trees. Address: Salter's Corners, Chautauqua Nursery Co., PO BOX 2, N. Y.

Railroads.

Boston Revere Beach and Lynn R. R. Fall and Winter Time-Table, Sept. 11, 92.

Leave Boston for Lynn at 6.50, 7.30, 8.30, 10.11 A.M., 12 M., 1.23, 3.30, 4.45 (Express), 5.30, 6 (Express), 6.30, 7.30, 8.30, 10.20 and 11.25 P. M.

Leave Lynn for Boston at 6.10, 6.50, 7 (Express), 7.40 (Express), 8 (Express), 9, 9.30 (Express), 10.11 A.M., 12 M., 1.23, 2.45, 3.15, 4.45, 4.45, 5.15, 5.50, 6.45, 7.15, 8.15, 9.15 and 10.11 P. M.

SUNDAY TRAINS.

Leave Boston for Lynn every hour from 10 A.M. to 9 P.M., inclusive, and at 10.15 P.M.
Leave Lynn for Boston every hour from 9 A.M. to 8 P.M., inclusive, and at 9.30 P.M.
All trains stop at West Lynn.

JOHN A. FENNO, C. A. HAMMOND
G. T. A. Supt.
Boston, Sept. 11, 1892.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.
Newton to Bowdoin Square

WEEK DAY TIME.
First car leaves Newton 5.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.
Returning leave Bowdoin square 7.00 A. M. then every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.

SUNDAY TIME.
First car leaves Newton 7.50 A. M. then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.
Returning leave Bowdoin square 8.30 A. M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.
First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.5 A. M.
C. S. SERGEANT, General Manager

PURE - MILK

supplied daily from
PROSPECT VALLEY FARM
One Cow's Milk supplied where desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,
WALTHAM, MASS.
Lock Box, 192.

By Edward F. Barnes, Auctioneer, 27 State Street, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a Power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Samuel Hano to Sarah J. Tappan dated October 1st 1873 and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Registry of Deeds Book 1256 Page 491, duly assigned to Sarah D. Gilbert by Don A. Hunt Executor, by assignment dated February 26 1889, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Registry of Deeds Book 1256 Page 491, and by assignment dated February 26 1889, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Registry of Deeds Book 1256 Page 491, will be sold at Public Auction on the premises hereinafter described on Monday the 22nd day of May 1893 at 4.30 o'clock in the afternoon all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows: All that certain lot, piece, or parcel of land situate, lying, and being in the Town of Newton (in that part of the Town commonly called Newton Center) in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and bounded and abutted as follows: Beginning at a point on the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Southerly side of Washington Street, thence Westerly along the Southerly side of said Street to the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence easterly and southerly along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and southerly along the said land of said Railroad Company two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

65 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should
be made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN,

Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 938-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday
afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

SEPARATE THE GRADES.

There seems to be no reason now why the work of doing away with the grade crossings on the main line of the Boston & Albany railroad should not be pushed forward at once, without any more delays. The plan recommended by the Railroad Commission is substantially in accord with the plans of the company and there seems to be a general agreement among the members of the City Council in favor of the same plan. The city has expended a good deal of money in the investigation of the plans presented, and while it may have been worth while, it caused a delay of a year in the commencement of the work. But there is no need of further delays. We may not all like the plan, but it is wise to take what we can get, in this world, and anything would be better than the present condition of things.

Let any reader who thinks grade crossings are not a nuisance stand at the Centre street crossing for a few hours, and he will see what a great interruption to traffic of every kind the trains are.
At some hours of every day there will be twenty teams and any number of people waiting while the gates are down for two and even three trains to pass before they are lifted, and the loss of time amounts to a great item to every one doing business in the city. Every incoming train during the day keeps the gates down for about five minutes at a time, not to speak of the long and slow moving freight trains, and the numerous express and outward local trains.
Pedestrians do not lose so much time, for most of them are reckless and dodge through between the trains, of course exposing themselves to the danger of instant death every time they do, and it is only by good luck and the watchful-ness of the gate tenders that horrible accidents are not of daily occurrence.
This same thing is true of every crossing on the main line. People who have visited Springfield recently are fully as enthusiastic as the aldermen were last year, over the way the grades have been separated there and the very handsome stone bridge that has been built, and bridges of the same attractive style are promised for Newton. The elevation of the tracks would not really be as objectionable as it would seem, as on the levels the tracks will hardly be above the present board fences, and after they have been raised a year people will forget that they ever objected to such a measure. The main thing is to get rid of the grade crossings and the manner is of secondary importance.

THE Boulevard Commission has since its appointment held a great number of hearings and the members have given a great deal of time to the consideration of what will be for the future interests of the city, with a due regard to economy, and the least expenditure of money to accomplish the best results.
It is understood that they have so far accomplished the purpose for which they were appointed, that they are preparing their report and that it will be presented to the Board of Aldermen next Monday evening. This is certainly commendable promptness, and the report will show something of the great amount of work they have done. They will recommend, it is stated, the acceptance of the Newton Boulevard, according to the plans described in the GRAPHIC some weeks ago, from the Boston line to Centre street, and they have also gone farther than this, and considered the extension of the boulevard to Auburn street and will report what the property owners along the route from Centre street to Auburn street are willing to do in this matter. This would give the city a handsome boulevard, midway between the railroad tracks on either side of the city, and would open up the most desirably situated land in the city for residi-dential purposes. It is also probable that the City Engineer will present figures showing the probable cost to the city of its part of the construction of the boulevard, so that the aldermen can have something definite to go upon.

THE question of national ownership of the companies that serve the public convenience is one that is more and more engaging public attention, and such ownership will not be delayed by the arbitrary attitude of such companies in dealing with the municipalities, which give them a free use of the public streets, often times to the great inconvenience of the public. Such companies owe their existence to their franchises, and yet they are very unwilling to render any equivalent therefor. Take the Telephone company, for instance, whose struggles to get leave to erect their poles on certain streets in West Newton, the past winter, attracted a good deal of attention, and which is constantly asking favors of this kind of the city. In return for these favors the company is willing to furnish telephones to the city at the usual rates. Yet the Telephone company is only one of many private corporations whose very existence depends on getting permits to use the public streets.

The Nationalists claim that all these should be owned by the government, which could either serve the people at cost, or charge the usual rates and pay all the government expenses.

COL. A. A. POPE of bicycle fame does not like the idea of taxing bicycles, as has been done by the assessors of Lowell, and in a letter to the newspapers makes a very ingenious plea, claiming that the bicycle is the means of transportation of the poor man, to enable him to ride to and from his work, and that the assessors had better spend their time in searching for the stocks and bonds of the rich; also that as the value of bicycles vary, no fixed sum could be decided on as a tax.
There is something in this side of the question, but as the actual cost to the makers of a $150 machine is said to be about $50, how would it do for the assessors to take that as the value. It would not seem to be much more difficult to get at the real value of a wheel than of any other property. As for the great majority of wheels being owned by poor men, this is hardly the case in Newton.
A moderate tax upon bicycles would seem to be no more unjust than the tax on any other kind of personal property, and in most cases it would not involve any particular hardship, and would not interfere with the sale of the machines.
It would give the owners the pleasure of feeling that they were helping to pay the expenses of government.

THE question has been asked as to the cost of caring for streets on which there are electric railways, whether it is greater than before the railroads were started.
We have taken the trouble to look the matter up, and the highway officials say that it costs one third more to care for Washington street and keep it in repair, than it would without the car tracks.
The teams now are for a large part of the way confined to a narrow space on either side of the tracks, and the space is very soon worn down and made uneven, and repairs are needed, when before the tracks were laid teams were scattered over the streets, and when once the street was in repair it lasted for a whole season. The same thing has proved true of Walnut street. In this way the street cars add an appreciable sum to the expense of caring for our streets, and many think that the street railway companies should at least pay for this added expense. Whether the taxes they pay into the city treasury are sufficient to counterbalance this loss to the city is an interesting question, that might have something to do with the matter.

COUNCILMAN TOLMAN's recommendation that the city should take under the park act, Kenrick, Walnut and Waban Parks, ought to be adopted. There would probably be no expense connected with this, as the land has been open so many years, save the expense of caring for them, which would not be heavy.
The condition of Kenrick and Waban Parks is not creditable to the city, as they are at present left uncared for, and during the summer present a rather forlorn appearance. Walnut Park is cared for by the residents, who hire a man to keep it in order and share the expense, and if this was done with the other two parks, there would be no immediate necessity of action by the City Council, although it would be much better to have the ownership of the land definitely settled, and the responsibility for their care placed with the city. A well kept park, even if it is a small one, is always a great addition to the beauty of a neighborhood, while a neglected one is the reverse. Mr. Tolman's recommendation is certainly a wise one.

JUDGING from some rumors one hears there are grave doubts whether the sidewalk ordinance will pass the Common Council when it comes up for final action.
Some of the members who voted for it are said to have expressed their intention of changing to the negative, and hope to defeat it. Citizens who are at all interested in this matter, so important to the good name of the city, should hasten to labor with their representatives in the lower branch and make them see that there is a strong public sentiment behind this ordinance, which they can not afford to disregard. We have had child's play over this matter long enough, it is time that Newton had an ordinance regarding clean sidewalks, the same as every other city in the Commonwealth, and not allow our sidewalks in winter to be in a condition that would disgrace the smallest country town in the state. A little timely effort now on the part of public spirited citizens would brace up the backsliders, and enable us to make a beginning in the matter.

THE new city hall project is more or less talked about, especially in Newton-ville, whose residents want all the important city buildings located in their ward, but there is no probability that any immediate steps will be taken towards the building for some years, at least, until the expensive undertakings now on hand, such as the removal of grade crossings, widening of Washington street, the new boulevard and parks, sewers and other matters are disposed of. The new city hall is a luxury that can wait.

THE Boston & Albany Railroad Company has brought suit against the town of Woblesley for breach of contract in the sum of $8,000. The suit grows out of the contract made with the railroad company relative to abolishing grade crossings.

MARRIED.

DAKANSON-JAKARSON-At Newton Centre,
May 4, by Rev. Herning Jacobson, Oscar Hakanason and Matilda Jakarson.
HESS-THOMAS-At Newton, May 2, by Rev.
Dillon Bronson, Mr. David Hess and Sylvia
J. Thomas.

COOK-FRIEND-At Newton Highlands, May 20, by Rev. N. P. Gilman, Mr. Waldo L. Cook of the Springfield Republican and Miss Elizabeth S. Friend.

DIED.

DERBY-At Newton Centre, May 7, Mrs. Mary Ann Derby, aged 81 yrs.
WILLIAMS-At Cottage Hospital, May 1, John Williams, 22 years.
CLARKSON-At Cottage Hospital, May 6, John
Clarkson, 75 years 7 months 28 days.
FROST-At West Newton, May 5, Rufus Haskell
Frost, 35 years 11 months 26 days.
BERRY-At West Newton, May 6, Almon Berry, 67 years 12 days.
LINCOLN-At West Newton, May 7, Mrs. Susan
White Lincoln, 94 years, 5 days.
DONALDSON-At Newton, May 7, Mrs. Mary Jane Donaldson, 67 years 11 months.
DENN-At Newton, May 9, Mrs. Ann Denn, 60 years.
FISKE-At West Newton, May 10, Harriet Herring Fiske, 86 years 3 months 19 days.
MORTON-At Andover, N. H., Friday, May 5, Arthur Train, son of James F. and Carrie E.
Morton, 6 yrs. 4 mos.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength. Latest United States Government Food Report.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St. N. Y.

Wall Papers.

We are offering a handsome selection.
Fine Chamber Papers, 6c, 8c, and 12 1/2c.
Fine Dining Room Papers, 12 1/2c, 15c, and 20c.
Fine Parlor Papers, 15c, 20c, and 25c.

LARGEST VARIETY.
LOWEST PRICES.

Mail Order Dept. Samples for 3 two-cent stamps.

Window Shades.

Hand Made Tint Cloth, with figures and trimmings, made and put up, 60c. each.

WARRANTED NOT TO FADE.

Store and Office Shades a Specialty.

Our Prices Are the Lowest.

Window Shades, ready to hang,
25c., 35c., 50c.

Chenille Portieres
At $3.10 Per Pr.
Drapery Poles and Trimmings.

Lace Curtains.
Swiss, Irish Point, Brussels.

A bargain in Irish Point Lace at $7.75.
Art Muslins, for seaside cottages, in great variety. A choice line at 7c. per yard.

J. A. GLASS & CO.,
119 Washington St.
BOSTON.

REPORT of the Condition of the Newton National Bank at Newton, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business, May 4th, 1893:

RESOURCES.
Loans and discounts,	$338,149 67
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured,	346 77
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation,	50,000 00
Stocks, securities, etc.,	35,591 99
Due from approved reserve agents,	39,493 08
Banking-house, furniture, and fixtures,	21,292 19
Other real estate and mortgages owned,	7,990 90
Current expenses and taxes paid,	250 96
Premiums on U. S. Bonds,	7,875 00
Checks and other cash items,	1,162 22
Bills of other banks,	4,434 90
Fractional paper currency, nickels, and cents,	338 78
Specie,	24,491 15
Legal-tender notes,	4,550 00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent. of circulation),	2,250 00
Total,	$557,962 72

LIABILITIES.
Capital stock paid in,	$200,000 00
Surplus fund,	31,000 00
Undivided profits,	4,785 33
National Bank notes outstanding,	42,129 60
Dividends unpaid,	835 00
Individual deposits subject to check,	261,836 28
Demand certificates of deposit,	17,219 93
Total,	$557,962 72

STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS, COUNTY OF MIDDLE-
SEX, ss:
T. H. Franklin Bacon, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 10th day of May, 1893.

THEO. W. TROWBRIDGE, Notary Public.
(Seal.)
CORRECT-Attest:

JOHN R. FARNUM,
FRANCIS MURDOCK,
HIRAM E. BARRETT, } Directors.

STRAWBERRY PLANTS!
80 Best Varieties.

BEDDING PLANTS
Cheaper than Auction Prices.

G. E. ROBINSON,
North Side, New Panola Hall Market
BOSTON.

Seashore Lots
at Wessagussett

On the site of the second settlement of white men on New England soil, on the south shore of Boston Harbor, 8 miles from Boston. Beautiful and attractive now, as it was when settled in 1623. The best place accessible to the towns of Eastern Massachusetts to spend the summer months. A summer home at Wessagussett will prove a splendid investment—because it will save doctor's bills, give your wife and children
new life, and increase daily in value. A lot is the first step.

POINTS of interest about WESSAGUSSETT.

Good Bathing Beach. No mud flats.
Boat landing at all stages of the tide.
Steamboat Pier on the property.
3 ways to reach it:
Steamer from Boston;
Old Colony to North Weymouth;
Quincy and Boston Electric from Quincy.
Cool in summer. No mosquitoes.
High land. Splendid views. No cheap houses.
Nothing to attract transient visitors.
A clean, respectable resort for summer homes exclusively.

Send for plans—or better, come to Boston, take a ride of an hour down the Harbor on our Steamer (it goes down every day), and see Wessagussett.
S. D. HANNAH & CO., 109 Ames Building, Boston.

CARPETINGS!

Nothing makes a better Carpet for the Summer than STRAW MATTING.

We can show you an excellent line in all grades. Also a full stock
BRUSSELS, TAPESTRIES, EXTRA SUPERS and OIL CLOTHS.

Window Shades and Drapery Goods.
CUSTOM WORK A SPECIALTY.

WARREN F. EMERSON, 698 Main St. Waltham.

Real Estate.

Mortgages.

Insurance

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.

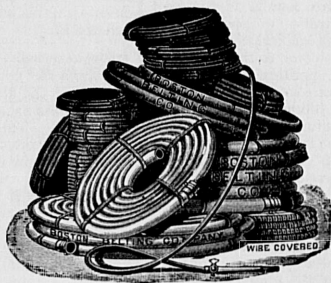

SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATE
in the above villages.

Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES;

—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

RUBBER GARDEN HOSE.

ORDER
BOSTON
BELTING Company's MAKE.

BEST HOSE
in the WORLD.

BOSTON BELTING COMPANY,
256, 258, 260 Devonshire St., Boston.

REPORT of the Condition of the First National Bank of West Newton, at Newton, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business, May 4th, 1893:

RESOURCES.
Loans and discounts,	$23,445 95
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured,	704 26
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation,	25,000 00
Stocks, securities, etc.,	4,251 33
Due from approved reserve agents,	6,043 24
Banking-house, furniture, and fixtures,	820 40
Current expenses and taxes paid,	689 24
Premiums on U. S. Bonds,	3,450 00
Checks and other cash items,	2,628 54
Bills of other banks,	1,647 00
Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents,	146 15
Specie,	8,216 70
Legal-tender notes,	6,588 00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent. of circulation),	1,125 00
Total,	$295,445 41

LIABILITIES.
Capital stock paid in,	$100,000 00
Surplus fund,	7,000 00
Undivided profits,	3,689 14
National Bank notes outstanding,	22,500 00
Dividends unpaid,	42 50
Individual deposits subject to check,	160,678 27
Demand certificates of deposit,	705 00
Certified checks,	130 00
Provided towards Taxes,	700 00
Total,	$295,445 41

STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS, COUNTY OF MIDDLE-
SEX, ss:
J. Edward P. Hatch, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

EDWARD P. HATCH, Cashier.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of May, 1893.

I. F. KINGSBURY, Notary Public.
CORRECT-Attest:

JAMES H. NICKERSON,
AUSTIN R. MITCHELL,
EDWARD B. WILSON, } Directors.

CORNS CURED
By Mrs. Drs. Craven and May

CHIROPODISTS and MANICURES.
Corns, Bunions, and all ailments of the feet,
skillfully treated at our office.

21 AVON ST., BOSTON.
Opposite Jordan & Marsh. 1 flight only.
Chiropodist and Manicure Taught. 21 13t.

—THE—
West Newton Savings Bank
Incorporated 1857.

West Newton, Mass.
AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.
JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.
Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Frederick O. Brigham, Charles A. Potter, Fred E.
Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Gale,
Adams K. Tinsman, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter.

Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Charles
A. Potter, Fred E. Crockett.
Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a.m., 1.30 to 4 p.m.

Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

BUSINESS NOTICES

RATES—50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 25 cents each time
thereafter, in advance.

Wants.

WANTED—A competent girl for general house work. Good cooking necessary, and good wages paid. Call at 23 Channing St., after seven in the evening. 32 3c.

WANTED—At once young person to assist in house work. Apply to Mrs. M. J. Barton, Centre Street, Newton Centre. 32 1t.

For Sale.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—At Newton Centre, corner Homer and Bowen Streets, medium size house of 9 rooms and bath, furnished or unfurnished. Moderate rent. Apply to Wm. Young Newton Centre or at No. 25 Russell Avenue,
Watertown, Mass. 32 3c.

FOR SALE—Safety bicycle, almost new, convertible, $80.00. G. J. C. White, Beacon Street, near Buck's drug store. 32 1t.

FOR SALE OR RENT—In Needham, six
new houses, centre of village, seven or eight rooms each, finished in natural wood, bath, range, hot and cold water, furnace, cement cellars. Corner lots, 7000 feet each. Two minutes from churches, stores, schools, library, post office and railroad station. Prices $2800 to $3800, easy terms. Rents $15 to $25, monthly.
Apply to F. E. Stedman, corner Maple street and Platts avenue, Needham. 32 3c.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—One house, all modern improvements, 11 rooms, lawns, shade trees, etc. Four minutes from station, five minutes from church and schools. D. A. White, Newton Centre. 31 1t.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—In Newtonville, house of nine rooms with bath and large attic, cemented cellar and furnace, in first class neighborhood, and within five or six minutes walk to railroad. Everything in good order. Apply to V. Wentworth & Co., 41 Bristol street, Boston, or of Mr. Wentworth, Foster street,
Newtonville. 32 1t.

FOR SALE—New 9 room house, Colonial style, containing every convenience, hard wood finish, decorations of the finest, very large closets, laundry, electric appliances, four minutes from station and stores. Terms easy. D. A.
White, Newton Centre. 31 1t.

FOR SALE—Seven houses in Newton Centre,
Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 30

WEST NEWTON—Shaw Street, house of 11
rooms, modern conveniences, city water, sewers, 27000 feet land, near depot. See R. M.
Lucas or H. F. King, West Newton. 30-4t.

MILK ROUTE—For sale in the City of Newton. Money in it for somebody. Apply to Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 28

To Let.

FURNISHED ROOM TO LET—A large and pleasant room on second floor, in private family. Four minutes from station. Apply at 59 Jefferson St., Newton. 32 1t.

STABLE TO LET—On Williams street, on the Mary James Estate, a small stable. Apply to Chas. F. Rogers, 417 Centre Street. 32 1t.

TO RENT—A single house 4 rooms, 10 minutes walk from station, good neighborhood.
House $10.00 per month. Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 32

TO RENT—House of 10 rooms on Elmwood street. Apply to H. B. Coffin. 1t

TO LET—At Newtonville, an apartment
house, also a suite of rooms for housekeeping. All modern conveniences. Curtis Abbott,
5 Tremont St., Boston. 28

TO LET—A furnished cottage of eleven rooms and bath, wide piazzas, shade and fruit trees, excellent neighborhood. Moderate terms.
Apply at 17 Lowell Street, Newtonville, or 352
Columbus Avenue, Boston. 32 1t.

FIVE ROOM TENEMENT—To let, as pleasant as can be found in Newton, high ground near electric, rent low. Apply to Horatio Carter, Box 146, Newtonville. 32 1t.

TO LET—On Walnut Street, house of eleven
rooms, wholly or partially furnished, fine open air places, new fixtures and plumbing, city water, modern conveniences. Opposite ex-Gov. Claflin estate. Moderate rent. Address Box 255, Newtonville. 30

TO RENT—A farm with good buildings, near
Newton Centre. Also 9 houses in Newton
Centre. Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 30

TO LET—Newton Highlands, Sunny house of 10 rooms, choice location; modern improvements; five minutes from station. Apply to Eben
R. Tarbell, 111 Washington St., Boston. 27 1t.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Miller pianos, Farley, Newton.
—Miss Alice Barton is at New Haven for a short stay.
—Mr. and Mrs. John K. Taylor have removed to Indiana.
—Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran are in Baltimore for a few weeks' stay.

—Mrs. Snow has moved into Mr. Curtis Abbott's house on Bowers street.
—The annual exhibition and drill of the high school battalion will probably be held June 10.

—There is talk of a series of canoe races on the Charles river in June under the auspices of the Newton High School Athletic Association.

—Mr. D. S. Simpson has gone to Baltimore for a short stay, partly in the interests of his health.

—Hon. J. W. Dickinson lectured before the State Teachers' Association in Melrose last Friday. His subject was "Methods in Teaching."

—Mr. J. A. Glass, of J. A. Glass & Co., Boston, was at the Club the other night, the guest of Mr. C. Brown of Newton. Mr. Glass is thinking of making his home in Newton.

—The annual meeting of the Goddard will be held Tuesday, May 16th, at 7.45 p. m.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Slack, formerly of this place, were in town visiting friends this week.

—Higgins & Nickerson have begun work for three new houses on Central place, for Messrs. Judkins, Lothrop and O. F. Clark.

—Mr. E. S. George has almost fully recovered from the severe attack of neuritis of the heart, from which he suffered while in Philadelphia last week.

—The engagement is announced of Miss Lillian Keith to Mr. Wm. F. Huyck, of Le Roy, N. Y. Miss Keith has recently returned home from Le Roy, where she has been spending the winter.

—An empty drill will be given Wednesday, May 24th, in the vestry of the Methodist church, under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E.

—The Newton high boys defeated the Boston College nine in a hot game here last Saturday by a score of 9 to 7. Ryan pitched a good game for the home players and was finely supported by Brown who held him finely and threw well to bases.

—Mr. Will Mendell has gone to Chicago to take charge of the exhibit of the General Fire Alarm Company at the World's Fair.

—Mr. Austin T. Sylvester and family have gone to Chicago and will make quite a long stay.

—The warm days brought the usual onslaught of spring music. If the term is permissible with reference to the street band, the fiddler and the player of the harp without the thousand strings.

—Mr. W. H. Mendell got down stairs for the first time this week since his long illness. He is improving now steadily and will soon enjoy his accustomed good health.

—At the meeting of Gen. Hull Lodge, A. O. U. W., Tuesday evening, two candidates were initiated, Counselman L. W. Ross and Mr. F. G. L. Henderson. After the ceremonies there was a social entertainment and coffee.

—Mr. H. F. Ross has forty men working on the new power house of the Newton & Boston Street Railway Company. The construction work began Monday and the building will be completed July 1. The walls are now up about 10 feet.

—Mr. W. B. Page, formerly of Everett has leased a part of Mr. Soden's double house on Washington park.

—Mr. L. M. Brackett and family have moved into Mr. F. J. Hartshorne's house on Cabot street.

—Mrs. Douglass Diamond left here this week for Jackson, Fla.

—Mr. G. H. Savage of Charlestown was here this week visiting his brother, Mr. A. A. Savage.

—Mrs. Edward K. Wilson, formerly of this place, has been in Boston a few days, but has returned to her home in Laconia, N. H. Mrs. Wilson is a charming woman, and is greatly missed from her wide circle of friends in this vicinity.

—It is proposed that members of the Guild shall make up a party the latter part of this month to drive to Lexington and visit some of the famous elms growing in the vicinity. Further notice will be given so that all wishing to avail themselves of this pleasure may do so. It is expected that Mrs. Andrew Wellington will be the local historian on this anticipated drive.

—Mr. and Mrs. Austin T. Sylvester observed informally their silver wedding anniversary at their home on Linwood avenue, Monday evening. Quite a large company of friends brought congratulations and good wishes and some silvery tokens of esteem. Many of the G. A. R. boys turned out, glad of an opportunity to greet their old commander.

—Miss Jeannette Grant will be a member of the "Log Cabin" family in Chicago, as she was at the Centennial. The Chicago Log Cabin will be large and improved copy of the one in Philadelphia, and will have a colonial dining-room and kitchen. It will be situated at Rosalie Court, Midway Place, and all Newtonians will be specially welcome.

—A carriage from Brighton with two occupants, a gentleman and lady, was capsized on Washington street Sunday afternoon. In crossing the road one of the wheels caught in the car track and the sudden strain twisted under the body of the vehicle. The lady, Miss Plinn, of Warren street, Brighton, was thrown violently to the ground and her nose was broken. Her companion escaped with numerous bruises. Dr. O'Donnell was called.

—At the annual Festival of the New England and Massachusetts Woman's Suffrage Association at Music Hall on Tuesday afternoon and evening, Mrs. Abby E. Davis, Mrs. George T. Hill and Mrs. Chandler Holmes were among the guests present from our city. Hon. George F. Hoar presided at the spirited meeting which followed the supper and the Marion Ogden orchestra furnished the music. That charming woman and inspired speaker, Mrs. Laura O. Chant of London, received an ovation on her return after three years absence, and a most cordial welcome is given her daughter, a young girl of sixteen, who accompanies her. Mrs. Fredericksen, who is a representative from Denmark to the Chicago Congress, is unique and original in her style, earnest and interesting.

—Mrs. George H. Talbot gave a reception at her Walnut street residence from four to six o'clock on Saturday afternoon, which was one of the largest and most attractive of the season. Behind an ocean of palms, an orchestra discoursed delightfully, and everywhere the soft glow of candles effaced the garish light of day. In the dining room the decorations were of carnations and maiden-hair ferns, and the pretty young girls who presided, were evening gowns in the same harmony of color. Mrs. Albert Planders of Brookline, Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Muer of New York assisted the fair hostess in receiving, and Dr. Talbot, who is one of the busiest and most popular physicians of the city, lent his genial presence for a time and so added still further to the pleasure.

—In the interscholastic tennis tournament at Cambridge, the Newton High school boys finished in second place, scoring ten points. G. F. Pratt of Newton

RAY

Shirtings For 1893.

English Cheviot

Scotch Madras.

From the above cloths you will find a large range in stock for immediate wear. Also many designs reserved for "order work."

UNDERWEAR

Balbarrigan, (close fitting) $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00.
Wool, (light weight) $1.50 and $2.00.
Lisle Thread, $2.00 and $3.50.

NECK DRESS

New Effects and Shapes.

LORD KENNARD, The Latest.
COLLEY SQUARE.

MEN'S FURNISHER,

509 Wash'n St., cor. West, 641 Boylston.
BOSTON.

proved himself to be one of the coming players. He kept in the competition through to the semi-finals, and was defeated by Budlong after making a good fight. Up to the semi-finals Pratt defeated T. Lyman, Jr., Noble's, in the first round, Joe Warren of Hoppy's in the second, H. W. Allen of Chaucery Hall in the third, and F. C. White of Noble's in the fourth. Budlong's playing with Pratt was disappointing to the scores of tennis enthusiasts who had gathered about the court to watch the Providence boy show how tennis should be played. In the first set Pratt outplayed Budlong, with neither man doing much placing. In the second set Budlong played somewhat better, and pulled out the set before Pratt could get more than a single game. In the last set Budlong began to do a little better work, not until, however, Pratt led him at the end of the fifth game, three games to two.

The funeral of Mr. Edward T. Troffiter took place from his late residence, Washington park, Sunday afternoon. There was a large attendance at the services, including a delegation from Siloam Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Boston, of which deceased had been a member. Rev. Ira A. Priest, pastor of the Universalist church, officiated, assisted by Rev. J. M. Dutton of the Central Congregational church. The latter read the scripture selections, and the funeral was delivered by Rev. Mr. Priest, who paid a high tribute to Mr. Troffiter's character, and spoke particularly of his church life and connection with the Universalist Society, of which he was one of the founders. The quartet of the Universalist church rendered appropriate selections, comprising "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Asleep in Jesus," and "Sweet Bye and Bye." There were a number of beautiful floral tributes, among them a wreath of ivy, a sheaf of wheat and baskets of cut flowers. The Universalist Society sent a large bunch of call lilies and passion flowers. The interment was made Monday in Harmony Grove cemetery, Salem. Burial services were held in the cemetery chapel.

The annual meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Guild was held in the Methodist vestry on Tuesday afternoon at the close of the ninth session of the Guild's useful life. The reports of the following committees were read by the chairman of each department led by Mrs. Mary Martin, the recording secretary followed by Mrs. Walter L. Chaloner of the educational club and Mrs. W. J. Towne of the hospital committee. Mrs. Cook, the treasurer, gave a very gratifying report of the finances, and stated that the Guild had contributed to the Newton Cottage Hospital two thousand one hundred and sixty dollars, which for a band of women doing other work besides, was an excellent showing. It was decided to continue the three hundred dollars for the free bed at the hospital, and to give a stated sum this year for the purchase of a room rather than replacing everything needed there which has hitherto been their custom. Mrs. Ballantyne told of the good work of the charitable committee and Mrs. Wallace of the industrial department. Mrs. Brewer made an earnest plea for the continuance of the Flower Mission work and then the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. George T. Hill; vice-presidents, Mrs. H. H. Carter, Mrs. R. D. Morehouse, Mrs. Walter L. Chaloner, Mrs. D. S. Simpson, Mrs. W. J. Towne, Mrs. John A. Penno; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Martin; recording secretary, Miss Mary W. Hackett; treasurer, Mrs. George P. Cook; auditor, Mrs. E. E. Siles; directors, (whose term expires in 1897) Miss Margaret Worcester, Mrs. Nellie O. Simpson.

WEST NEWTON

Pianos rented and tuned, Farley, Newton.
—Messrs. W. S. Higgins and E. P. Hatch have started two fine houses on Sewall street.

—Mr. J. Cheever Fuller and Mr. Frank Fuller are in New York for a short stay.

—Mr. W. H. Fiske, formerly of this place, died suddenly at his home in Holliston last Friday evening.

—Mr. C. W. Wyman and family of Boston have taken apartments at Miss Brigham's for the summer.

—A. J. Fiske will commence soon the erection of a new business block on Water-town street.

—The first club tennis tourney of the Neighborhood players is set down for Tuesday, May 30. The courts are now in the pink of condition.

—Mr. E. N. Frye has taken apartments in Leonard's block on Eddy street.

—Mr. Frank Wyman is building a new residence on Prince street.

—The local branch of the order of Old Ladies held a sociable at the residence of Mr. W. H. Pettigrew, Auburn street, Wednesday evening. A very pleasing program was presented and a collation served.

—Mr. W. E. Gloyer and family moved into their new house (formerly the C. W. Carter) on Henshaw street this week.

—Miss E. D. Besse, who has been seriously ill with grip is convalescing.

—Frank Parker, who has been here on a visit, has returned to his home in El Paso, Mexico.

—Mrs. Doughty, who has been the guest of Mrs. Kingston, River street, was called suddenly home on account of illness in her family. She resides in Chelsea.

—Mr. A. P. Cook of Elm street is still confined to the house, but is slowly improving.

—Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Allen returned from their three months trip to California and other places of interest, this week, Monday, much improved in health.

—The last meeting of the Newton Ladies Home Circle was held with Mrs. Wiggin at the residence of Mrs. Langley's May 11. Ex-Senator Gorham D. Gilman lectured in the City Hall under the auspices of Newton Lodge 92, I. O. O. F., last evening. His topic was the Sandwich Islands illustrated with admirable stereoscopic views.

—Mischievous youths run a rope across River street Tuesday evening and a bicycle rider got a bad header as a result of their very questionable experiment. He was a resident of Waltham and was pretty well bruised and cut somewhat about the head.

—The annual supper and business meeting of the Women's Educational club will be held Tuesday p. m. May 16th in the Unitarian church at 4 o'clock. After supper topic—"The Ideal Husband," and remarks pertinent to the occasion. Prizes will also be given for the best two original comedies.

—Grand Commander F. O. Downs visited Newton commandery, American Legion of Honor, Tuesday evening, and gave an interesting address on the progress and condition of the order. Following the literary exercises there was some excellent music and a collation.

—Almon Berry dropped dead at his home on Cottage place, Saturday evening. Death resulted from heart disease. Deceased was 67 years of age, and had been laboring here some little time as a shoemaker. He was born in Gorham, Me. He was a man of good habits and disposition. A widow and three children (married), survive him. The remains were taken to Truro, N. S., for interment.

—Capt. S. E. Howard and family leave here for Chicago the latter part of June.

—The state hymn written by Mr. Granville B. Putnam for the United Christian Endeavor Societies was sung at the mission singing under the auspices of the Newell Y. P. S. C. E. in the Second Congregational church, Sunday evening. An interesting descriptive account was given of Rev. F. E. Clark's tour around the world.

—A tale of two dogs. Both ended their careers on the Chestnut street crossing, Monday, and strangely enough in each case the end came by a blow from the same locomotive. One of the two canines was struck on the inward trip early in the morning, and the other on the outward trip shortly before noon.

—Preaching by the Rev. Mr. Porter of Watertown next Sunday morning at the Congregational church. The next in the series of people's services will be held next Sunday evening at 7.30. Pilgrim's Progress Through the Valley of the Shadow of Death. The public cordially invited.

—Wednesday evening, Grand Chief Templar Jefferson installed the following officers for Loyalty Lodge, I. O. G. T. for the present quarter: P. C. T. M. E. Pringle; G. F. H. Chapman; J. T. Mrs. A. H. Wiggin; V. T. Ida C. Gammans; S. Alice A. DeLaCay; A. S. Frances A. Cluston; Chaplain, Mrs. C. B. Kimball; Treasurer, G. H. Frost; F. S. G. T. Gammans; M. J. H. Thomas; D. M. Hattie B. Payzant; Guard, Clara Chapman; Sentinel, A. H. Wiggin.

—Mrs. Harriet Fiske died at her residence of her daughter, Mrs. Freeman, Watertown street, early Wednesday morning. Deceased was born in Framingham and was 86 years of age. She was the daughter of Seth Harriot and married Moses M. Fiske of Framingham who died about two years ago. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the man's home, Rev. Dr. Fauce and Rev. Mr. Lisle officiating. The interment was made in the family lot in Framingham.

—In religious circles in this place a great deal is being said just now concerning the proposed retirement of Rev. Henry J. Patrick, D. D., pastor of the Second Congregational church. At a meeting of the parish held recently it was voted to recommend his retirement to the church, offering for his pension of $2000 per annum beside his house rent. This action is due to what is considered by many of his parishioners a disability—his failing eyesight. This difficulty with his eyes prevents him from reading readily from the scriptures, but does not interfere with his preaching. Rev. Mr. Patrick's sermons are vigorous and eloquent. For that reason a small number of his parishioners are much opposed to the plan of retirement. The action of the church will be final, and a meeting is to be called at once. Rev. Dr. Patrick was born in Warren, Sept. 20, 1827. He commenced his theological studies in the Union Theological Seminary in New York, where he was a student in 1849-51, after his graduation from Amherst College. He completed his theological education at Andover Theological Seminary, graduating from the latter institution in 1853. He was first settled in Bedford, and was installed as pastor of the Second Congregational church in Newton, Sept. 29, 1854.

—The civil service examination for candidates for positions in the office in the new building was held Saturday last at the City Hall, under the supervision of Chief Examiner Sherwin, assisted by the local board, comprising Mr. J. C. Dwyer, Dr. W. H. Thayer and Dr. Fred L. Thayer. Those who receive 65 per cent. and above, and who, also, successfully pass the medical examination will be placed upon the eligible list. The following is the list of candidates: William Butler, John M. Gay, Alexander Blue, Wade Dearborn, William H. Dolan, Maurice F. Kiley, J. E. McMahon, Peter M. McLean, Daniel J. Ryan, William J. Green, Richard Kye, George N. Redman, William E. Fuller, Maurice W. Bowen, Nathaniel Seaver, Henry M. Mariner, William Wadsworth and Albert W. Frye.

—The annual May party and festival under the auspices of the Unitarian Sunday school was held in City Hall last Saturday afternoon and evening. The attendance was very large, particularly in the afternoon, when a number of the children were present. The chief entertainment feature was the Maypole dance by 16 of the younger children of the Sunday school, which occurred at 4 o'clock. The children were prettily attired in fancy costumes, and executed the difficult movements very gracefully. Miss Helen Freeman was queen of the Maypole. Other features included the Dairi Maids festival (12 in costume), and a caelestine drill by high school girls, led by Miss Adams. All the exercises were under the management of Miss M. A. Frye. For the general dancing, the floor directors were Eustis Barker and T. A. Flew.

—The funeral of Mrs. Susan White Lincoln took place Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of Mr. George A. Walton, Chestnut street, Rev. Julian C. Jaynes officiated, and there was a large attendance at the services. The remains were taken to Wakefield for interment. Mrs. Lincoln was 94 years of age. She was born in the suburbs of Utica, N. Y., removing to Watertown in the same state when 7 years of age, and residing there with her uncle until her marriage to Martin Lincoln of Cohasset, which occurred in 1818. The early years of her married life were passed in western New York. Mr. Lincoln died in 1878, and since then she had resided with her daughter, Mrs. E. N. L. Walton of this city. Mrs. Lincoln was a very talented woman and was noted for her genial disposition and sympathetic qualities as neighbor and friend. Her life was well ordered, if not perfect, and she was respected and beloved by all who knew her. During her long life she enjoyed good health, and at the last she was ill only a day, death resulting from heart failure. She passed away early Sunday morning.

HOTEL HUMAROCK,
Sea View, Mass.
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT. A most desirable and healthy location on the South Shore. Extensive improvements are being made to the hotel. For further particulars, address R. W. CARTER, care of Messrs. Jackson & Greeley, No. 19 Congress street, Boston, until June 1st. After that date, see Messrs. Boston office hours between 10 and 12 A. M., Mondays and Wednesdays.

AUBURNDALE.

—Now's the time to drink Thorn's soda.
—Mr. Charles G. Pinkham has been in New York this week.

—Mr. George M. Fiske of Wolcott street is in the west on a business trip.

—Mr. Horatio William Parker and family will pass the summer at the home-stead in Auburn Place.

—Mr. George R. Eager is at his home on Seminary avenue for a few weeks from his business interests in the west.

—The particulars of the Elms-Coffin nuptials are fully given in another column.

—Mr. Geo. A. Dill of Boston will pass the month of June at the Woodland Park Hotel.

—The Evening Club will continue the study of Dante Monday evening, May 15th, as usual at Mrs. Charles Edward Parkers.

—Mr. Horatio W. Parker, son of Mrs. Chas. Edward Parker of this place, and the organist at Trinity church, Boston, began his services this Sunday morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hall (nee Peabody) were expected to arrive in town from their wedding trip, either yesterday or today. They will make their permanent residence here.

—Mr. Clement N. Betts, who has recently taken the house on Hancock street, formerly belonging to Mrs. Jennings, has been much annoyed by the abduction of two valuable fox terriers.

—A reception was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. George by the Aesclypius Club, to which a hundred invitations were sent. It occurred at the home of Rev. Mr. Smith, Vista avenue.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Chas. F. Ayer, Mrs. H. D. Allen, Mrs. Lizzie Fleming, Miss J. W. Hawley, Mr. John Lothrop, James Munro, Mr. Henry Robblee, Mr. Charles Setter, D. H. Young, Mrs. H. B. Warner, Mr. Lion Wright.

—Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Butler, Woodland avenue, and Miss Bourne were among the Raymond excursionists leaving Boston last Saturday. The trip is to Chicago and the World's Fair, occupying about ten days.

—The Sunday School of the Methodist church will give a sociable next Thursday evening in their chapel. All members of the church and congregation are invited and a merry time for the young people is promised.

—Rev. T. W. Bishop has been appointed a member of the Advisory Council of the Department of Religions of the World's Columbian Exposition, which is to draw together theological scholars and eminent laymen for addresses from all over the world.

—Prof. Bragdon, who has recently returned from another successful tour in the East, is to give an illustrated talk next Sunday evening in the vestry of the Methodist church. Subject, "Down to Jericho." Service at 7.30. All are welcome.

—Mrs. John Frost was quite seriously and fatally injured Wednesday, falling the full length of a flight of stairs. She tripped in some way in commencing the descent and fell to the bottom, straining the ligaments of one leg severely and being badly bruised and shaken up. She will be confined to her bed for a number of weeks.

—The organist at the Methodist church is Frederic C. Gulick, grandson of the late James M. Gordon. His father and mother are missionaries in Spain. Young Gulick is sixteen years of age and has unusual musical ability. Miss Kate Plummer, one of the instructors at Lasell Seminary and organist at the Congregational church, is kindly giving him lessons, which have enabled him, with a few weeks' practice, to handle the organ with ability.

—A fine musical was given by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shepard at their pleasant home last Tuesday evening, among the guests being Mr. G. W. Shepard and Miss Anne Shepard the favorite sopranos, Mr. Herbert O. Johnson, Boston's popular tenor and Mr. Lem Keach, the latter accompanying with his usual brilliancy, the above artists very pleasing vocal selections. "Mrs. S." was as usual a pronounced success as hostess, while of "our George" as an entertainer we need say nothing. These artists composed a most enjoyable and exclusive musical circle.

—From the New York Tribune, May 4th. "The third service of the Church Choral Society which took place last evening in the Church of the Holy Trinity, was distinguished by the first performance of 'Nova Novissima' a medley of hymns of the twelfth century, set for chorus, solo and orchestra by Horatio W. Parker. The hymn lyrics were very old, but the music, today, chiefly because it supplied the original of Jerusalem the Golden, but it is in itself a lovely poetical composition, and Mr. Parker has captured the spirit of the hymn in his setting. The work of a young man, but like that of one of years of experience. It may be safely set down as one of the finest achievements of the present day, a work which opens up a rich and brilliant future for Mr. Parker, and which does honor to the United States." The dedication of the work is as follows: "To the dear memory of my father, Charles Edward Parker, this work is affectionately and gratefully dedicated."

DR. CHAPIN'S

Malaria and Ague Cure.

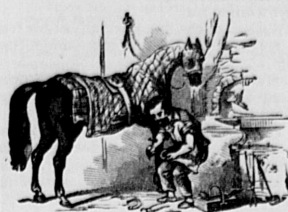

A sure cure and preventative for all Bilious Fevers and Malarial Diseases. It has been long and successfully used by Dr. Chapin in his practice in Auburn, Mass. Every family should keep it in the house. If your Druggist does not have it, send one dollar to

J. B. CHAPIN,
AUBURNDALE, MASS.
And it will be sent, Express Paid.

LADIES !!
Who delight in good fitting, stylish GLOVES, that wear well, too, should patronize...
REED, GOWELL & Co
52 Temple Pl., Boston.
where they are fitted and kept in repair free of expense. A trial will result in complete satisfaction and you will be properly gloved at reasonable prices.

W. J. O'BRIEN & CO.,

HORSE SHOERS.

Special attention paid to interfering, overreaching and tender footed horses. Horses sent for and returned to any part of the city.

Washington, opp. Lowell St.,
Newtonville, Mass.

MILLINERY THE FINEST!

Customers very emphatically declare that our "TRIMMED HATS and BONNETS" are remarkable for beauty and modesty in price. We are uncommonly busy in this department. We carry the largest line of French and domestic novelties in the city to select from. Ladies will find our Styles correct. We invite inspection.

J. W. MACURDY,

133 Moody Street, Waltham, Mass.
To find our Store, leave the electric cars at Hall's corner and turn to the right.

BARGAINS.

B BRASS B BEDSTEADS
AND IRON B BEDSTEADS
Larger variety than elsewhere in N. E.
100 designs.

H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,
Importers, Manufacturers and Retailers.
70 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON.
H. W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

Druggists

A Valuable Receipt.
It will save your carpet from Buffalo Bugs. It is odorless and effectual. It will cost you 25 cents and save you $25.

R Bug Powder, ozs. 8
(HUDSON'S.)
Sig. as directed.

ARTHUR HUDSON,
Pharmacist,
Newton, - - - Mass.

FRED A. HUBBARD,
Pharmacist,
Newton, - - - Mass.

P. O. Block, - NEWTON.
SUNDAY CLOSING HOURS:
From 10.30 A. M. to 12 M.; 2 P. M. to 4 P. M.

Dr. Elbridge C. Leach.
DENTIST.
439 COLUMBUS AVE., BOSTON.
The correcting of irregular teeth in children a specialty.
Residence, Crystal St., Newton Centre.
Will make appointments at residence after 7 P. M.

J. B. PHIPPS, Auctioneer.
258 Washington Street, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale
of Real Estate.
By virtue of a power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John Batland of Newton in the County of Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to George D. Cox of said Newton, dated Sept. 10th, 1892 and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, Folio 469, duly assigned to Daniel W. Desmond by assignment dated Sept. 15th, 1892, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, Folio 482, will be sold for breach of condition contained therein at Public Auction upon the premises, on Monday, 5th day of June, 1893, at 8 o'clock in the forenoon, all the right title and interest in and to the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, viz:-
Being lot numbered fourteen (14) on a plan of land made by Wm. Bradford, Surveyor, dated April 15, 1888, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, with plan-book No. 62 containing 3300 square feet, situated on the westerly side of Kensington Street in that part of Newton called West Newton and bounded and described as follows viz:- Easterly by Kensington Street as shown on said plan, forty (40) feet; northerly by lot number fifteen (15) on said plan, eighty (80) feet; westerly by land of Monks, forty (40) feet; southerly by lot number thirteen (13) on said plan eighty (80) feet and is subject to a prior mortgage of $2000 and interest. Terms at Sale.
DANIEL W. DESMOND, Auctioneer.
The assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

Mortgagee's Sale
of Real Estate.
By virtue of a power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John Batland of Newton in the County of Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to George D. Cox of said Newton, dated Sept. 10th, 1892, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, Folio 469, duly assigned to Daniel W. Desmond by assignment dated Sept. 15th, 1892, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, Folio 482, will be sold for breach of condition contained therein, at Public Auction, upon the premises on Monday, 5th day of June, 1893, at half past eight o'clock in the forenoon, all the right title and interest in and to the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, viz:-
Being lot numbered sixteen (16) on a plan of land made by Wm. Bradford, Surveyor, dated April 15, 1888, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, with plan-book No. 62, containing 3300 square feet, situated on the westerly side of Kensington Street in that part of Newton called West Newton and bounded and described as follows viz:- Easterly by Kensington Street as shown on said plan, forty (40) feet; northerly by lot number seventeen (17) on said plan, eighty (80) feet; westerly by land of Monks, forty (40) feet; southerly by lot number fifteen (15) on said plan, eighty (80) feet and is subject to a prior mortgage of $2000 and interest. Terms at Sale.
DANIEL W. DESMOND, Auctioneer.
The assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

Mortgagee's Sale
of Real Estate.
By virtue of a power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John Batland of Newton in the County of Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to George D. Cox of said Newton, dated Sept. 10th, 1892, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, Folio 469, duly assigned to Daniel W. Desmond by assignment dated Sept. 15th, 1892, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, Folio 482, will be sold for breach of condition contained therein, at Public Auction, upon the premises on Monday, 5th day of June, 1893, at half past eight o'clock in the forenoon, all the right title and interest in and to the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, viz:- Being lot numbered sixteen (16) on a plan of land made by Wm. Bradford, Surveyor, dated April 15, 1888, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, with plan-book No. 62, containing 3300 square feet, situated on the westerly side of Kensington Street in that part of Newton called West Newton and bounded and

A SONNET.

Let us forget. What matters it that we Once reigned over happy realms of long ago,
And talked of love, and let our voices low,
And ruled for some brief sessions loyalty?
What if we sung or laughed or wept may be?
It has availed not anything, and so Let it go by that we may better know
How poor a thing is lost to you and me.
But yesterday I kissed your lips, and yet
Did thrill you not enough to shake the dew
From your drenched lids—and missed, with no regret,
Your kiss shot back, with sharp breaths falling you.
And so today, while our own eyes are wet
With all this waste of tears, let us forget!
—James Whitcomb Riley.

LANGALULA.

Langalula was a great chief. The people he ruled were numerous and warlike; his assegaes were 10,000; his tribe had many cattle. So the missionary had his kraal was glad indeed when he felt he had touched Langalula's heart, for it meant the conversion of a whole heathen nation.

When the king goes over, the people soon follow him.

Langalula said, "I am convinced; baptize me."

But the ways of white men are incomprehensible. Though the missionary had been preaching that very thing for months, yet when Langalula gave in he answered: "Conviction alone is not enough. You must wait awhile till I feel that your life shows forth works which are meet for repentance." Langalula grumbled. He was little accustomed to such contradiction. But he knew it was hard arguing with these priestly white men, who as baptize a starving slave every bit as soon as a great chief. So he held his peace, and though he chafed at it waited the missionary's pleasure.

By and by one day the missionary came to him. "Langalula," he said condescendingly, "I have watched you closely for many weeks now, and I think I can baptize you."

"Then all my sins will be forgiven?" asked Langalula.

"All your sins will be forgiven," the missionary answered.

"But I must put away my wives?" Langalula asked once more.

"All save one," answered the missionary.

"Then, I think," Langalula said, "I will wait for a week, so as to make up my mind which one of them is dearest to me."

But he said this deceitfully, knowing that all his sins were going to be forgiven, and determining in the interval to marry another wife, whom he would keep as his own when he put away the others, for there was a young girl coming on, black but comely, the daughter of Khamusa, a neighboring chief, whom Langalula had seen and whom he wished to purchase. And since the last love is always for the moment the greatest the chief cared very little whether he must put away all his other wives or not if only he could keep Malali. She had driven out all the rest of them. He had watched the girl growing up at Khamusa's for years and had said to himself always, "Whenever Malali is of marriageable age see if I do not buy her and marry her."

In pursuance of this plan, as soon as the missionary was gone, Langalula rose up and took the fighting men of his tribe with him that there might be no dispute, and marched into the country of Malali's father, whose name, as I said, was Khamusa. When Khamusa heard Langalula was on his way to his land with 5,000 assegaes, not to speak of Winchester rifles, he went out to meet him with a great retinue.

Khamusa cried, "Langalula said to him, 'I am come to ask for Malali.'"

"The moment Khamusa heard that he was unspeakably terrified and flung himself down on his face and clasped Langalula's knees, for Khamusa was only a small chief in the country compared with Langalula."

"O my king," Khamusa said, "O lion of the people, I did not know so great a monarch as you had set his eyes on Malali, and before you asked Montelo's people came and offered oxen on Montelo's behalf for Malali, and I sold her to them because I was afraid of Montelo and could not have believed so great a chief as you had ever looked upon her." Langalula smiled at that. "Oh, as for Montelo," he said, "I can easily take her from him, and then I can get the missionary to marry us."

Khamusa, however, answered like a fool. "It cannot be. The Christians are so straight laced. Montelo is a Christian now. He was baptized a week ago, and Malali was married to him in Christian fashion. Even if you were to kill Montelo and take her to your kraal I don't believe the missionary would marry you."

Langalula turned to his men. "Kill him," he said simply. And they killed him with an assegai.

As soon as that was finished Langalula marched on into Montelo's country. When he arrived there, Montelo crept out to meet him and tried to parley with him. But Langalula would not parley with the man who had deprived him of Malali.

"We will fight for it," he said angrily. And they fought for it then and there, and the upshot of it all was that Langalula's men conquered in the battle and drove Montelo's men, who had no Winchester rifles, back to their king's kraal, and then killed Montelo himself and carried his head on an assegai.

By the very same evening they occupied the kraal that had once been Montelo's, and Langalula's men brought out Malali to their own leader. Langalula looked hard at her. She was a glossy black girl, very smooth skinned and lithe and clean of limb. The great chief stared long at her. Malali hung her head and dropped her arms before him. "Why did you go with Montelo?" he asked at last, "when Langalula would have taken you?"

The girl trembled with fear. It was no fault of hers. How could she help it? A woman there is no free agent. "My father sold me," she answered.

whimpering. Montelo paid him a great many oxen. I had no choice but to go. O king, O mighty lion, I did not know you wanted me."

With that she flung herself at his feet in terror and held his knees, imploring him.

"Take her to the hut that was once Montelo's," said the great chief, smiling. "I will follow her there."

They seized her arms and dragged her to the hut, crying and shrieking as she went. They dragged her roughly. Langalula remained behind superintending the slaughter of Montelo's warriors. As soon as he was tired he returned to the hut that had once been Montelo's, for he wished to see Malali—whether she was really as beautiful as he believed, even though the missionary would never marry him to her.

Malali, when she saw him, thought all was well, and that Langalula loved her, so she left off crying and tried every art a woman knows to please and charm him. But Langalula was a very great king, and his anger was aroused. A king's anger is terrible. He smiled to himself to see with what simple tricks the woman thought she could appease a mighty warrior.

The morning came, and he cried to himself with annoyance and vexation that Montelo and Khamusa, and the missionary as well, should have done him between them out of so beautiful a woman. If the missionary had been a black man, Langalula would have compelled him to baptize him outright and then to marry him properly to Malali with book and ring in the Christian fashion. But he knew by experience it's no use threatening these white men with tortures, for threaten how you may they will not obey you, and besides the governor would send up troops from Cape Town, and 'tis ill fighting with the men of the governor.

So he rose in a white heat of passion. "Malali," he said, approaching her with an ugly smile, "I like you better than any woman I ever yet saw. You please me in everything, but you went off with Montelo, and the missionary will not marry me to you now I have spared him. I have also spared your father, Khamusa, because he sold you for oxen to Montelo. I want a real queen, who shall be married to me white fashion. I am becoming a Christian now and can only have one wife, but it must not be you, because you were sold to Montelo, whom I have slain in the battle, and who I will keep for my own. So I will keep my own first wife, the earliest married, though she is old and lean, and discard the other ones. Come out of the hut, Malali, and stand in front of my warriors."

Malali was afraid at that and would have skulked in the corner if she dared, but she dared not, because she was frightened of Langalula. So she came as he told her, trembling in all her limbs and crouching with terror. Her knees hardly bore her. Langalula turned to his men. He looked at her with regret. She was sleek and beautiful.

"Pin her through the body to the ground with an assegai," he said, pointing at her, "and leave her to die in the sun."

After that Langalula marched back grimly with his men to his own country. As soon as he reached his kraal he went to see the missionary. He was very submissive.

"I repent of all my sins," he said. "I have come to be baptized. Teacher, I will put away all of my wives save one." —Exchange.

Be Generous With Your Wife.

Every season brings with it to the feminine mind at least a desire to go out and "shop," which process of course means a certain amount of money in the white, red or heliotrope purse which the woman of fashion now carries. If she has an allowance given her at the beginning of every month, she can by prudent forethought be provided with a sufficient sum to get all the little fixings she desires, and she won't have to beg and plead for a new bonnet or a spring gown after the manner of many wives and daughters who have not their own pocket money, but who are compelled to ask for even a quarter with which to buy hairpins or candy.

A man may be as generous as even the most extravagant woman could desire, but even to ask of him every time you want anything is not pleasant. There is something in feminine nature that would rather economize on a certain stated amount, knowing that it is hers to do with as she desires, than to be allowed to run up large bills and yet not possess a half dollar that can be squandered without question.

Let every man from the very day of his marriage give his wife a sum that he can afford and which she will understand is to be her very own for her wardrobe and her various wants, and which she can either spend on the first day that she gets it or make last until her next pay day.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Trick With Figures.

Ask a friend to put down four figures, which you are not supposed to see. Let him add these up and subtract the sum from the original figures. Then let him strike out any figure in the result and tell you the sum of the remaining figures. You can instantly tell him what figure he struck out. The modus operandi is easy and depends on the esoteric qualities of 9. He puts down, say, 7,428. Add up these figures—21, which subtract and get 7,407. Cross out, say, 7. This leaves the sum of the remaining figures 11, which he announces. Mentally subtract 11 from the next highest multiple of 9, which is 18, and you get 7, which was the figure crossed out.—Philadelphia Times.

A Remarkable State of Affairs.

In one of the leading dry goods stores recently it was proposed to reduce the wages of the women in order that those of the married men might be raised. But investigation showed that the single women were supporting more people than the married men, and the proposed change did not take place.—New York Sun.

Vienna's Bachelor Club.

Our Vienna correspondent is able to contradict a misleading report. It has been said that a club of men of position has been formed in that city for the assistance of young women of humble station who may aspire to marriage with them. A new club has indeed come into being, but it is of quite another sort. It is a club of professed bachelors—a celibate order of dandies. It derives its origin no doubt from a well known London institution which bears the same name. But our Bachelors' club binds its members by no self denying ordinance in regard to the future, and we believe it demands not more than that candidates shall have been single at one time in their lives. That might be tolerated as a passing condition, but it is a very different thing to shut the door to repentance forever.

The Viennese women are justly incensed, and some threaten to retaliate by forming another society pledged to a stern refusal of all offers from the Bachelors' club. This implies the belief that the bachelors cannot possibly keep their vows, and it proves to be in singular harmony with experience. They have broken them by anticipation. An indignant woman has openly charged the president with frequent promises of marriage to herself and has demanded his deposition. In all probability the institution will have to change its title and become the Sour Grapes.—London Telegraph.

Peru Makes Reparation.

Secretary Gresham has been fortunate enough to score a success within the first six weeks of his service at the head of the department of state.

Peru has promised full reparation for the recent attack upon our consular agency at Mollendo, and as an earnest of her purpose has already removed from office the subprefect of the department in which the assault occurred. Minister Hicks, in reporting the affair, spoke of the person who had been wounded as an acting consular agent, and since Mr. Griffith is our accredited representative at Mollendo a native of Peru may have been in temporary charge of the consulate during the outbreak of mob violence. But Mr. Gresham's demand for reparation was based on the offense committed against the government as well as on the injury to person and property.

Prompt as that demand was, the response of Peru has been equally quick and unequivocal. She has expressed her regret for the occurrence, so that the apology due to the government is practically complete, and the proper amount of indemnity can easily be settled. This little incident, sprung upon the new state department and rapidly disposed of, may have an indirect influence much beyond its intrinsic importance as a practical experience of the value of courteous frankness and vigor in dealing with foreign nations.—New York Sun.

Naronic Insurance.

The marine insurance companies on this side of the Atlantic have given up all hope of the Naronic, and the New York Mutual and the Atlantic Mutual insurance companies have begun to pay off their policies on the Naronic's cargo.

"Law and custom do not compel us to pay until after a year and a day," said the president of the New York Mutual Insurance company, "but we are satisfied that the Naronic is lost. The rule on this side that marine insurance companies should not pay for losses until the lapse of a year and a day sprang into existence in the days when there were only sailing vessels. Then there was good reason for the rule, but in these days of steamships there can be no reason for any such delay."

The president of the Atlantic Mutual Insurance company said that they considered the vessel lost, and there was no use of waiting longer to settle up with the policy holders.

A Seasonable Trick.

The confectioners have been revenging themselves in the past few days. It is the custom of the majority of girls who enter to buy five cents' worth of candy to eat from the trays about as much more. A fourth street confectioner filled his counters with all kinds of April Fool candy. Some of it was red hot; other pieces had small lumps of soap inside and others cork and rubber. It was very amusing to watch the young women as they helped themselves to the sweets. The faces they made would have damaged a looking glass. One piece was enough. The trick caused a great deal of merriment among the clerks of the store.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Yearly Income of Paris Theaters.

The Paris Temps says that the income of the 52 theaters of the French capital, including the circuses and panorama, was last year 22,533,316 francs, 1,000,000 francs less than the income for 1891. The list is led by the Grand Opera House, whose receipts amounted to 3,068,467 francs. Next to the opera house are the Comedie Francaise, with 1,978,525 francs; the Opera Comique, with 1,763,081; Varieties, with 1,135,018, and Bouffes Parisiennes, with 1,130,551 francs. The income of the Hypodrome was 1,682,880 francs.

Proud In His Poverty.

There is a movement on foot to relieve the home of the late General Kirby Smith of a mortgage that rested upon it at the time of his death. It is a most worthy object, and we hope and are sure that the response will be ready and generous. General Smith lived and died a poor man. He was one of the most scrupulously honorable men that ever lived, and was too proud in his poverty to ask or accept pecuniary aid.—Memphis Commercial.

Potari, the Maori cannibal, is 85 years old and still has a good set of natural teeth. He has not eaten a white man since 1876, and for a steady diet prefers the Maoris, as he says the whites have a salt and bitter flavor.

For the first time in the history of Belgium, it is said, the principle of a monetary compensation for breach of promise of marriage has just been established.

A Man of his Word.

(From the Detroit Tribune.)

Attired in a morning robe of delicate lace, she heeded not the bitter tears that chased each other along the bridge of her nose and splashed upon the fried eggs that lay with the sunny side up before her.

Regretfully her glance rested on her husband, who sat in his dressing gown and nervously toyed with his spoon. "No, Annabel," he was saying, "I do not care for any of the baking powder biscuit you builded with your own hands."

A short gasp stirred her bosom. "Plantagenet," she faltered, "did you not say before we were married?"

A sob temporarily choked her utterance. "—th—that you would gladly die for me?"

He started and turned pale.

"Did I say that?" he eagerly demanded.

"You did, Plantagenet."

"Annabel," he said in a hollow voice, "I am a man of my word. Can I trouble you to pass me those baking powder biscuits? Thank you."

And without another word he courted death.

Jagson says some people never know what they didn't want until they have to pay for it.—Elmira Gazette.

A boy doesn't believe there is much the matter with him unless he feels sick at his stomach.—Acheson Globe.

It is pleasing to note in the papers that last year's styles in fly-paper will be stuck to this season.—Blizzard.

The experience of the man who brings up half a dozen children may safely be described as hair-raising.—Troy Press.

No matter how modest a bill poster is at the start it doesn't take him long to become very much stuck up.—Buffalo Courier.

The flowers that bloom in the spring, tra-la! Have nothing to do with the earth. They bloom in the milliner's shop, tra-la!

And cost fifty times what they're worth. —New York Herald.

What are the wild waves saying, As they dash on the beach with vim? It may be a hint to a sea-serpent fake To hustle out into the swim. —Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Close Quarters.

(From the Chicago Inter-Ocean.)

Murdock—I understand you have secured nice, airy apartments for the summer.

Brown—No; the rooms are high priced and so small I have to go out into the hall to change my mind.

It is announced on the same day at Pittsburgh that Andrew Carnegie is to build a $25,000 free public library at Braddock; and that the wages of his men in his Duquesne mill at that place have been reduced 25 per cent. The Carnegie way of diffusing knowledge is not popular.

Honest.

In these days of adulteration and fraud, in all branches of business and pursuits, it is pleasing to know that there is one medicine prepared which is strictly pure. Such a medicine is Sulphur Bitters in curing scrofula; you can depend on them every time. W. B. Evers, A. M., Charleston, S. C.

Coughing Leads to Consumption, Kemp's Balsam stops the cough at once.

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills.

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT LAXATIVE DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER. My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c and $1 a package. If you cannot get it, send your address for a free sample. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy this is necessary. Address O. H. LANE, 170 W. 4th St., N. Y.

Ripans Tabules relieve scrofula.

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

RENNE'S PAIN KILLING MAGIC OIL

CURES Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lameness, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Burns, Sprains, Strains, Colic, Cholera, Morbus, Dyspepsia, Stomach, &c. Sold Everywhere. 25 cents.

Ripans Tabules relieve headache.

Don't Drink Impure Water longer when for 50c. you can get a good filter. They will fit a faucet whether it has thread or not. Call and see at Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Barber Bros.

Hood's Cures

Mr. Wm. Wade, Lowell, Mass.

Indigestion, Loss of Appetite

Good General Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"When I find a good thing I feel like praising it, and I know from personal experience that Hood's Sarsaparilla is

A Fine Medicine

I have for a good many years been seriously troubled with distress in my stomach and indigestion. I had medical advice, prescriptions and various medicines, but my trouble was not relieved. At last I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I must say the effect was surprising. Soon after I began taking it I found great relief, and now eat without having that terrible distress. I also rest well at night and am in good general health, for all of which I thank Hood's Sarsaparilla." Wm. WADE, Boot and Shoe dealer, 17 Merrimack St., near Post Office, Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Cures

HOOD'S PILLS are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c. per box.

Expressmen.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 8:30 A. M. to 8 P. M., where a call may be left, or leave orders at G. P. Atkins, Grocer, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Foster's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing of every description promptly attended to. Residence: 152 Adams Street, Newton, Mass.

PEARSON'S NEWTON AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

BOSTON OFFICES: 91 Kilby St., 105 Arch St., 33 Court St. Order Box, 91 Faneuil Hall Market. NEWTON OFFICE at H. B. Coffin's, Order Boxes at Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins'.

Leave Newton at 9:30 a. m.

Leave Boston at 3 p. m.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER, NEWTON & BOSTON EXPRESS.

Leave Newton, 7:30 and 9:30 a. m.; leave Boston, 12 m. and 3 p. m. NEWTON OFFICE: 334 Centre Street. Order Box, Newton City Market. BOSTON OFFICES: 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court Square, 25 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave., Extension. Post Office address Box 429, Newton.

Personal Attention Given all Orders.

Undertakers.

GEO. W. BUSH.

Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Coffins, Caskets, Robes.

And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand. Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

JOHN PHILLIPS

would respectfully inform the citizens of Newton, that he can be found at the above address and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over ten years experience in the business, under the instruction and in co-operation with the late Mr. Wm. H. Phillips, I trust I can attend to all calls that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker.

S. L. PRATT,

FUNERAL and FURNISHING UNDERTAKER

Newton Centre, Mass.

First-class Appointments and Competent Assistants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the Office of Fanning Printing Co., which will immediately be forwarded to me by telephone. Also shall continue in the Hack, Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand corner of Beacon and Station Streets.

S. F. CATE,

FURNISHING - UNDERTAKER

WASHINGTON STREET,

WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 8119

HOWARD ICE CO.,

SUCCESSORS TO

HOWARD BROS.

Orders can be left at

342 Centre Street, - Newton.

Office Hours: 7:45 to 11 AM; 3 to 5:45 PM.

ABRAHAM L. HOWARD, Proprietor.

OFFICE, 46 CALEN ST., WATERTOWN.

NEWTON COAL CO.

SUCCESSORS TO—

HILLS, BULLENS & CO.

—DEALERS IN—

COAL & WOOD

Family Orders a Specialty.

OFFICE, ELIOT BLOCK.

BRANCH OFFICE:

JOHN F. PAYNE'S DRUG STORE,

NEWTONVILLE.

Chew

Old Honesty TOBACCO

It's as good as Wheat.

Every Chewer Should Insist

—on—

Having and Trying

OLD HONESTY

Plug Tobacco.

Financial.

NORTHERN
INVESTMENT COMPANY.Regular Dividends 6 1/2% Per Annum.

SE INVESTS IN CHOICEST BUSINESS CORNERS, in a large city where real estate continually increases in value and increased rentals will add to the income from year to year.

Cash Capital paid in March 1st, over $900,000.

Price of Stock 103 50-100 per share.

H. L. Warner, Pres. of Nat'l Bank of Sioux City (Capital One Million) Says:

"Everything considered, I can assure you that, in my judgment, the NORTHERN INVESTMENT COMPANY has shown great wisdom and foresight in the selection of its real estate in this city, and it seems to me almost impossible that its investments here should prove otherwise than safe and profitable."

For further particulars apply at the Company's Office, Nos. 7 to 11 Advertiser Building, 246 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., where Plans and Photographs can be seen, to
GEORGE LEONARD, Pres.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.
INCORPORATED 1881.

Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m., on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.
Banking Rooms in Newton National Bank Building.

JAMES F. C. HYDE, President.

JOHN WARD, Vice President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treas.

TRUSTEES: Joseph N. Bacon, Jas. F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lane, Francis Murdoch, Samuel M. Jackson, William D. Strong, Charles A. Miner, Elliott J. Hyde, Chas. T. Wulfer, Warren P. Tyler and Harry W. Mason.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT:

James F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdoch, Charles A. Miner, Clerk and Auditor.

H. W. MASON, Attorney.

Quarter days, TENTH day January, April, July and October. Dividends declared the Tuesday following January 10th and July 10th, are payable the next day.

West Newton Savings Bank
Incorporated 1887.

West Newton, Mass.

AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Prescott O. Bridgman, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, W. C. Cate, Adams R. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter.

Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m., 1.30 to 4 p. m.

Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

Newton National Bank,
NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS:

From 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M.

On Saturdays, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President.

B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

DO YOU WANT

To learn Watchmaking?

If so, attend the American Watchmakers School, where any and all parts of the trade are taught in the most thorough manner.

For further information address or apply to

SAUL BROTHERS,

135 Moody St., Waltham

T. F. CLENNAN,

Carriage Trimming & Harness

MAKING.

BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c.

Washington Street, Newton.

J. J. JOHNSON,

FLORIST.

CONSERVATORIES,

School Street, Newton.

Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions, etc., etc.

Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREATEST

BLOOD PURIFIER

KNOWN.

This Great German Medicine is the CHEAPEST and best, 128 doses of Sulphur Bitters for $1.00, less than one cent a dose.

It will cure the worst kind of skin disease,

from a common pimple

on the face to that awful disease,

SCROFULA. In all cases of such stubborn, deep seated diseases,

Sulphur Bitters

is the best medicine

to use.

Don't wait until tomorrow, try a bottle

TO-DAY.

Use Sulphur Bitters immediately.

If you are sick, no matter what ails you, use Sulphur Bitters.

Don't wait until you are unable to walk, or are flat on your back, but get some AT ONCE, it will cure you. Sulphur Bitters is

THE INVALID'S FRIEND.

Send 2-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co.,

Boston, Mass., for best medical work published

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

Artistic Furniture and Architectural Interiors, Decorations, etc., during the Last Two and a Half Centuries. Ref.

Consisting of sixty-one plates in photogravure.

Benjamin, Park. The Voltaic Cell; its Construction and its Capacity. 106,289

Brewster, Charles V. Rambles about Portsmouth; Sketches of Persons, Localities and Incidents of Two Centuries. 2 vols. 77,213

Gathered from the recollections of the old citizens, and published in 1859 and 1869.

Burnham, Clara Louise. Dr. Latimer; a Story of Casco Bay. 62,935

Chanler, Melie Rivers. Athelwald. 52,532

The play has its scene laid in Anglo-Saxon England, some time during the ninth century.

Conway, Katherine E. A Dream of Lilies. 55,476

Crozier, A. A. A Dictionary of Botanical Terms. 212,32

Diaz, Abby Morton. Only a Flock of Monkeys. 81,233

Brief papers on social and domestic matters.

Gates, W. F. ed. Musical Mosaics. 54,818

A collection of six hundred selections from musical literature, ancient and modern, including extracts from many later critical and aesthetical writings.

Kayser, E. Text-Book of Comparative Geology; trans. and edited by P. Lake. 104,263

The writer has translated this work from the German in order to furnish a book which shall afford help for the comparison of the geology of the different countries.

Littell, Harold. Essays on Lord Tennyson's Idyls of the King. 54,820

A summary of information, in which the sources of the various Idyls are traced, with notes on the text.

Maconell, Arthur A. Camping Out. Information as to the right way of undertaking a camping tour. 101,631

Molesworth, Mary Louisa, and others. A Dandy Chair and other Stories. 66,710

Morfill, William R. The Story of Poland. (Story of the Nations.) 72,323

The writer plans to give a readable history by bringing in to prominence the more stirring episodes and salient characteristics, and putting in the background the details.

Morris, William O'Connor. Napoleon, Warrior and Ruler, and the Military Supremacy of Revolutionary France. 93,601

The work is in the Heroes of the Nations series and is devoted principally to Napoleon's personality.

Morse, John T., Jr. Abraham Lincoln. (American Statesmen series.) 2 vols. 91,771

Oliphant, Mrs. Margaret O. W. The Victorian Age of English Literature. 2 vols. 55,477

Supplements and continues the author's "Literary Hist. of Eng. in the End of the 18th and Beginning of the 19th century."

Poole, Maria Louise. Katharine Pratt. 64,1308

Books written for the young, telling what a traveller would naturally see in visiting the countries; the first vol. takes up Australasia, the second, India.

Seawell, Molly Elliott. Children of Stowe. Harriet Beecher. Dialogues and Scenes from the Writings of H. B. Stowe; arranged by Emily Weaver. 61,837

Tausig, Frank W. The Silver Situation in the United States. 82,171

The revised edition of the work gives an account of the events of 1892.

Tourgueneff, Ivan Sergeievitch. Dimi-tri Roudine; suivi du Journal d'un Homme de trop, et de Trois Recontres. 43,140

Van Dyke, Henry. Straight Sermons to Young Men and other Human Beings. 91,767

Preached before the Universities of Yale, Harvard and Princeton.

White, Emerson E. Promotions and Examinations in Graded Schools. 1891. 85,181

E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.

May 10, 1893.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—The supplementary season at the Grand Opera House begins next Monday evening when Tom Taylor's famous play, "The Ticket of Leave Man," will be presented by the stock company with all the favorites in the cast. Miss Annie Clarke will present the role of May Edwards, a character part that will show to advantage this versatile actress. Mr. Charles Barron will play Bob Brierly, a role which he has presented before and in which he made a great hit. Mr. H. M. Pitt will be seen in the important character of Hawkshaw. Mr. Frederick Wade will play Jim Dalton. Mr. C. W. Burrill will be seen as Mr. Gibson. Mr. Thomas Chapman as Maltby. Mr. Frank J. Keenan has a great character part in Meltzer Moss and Miss Helen Dayne a capital role in Sam Willoughby. Miss Dayne has impersonated a number of male characters, but it has been several seasons since she has been seen in Boston in a part of the kind. As Sam Willoughby she has a character which will show to advantage her powers as a male impersonator. The remaining characters in the cast have been assigned with especial regard to the ability of the actors and actresses to portray them. "The Ticket of Leave Man" will be presented every evening during the week and at the Thursday matinee. "Little Lord Fauntleroy" will be presented again at the Saturday matinee.

PARK THEATRE.—Hoyt's, "A Temperance Town," is particularly interesting to New England people just now, even more than during the early period of its engagement here. A comedy which can run at one theatre for a full half year and draw good houses must possess merit as well as mirth provoking qualities, and doubtless the two weeks remaining will be altogether too short to accommodate all who have not as yet seen this pleasing American comedy. With the seats now on sale at the box office for all of the remaining performances, ample opportunity is afforded for making good their chance to see "A Temperance Town" before it leaves Boston and the Park Theatre. Nothing could be more appropriate for a warm weather attraction than the light and merry musical piece which the Park has booked to begin May 22. It is a ballad comedy romance entitled "The Golden Wedding," by Fred Miller, Jr., favorably known to Boston theatregoers as the composer of "Ship Ahoy." The music is said to be light and catchy, and the characters for the most part are typical New Englanders of rural eccentricities.

For three weeks I was suffering from a severe cold in my head, accompanied by a pain in the temples. Ely's Cream Balm was recommended to me. After only six applications of the Balm every trace of my cold was removed. —Henry C. Clark, New York appraiser's Office.

A YELLOW DOG'S LUCK.

How a Vagabond Canine Succeeded in Getting a Square Meal.

Alfred de Musset, the famous French poet, was at one time conducting a canvass for election to the French academy. Members of this distinguished body are elected to it by those who are already members, and custom requires that an aspirant shall go about soliciting the votes of members. Musset had gone from one academicien to another and was on his way, on foot, to the house of the Comte de Sainte-Aulaire, just outside of Paris, whose vote he hoped to gain. When he had almost arrived at the place, a large yellow dog began to follow him, but the dog moped behind, and as the poet was too much wrapped in his thoughts to look around he did not know that what was perhaps the most hideous dog in Paris was at his heels.

When the poet rang at M. de Sainte-Aulaire's door, the dog watched his chance, and as the door was opened slipped into the house. The servants supposed the dog was the new-comer's, and the poet supposed that it belonged to the house.

The host and his family were warm admirers of Musset and gave him a hearty welcome, though they gazed askance at the horrible yellow dog, which had curled its long legs down on a beautiful rug woven by the young lady of the family as a present to her grandmother.

"Extraordinary taste in pets," said the host to himself. "But to a great poet anything may be pardoned."

"Strange," said Musset to himself, "that an elegant family like this should keep such a hideous cur!"

When presently the poet had been invited to remain to dinner and the dog had promptly accompanied the family and their guest to the dining room, the master of the house was in grave doubt whether "anything could be pardoned to a poet." The animal rushed around the table, grabbing a piece of food, frightening the venerable grandmother almost to death, and acting like the miserable, hungry vagabond that he was.

The hostess, by way of delicate compliment to her guest, caused a large plate of food to be placed for the dog. The animal ate it in a minute's time and galloped around the table for more. He barked furiously when one of the family declined to give him a piece of meat that he saw on a plate.

The dog's actions prevented any conversation or any enjoyment of the meal. The host looked at his guest and wondered. The guest looked at his host and wondered.

As the party was rising from the table the dog rushed against a servant and caused him to upset the greater portion of a set of rare and precious china, an heirloom in the family. The ladies gathered about, weeping, and began to pick up the priceless fragments.

Something in the hostess' face inspired the poet with a sudden and fearful thought. He rushed up to the count.

"Can it be possible, sir," he exclaimed, "that you supposed that this dog belonged to me?"

"Why, of course we supposed he was yours," said the count. "He came with you, did he not?"

"I never saw the hideous beast before!" said Musset. "I supposed all the time that the dog belonged to the house."

Then the animal, which had shown signs of uneasiness during this little conversation, sneaked toward the door. He was kicked out, yelping, but once well outside he shook himself and trotted off with a complacent air, which seemed to say:

"Well, that's all right—so long as you didn't turn me out before dinner!"

M. de Sainte-Aulaire wrote for Musset. "But," he said, "I shouldn't have done so if that dog had really been his. Upon such little things do great things depend!"—Youth's Companion.

End of Volapuk in France.

Many persons will perhaps breathe a sigh of relief on hearing that Volapuk is doomed in this country at least. French business men will have none of it. Its most energetic apostle and propagator has been sent away from the Paris headquarters of the Volapukists and is now filling an important post as professor of German in a provincial college. This being the case, the members of the French association of Volapukists have decreed the dissolution of their society. Nevertheless they had at one time great hopes of success, and their strange jargon was almost elevated for a while to the rank of a fashionable fad.

Lectures in the new language, which was to undo all the damage wrought by the Babel affair long ago, were attended by numerous students of both sexes, and small sheets in the strange compound of tongues were disseminated every week among adepts and the general public. By degrees the craze died out, and the number of Volapukists in Paris dwindled down to a few enthusiastic persons full of sentiments peculiar to those who cling through thick and thin to lost causes.—Paris Letter.

The Confirmation of Eckels.

The confirmation of Mr. Eckels as comptroller of the currency is a victory for Mr. Cleveland, who played a high game and won. It is now known that it caused no little feeling on the part of Secretary Carlisle, who did not think that Eckels was a fit man for the post and said so. Nevertheless he would not antagonize the president in the question of confirmation. Persons who well know the feelings of the president say he is greatly encouraged as to the future, including the senate's reputed hostility on the silver question.

The line of battle against the president was formed, and word sent that if he would save himself from defeat, he should withdraw Eckels' name. To which he is said to have replied, in substance, that if senators chose they might reject the nomination, and he would see them later. This had the effect of producing a sober second thought, and Eckels was confirmed. Persons who know the new comptroller say he will astonish Wall street and other financial centers before he has been long in office.—Washington Letter.

A Wonderful Paper.

The World's Fair Number of The Youth's Companion is in every way a magnificent issue, a worthy contribution to the Columbian year and the greatest Fair the world has ever seen. It gives a full illustrated description of the different departments of the Fair, also important directions showing how to see the Fair and what to see each day.

All the old subscribers to The Companion will receive it free, and any new subscribers received, with $1.75 for a year's subscription, will also obtain a copy while the edition lasts. Seven hundred thousand copies have been printed, but are not likely to be sufficient for the demand. Single numbers may be obtained by sending ten cents to The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass., or of any newsdealer.

"I Am So Tired"

Is a common exclamation at this season. There is a certain bracing effect in cold air which is lost when the weather grows warmer; and when Nature is renewing her youth, her admirers feel dull, sluggish and tired. This condition is owing mainly to the impure condition of the blood, and its failure to supply healthy tissue to the various organs of the body. It is remarkable how susceptible the system is to the help to be derived from a good medicine at this season. Possessing just those purifying, building-up qualities which the body craves, Hood's Sarsaparilla soon overcomes that tired feeling, restores the appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, imparts vigorous health. Its thousands of friends as with one voice declare "It Makes the Weak Strong."

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address, J. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Lane's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. In order to be healthy this is necessary.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Wherever there is a lot of wear and tear on paint, it is absolutely necessary to have the best. Poor paint lasts no time—it is not made to last, nor are its constituents calculated to render it durable. All the elements of poor paint are cheap. Cheapness does not mean economy, but rather the reverse. That which is best made from the best materials lasts the longest, and therefore is the most economical, even if it costs a trifle more at the start. This is the case with the Chilton Paints, whose name is a synonym for satisfaction. Everyone of their component parts is the best that the market affords, and no cheap substitutes are used in their manufacture. For instance, illuminating benzine is not used as a drier, instead of turpentine. Pure linseed oil gives a good solid body to the Chilton Paints. They are carefully ground seven times, and such is their capacity that they will cover far more surface than any other paints manufactured. Whatever paint you use, however, give it a fair chance, and see that it is never applied to a wet or even damp surface. If you disregard this advice you will regret it. "Chilton Paint Co., New York and Boston."

JOB PRINTING

AT THIS OFFICE.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

MIDDLESEX, ss. PROBATE COURT.

To the next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Lucius M. Pinkham late of Newton, in said County, deceased, intestate:

Whereas, application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Maria J. Pinkham of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, and to exempt her from giving surety or securities on her bond pursuant to statute;

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the fourth Tuesday of May, A. D. 1893, at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic, printed at Newton, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George M. Brooks, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

By James F. C. Hyde & Son, Auctioneers, 31 Milk Street, Boston, Members of Real Estate Exchange and Auction Board.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Edward C. Frost to Bernard Billings, dated July 25th, 1892, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, lib. 213, folio 463, will be sold at public auction for breach of the conditions in said mortgage, on the premises, on Monday the Twenty-second day of May 1893, at Four and 1-4 o'clock, in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely:—a certain parcel of land, situated in that part of Newton in said County of Middlesex, called Newton Upper Falls, and bounded Northerly by Chandler Place, Fifty-three feet, Easterly by land now or late of Beal, One Hundred and one and 67-100 feet, Southerly by land of the New York and New England Railroad Company, Fifty-three feet, and Westerly by land now or late of Clapp, One Hundred and one and 67-100 feet. Being the same premises conveyed to said Edward C. Frost by Herbert M. Beal by deed duly recorded with said Middlesex Deeds.

Subject to a mortgage to the Newton Co-operative Bank, dated June 28th, 1892, only recorded with Middlesex Deeds.

$100 will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place above specified.

BERNARD BILLINGS, Mortgagee.

30

BLAIR'S PILLS.

Great English Remedy

GOUT & RHEUMATISM.

ESTIMATES

On all kinds of Printing cheerfully furnished at the GRAPHIC Office.

30

Wherever there is a lot of wear and tear on paint, it is absolutely necessary to have the best. Poor paint lasts no time—it is not made to last, nor are its constituents calculated to render it durable. All the elements of poor paint are cheap. Cheapness does not mean economy, but rather the reverse. That which is best made from the best materials lasts the longest, and therefore is the most economical, even if it costs a trifle more at the start. This is the case with the Chilton Paints, whose name is a synonym for satisfaction. Everyone of their component parts is the best that the market affords, and no cheap substitutes are used in their manufacture. For instance, illuminating benzine is not used as a drier, instead of turpentine. Pure linseed oil gives a good solid body to the Chilton Paints. They are carefully ground seven times, and such is their

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre
Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions & makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, handbills and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Ivers & Pond piano, Farley, Newton.
—Mr. H. H. Read's new house on Parker street is nearly completed.
—Mrs. George A. Pierce and family leave town next week for Chicago and the World's Fair.

—Miss Alice Robinson, who has been confined to her room for several weeks by illness, is improving.
—Wm. Scott, one of Mr. Knapp's clerks, has recovered from his recent illness and is again at work.

—The rumor that Mr. Arthur Washburn was to be married the first of the coming June is untrue.

—Read Sidney P. Clark's new real estate advertisement in another column.

—A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Smith has been ill for two or three weeks, but is now much better.

—Rev. Dr. S. F. Smith and wife, who have spent the winter in Chicago with a son, are expected home tomorrow.

—Mr. George B. Wilson in selling out his express business, reserves teams enough to move furniture and solicits patronage. Address, Clark street, Newton Centre.

—The social at the First Congregational vestry, Wednesday evening, took the form of an alphabet social under the direction of the Endeavor Society. It was a very pleasant affair.

—Mr. Stephen Greene and family have removed from Gibbs street to their handsome new house just completed on Centre street.

—Mr. William S. Appleton and family have closed their house in Boston and are occupying their handsome summer residence, Holbrook Hall, at Oak Hill, for the season.

—Home Lodge, I. O. O. F., expect to occupy their new hall in Stevens' rebuilt block, Newton Highlands, next Thursday evening.

—Rev. J. G. Townsend, D.D., will preach for the Unitarian Society next Sunday and the week following. Service at 10:45. Sunday school at 11.

—The social Wednesday evening at the Baptist parlor, took the form of a May festival and was a source of much enjoyment to those present.

—The Star Base Ball Club of this place played a few days ago at Newton Highlands with a club there of the same class, the Newton Centres coming out a few points ahead.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Mrs. Sarah Bagnall, M. Carey, Mrs. William Coleman, William Matthews, L. L. D. Nelson Ramsey, Wm. Smith, Catherine Scully.

—Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes of the Baptist church was away Sunday and his pulpit in the morning was occupied by Prof. Chas. R. Brown. Prof. Alvah Hovey officiated at the Holy Communion service in the afternoon, and the evening meeting was in charge of Prof. Rush Rhees.

—Prof. Rush Rhees of the Newton Baptist Theological institution is spending the summer in European travel.
—The Holy Communion service Sunday at the First Congregational church, was especially impressive. Five persons joined the church by confession of faith and one by letter, and three infants received baptism.

—Mr. S. L. Pratt's depot carriage may still be found in its accustomed place and in charge of an efficient driver, Wm. Ross.

—Arthur Train Morton, son of Prof. James F. and Mrs. Carrie E. Morton, and grandson of Rev. Dr. S. F. Smith of this place, died at Andover, N. H., after an illness of only three days, aged 6 years, 4 months.

—Mr. Charles E. Dudley has severed his connection with Mr. S. L. Pratt by whom he has been employed for a number of years.

—Col. E. H. Haskell and family, Beacon street, leave town this week for a visit of some weeks to Chicago.

—Mr. and Mrs. Marshall O. Rice entertained a few friends Wednesday evening at their residence on Centre street.

—Mrs. Harry W. Mason, Ward street, gives a reception between five and seven o'clock Saturday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Davies, her brother's wife, who was married the first of the week.

—W. A. Parks & Co. are making things lively, not only in the boot and shoe trade, but in their bicycles. They have sold in the past fourteen days nearly as many machines.

—The new house being erected on Pleasant street for Mr. Francis H. Wheelock is up and framed.

—Next Sunday the baccalaureate sermon at the Baptist church will be delivered by Rev. F. W. Bakeman, D. D., of Chelsea.

—Mr. S. V. A. Hunter's handsome new house will not be ready for occupancy for several weeks, but it is one of the largest and finest in Newton Centre, and when finished it will comprise one of the most elegant residences in this part of the city.

—Rev. E. H. Hughes' discourse at the M. E. church Sunday morning was very interesting. His text was taken from Matt. 14:36. "And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment; and so many as touched were made perfectly whole."

—The regular meeting of the First church, this Friday evening, will be in charge of the Congregational Endeavor Society and it will constitute the monthly missionary meeting of the society with an especially attractive program.

—Herbert Sullivan of Newton Centre, while climbing a fence last Saturday night, tripped and fell, breaking his left leg directly above the knee. He was taken to the Newton Cottage Hospital where his leg was set by Dr. Winslow.

—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Pratt of Maple Park are entertaining Miss Cooks and friend, who arrived from Europe Monday on the Pannonia. They are relatives of Mrs. Pratt and are visiting here for a short time before proceeding to California, taking in the World's Exposition on their way thither.

—The story in a Boston paper to the effect that Newton would have free delivery commencing June first is misleading in that it implies that the whole city will be included in the change. The probability is there will be no change at present on this side of the city and the statement more directly affects Newtonville and West Newton, which it is very probable will have free delivery in a very short time.

—Mrs. Mary Ann Dorby died at her home on Maple Park on Sunday morning. She was the mother of Mrs. Rogers and grandmother of Mrs. Harding, both of Newton Centre. The services were held at the house on Tuesday and the interment was at Medford, her early home.

—The employees of Mr. J. C. Farrar called upon him Saturday night and requested him to shorten their time of labor from ten to nine hours per day. The demand was made in an earnest, respectful manner, and after Mr. Farrar had considered the matter he told his men their request should be granted. The new time went into effect Monday and is greatly appreciated by the men.

—Upon invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Clark, twelve Newton Centre ladies, members of the N. G. S. of which Mrs. Clark is president, visited them last week at their elegant new home, remaining from Wednesday until Friday. As the genial president of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. never does things by halves, it goes without saying that the party was royally entertained from the start to the finish.

—The graduation week of the Newton Baptist Theological Institution commences next Sunday, when the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered at the Baptist church. On Monday and Tuesday the public examinations take place, and at 3 p. m. Wednesday an address before the alumni will be given at the church by Rev. F. E. Dewhurst of the class of '82. In the evening at 7:45 an address will be given before the missionary society by Rev. G. D. Boardman, D. D., of Philadelphia. At 10 o'clock Thursday occur the graduating exercises. A new feature this year will be a reception given by the graduating class between the hours of four and seven o'clock Thursday afternoon.

—The 4th anniversary of the Epworth League will be observed at the Methodist church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. E. H. Hughes, will, by request, repeat his stirring address on "The Peril and Power of Our Young People's Movement." The public are cordially invited. The choir will be assisted by Signor Augusto Rotoli of Boston. The program of music will include:

Organ Voluntary, "Marche Pontificale," J. Lemmens
Soprano Solo, "Gloria to God," A. Rotoli
Mrs. Lewis R. Spear, A. Rotoli
Offertory, "Elevation," H. M. Dunham
Deo Deum in F, Choir, H. Kotschmar
Tenor Solo, "Cujus Animam" from Rossini
"Stabat Mater," J. S. Bach
Org. Postlude, "Praeludium and Fugue in Bb," J. S. Bach

—One of the most interesting and exciting games of the season was played on Walworth's field last Saturday. At several points in the game both teams had men on bases, when a base hit meant the game, but both pitchers were effective at critical points. Lyons at first was inclined to be a little wild but finally settled down and was not at all disturbed by the desperate efforts made by the College boys to "rattle" him, who, in their endeavors to help their team win approached the base lines, and by every means possible tried to "rattle" the Newton boys, but they rising to the occasion "pulled" the game.

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
N. H. S.....2 0 0 4 0 2 1 0 9
C. M. S.....3 0 1 1 1 0 1 0 7

—The game between the Newton High school and that of the Cambridge manual training school, was fought inch by inch by both teams. By strong hitting, aided by errors of the C. M. T. S., their opponents led at the end of the seventh inning 7 to 2. But judicious batting and a few timely errors enabled the C. M. T. S. to make four runs in the eighth, and one in the ninth tying the score and making it necessary to play extra innings.

—The Song Recital last Monday evening at the Baptist church parlor, given under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Double Quartet, was one of the most enjoyable of entertainments and was well attended.

The double quartet, consisting of Misses Marion Randall Haskell, Grace Dickerson, first sopranos; Miss Lillian Gray White, Clara Oris-a Bond, first altos; Misses Fannie Bray Edmonds, Florence Watts Kendall, second altos were assisted by Mrs. Alcaide Ford Hibbard, Miss Maud Wilson and Mr. Everett Le Forest Hill. A collection was taken during the evening, the object of which was for the Fresh Air Fund. The program rendered was as follows:

Come and Sing, Abt
Getting Ready for the Party, Kate Douglas Wiggin
May Song, Mrs. Hibbard, Arranged by J. P. Weston
To Sevilla, Mi-s Wilson, Dessauer
The Flight of Little Emily, Mr. Hibbard, Dickens
Vale Where my Home Lies, Abt
The Lilies Clustered Tall and Fair, Dana
Oh, My Love's Like a Red, Red Rose, Garrett
A Prompt Obsequy, Anon
O The Frenchman's Mistake, Mrs. Hibbard
Tit for Tat, Arranged by J. P. Weston
O A Serenade, Neddinge
O Celeste, Newcombe
Wood Concert, Miss Wilson, Abt
A kind good night to al, Macbeth

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—The Chautauqua Circle will meet next Monday at Mrs. Tyler's.

—Mr. H. C. Robinson at last accounts was at the Midland, Kansas City.

—Miss Ella Wight, the dressmaker, is confined to her home with the gripe.

—Mrs. Lovering is visiting friends at Eggleston Square.

—Water pipes are now being laid in Woodward street.

—Mr. Leonard Bacon is confined to his room with an attack of the gripe.

—The Monday Club will hold its next meeting with Miss Sweetzer, at the residence of Mr. C. H. Guild. An illustrated lecture will be given by Mr. Guild on "Venice."

—Harry Kimball, second son of Mr. O. J. Kimball, who has been several days sick with rheumatic fever, still remains very seriously ill.

—Mr. P. E. Tarbell and family now occupy the house lately purchased by him of Mr. John Glover, on Hillside avenue.

—Rev. Mr. Dunning, who has for many years made visits in the south, gave a very interesting account of his observations among the colored race, as to their social, moral, financial and religious condition.

—Mrs. W. E. B. Ryder still continues very ill, but it is thought her condition is somewhat improved.

—Mrs. C. A. Clark of Cypress street has returned to her home, her mother, Mrs. W. H. Ashley of Fall River, having recovered her health.

—Mr. C. Dickerman, a nephew of Mr. B. Dickerman, has a cedar staked out for a house on Lincoln street extension, near Elliot station, which when completed will be occupied by him.

—The public property committee of the city government made a visit to the Highlands on Wednesday, and took a look at the school house and grounds, preparatory to making their report, which will be expected soon.

—Rev. Dr. Dunning will conduct the services at the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening. Subject for the evening will be the book of Job. All welcome. Seats free.

—Mr. F. S. Kempton now occupies the store in Stevens block formerly occupied by him, which has been refitted in a very tasteful manner. In addition to his former business of boots and shoes he has added a furnishing goods department.

—Mrs. R. Whight, who has been several weeks at her former home at South Boston, has now returned to her home at the Highlands, having nearly recovered her health.

—The choir of St. Paul's church will, during the warm weather, hold their rehearsals on Fridays instead of Saturdays.

—Services next Sunday, the Sunday after Ascension, at St. Paul's as follows: Holy Communion, 9:45; Morning Prayer, 10:45; and sermon, 10:45. Sunday school, 12:15; Evening Prayer and Address, 7.

—The Boys' Club will meet next Tuesday evening in the vestry of St. Paul's church.

—The choir of St. Paul's church will participate in the festival of the Massachusetts Chautauk, to be held in the Church of the Advent, Boston, on June 1st. The choir from Newton Highlands will go to their first Boston rehearsal next Monday evening.

—M. E. services next Sunday morning at 10:45 in the hall. In the evening at 7 o'clock the pastor will preach about "The Tongue." Mr. Herbert Williams will lead the music with his cornet.

—The Ladies' Society of the M. E. church held a supper, social and entertainment last Wednesday evening at Mr. Elliott J. Hyde's. There was a good attendance, a good time, and a good sum of money made.

—Unitarian services will be held next Sunday in the Episcopal chapel at 4 p. m. Rev. Mr. Priest of Newtonville will preach.

—Sunday music at the Congregational church will include:

Antem, "Guide me O thou great Jehovah," Howard Dorr Response, "The Everlasting Arms," Warner
Offertory, "God is our hope," Davenport
Solo, voices and organ.
After sermon, quartet, "We are but pilgrims," Sullivan Male quartet, Mr. Hunting, 1st tenor; Mr. Estabrook 2nd tenor; Mr. Mayer, Bass, Mr. Morgan, Bass; Miss Stone, organist.

—Tickets are out for a grand concert to be given in the Congregational church, Thursday evening, May 18th. The proceeds to be devoted to the church music. The regular church male quartet will have the able assistance of Miss Gertrude Prentice, contralto of Boston, Miss Dora Damon the favorite young cornetist, Miss Fay Davis, the popular reader, and Mr. J. C. Goodrich, organist, of the First church, Newton. The accompaniments will be played by Miss Woodman. A choice program has been arranged and will be announced later. The church should be filled with lovers of good music, given for such a cause.

—When the Buffalo Disappeared.
In 1876 Fort Benton alone sent 80,000 buffalo hides to market. In 1883 two carloads were shipped from Dickinson, North Dakota. In 1884 Fort Benton sent none at all. In 1879 a little band of the animals were known to be grazing near Fort Totten, on Devil Lake, North Dakota, and it is believed that these animals furnished the two carloads of robes which came eastward to St. Paul from Dickinson in 1883. This was the last year of the buffalo—1883. A herd, numbering perhaps 80,000, crossed the Yellowstone river in that year and went north toward the British line. "They never came back," is the pitiful refrain which one hears from the Indians along the border from Winnipeg in Manitoba to St. Mary's Lakes in Alberta.

No, they never came back while riding with the officers of the Canadian mounted police through Alberta, they told me the story of this last year of the buffalo, but it was never told twice alike by any two men, for a strange mystery seems to hang over the closing scene of the great crime which annihilated the mighty herds.—Hamlin Russell in Harper's.

—Evidence of the extent to which William Lord Moore carries on his next of kin swindle in America continues to reach me from time to time. One of the latest cases to hand is from a gentleman in Texas, who fortunately saw my warning in time to prevent him being duped into paying the "tax on legacies and bequests" mentioned in the bogus decree of the supreme court of chancery with which this indomitable rogue had favored him.

Really I think that it is time for the police of some nationality to attempt to deal with the swindler, and so far as I can see, the American police have the first claim upon his liberty, for it is evident from the correspondence in my possession that this latter victim fell into Moore's hands through an advertisement of a New York claim agency. William Lord Moore is well known at Scotland Yard, and I am convinced that if it were asked for every assistance would be given in ridding the country of this rascal.—London Truth.

—An old provincial French expression runs thus, "The tears of woman are like the waves of the sea." But another declares that "the tears of woman are soon checked."

—According to the report of the auditor of Virginia, the negroes of that state pay taxes on real estate valued at $9,425,685, and on personal property valued at $3,242,950.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank, the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. O. Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, a certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in the part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex, called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot number three, containing a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Survey dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number six (50) feet west of said lot number four, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell, one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to lot number seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number seven and lot number six (50) feet to lot number two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-five one-hundredths (134.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

—By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 33.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1893.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR

THE NATIONAL PURE FOOD CO.,

Will serve their delicious soups, prepared by L. Pasqualli, for eight years the Chef of the Somerset Club of Boston, at the

Newton City Market

For one week, beginning

Monday, May 22nd, 1893.

We believe these Soups are the best on the Market. Tasting will make you a believer. We most cordially invite you to call during the exhibit and try these goods.

WELLINGTON HOWES,

Newton, May 19, 1893.

NEW AND EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS

BRASS AND IRON BEDSTEADS.

Fine Bedding of Every Description.

The Furnishing of COUNTRY and SEASHORE HOUSES

A SPECIALTY.

We have the best facilities for remaking and renovating bedding of all kinds.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,

346 Boylston Street,

(Opposite Arlington Street.)

BOSTON, MASS.

TELEPHONE—TREMONT 1019.

MINER ROBINSON,

ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton. 12 Pearl St., Room 27, BOSTON.

The fitting of private residences for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT

a specialty. High grade electrical work of every description. Agent for the

MATHER SYSTEM

Complete electric light and power installations. If your electrical gas lighting system is constantly giving trouble, have a installed. Satisfaction guaranteed. Send for estimates.

"ROBINSON" ELECTRICAL GAS LIGHTING SWITCH

Telephones, Boston, #311; West Newton, 234.

Concrete Walks and Driveways.

The season for this work is now open, and we should be glad to receive orders or make estimates for parties wishing work in private grounds.

Having laid the Newton public sidewalks for the past sixteen years, the quality of our work is well known. Communication by mail will receive prompt attention.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, Newton.

Boston Office, 166 Devonshire St., Room 58.

BUY THE BEST.
ASK YOUR GROCER FOR
"C. and H."

EXTRA CREAM LUCCA
OLIVE OIL.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

If your Grocer does not keep it, order of

CODMAN & HALL, Sole Agents,
34 HAMILTON ST., BOSTON.
Send for pamphlet containing salad receipts.

HARRY BROOKS DAY,

TEACHER OF

PIANO-FORTE

Organ, Harmony,

COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION

Elliot Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,

NEWTON.

Instruction.

MISS CLARA E. WADE,

TEACHER OF PIANO FORTE,

Cypress St., Newton Centre.

6 28c

—: JOB PRINTING —:

Chandler & Co.

CLOAK DEPT.

LAIE S' CAPES in black and colors

New designs constantly arriving.

Prices from

$8 to $80.

BLACK and COLORED CAPE JACK-

ETS and TOP COATS,

$10 to $35.

TEA GOWNS and WRAPPERS for spring and summer wear in large

variety.

CHANDLER & CO.,

Winter Street, BOSTON.

Wall Papers.

We are offering a handsome selection.

Fine Chamber Papers, 6c, 8c, and 12 1-2c.
Fine Dining Room Papers, 12 1-2c, 15c, and 20c.
Fine Parlor Papers, 15c, 20c, and 25c.

LARGEST VARIETY.

LOWEST PRICES.

Mail Order Dept. Samples for 3 two-cent stamps.

Window Shades.

Hand Made Tint Cloth, with fixtures and trimmings,

made and put up, 60c. each.

WARRANTED NOT TO FADE.

Store and Office Shades a Specialty.

Our Prices are the Lowest.

Window Shades, ready to hang,

25c., 35c., 50c.

Chenille Portieres

At $3.10 Per Pr.

Draperies Poles and Trimmings.

Lace Curtains.

Swiss, Irish Point, Brussels.

A bargain in Irish Point Lace at $7.75

Art Muslins, for seaside cottages, in great variety.

A choice line at 7c. per yard.

J. A. GLASS & CO.,

119 Washington St.

BOSTON.

resmakers.

DRESSMAKING

Evening and Street Costumes in Latest

Designs.

Moderate Prices.

S. A. MERRITT, 33 PARSONS STREET,

NEWTONVILLE.

Waltham & Newton electric cars pass the street.

Physicians.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.

RESIDENCE AND OFFICE

437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton

Hours—Until 9 A. M. 1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. MCINTOSH,

Corner of Washington and Jewett Sts.

(Office of the late Dr. Keith).

Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home

until 9 A. M.

Refer to Dr. W. P. Weeschoeff, and Dr

James B. Bell.

Telephone, Newtonville, 464.

J. FRANKLIN FULLER, Jr.

Civil Engineer and Surveyor,

12 PEARL ST. BOSTON.

Rooms 24 and 25.

Surveys, Plans, and Estimates, for the Improvement, Drainage, and Development of City

and Suburban Real Estate.

Residence Highland St., West Newton

10-93-6m 1p

Shirts Made to Order

By E. B. BLACKWELL,

43 THORNTON STREET, NEWTON.

A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.

Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.

Will call on customers at such time and place

as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.

New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands,

15c.; Collars, 25c.; Cuffs, 25c.; Centre

Plaids, 25c.

Bodily fitting shirts made to fit well

NEWTON.

—Prescriptions compounded at Hann's.

Remember "Our Corner Market" when

ordering fine dinners

—Mr. C. J. Bailey has returned from a three weeks visit at Chicago.

—Fine bedding plants at Irving's greenhouse, 161 Pearl street. Come and see. If

—Dr. J. F. Frisbee read a paper before the last meeting of the Boston Gynecological society.

—The Eliot Childs is expected in Newton soon from Georgia, where he has been spending the winter.

—Stuart Harding, formerly assistant baggage master, is now assistant ticket agent at the Newton station.

—Mr. Geo. Linder and family have returned from Boston to their home on Cotton street.

—Mr. E. P. Burnham has entered the team race at Waltham, as one of the Press

Club team that will contest for the piano.

—Rev. T. W. Bishop of Andover will preach in the M. E. church, Sunday morning.

—Mr. E. P. Burnham was clerk of the course in the Lincoln races, when so many records were broken.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Crocker left Monday for a trip to Denver, by way of Chicago, and the World's Fair.

—A bicycle club has been organized at the Y. M. C. A., and already has a membership of 25.

—Mrs. Seymour Eaton of Philadelphia

was the guest this week of Mrs. Kate Lenie

Stevenson of Vernon street.

—Dr. Ed. R. Utley attended the social of the Delta Up-Ilion Fraternity in the United States Hotel last Saturday evening.

—Many Newton people attended the Idler club reception in the Harvard annex last Friday evening.

—Mr. Charles E. Eddy, is in Chicago this week visiting the World's Fair.

—Wm. Donnelly, for several years with Newcomb & Snyder, is now assistant baggage-master at the Newton station.

—Mr. H. E. Chapin of the B. & A. ticket office has taken a position as collector for the N. E. Telephone company.

—Mr. Geo. M. Nowell gave a piano recital at Sleeper Hall, Boston, last evening, assisted by Mr. Heinrich Meyn.

—The Social Science Club will meet at

Mrs. B. A. Ballou's, 10 Church street, Wednesday, May 24th, at 10 a. m.

—Mr. F. P. Dart, who has proved so popular as clerk of the Newton Club, will officiate at the Moosilauke, White Mountains, this summer, as usual.

—The National Pure Food Co. will serve their soups at the City Market, next week, and Newton people are invited to sample them.

—Rev. Mr. Bronson will preach at the Methodist church Sunday evening from the subject, "The Perfect Woman according to Solomon."

—Mr. Wiley S. Edmunds has sold the lot corner of Hurst street and Oakfield road, to E. W. Spooner of Boston, who will build a handsome residence.

—Mr. George E. Stuart is taking his vacation for several years and is enjoying the sights at the World's Fair.

—Mr. Emery has taken possession of his new residence on Waverley avenue, which is one of the most attractive in the city.

—Mr. J. J. Johnson, the florist of Thornton street, has the choicest variety of colors in pansies ever shown in Newton;

also a great variety of bedding plants.

—A. W. Porter made the 25 miles in the Lincoln road race in 1 hour, 17 minutes, 2 seconds. Mr. Porter has entered in the race to be held at Waltham Memorial day.

—All who wish to join the Newton Camera Club party that will visit Concord on Wednesday should address at once the president, Dr. E. B. Hitchcock.

—Mrs. P. A. Murray is enjoying a trip to the World's Fair, and will also visit Fort

Dodge, Iowa.

—A Boston capitalist has purchased, through Henry W. Savage, the six flat house, Maple street, belonging to John

C. Rochester, for about $15,000.

—The magnificent display of tulips and hyacinths on the Leonard estate, Mt. Ida street, attracts much admiration from all who pass by.

—There will be a strawberry and ice cream festival at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, 24th inst. Strangers cordially welcomed.

—Judge J. C. Kennedy has been reelected

one of the vice-presidents of the Middlesex Club. He was also delegated to make the address on the retirement of John Haskell

Butler from the presidency.

—The Italians on the gas main on Hunnewell avenue struck yesterday, and today

a new set replaced them. The old men came to entice them away and for fear of trouble Officer Harrison was sent for, and a regular policeman is now stationed at the trench.

—Mr. W. Harvey Lucas, manager of the

Walker & Pratt Mfg. Co's Watertown store, was married in Southwick, Mass.,

last Saturday, to Miss Sisle P., daughter of the Rev. Mr. Packard of that town. Mr.

and Mrs. Lucas will reside at 13 Maple street, Newton.

—Evangelist John M. Dick of Boston

will speak to boys at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon next at 3 o'clock. Subject, "A Duel, Boy against Devil, Who Wins?" All boys under 16 years of age cordially invited. Men's meeting conducted by Herbert S. Dow, General Secretary, at 4 o'clock.

—The meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Monday, May 22nd, at 3 o'clock in the chapel of the Baptist church. Mrs.

Lewis of the Moonah Home, Boston, will be present to tell of the work that is being done for the rescue of fallen girls. All ladies cordially invited.

—The North Side Improvement Society have already begun active work. The committee on trees and shrubs have set out 250 trees and 100 shrubs in the past week and the other committees have commenced active work.

—In spite of the great number of eggs of the tent caterpillar turned over to the

CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE BOULEVARD REPORT—THE SEWER ORDINANCE, STREET RAILWAYS AND OTHER MATTERS.

The board of aldermen met Monday night, with all the members present, and Mayor Fenno presiding. There was a large attendance of prominent citizens interested in the new boulevard.

Mayor Fenno said it was his painful duty to announce the death of Mr. Adams K. Tolman, a former member of the board of aldermen and a member of the water board, a citizen whose loss would be deeply felt by the community. A committee consisting of Aldermen Bothfield, Hunt and Roffe was appointed to draft resolutions.

An invitation from Charles Ward Post to take part in the exercises of Memorial Day was received and accepted.

Mr. E. T. Wiswall, a member of the board of health for five years, was received.

BOYD'S POND.

Mayor Fenno stated that the General Court had passed an act for the abatement of the Boyd's pond nuisance, and the matter was referred to the Committee on Finance with instruction to report at an early day.

WARD ONE.

The General Court passed an act, signed May 3, 1893, for the division of Ward One into precincts in a different manner from at present, but the board of assessors had stated that the assessment of polls and estates had gone so far on the present system that a change this year would present serious difficulties. Referred to the committee on elections.

John H. Walton was appointed a special policeman to serve without pay on certain land on Mechanic street, Ward Five.

The report of the

BOULEVARD COMMISSION

was read by City Clerk Kingsbury, and will be found in another column. It was referred to the Highway Commission. The Needham street railway directors sent in an agreement accepting the location granted them.

Papers from the Common Council were received and referred in concurrence.

SIDEWALK ORDINANCE.

When the ordinance relating to cleaning sidewalks in Wards One and Seven came up on a verbal amendment, Alderman Thompson rose to a question of privilege and asked if it was true as had been stated that the city had legal for the city to clean the sidewalks.

Alderman Bothfield said his statement had been misunderstood. It was illegal to clean the walks and assess the cost on the estates, but it could be paid for out of the general tax levy.

Alderman Thompson said he favored having the city do the work. He foresaw that it would be a constant source of trouble to try to have the abutters do the work.

Alderman Plummer said the citizens of Wards One and Seven were by a great majority in favor of the ordinance and he favored letting them have the burden of the work.

The ordinance was passed to be enrolled, Alderman Thompson only voting no.

Hearings were opened on taking land for sewers in unoccupied streets.

Albert Gay sent a letter protesting against laying a sewer on Austin street, and stated that if the land was entered upon, he should require all the damages that could be recovered by legal process.

T. M. Clark said the city had no right of way over his land on Austin street extension, and he did not wish to give one.

No one appeared on the hearings on Chesley Road, Otis place, Worcester street and Allston street, nor on the hearing for the rounding off of the South east corner of Margin and Putnam streets.

An arc light was asked for on Central avenue.

W. L. Thompson and others asked for two street lamps on Boylston street.

Residents of Russell court asked for a drain and sewer.

Wm Kellogg gave notice of intention to build house on Hunnewell Terrace, V. M. Carter, house on Waverley avenue, and W. S. Bacon house on Hyde avenue.

J. W. French was granted license to build brick block on Centre street, Newton, in place of the wooden structure recently burned.

The Pettie Machine works and other companies and citizens asked that Wm A. Leonard, the oldest police officer in the ward, might be appointed day policeman at Upper Falls.

Residents of Knowles street asked to have the street accepted as a public way.

HOMER STREET.

Alderman Roffe presented a remonstrance from Mr. Macomber, and J. T. and Howard Carlton, owners of the two houses on Homer street, between Cedar and Walnut, protesting against changing the location of the street railway from the centre to the side of the street, and the hearing on the question was opened.

Mr. H. B. Parker said the sewer on the street had been dug up several times and now was being dug up again, and if the road waited for the sewer to be finished it would be late in the summer before cars could run.

He supposed he had the assent of all the landowners, but Mrs. Macomber had withdrawn hers, and the Messrs. Carlton, whose estate was bonded to Mr. Bell, stated that Mr. Bell only had a conditional interest in the property.

Alderman Roffe asked if the location on the side would be permanent or temporary.

Mr. Parker said it was only temporary as the road would probably change to the new boulevard when that was built.

Mr. Macomber asked why the tracks were turned to the side before permission was granted.

Mr. Parker said that was a mistake of the contractor, he had been ordered to stop at Cedar street, with laying the turnout, but he had gone ahead on the side and the city authorities had very properly stopped the work.

Alderman Bothfield asked if Mr. Parker was aware that the contractor and his foreman said they were only following the order of the president of the company.

Mr. Parker said they had evidently misunderstood his directions.

Mr. W. B. Young said he had 900 feet frontage on the street and Mr. Wm. Morton had 400 feet, and they had no objections to having the track on their side, but they did object to the track in the center of the street, as it was only a 40 foot street, and the track would interfere seriously with the use of the street for teams. They did object, however, to the tracks turning in and out in the manner planned.

Mr. Parker said this was necessary by reason of the curve.

Mr. Geo. W. Morse said every location was temporary, and could be changed any time by order of the board. The company could not ask for a temporary location, but the aldermen could grant one. There were only two houses on the street, and they set back fifty feet, so the sewer had blocked the street for a year, and there was no telling how much longer it would do so.

Mr. Carlton said the sewer would prevent the building on the side, as the ties would extend over the trench.

Alderman Roffe asked if there would be any objection to granting the location for one year.

Mr. Carlton said he should object.

Mr. Macomber said it would be impossible to build on the side at present, on account of the sewer, but probably in a week, the road could be built in the centre. We have been blocked up by the sewers for a year, have had the gas cut off for a year, and the water at times for two weeks, and now the railroad comes and wants to block us up completely. Mr. Parker has offered to move our hitching post to the other side of the street, as it would be impossible to let a carriage stand in front of the house, and he also offered to build a driveway, but we do not wish it.

After some further discussion the hearing was closed and the matter referred to the street railway committee, and later in the evening they reported in favor of giving the company leave to withdraw, as the sewer will be finished in a week, and they thought the residents should not be subjected to any further inconvenience.

WOODBINE STREET.

Alderman Plummer presented a petition signed by W. H. Blood, Nathan Mosman and others, asking that Woodbine street be filled in, as the stagnant water was a menace to health. Mr. Plummer said that the residents had spent a good deal of money on their places, and the stagnant water was only twenty yards from the city gravel pit, so that the low ground could be easily filled in. The residents were fearful that the place would cause malaria.

Residents of Mt. Ida street and vicinity asked to have the grade of the street changed to do away with the steps which were a constant source of danger.

George Brewer of Upper Falls was granted an innholder's license.

H. W. Fanning was granted license to build addition to house on Chestnut street, Ward Five.

L. C. Carter asked for one street lamp on Washington Park, and to have the location of another lamp changed, to better light the street.

The Newton Street Railway Company was granted license to build addition for storage of cars on Washington street.

Residents of Pelham street, asked for edge stones on the south side of the street.

Frank Edmunds was granted license, on recommendation of Alderman Roffe, to move building from corner of Lake avenue and Crystal street to the corner of Newbury street.

The N. E. Telephone Company was granted license to run wire across Tremont street at Waverley avenue, for Mr. W. P. Elliott's telephone.

The same company asked for license to run wire on Centre street, by attaching it to trees, but Chief Bixby said this would be dangerous, and it was referred to license committee.

L. E. Coffin gave notice of intention to build house on Newtonville avenue, J. E. Russell, house on Berkeley street; E. L. Estabrook was granted license to build stable on Sewall street.

W. E. Glover was granted license to build carriage house on Henshaw street.

Residents of Newtonville avenue, on the west side of Mt. Ida and of Lake street, asked for a main drain and sewer.

J. C. Rockford gave notice of intention to build house on Cabot street.

A petition from abutters was received asking to have Allston street from Washington street to Greenwood avenue made a public road. It has been cared for by abutters for twenty years, and now has some $60,000 in assessed property abutting upon it, and the residents wished to derive some benefits from the taxes they pay to the city.

A. R. Mitchell and other owners of property on Court street asked that the accepted portion of the street be graded, and the new city government make good the broken pledges of the former city council.

Higgins & Nickerson asked for use of 10 feet by 150 on Prescott street, while building; referred to highway committee.

Matthew Burns gave notice of intention to build house on Clinton street.

T. M. Clark, for the Newton Camera Club gave notice of intention to build club house on private way, near the Hook & Ladder house.

Hearings were appointed for June 5th before the aldermen and June 12th before the Common Council, for taking lands for sewer on Columbus place, Hyde avenue and Lake avenue.

Orders were passed for building of sewers on Allston street, Chesley road, Worcester street, Clafin place, Gay street, Green court, Green street, private way off California street, Hillside Terrace, Austin street, Otis place, and Worcester street.

The sum of $60,000 was appropriated for the expenses of the city during June.

An order was passed authorizing the committee on military affairs to make arrangements for the celebration of Memorial Day, and appropriating $150 for the same.

OAK HILL POLICE.

Alderman Roffe presented a petition from the residents of Oak Hill, asking for police protection in view of the numerous burglaries in that section. He said that the Oak hill people seldom came to ask for anything, although they paid their taxes regularly, but this case needed attention, and it was only right that their request should be granted.

There had been many burglaries there of late, some of them entailing serious losses, and the police had their regular beats and seldom were seen in that section.

Mayor Fenno said the police appropriation was very limited and there was a very large territory to cover. The petition was referred to the police committee.

A hearing was appointed for June 5th, on taking the N. E. corner of Webster and Elm streets, for a rounded corner.

An order was passed taking land on the South east corner of Putnam and Margin street.

An order was passed for the concreting of sidewalks on Franklin, Sumner, Gibbs, Grammer, Lincoln, Copley, and Walnut streets, Hunnewell avenue, Fairview Terrace, Linder Terrace and Seminary avenue, also for crosswalks on Lowell, Crafts, Homer and Centre streets.

The water board was authorized to lay

901-2 feet of pipe on Crafts street, $45; 125 feet on Cherry, $127; and 100 feet on Woodbine street, $140.

THE SEWER ORDINANCE.

An order was passed for the ordinance committee to consider the question of a new sewer ordinance, and report a draft which in their opinion would be best for all the inhabitants of the city.

An order was passed appropriating $3,000, to be paid to E. C. Dudley and Eliza Shaw, for land taken for the widening of Beacon street, a year ago.

Alderman Bothfield said that no award was made when the land was taken last year, and this sum was regarded by the assessors as a fair valuation for the land.

The owners had by law a year in which to appeal, after the land was taken, but the year would be up May 24th, so that it was necessary to do something at once in justice to these parties.

The ordinance committee reported the draft of an ordinance prohibiting city employees from being officers in political organizations, or taking part in political campaigns. Passed, to be enrolled.

A number of wagon licenses were granted.

Nicholls, Dupree & Co. gave notice of intention to build house on Middlesex road.

H. C. Daniels was granted license for seven hacks; L. A. Vachon, for shooting gallery at 373 Centre street; W. H. Lowe, addition to building; W. H. Kerrivan, innholder's license; Thomas G. Woodman, building on Ellis street, also innholder's license, at Upper Falls.

D. Frank Young was granted license to move building from Centre to Cypress street.

The order granting a location to the Newtonville & Waterbury street railway was amended, defining the starting point on Walnut street, as 65 feet from the Newton Street Railway tracks.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

An order was passed appropriating $1900 additional for the Board of Health. Alderman Thompson stated that Mr. Mague's contract had expired, and he was now charging the city twice as much as before. They had advertised for bids but his was the only one they had received, and this year the Nonantum district was included in the removal of house offal.

HYDE SCHOOL HOUSE.

The public property committee were authorized to advertise for plans for an 8 room brick school building at Newton Highlands.

Radical amendments were proposed in the ordinance relating to the board of health, making the board consist of three members instead of five, all to be appointed by the mayor, and one to be a regular physician, after which the aldermen adjourned.

Seth Low on Municipal Government.

Every good thing in life is a growth, and in the processes of nature and the evolution of reform this is slow. Present evils vex us, as they ought to do, and in the impatience of the moment we do not always recognize advances achieved and in progress. President Low of Columbia College has been lecturing on municipal government at Union college, and the thought expressed above ran through his talk to the students in Schenectady.

One quarter of our population live in cities, and Prof. Bryce says that city government is the conspicuous failure in American politics. While we may not go as far as that, said Mr. Low, we may honestly say that it is a department in which we have made least progress.

He found three causes for this lack of success—our general political system, the manner in which towns have grown into cities, and the character of our elections.

First, our general political system, the manner in which towns have grown into cities, and the character of our elections. Cities are not consciously made, but develop from simpler forms, and hence they are crudely and inadequately governed. But we are learning. "The work of a city is to a very great extent a work of business, of administration, not of government. The division of power for the sake of safety works very well in matters of government, but in city the scheme breaks down. In executive work one man is better than a dozen. A poor administration will not do as much harm in the long run as a board of administration." There is a power of sense in these words which sum up the conclusion that students of municipal government are agreed upon.

President Low is not of those who consider universal suffrage an undesirable thing. "Feelings are sometimes a surer guide than the reasoning powers. It is an advantage to the body politic to have the element that feels as well as that which thinks. Not only is universal suffrage inevitable, but it is inevitable, because it is, in the advancement of the world, the best thing." It increases the difficulty of securing good local government that our cities must be administered in the midst of our general political system. "Our population now goes to the polls in city elections less than in national elections, and yet the result of the former has more immediate effect on the welfare of the citizen. The voter does not cast his ballot from the standpoint of the good of the city, but from his attitude on national questions. The electorate must change their attitude before we can expect to improve our officials. The choosing of city officials on party lines is like a merchant selecting clerks because of the color of their hair."

ADAMS K. TOLMAN DEAD.

INFLUENTIAL NEWTON CITIZEN AND A PROMINENT BOSTON BUSINESS MAN.

Adams K. Tolman died at his residence on Chestnut street, West Newton, Sunday morning, after an illness of two weeks. Death resulted from heart disease.

Deceased was born in Boston and was 55 years of age. He had been a resident of Newton for the past 10 years, and was one of its prominent and influential citizens. He was a prominent figure in Boston business circles, and was a partner in the wholesale clothing firm of Isaac Fenno & Co.

He was a member of the Merchants' Association, and the first president of the Commercial Travellers' Association, a member of the Boston Art Club and was connected with numerous business associations and societies, including Mt. Lebanon lodge, F. and A. M., and the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company.

He was an influential member of long standing in the old Bostonian Society. Mr. Tolman was a member of the Newton board of aldermen in 1880, and served as chairman of the finance committee. After his aldermanic service he was appointed a member of the Newton water board. He was a director and one of the trustees of the West Newton Savings Bank, and a prominent member of the West Newton Unitarian Society.

Mr. Tolman was universally respected and esteemed. He was an excellent citizen, a loving husband and father and a sympathetic friend. His death will be sincerely mourned, and his memory will live with those who recall his genial personality and his generous Christian character.

A widow and two daughters survive him.

The funeral was held Tuesday from the First Unitarian church, West Newton.

Delegations were present from the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company and Lebanon lodge, F. and A. M. The Boston Art Club and the Boston Merchants' Association were present in a body. The services included singing by the Temple quartet, with prayer and a brief address by Rev. Julian C. Jaynes.

There were no floral tributes, by special request. The pall bearers were J. B. Chase, Samuel Staples, Thomas E. Statton, B. F. Otis, and L. C. Smith. Interment was in the family lot at Forest Hills cemetery.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, ss. LUCAS COUNTY.

FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & CO., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1892.

SEAL. A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

PURE - MILK supplied daily from PROSPECT VALLEY FARM

One Cow's Milk supplied where desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON WALTHAM, MASS.

Lock Box, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

LOCK BOX, 192.

Seashore Lots at Wessagussett

On the site of the second settlement of white men on New England soil, on the south shore of Boston Harbor, 8 miles from Boston. Beautiful and attractive now, as it was when settled in 1623. The best place accessible to the towns of Eastern Massachusetts to spend the summer months. A summer home at Wessagussett will prove a splendid investment—because it will save doctor's bills, give your wife and children new life, and increase daily in value. A lot is the first step.

POINTS OF interest about WESSAGUSSETT.

Good Bathing Beach. No mud flats. Boat landing at all stages of the tide. Steamboat Pier on the property. 3 ways to reach it: Steamer from Boston; Old Colony to North Weymouth; Quincy and Boston Electric from Quincy. Cool in summer. No mosquitoes. High land. Splendid views. No cheap houses. Nothing to attract transient visitors. A clean, respectable resort for summer homes exclusively.

Send for plans—or better, come to Boston, take a ride of an hour down the Harbor on our Steamer (it goes down every day), and see Wessagussett. S. D. HANNAH & CO., 109 Ames Building, Boston.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

WHITE'S NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COM'Y.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the

NEW CARPETS made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE.

O. Box 31, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

ELYS Cream Balm For CATARRH THE POSITIVE CURE. ELY BROTHERS, 54 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

HILL'S Double Chloride of Gold Tablets. REMEMBER WE GUARANTEE A CURE and invite the most careful investigation as to our responsibility and the merits of our Tablets. DRUNKENNESS and MORPHINE HABIT can be cured at home, and without any effort on the part of the patient, by the use of our SPECIAL FORMULA GOLD CURE TABLETS. During treatment patients are allowed the free use of Liquor or Morphine until such time as they shall voluntarily give them up. We send particulars and pamphlet of testimonials free, and shall be glad to place sufferers from any of these habits in communication with those who have been cured by the use of our TABLETS. HILL'S TABLETS are for sale by all FIRST-CLASS druggists at $1.00 per package. If your druggist does not keep them, enclose us $1.00 and we will send you, by return mail, a package of our Tablets. Write your name and address plainly, and state whether Tablets are for Tobacco, Morphine or Liquor Habit. DO NOT BE DECEIVED into purchasing any of the various nostrums that are being offered for sale. Ask for HILL'S TABLETS and take no other. Manufactured only by THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO., 51, 53 & 55 Opera Block, LIMA, OHIO. PARTICULARS FREE. AGENTS WANTED (In writing please mention this paper.)

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN:—I have been using your cure for tobacco habit, and found it would do what you claim for it. I used ten cents worth of the strongest chewing tobacco a day, and from one to five cigars; or I would smoke from ten to forty pipes of tobacco. Have chewed and smoked for twenty-five years, and two packages of your Tablets cured me so I have no desire for it. B. M. JAYLORD, Leslie, Mich.

DOBBS FERRY, N. Y. PITTSBURGH, PA. THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN:—Some time ago I sent for $1.00 worth of your Tablets for Tobacco Habit. I received them all right and, although I was both a heavy smoker and chewer, they did the work in less than three days. I am cured. Truly yours, MATTHEW JOHNSON, P. O. Box 45.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN:—It gives me pleasure to speak a word of praise for your Tablets. My son was strongly addicted to the use of liquor, and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was a heavy and constant drinker, but after using your Tablets but three days he quit drinking, and will not touch liquor of any kind. I have waited four months before writing you, in order to know the cure was permanent. Yours truly, HELEN MORRISON. CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN:—Your Tablets have performed a miracle in my case. I have used morphine, hypodermically, for seven years, and have been cured by the use of two packages of your Tablets, and without any effort on my part. Address All Orders to THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO., 51, 53 and 55 Opera Block, LIMA, OHIO.

HAVE YOU SEEN AROUND THE HUB THE QUESTION BOX THE BOSTON HERALD EVERY EVEN

THE NEWTON BOULEVARD.

THE PLAN FOR A PARKWAY FIVE MILES LONG THROUGH THE CENTRE OF NEWTON.

The Boulevard Commission presented their report to the board of aldermen Monday night, for the Newton boulevard, from South street at the Boston line to Auburn street in Auburndale, as follows:

To His Honor the Mayor and the City Council of Newton: The undersigned, members of a commission appointed to consider and report as to a system of boulevards for the city of Newton, herewith, for what seem to be good and sufficient reasons, submit a partial report.

The commission began its labors by hearings and otherwise early in the year, with the understanding that it had ample time to study the question committed to it and to make a single, complete and comprehensive report.

It soon became apparent that land owners between the city line, near Chestnut Hill reservoir and Centre street, who were prepared to make a liberal proposition to the city for a boulevard through that section, were unwilling, if not unable, to wait for the final report of the commission.

These land owners, after a hearing before us, made a direct appeal to the city government. Their petition and proposition were referred to the highway committee, with instructions for that committee to confer with the boulevard commission.

We received official notice of this action, and thereupon proceeded to a more special examination of the route proposed between the Newton and Boston line on South street and Centre street, at the junction of Grafton and Centre streets.

We heard the parties interested as fully as they desired, and held ourselves in readiness to confer with the highway committee. That committee very properly decided to take the time necessary to secure careful surveys of the line and estimate of the cost of construction, and the commission turned its attention to a practicable route for extending the proposed boulevard through the city, thinking it desirable to be able to report upon one complete line.

The commission is unanimously of the opinion that whatever may be recommended later a central boulevard, running on a substantially east and west line through the city, deserved and should receive the first consideration of the city council.

We are pleased to be able to report that, in pursuing our investigations to this end, we have found the land owners on a continuation of this central line through the city from Centre street to Auburndale keenly alive to the desirability of this public improvement and ready to meet the commission with commendable liberality.

The propositions which we have received from proprietors along this proposed route, usually acting harmoniously together in different sections, make very favorable terms for the city, and by means thereof this great improvement may be made now at comparatively small expense.

The proposition of the land owners on the first or eastern section, from the Newton and Boston line to Centre street, which is in the hands of the highway committee, is to contribute the land required to make a boulevard 120 feet wide and $25,000. This cash contribution, by rough estimate, would be about one-third the cost of construction.

The additional propositions we have received, which are herewith submitted, present about as favorable terms for the extension from Centre street by the plan which accompanies this report to a point on Auburn street, Auburndale, a few rods east of Maple street.

Thus far we have not been able to find a practicable route to carry the boulevard at its full width through the Charles river, at the western boundary of Auburndale, there to connect with the Auburndale Riverside Park and the projected improvements on the western side.

The plan presented herewith shows what may be done on this line. Propositions in regard to this part of the boulevard, which is essential to its completeness, will be made hereafter.

In accordance with the foregoing, we recommend that the city government lay out and construct a boulevard on the proposed line from the Newton and Boston line on South street to the point above mentioned on Auburn street, 120 feet wide where practicable, with two roadways, each 24 feet wide, reserving a space 30 feet wide in the center for a double track electric road, with sidewalks and trees, and a space of reasonable width for bicycles.

The propositions made by land owners are subject to the condition that the contributions offered are to be accepted in lieu of betterments on the property of those contributing.

We make no recommendation as to that condition, preferring to leave the matter to the judgment of the city government after a more detailed survey of the route and more careful estimates of the cost of construction than we have been able to make in this partial and necessarily hasty report. Respectfully submitted.

E. B. HASKELL,
F. W. CONVERSE,
J. R. LEESON.

The report was accompanied by a plan outlining the boulevard, the section from the Boston line to South street having already been fully described in these columns. This is the starting point of the scheme and it is due to the activity and public spirit of Mr. A. D. S. Bell, Dana Estes, Judge Bishop and one or two others, who took hold of the matter with them, and set the example of giving the land needed for the boulevard, and also pledged one-third of the cost of construction, that the grand scheme has been brought forward.

The length of the proposed boulevard will be about four and one-half miles, and if extended to Charles river will be over five miles.

It extends over and includes South street in Newton as far as Ward street crosses lands of Bell and Ward and Hammond streets, near Mt. Vale road; thence crosses land of Ward on Grant avenue about 800 feet south of Ward street; crosses Sumner street about 600 feet south of Ward, Centre street near its intersection with Grafton; Grafton 200 feet west of Centre street; thence turns northerly, crossing and including part of Water street; crosses Cedar street about 1000 feet north of Homer, Morton, running nearly parallel with Homer to Walnut, and thence across the upper end of Bullough's pond.

From Bullough's pond it crosses Lake View avenue, near the intersection of Beaumont avenue and Appleton street; thence westerly through Homer and Fuller to Washington street, about 4000 feet north of Woodland avenue; then through land of Thomson and others to Auburn street.

It is proposed ultimately to widen Auburn, Ash and Bourne streets, practically extending the boulevard to the Charles river and connecting with the proposed river park in Auburndale, and by proposed avenues through land of Francis Blake in Weston with the new grounds of the Boston Athletic Association.

The property owners from Centre street to Auburn street, include the following who have agreed to give the land and one-third the cost of construction: Geo. A. Blaney, F. R. Catter, H. B. Day, Wm. Day, H. B. Parker, A. F. Morse, Wm. Morton, Thomas Nickerson, Geo. W. Morse, Wm. B. Young, Geo. E. Wales, the Morse heirs, A. D. S. Bell, Geo. D. Dix, E. B. Towne, Boston Children's Aid Society, and J. Raymond, N. P. Gilman, Geo. H. Frost, Geo. H. Ellis and Chas. F. Howland. The sums they will pay have been agreed upon in most cases.

The proposed boulevard, if carried through, will be an important factor in the development of the central section of Newton.

This section of the city has no method of communication east and west by either steam or electric railways, not being provided for by either the main or circuit lines of the Boston and Albany railroad or by any cross-town system of street car service.

A necessary part of the plan that commends it to the citizens of Newton is in the provision of an independent rapid transit line to Boston. There is ample room, not only for a parkway, but for two lines of electric railway tracks.

The Newton and Boston street railway will ask for location through the boulevard for its trunk line connecting the various street railways in Newton with the West End road at Reservoir station. The contemplated boulevard skirts along the side of Waban hill, which has been acquired by the city of Newton or its high service reservoir and surrounding park, the views from which are not surpassed by any hilltop in the vicinity of Boston.

Coming through Newton Centre, Newtonville and West Newton it crosses a beautiful region. If it stretches finally to the river, as now contemplated, an avenue will be opened up directly to that section of the Charles where the boating grounds are concentrated, and the lovers of canoeing and devotees of the light pleasure crafts can there find an easy and quick method of transportation by means of the street railway service of various parts of the city.

The highway committee of Newton will proceed at once with the initial work which the plan calls for; the estimate of the cost and the figures will be presented in the near future to the city council.

The commission will next proceed with its work of a general boulevard plan for Newton, which will incorporate the suggestions of the highway committee, provided the question of the means of separating the grades along the line of the Boston and Albany railroad is settled with in a reasonable time.

Other boulevards which have been suggested to the commissioners will provide broad avenues running north and south, and the general plan calls for the laying out of wide streets, connecting the various scattered sections of the city, especially with a view to securing rapid transit, and in the development of one of the most beautiful suburbs of Boston.

TO CEASE PASTORAL LABORS.

REV. HENRY J. PATRICK, D. D., OF NEWTON TO BE RETIRED.

The church organization of the Second Congregational Society, West Newton, met Friday evening to consider the question of retiring the present pastor, Rev. Henry J. Patrick, D. D. The meeting of the church followed closely a meeting of the parish, where the plan of retirement was suggested, with a provision for a pension of $1000 per annum and house rent.

The subject was discussed in detail at the church meeting Friday night, and finally a committee of the deacons, Julius L. Clarke, Harlan P. Barber, Granville B. Putnam, was appointed to confer with the parish committee and report at an adjourned parish meeting set for Wednesday, June 21.

The suggestion of Rev. Dr. Patrick's retirement is due to what is considered by many of his parishioners a disability from failing eyesight. There is no difficulty between pastor and people, although that impression has obtained from an article published which misrepresented, perhaps inadvertently, the real situation. The most cordial relations exist between Rev. Dr. Patrick and the members of his congregation.

He is not a superannuated clergyman in the sense of impaired mental power. On the contrary, he is one of the most eloquent and forcible preachers in the Congregational body and a man of marked intellectual capacity.

His failing eyesight has been a source of great trouble to him because it prevented him from reading readily, and was especially annoying in the social phases of church work. He has become very near sighted, so much so that he cannot recognize the familiar faces of his parishioners except under the most favorable conditions. Rev. Dr. Patrick regarded this as a serious handicap for his pastoral work, and expressed a desire to resign.

The people of his church felt that the difficulty could be gotten over in some way, and it was first planned to procure an assistant. Subsequently it was suggested that he be retained as pastor emeritus and provided for with a liberal pension. The final action cannot be taken until the June meeting, following the report of the joint committee of the church and parish.

Deacon Putnam said to the Herald man, speaking of Rev. Dr. Patrick's case, that the severing of the pastoral relations would be sincerely regretted by every member of the church.

"But Dr. Patrick's latest sermons," he added, "have been masterly efforts, the production of a richly stored mind. It is a great misfortune that a man so full of vigor and possessing so many scholarly attainments should be so afflicted seemingly in the days of his greatest usefulness."

Rev. Dr. Patrick was born in Warren Sept. 20, 1827. He graduated from Amherst College and completed his theological studies in the Andover Theological Seminary, graduating from the latter institution in 1853. He was first settled in Bedford, and was installed as pastor of the Second Congregational church, Newton, Sept. 26, 1860.

My Wife Said

to me last night: How much do you suppose we have paid out for doctors and medicine the last year? I told her I did not know. To doctors I have paid nothing, and five dollars' worth of Sulphur Bitters has kept health in our family. L. Andrews, 12 Bowdoin street, Boston.

RANKING OF TENNIS PLAYERS.

METHOD OF RATING WILL INSPIRE PLAYERS TO DO THEIR BEST.

The Tennis Guide is in embryo, but it is bound to cause a deal of talk among the young men who followed last season's tournament.

It brings up two questions very forcibly.

Does the Newport tournament count for much? is one, and another which will naturally present itself is: Does spasmodic playing of a high character place a man in a ranked position?

The Tennis Guide gives the official rating of the leading tennis players. It is made from the opinions of the seven men forming the executive committee of the national association. This is what the Guide says on this particular subject:

The ranking of the players for the season of 1892 is not so hard as at first sight it might appear. The opinion of most of the men composing the executive committee, has been obtained, and they all agree on 9 of the 10 men. The man over whom there is a divided opinion is Mr. C. P. Hubbard of San Francisco, who came east and did some very creditable playing at Longwood and at Nahant. The balance of opinion, among those of the committee who have written, is strongly in Mr. Hubbard's favor, and entitles him to a position among the leading 10.

With this point we have the following names: O. S. Campbell, Malcolm Chace, E. L. Hall, C. Hovey, F. H. Hovey, C. P. Hubbard, W. P. Knapp, W. A. Larned, R. Stevens and Robert D. Wrenn.

How these men shall rank with each other as shown by their season's play occasions a greater diversity of opinion, more especially concerning the arrangements of the second half. Still, the order as given commands so much greater support than any other that we have adopted it as the proper one. It is as follows: O. S. Campbell, E. L. Hall, W. P. Knapp, C. Hovey, Fred H. Hovey, W. A. Larned, Malcolm Chace, R. D. Wrenn, R. Stevens, C. P. Hubbard.

In defending the rating of Fred Hovey, the Guide contains the following:

F. H. Hovey comes next in fifth place. He did some excellent work in June and July, but in the August tournaments, with the exception of Newport, he was not so successful. His record at Nahant was such that at the end of the tournament three men finished ahead of him. He met none of these at Newport, and so had no opportunity to alter the standing which had been established between them. His previous victories over Malcolm Chace give him the higher ranking of the two.

Putting Hovey in fifth place and ranking Malcolm Chace, Edward L. Hall and Clarence Hobart above him, leads one to ask if winning the all-comers' national tournament at Newport counts for anything.

However, the wise men know, and they have carefully analyzed individual records. Certainly this method of rating will inspire all the players to do their very best on every occasion.

Iowa Hospitality.

A Newtonville gentleman, now traveling in the west, sends us the following from the Iowa Democrat, which will interest Newton people:

There may be something of western-wilderness about Iowa when comparison is made with the classic state of Massachusetts, where custom has become conservative and where form counts for more than substance. But the average Hawkeye will rejoice that when it comes to a test that Iowa hospitality counts for more even with Massachusetts men than the red tape which attaches to that state even when it is making an exhibition before the world.

The facts are these: Two gentlemen visited Jackson park one day this week. Being forewarned they were forearmed. They took their lunch baskets with them, although the guards at the gates told them they must leave their folding chairs behind. When the time for lunch came they found themselves in the Massachusetts building. The reason for this is that both are natives of Massachusetts, and one a widely known resident of that state, a graduate of Harvard.

They were comfortably seated with a newspaper spread before them, and a napkin when an officious guard stepped up with the order that eating is not allowed in the Massachusetts building. Protests were unavailing, although one of the gentlemen is 82 years of age. The next step was to pick up the remnants of the lunch and to hurry to the Iowa building, where they were invited to make themselves at home, enjoy their dinner, and to ask for anything they wanted which did not happen to be in sight. One of the gentlemen referred to is S. F. Smith, president of the Davenport National bank, and ex-president of the Davenport Business Men's association. The other is his father, Dr. S. F. Smith, author of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." When officials of Massachusetts prohibit eating under the roof of their building it is time to suggest that they make a study of what in their exclusiveness they call wild west hospitality.

Grand Bicycle Races at Waltham, May 30.

The Associated Cycling Clubs of Boston and vicinity now that the sanction has been received, are making elaborate preparations for their races at the Waltham Bicycle Park, May 30. The value of the prizes for the eight events is $2000, the largest sum ever expended for a bicycle meet in this state for a day race. A race of this importance has never been run in this section of the state. The prizes are of exceptional value and as the meet is an open one the fastest riders in the United States will be present to make a record on the new track.

The new park is rapidly assuming shape under the hands of nearly one hundred workmen, and everything will be on first-class shape for the opening on Memorial Day. The grand stand is now in process of construction and will be ample to accommodate the largest crowds. On each side of the grand stand will be a large number of uncovered seats. The building of the track has caused an added interest to be taken by cyclists in this section and the result will be that some fast riders will be developed this season.

Boston people and all others within fifteen miles of Waltham will now have a chance to see bicycle races in which the best riders in the country will take part over the fastest and best track in the world.

The Waltham Bicycle Club is making great preparations for their meet, which will be held June 17, and a fine list of prizes will be hung up for the cracks.

Found—the reason for the great popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla is this: Hood's Cures. Be sure to get Hood's.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

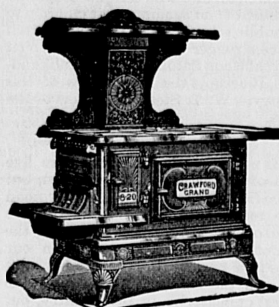

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City, Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., "The Winthrop," 115th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK.

Ranges,
Parlor Stoves,
Water Heaters,
Steam Boilers.

AT FACTORY STORE 107

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.,

GALEN STREET, - WATERTOWN MASS

TELEPHONE No. 30, NEWTON.

—ALL KINDS—

Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work.

FURNACES AND RANGES REPAIRED.

We have a few Second-Hand Ranges at a Bargain

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS

STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mill which are exclusively sold and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY
MAYNARD MASS

On and after July 2nd next, our Salesroom will close at 12 o'clock noon on Saturday.

Water Bugs and Roaches

CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR XTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON
FOR SALE BY BARRER BROS. NEWTON.

THEODORE L. MASON,
Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American Watches always in stock.

Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather and American Clocks a specialty.

All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Elliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass

J. H. LOOKER,
French Cleansing and Dyeing

Dry Cleansing and Repairing a specialty.

Particular attention paid to Blankets, Lace Curtains, Fine Linens and Hand Laundry

Work of all kinds.

No. 21 Carlton Street,
NEWTON, MASS.

CHATAUQUA NURSERY CO.
A full line of Nursery Stock, Fine Specimens of controlled exclusively by us. Address Chatauqua Nursery Co., PORTLAND, N. Y.

Railroads.

Boston Revere Beach and Lynn R. R.

Fall and Winter Time-Table, Sept. 11, '92.

Leave Boston for Lynn at 6.50, 7.30, 8.30, 10.11 A.M., 12 M., 1.25, 3.30, 4.45 (Express), 5.30, 6.45 (Express), 7.30, 8.30, 10.20 and 11.25 P.M.

Leave Lynn for Boston at 6.10, 6.50, 7.30 (Express), 8.30 (Exp.), 9.30 (Exp.), 10.11 A.M., 12 M., 1.25, 2.45, 3.15, 3.45, 4.15, 4.45, 5.15, 5.50, 6.45, 7.15, 8.15, 9.15 and 10.11 P.M.

SUNDAY TRAINS.

Leave Boston for Lynn every hour from 10 A.M. to 9 P.M., inclusive, and at 10.15 P.M.

Leave Lynn for Boston every hour from 9 A.M. to 9 P.M., inclusive, and at 9.30 P.M.

All trains stop at West Lynn.

JOHN A. FENNO, C. A. HAMMOND,
G. T. A. Supt.
Boston, Sept. 11, 1892.

WEST END STREET

RAILWAY COMPANY.

Newton to Bowdoin Square

WEEK DAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 5.30 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.

Returning leave Bowdoin square 7.00 A. M. then every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.

SUNDAY TIME.

First car leaves Newton 7.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.

Returning leave Bowdoin square 8.30 A. M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.

First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.3 A. M.

C. S. SERGEANT,
517 General Manager

Slate, Copper, Tin and Gravel

ROOFING.

Special attention given to repairing.

John Farquhar's Sons,
Nos. 20 and 22 East St., Boston.
Established 1836. Telephone No. 162.

By Edward F. Barnes, Auctioneer, 27 State Street, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a Power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Langdon Coffin to Sarah J. Tappan dated October 1st 1873 and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Registry of Deeds Book 1296 Page 491, duly assigned to Sarah J. Gilbert by Don A. Hallett Executor, by assignment dated February 26 1880, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds Lib. 1896 Fol. 138, will be sold at Public Auction for breach of the conditions of said mortgage on the premises hereinafter described on Monday the 22nd day of May 1893 at 4.30 o'clock in the afternoon all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows: All that certain lot, piece, parcel of land situate, lying, and being in the Town of Newton (in that part of the Town commonly called Newton Corner) in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and bounded and abuted as follows: Beginning at a point on the Southern side of Washington Street, which point is the termination of a line between the lands now or late of Elizabeth Elliott and the land described herein, thence running Southerly and along the said land of said Elliott one hundred and seven (107) feet and six (6) inches more or less to land of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, thence Easterly and along the said land of said Railroad Company Two hundred and eight (208) feet more or less to land now or late of Williams, thence Northerly along said Williams land fifty four (54) feet to the Western side of Washington Street, thence Southerly along the Southern side of Washington Street two hundred and eleven (211) feet more or less to the point of beginning. Also all the right title and interest of the grantor in and to that part of Washington Street adjoining the land herein described to the centre of said Street. The land intended to be conveyed hereby being shown on a map or diagram entitled A Plan of Land situated in the Town of Newton, containing the premises conveyed by the said Sarah J. Tappan and dated November 20th 1873 being the same premises conveyed by the said Sarah J. Tappan to the said Langdon Coffin by deed bearing even date herewith, this mortgage being given to secure the payment of a part of the purchase money of the said premises. Excepting however from this foreclosure sale such portion of the above described premises as may have been released by the Mortgagee since this mortgage was originally made.

Subject to the Saver assessment and any and all unpaid Taxes and the Taxes for 1891, $200.00 cash will be required to be paid by the purchaser at the time and place of sale. Balance in twenty days from day of sale at 12 o'clock noon at the said office of the Auctioneer.

SARAH D. GILBERT, said mortgagee.

The Assignee and present holder

By James F. C. Hyde & Son, Auctioneers, 31 Milk St., Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

PURSUANT to the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed, given by Samuel Hano to the Framingham Savings Bank, dated December 26, 1880, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Book 2016 Page 261, will be sold at public auction on the premises secondly herein described, for breach of the condition of the said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same on Tuesday May 26, 1893, at 3 o'clock, P. M. all and singular, the following described premises, to wit: The portion of the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, not heretofore released from said mortgage, namely:

A certain parcel of land situated in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex and State of Massachusetts, called Waban, containing 1803 square feet, bounded Northerly on Waban Avenue one hundred feet; Easterly on land now or late of Edward L. Collins and others, two hundred and twelve 3/10 feet; Southerly on land now or formerly belonging to Arnold A. Rand, Trustee, forty eight 3/10 feet; and Westerly on Ridge Road forty two 5/10 feet; Westerly on land now or late of Arnold A. Rand, Trustee, one hundred and ninety 25/100 feet.

Also a certain other parcel of land containing 1000 square feet, and bounded Northerly on said Waban Avenue seventy five 1/2 feet; Easterly by the curve forming the junction of said Waban Avenue and Crofton Road, forty 25/100 feet; Easterly on said Crofton Road seventy five 35/100 feet; Southeasterly on land now or late of Alice A. Gould and others one hundred and eight feet; Southerly by the same sixty eight 50/100 feet; and Westerly on the same, one hundred and seventy eight 7/100 feet.

Said premises are to be sold subject to any unpaid taxes.

Five hundred dollars of the purchase money to be paid at time of sale; other terms made known at time and place of sale.

For further particulars inquire of the Auctioneers or of the Massachusetts Title Insurance Company, 22 Milk St., Boston.

THE FRAMINGHAM SAVINGS BANK, Mortgagee.

by Frank S. Morrell Treasurer.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of George Leonard late of Newton in said

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

 85 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

 Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.

 All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should
be made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN,

Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

 THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.

 All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

THE NEWTON BOULEVARD.

The plan for a central boulevard from the Boston line to the Charles River grows in public favor, the more it is considered, and all parties seem to appreciate the importance of taking immediate action in the matter, as the boulevard commission advises. The report, which is printed in another column, is an interesting document, and the commission obtained the signatures of the property owners along the route, who agree to give the land for a street 120 feet wide, and also to pay one-third of the cost of construction.

The credit for the inception of the project must be given to Mr. A. D. S. Bell, Mr. Dana Estes and Judge Bishop, who originated what was called the South street boulevard and induced the other property owners along that section of the boulevard to take hold of the matter in earnest, give the land, and promise to pay a liberal amount towards the cost of construction. The boulevard commission were quick to see what a great advantage such a wide Central avenue would be to Newton and have labored hard to secure the same liberal terms from property owners along the rest of the route as far as Auburn street, in Auburndale.

There is no question but that this is the most important public undertaking presented to the citizens of Newton since the building of the Circuit railroad, and one which will do even more than that has done, to develop the city.

So far Newton has been a sort of country village with streets too narrow to offer many inducements for pleasure driving or for the building of such handsome residences, as have sprung up along the Beacon street boulevard in Brookline, and as some one said, the boulevard, if carried through, will mark the turning point in the history of the city, and a change from a village of cabbage gardens to a city of handsome residences.

No suburb of Boston has greater natural advantages, purer city water, a better system of sewerage, cleaner streets, or more beautiful scenery, and the one thing lacking has been broad avenues, which this boulevard will inaugurate. Newton is right in the line of the development of Boston's suburbs, and the growth has been setting in this direction, and to gather the benefits of such a tendency Newton has only to show that it is awake and up to the times.

Owing to the condition on which much of the land is held, there can not be much delay on the part of the city government, and the recommendations of such men as compose the boulevard commission ought to go a long way in preparing the board for favorable action. The future growth of the city depends upon the promptness of the city council to seize the opportunity now presented.

The sudden death of Mr. Adams K. Tolman is a great misfortune for Newton, as he was one of our most respected citizens, and a man who would have been prominent in any community. His character was shown as a member of the board of aldermen, where he was one of the most efficient members, and one acting always in accordance with his high ideal of honor and public duty. Straight-forward in character himself, he had no patience with anything that was not strictly open and above-board, and his fellow citizens would have been glad to have given him even higher honors, if he would have consented. Declining a reelection, he was persuaded to accept a position on the water board by Mayor Hibbard, Newton having always been fortunate in the character of the men who have had charge of this important department. No one anticipated any sudden termination of such a useful life, and most did not know of his illness until they saw the announcement of his death. The resolutions adopted by the board of aldermen express in some degree the respect and regard felt for Mr. Tolman by all who knew him.

The storage battery contest has been transferred from local city councils to the General Court, this year, and has taken up a great deal of time, besides involving considerable loss of temper. The Senate has decided to take a junket to Milford, next Monday, and perhaps they may find out something tangible about the Milford road. To listen to one side, the credulous hearer would conclude that storage batteries were a complete success, and only the jealousy of the trolley system people prevented their instant adoption. But the other side claim that the Milford road is the only street railway in the state that has not paid expenses, and so the battle rages. The Newton City Council did not come home very enthusiastic over the motor, and the motor people themselves when offered a chance to run their cars in Newton on trial, to be bought if they proved satisfactory, refused to accept the test and also refused to give any responsible guarantee to back up their claims. If the motor is all the company claims Newton would have been an admirable place to display its merits, but after such an experience Newton people lost faith in storage batteries.

The smash-up of the Suburban Club of Brookline has attracted a good deal of comment, as its fine club house, finished a year ago, was considered a model, and all sorts of reasons are given for the failure of the club. One of the most unique is given by a bachelor member, who explains it by saying "the married women of Brookline are exceedingly attractive not only to their husbands but to their husbands' friends. They know how to and do entertain delightfully at their homes; and the wonder is that the club was ever formed, except it may have been for politics." This must certainly please the Brookline women, and the bachelor member referred to will have no lack of invitations for the future, if his identity is disclosed.

The Boyd's pond nuisance can now be disposed of as the legislature has granted the necessary powers of the city, and this breeding place for malaria and other fifth diseases can now be abolished, and made an attractive park and playground, instead of a place to be shunned. The expense has been estimated, plans have been prepared, and nothing remains but to go ahead with the work. The coming summer is looked forward to with dread by many people, on account of the rumors of cholera, so that it is of the utmost necessity to have everything cleaned up and put in the condition most favorable to public health.

The committees of this year's city government are thought to be unusually solid bodies, as two of them this week broke down the carriages that were conveying them about the city.

APPLAUSE FOR YOUNG ORATORS.

DEBATE BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF NEWTON AND BROOKLINE HIGH SCHOOLS.

Col. George N. Carpenter presided over an interesting and instructive debate in the Brookline town hall last evening, between representative speakers from the Newton High School Lyceum and the Brookline High School Debating Club. A large audience was in attendance.

The subject under discussion was, "Resolved, That the Action of the Strikers in the recent Affair at Homestead was Unjustifiable."

The Newton orators had the affirmative side of the question, and the speakers, Percy H. Boynton, Farley Brewer and George K. Burgess, presented some very effective arguments in a masterly manner. The Brookline debaters were Nels Christensen, Jr., Marshall Williams and William G. Nash. Although having the most difficult side of the question, they succeeded in making a very favorable impression.

The good points made by all the speakers met with frequent applause, and which side excelled in the debate would be a difficult matter to decide. Mr. Percy H. Boynton made the leading speech for Newton. He said in the course of his argument: "The strike was wholly unjustifiable from beginning to end, simply because of its very unreasonableness. Who can for a moment expect that the employers whose pay roll aggregated $200,000 per month, would deliberately pay out in wages more than $200,000 at a time? Who can expect that the employers, who can call men domineering and oppressive, overbearing and arrogant, because they refuse to lay the foundations for their own financial ruin?"

Such action as the strikers took was a return to savagery and barbarism, and the only criticism we can justly make of the final action of Gov. Patterson in calling out the militia is that it was too long delayed. The strike was an offence against the corporation, who were the property owners; an offence against the government and a menace to the state.

He claimed that strikes act harmfully on the community, and sometimes a great strike drives an industry completely out of the land. He denounced in unmeasured terms the acts of violence perpetrated by the Homestead strikers.

Mr. Christensen, in defence of the strike, argued that flesh and blood should receive more consideration than dollars and cents. He detailed the contract between the company and the workmen, and the attempt to reduce their pay, claiming that Mr. Carnegie was not justified in lowering the men's wages.

In regard to the violations of law by the strikers, he said that the laws were made to suit capitalists. Until co-operation and brotherly love take the place of competition and selfishness, he said in conclusion, just so long will contests take place between capital and labor.

Cook-Friend.

A very pleasant and charming wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Gilman at the residence of Mr. James W. Foster, Bowdoin street, the contracting parties being Miss Elizabeth S. Friend of Newton Centre and Mr. Waldo L. Cook of Springfield. Miss Friend was formerly a teacher in the public schools of Newton Centre and has a large circle of friends in the Newtons. She received some very beautiful presents. Mr. Cook is an assistant editor on the Springfield Republican. The ceremony took place at noon. After receiving the congratulations of their friends the newly married couple started on a wedding tour. The future home of Mr. and Mrs. Cook will be at Springfield, where we wish them a bright and happy future.

DR. CHAPIN'S Malaria and Ague Cure.

A sure cure and preventative for all Bilious Fevers and Malarial Diseases. It has been long and successfully used by Dr. Chapin in his practice in Michigan, and is now put up by him at Auburndale, Mass. Every family should keep it in the house. If your Druggist does not have it, send one dollar to

J. B. CHAPIN,
AUBURNDALE, MASS.
And it will be sent, Express Paid.

A Protestant on Satelli.

Archbishop Satelli's most important errand has been to settle the heated controversies raging about the school question. He has communicated to the Catholic archbishops an eminently wise and reasonable pronouncement. It distinctly acknowledges the educational functions of the state and approves the American public schools. In practical effect this letter makes it permissible for Catholic parents to act upon their own judgment in selecting schools for their children. It merely insists that the parents and priests should see that Catholic children have regular religious instruction outside of school hours if they attend public schools. The "Faribault plan" is fully sanctioned as an alternative. In cases where parochial schools of as good quality as the public schools can be afforded, and where local circumstances make it appear that the public schools are anti-Catholic in their influence and teaching, the separate system is advised.

The archbishop has spoken with full authority. It is a great victory for Archbishop Ireland and the patriotic American wing of the church. Pope Leo and his advisers have evidently mastered the real situation in the United States. The holy see has intervened in favor of American Catholic parents, who can no longer be restrained from sending their children to the public schools. The Catholic church will be stronger by far when, in the spirit of Archbishop Satelli's statesmanlike address, it accepts the institutions of this country.—W. T. Stead in Review of Reviews.

Cremation In This Country.

It is not every day that there are five cases of cremation at Fresh Pond, but the bodies of four men and one woman were reduced to ashes in the furnace there on Tuesday. The revival of the ancient practice of cremation in our times is a curious thing. We have not yet seen the last year's reports of the several crematories in the country, but we believe that over 100 dead persons were consumed in them during the year.

Nearly all of these persons, with the exception of the victims of cholera, who were cremated in our bay last autumn, had left orders or had expressed a desire that their bodies should be thus disposed of. The most of them had been agnostics or atheists, and a few of them Theosophists. It is not to be supposed that any of them, leaving out the cholera stricken, had been believers in the doctrine of the resurrection of the body at the day of judgment, though of course cremation could not interfere with any design of the Almighty. We know of two crematories in England, and there are others in several of the countries of continental Europe. Should the cholera break out in England this year it is probable that a number of the municipalities will, in accordance with advice given by their health authorities, follow the example set by the New York quarantine commission last autumn and cremate the victims of the dreaded and infectious disease.—New York Sun.

President Harrison's Plans.

It is the present intention of President Harrison to leave Washington for his home in Indianapolis very shortly after the inauguration of President Cleveland. The oath of office is administered to the president at the capitol at noon, after which the new chief executive delivers his inaugural address from the east front of the capitol building. General Harrison intends to leave Washington on the Pennsylvania limited express, which departs at 1:10 p. m., and to stop over Sunday at Pittsburg, where he will be due about 9 o'clock Saturday night. He will arrive at Indianapolis about noon on March 6. He may change this programme, but he does not expect to do so at this time, barring accident.

It was the original intention of President Harrison upon his retirement from office to linger in Washington over Sunday and to arrive at Indianapolis during the early part of the succeeding week. But he is anxious to return to his old home now that he sees the beginning of the end, and having nothing of particular interest to detain him here he has determined to take his leave of the national capital within an hour or two after the inauguration of his successor.—Cor. Baltimore American.

England's Vital Statistics.

The slow machinery of the English government has just turned out the report of vital statistics in 1891. It appears that the steady decline in the number of early marriages which began in 1874 still continues. In the latter year 84 in 1,000 bridegrooms and 227 in 1,000 brides were under 21. In 1891 only 69 men and 190 women in 1,000 married under age. The old fact also appears that the proportion of Jews in the population of England has more than doubled in 20 years, without counting immigration. This extraordinary fecundity is quite unmatched by any other class in the population.—Charleston News and Courier.

A Knife on Its T. Avels.

A huge knife, said to be over 100 years old and resembling an ancient bay cutter, was presented to the postmaster at Bangor, Me., just after the election. It was labeled "Adlai's Ax." Across the blade in black letters were the words, "The melancholy days have come." This was a grim joke to play on a Republican postmaster, but he concluded to make the best of it. He tagged it and started it on a journey across the continent. At last accounts it was at Marquette, Mich., all covered with tags and the comments each messenger had added as the Democratic guillotine passed over his route.—Exchange.

Scientific journals in England speak approvingly of a new method of manufacturing caustic soda, chlorine and other chemical products directly from sea water with the aid of electricity. There is an immense saving of time, labor and material in the process.

A student in a western college proposes to deliver a lecture on commencement day on "The Relation of the Wheelbarrow to American Elections."

CARPETINGS!

Nothing makes a better Carpet for the Summer than STRAW MATTING.
We can show you an excellent line in all grades. Also a full stock
BRUSSELS, TAPESTRIES, EXTRA SUPERS and OIL CLOTHS.

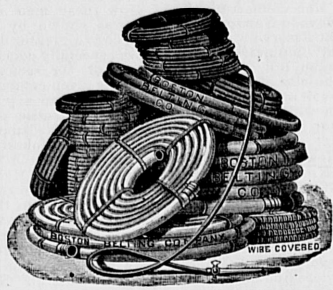

Window Shades and Drapery Goods.
CUSTOM WORK A SPECIALTY.
WARREN F. EMERSON, 698 Main St., Waltham.

Real Estate. Mortgages. Insurance.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.
SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES in the above villages.
Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES:
—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

RUBBER GARDEN HOSE.

ORDER
BOSTON
BELTING Company's MAKE.
BEST HOSE
in the WORLD.

BOSTON BELTING COMPANY,
256, 258, 260, Devonshire St., Boston.

Some Difference.
(From Harper's Bazar.)
"Papa," said the youngest Miss Budd, "the World's fair?"
"Don't talk to me about the World's fair," interrupted the old man; "I'll not listen."
"But, papa," pleaded the sweet girl, "it's so wonderful, so instructive!"
"So nothing," retorted papa; "crowded—cramped—uncomfortable!"
"Shall I get you a book of synonyms?" asked Mrs. Budd, smilingly, from the corner, as her husband hesitated for a word.
"No," roared the old gentleman, "No!" won't have it.
There seems to be some doubt as to what he wouldn't have, so the brave girl renewed the attack.
"It won't cost!"—she began, when again she was interrupted.
"It isn't a matter of cost," cried Mr. Budd; "not the question of a few hundred paltry dollars—not that. It's the trouble, the care, the nuisance, the bother of the whole thing. The nerve destroying, sight-seeing accompaniment. No, my dear," he added, placidly, "the thought of money does not enter into it. It is for your own welfare that I object."
"But it would be so nice to travel in a private car," sighed the girl, "and mamma would like it so."
The old gentleman stood aghast. "Private-car," he repeated, slowly.
"Yes," cried the youngest and sweetest of the family, "Mrs. Trotter, whose husband is president of the A. B. C. & O., has invited us to go with her in their private car and see everything without costing a cent. I wish we could go."
"Go!" ejaculated the head of the family. "Are you all crazy?" "Go?" "Why, of course. Who said anything about not going? What! Miss the opportunity of your lives, when such advantages are offered. Write to Mrs. Trotter at once and accept!"
"Mamma did," whispered the smiling girl.
"And mamma did right," said papa, beaming at his own joke. "It will be glorious. I have wanted to see the wonderful exhibition of the age—Eh?—by the way, does the invitation include me?"
"No," came the soft answer from his wife.

There seems to be some doubt as to what he wouldn't have, so the brave girl renewed the attack.
"It won't cost!"—she began, when again she was interrupted.
"It isn't a matter of cost," cried Mr. Budd; "not the question of a few hundred paltry dollars—not that. It's the trouble, the care, the nuisance, the bother of the whole thing. The nerve destroying, sight-seeing accompaniment. No, my dear," he added, placidly, "the thought of money does not enter into it. It is for your own welfare that I object."
"But it would be so nice to travel in a private car," sighed the girl, "and mamma would like it so."
The old gentleman stood aghast. "Private-car," he repeated, slowly.
"Yes," cried the youngest and sweetest of the family, "Mrs. Trotter, whose husband is president of the A. B. C. & O., has invited us to go with her in their private car and see everything without costing a cent. I wish we could go."
"Go!" ejaculated the head of the family. "Are you all crazy?" "Go?" "Why, of course. Who said anything about not going? What! Miss the opportunity of your lives, when such advantages are offered. Write to Mrs. Trotter at once and accept!"
"Mamma did," whispered the smiling girl.
"And mamma did right," said papa, beaming at his own joke. "It will be glorious. I have wanted to see the wonderful exhibition of the age—Eh?—by the way, does the invitation include me?"
"No," came the soft answer from his wife.

"Go!" ejaculated the head of the family. "Are you all crazy?" "Go?" "Why, of course. Who said anything about not going? What! Miss the opportunity of your lives, when such advantages are offered. Write to Mrs. Trotter at once and accept!"
"Mamma did," whispered the smiling girl.
"And mamma did right," said papa, beaming at his own joke. "It will be glorious. I have wanted to see the wonderful exhibition of the age—Eh?—by the way, does the invitation include me?"
"No," came the soft answer from his wife.

"Go!" ejaculated the head of the family. "Are you all crazy?" "Go?" "Why, of course. Who said anything about not going? What! Miss the opportunity of your lives, when such advantages are offered. Write to Mrs. Trotter at once and accept!"
"Mamma did," whispered the smiling girl.
"And mamma did right," said papa, beaming at his own joke. "It will be glorious. I have wanted to see the wonderful exhibition of the age—Eh?—by the way, does the invitation include me?"
"No," came the soft answer from his wife.

MARRIED.

MORGAN-JOYCE—At Newton Centre, May 14, by Rev. D. J. Wholey, John Morgan and Sarah Joyce.

STONE-RICHARDS—At Newton, May 15, by Rev. M. Dolan, Jeremiah Stone and Ursula Richards.

DIED.

BLANCHARD—At Newtonville, May 10, Edward Blanchard, 67 years.

QUINLAN—At Newton Centre, May 12, Mrs. Mary Quinlan, 67 years.

WILLIAMS—At West Newton, May 13, Mrs. Mary J. Williams, 37 years 2 months.

CARYER—At Newton, May 13, Mrs. Tellis Fores Caryer, 44 years.

TOLMAN—At West Newton, May 14, Adams K. Tolman, 55 years 8 months 14 days.

KELLEY—At Waban, May 16, Morris Kelley, 63 years.

Royal Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure
A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest United States Government Food Report.
Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

HOWARD B. COFFIN

DEALER IN FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEES AND NEWTON AGENT FOR DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.
363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.
COLE'S BLOCK NEWTON.

Carpets Cleaned

and laid in first class manner.
SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

MYLES J. JOYCE

Box 42 Newton, Mass.
Or at Campbell's Hardware Store, 3 Hyde Block.

REMINGTON BICYCLE.

SECOND HAND WHEELS
taken in part payment.
SEND FOR CATALOGUES.
H. L. WOOD Agent,
285 Washington Street, Newton.

CALL AT Bent's Furniture Rooms,

—FOR YOUR—
HOUSEKEEPING GOODS!
We carry one of the Largest
Stocks outside of Boston.

Carpet Work and Upholstery.

Tailors.

C. S. DECKER,

Custom Tailor
326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

JAMES PAXTON,

Manufacturing Confectioner.

Cakes in Variety, Ices and Creams,
Fancy Ices, Frozen Pudding.

Pure Candies of our own Make.

CHOICE WEDDING CAKE.

BUSINESS NOTICES

RATES—50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 25 cents each time thereafter, in advance.

Wants.

WANTED—Single gentleman, wishes elegantly furnished room with meals Sundays in private family, references furnished. Address A. Graphic office. 33 3t

WANTED—Two girls want a situation, all ways have lived together, willing to go to seashore or country, can furnish good references. Address A. R. Walsh, Newton, Mass. 33 1t

WANTED—An American boy in Mill office. Wages $3.00 per week. Address Box 585, Watertown, Mass. 33 1t

WANTED—By 2 Ladies, furnish d House the care of which will be equivalent to the rent. Address Box 304, Newton Centre. 33 2t

WANTED—An experienced general housework girl, good cook and laundress. Apply to Mrs. G. F. Hall, Melrose street, Auburndale, Mass. 33 3t

WANTED—Agent to do office work. One who has some knowledge of book-keeping. Address in own hand writing to H. H. Sawyer, Elm City Shirt Co., Watertown. 33 1t

For Sale.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—On Lowell street, Newtonville, desirable house, 8 rooms and bath, gas, furnace, cemented cellar, etc. 15,000 feet of land. For particulars, address C. A. Arkerson, 20 Sturmer street, Boston. 33 1t

FOR SALE OR TO LET—At Newton Centre, corner Homer and Bowen Streets, medium sized house of 9 rooms and bath, furnished or unfurnished. Moderate rent. Apply to Wm. Young Newton Centre or at No. 25 Russell Avenue, Watertown, Mass. 33 3t

FOR SALE OR RENT—In Needham, six new houses, centre of village, seven or eight rooms each, finished in natural wood, bath, range, hot and cold water, furnace, cemented cellar. Corner lots. 7000 feet of land. Two minutes from churches, stores, schools, library, post office and railroad station. Prices $2500 to $3500, easy terms. Rent $15 to $20 month. Apply to F. E. Stedman, corner Maple street and Plains avenue, Needham. 33 3t

FOR SALE OR TO LET—In Newtonville, house of nine rooms, with bath and large attic, cemented cellar and furnace, in first class neighborhood, and with the six minutes' walk to railroad. Everything in good order. Apply to V. Wentworth & Co., 41 Bristol street, Boston, or of Mr. Wentworth, Foster street, Newtonville. 33 1t

WEST NEWTON—Shaw Street, house of 11 rooms, modern conveniences, city water, sewers, 2700 feet land, near depot. See R. M. Luc-s or H. F. King, West Newton. 30 4t

To Let.

FURNISHED ROOM TO LET—A large and pleasant room on second floor, in private family. Four minutes from steam-car. Apply at 59 Jefferson St., Newton. 32 1t

TO RENT—A single house 4 rooms, 10 minutes walk from Station, good neighborhood. House $10.00 per month. Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 32

TO RENT—House of 10 rooms on Elmwood street. Apply to H. B. Coffin. 33 1t

TO LET—A lady and her adult son would like to let their furnished house, parties who would board them. Address L. Graphic Office. 33 2t

TO LET—Furnished or unfurnished, house of 12 rooms, all modern improvements, including screens, screen doors, awnings, etc., with stable and nearly an acre of land. Address "House," Graphic Office. 33 1t

TO LET—In Newton, a large front room and small one; hot and cold water in large one. Very desirable location near station on south side. House has all modern conveniences. References required. Dr. Utley house, 20 Richardson street. 33 1t

TO LET—At Newtonville, an apartment house, also a suite of rooms for housekeeping. All modern conveniences. Curtis Abbott, 5 Tremont St., Boston. 32

TO LET—A furnished cottage of eleven rooms and bath, wide piazzas, shade and fruit trees, excellent neighborhood. Moderate terms. Apply at 137 Lowell Street, Newtonville, or 352 Columbus Avenue, Boston. 32 1t

FIVE ROOM TENEMENT—To let, as pleasant as can be found in Newton, high frontage, near electric, rent low. Apply to Horatio Carter, Box 146, Newtonville. 32 1t

TO RENT—A farm with good buildings, near Newton Centre. Also 9 houses in Newton Centre. Walter Thorpe, Newton Centre. 30

TO LET—Newton Highlands, sunny house of 10 rooms, choice location, modern improvements, five minutes from station. Apply to E. R. Tarbell, 111 Washington St., Boston. 27 1t

TO LET—House of seven rooms and bath room. Inquire at 114 Newtonville Avenue. 27 1t

TO LET—Cottage of 5 rooms on Cabot street, Newtonville. Rent, $12.00 per month. Also Tenement of 4 rooms. Apply to D. P. O'Sullivan, Cabot St. 26 1t

TO LET—A comfortably furnished room on the same floor with bath room. Set for one or two ladies or gentleman and wife. Apply at 16 Avon Place. 17 1t

TO LET—Shops for mechanical purposes, near Washington street railroad crossing. Apply to P. A. Murray. 60 1t

TO LET—One-half double house, 3 minutes from depot, 10 rooms and bath, furnace, etc. Good garden. Apply to J. B. Turner, Newtonville, Mass. 49 1t

Miscellaneous.

ANY householders, willing to take delegates to board and lodge, at reasonable rates during the three days of the Convention of Charities and Correction to be held in Newton, Oct. 24, 25, 26, are requested to communicate with Mrs. Mary R. Martin, Newtonville. 33

CARPETS CLEANED—By hand and put down. Terms reasonable. Good reference. Address, Bernard Connolly, Newtonville, Mass. 17 2t

OFFICE HOURS of Secretary of the Association of Charities, Monday 9 a. m. to 1 p. m., 2 to 10 every week-day. Fridays and Saturdays 7.30 to 8.30 p. m. 1 1t

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Michael Devitt to Thomas S. Pingree dated November nineteen 1874 and recorded in the Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds lib 1382 folio 288 will be sold at public auction upon the premises on Saturday the third day of June 1893 at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and

NEWTONVILLE.

—Miller pianos, Farley, Newton.

—Mrs. G. H. Shapley of Nevada street has returned from New York City with her friend, Miss Deming.

—Capt. and Mrs. Gilbreth leave here Thursday next for their summer place in Catumet.

—Mr. Fred G. Knowles of Philadelphia is here this week visiting relatives and friends.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Miss Katie Hickey, Mr. R. Kidney and Miss Sarah A. Lipsett.

—Mr. C. A. Moeglin of Newtonville avenue sailed from New York for Germany yesterday morning. He returns in July.

—Dr. W. O. Hunt completed the physical examination of the candidates for public appointments Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eaton of Washington park have gone to Bradford Springs, N. H.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brigham and family are occupying their summer home at Beckett.

—Mr. Charles Davidson is expected home Saturday from his visit to the Holy Land.

—The officers of the Newton High school battalion attended the drill and ball of the M. I. T. battalion in Mechanic's hall, Boston, Wednesday evening.

—The debate between orators from the Newton and Brookline High schools, at the Brookline Town hall, last night, was listened to by a large audience. Newton was represented by Percy H. Boynton, Farley Brewer and Geo. K. Burgess.

—The dirt courts of the Newtonville Tennis Club are nearly completed. With the exception of those of the Neighborhood Club, they are the best in the city.

—Mrs. M. E. Hutchinson has removed from the house on Central avenue, which she sold recently to Mr. Abbott Bassett, and has taken one of Mr. Claffin's houses on Walnut terrace.

—The mark and past master's degrees were conferred at the regular convocation of Newton Royal Arch Chapter, F. & A. M., in Masonic Hall Tuesday evening. The usual collation followed the ceremonies.

—Mrs. Geo. H. Shapley, Miss Hilda Drew and Alice Deming were three charming young ladies who assisted in the booths of Mrs. Frank Leslie and Ella Wheeler Wilcox at the Press Club Fair in New York the past week.

—Mr. A. R. Mitchell lost a valuable bull terrier Wednesday, run over by an electric car and so badly injured that it was necessary to end the dog's sufferings. The canine was valued at $150 and was purchased recently by Mr. Mitchell from Mr. Charles Nunn.

—Last week in a society item the word "green" was printed "ocean" much to the chagrin of the writer. Typographical errors will occur, however, and we must make the best of it, and the mistake did not affect the charming occasion which was chronicled.

—Mr. William H. Mendell is out and about again, and while still intended to keep very quiet and take excellent care is looking "himself" again, much to the gratification of his friends. With all his busy hours as electrical manager of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph Company at Chicago's great fair, Mr. Wm. S. Mendell finds time to write every day to his father, and help to cheer his convalescence.

—The Newton Camera Club has taken a lot of land on Brookside avenue belonging to Mr. T. M. Clark and will commence at once the erection of a building which will be equipped with a commodious dark room and office apartments. The club, quite recently organized, has now a membership of nearly 50. It is intended to arrange for a series of field meetings this summer, taking in some interesting places where good views, scenic and otherwise, can be procured. The club now has a fine collection of pictures, the work of the amateurs of the city, and these will be added to from time to time and placed on exhibition in the studio.

—There came near being an explosion in Tremont Hall Wednesday. Some one left a gas jet burning in the attic, and the auditorium and another was turned on and not lighted. The meter inspector discovered this condition of affairs and arrived in time to prevent a catastrophe. The place was rapidly filling with gas and in another ten minutes, he says the whole volume of escaping aeriform fluid would have ignited with, undoubtedly, very serious consequences. The roof, at least, would have been blown into fragments.

—In the handicap bowling tourney of the Newton Club which started off with quite a boom Wednesday, these scores were made: Preliminary round; Sprague, 421; Anders, 400; Kimball, 381; Bassett, 377; Fuller, 437; Lunt, 384; Shapley, 408; Buswell, 423; Harding, 423; Byfield, 384; Benyon, 456; Felton, 449; Taylor, 435; Adams, 423; Palmer, 429; Kimball, 407. There are thirty-two entries. Three matches are rolled, Massachusetts league rules to govern except in regard to fouls made in crossing the scratch line to get ball. The prizes are first, a winter tourney; second, runner-up; third, highest three-string score; fourth, highest single string.

WEST NEWTON

—Pianos rented and tuned, Farley, Newton.

—Mrs. James Watson of Lowell was the guest this week of Mrs. Seth Davis, Eden avenue.

—Mr. W. S. Quint of Boston has purchased a fine residence put up by Higgins & Nickerson on South street. He is now occupying it with his family.

—The Ladies' Home Circle met at the residence of Mrs. S. A. Langley, Margin street, Wednesday afternoon.

—Mr. Frank Parker and family who have been visiting here, have returned to El Paso, Mexico.

—Mr. C. E. Hatfield is in Chicago, where he is enjoying the wonders of the great exposition.

—Mr. W. H. French has returned from a trip to Manchester, N. H.

—Messrs. E. B. Wilson and G. T. Lincoln are at Old Point Comfort for a short stay.

—Mrs. S. A. Phillips has as her guest this week, her daughter, Mrs. O. G. Gorman Phillips and children of New York city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Barbour are visiting the Chicago fair.

—Mr. Porter B. Chase of Hillside avenue is in Chicago this week.

—The Allen school second nine defeated the Hale school juniors in a rather uninteresting game of ball last Friday by a score of 33 to 11.

—The Women's Educational club will enjoy its summer outing this season at Plymouth.

—A meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Good Templars hall, Tuesday, May 23rd at 8 o'clock.

—Rev. Dillon Bronson of Newton will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday a. m. in exchange with Rev. Mr. Bishop, subject, "The Uses of Music."

—Mr. W. H. French has the contract for the plumbing in the house purchased by Mr. Theodore C. Nickerson on Temple

OUTING SHIRTS.

CHEVIOT $1 00, $1 50,
and $2 00.
MADRAS. $2 50, 2 75

Special designs and new colorings made up with the fashionable Lord Kennard collar in stock and to measure.

UNDERWEAR.

Gauze, 50c.
Babington, $1.00
$1.50, $2.50.
Long and Short
Sleeves, Close fitting, $1.00.
Lisle Thread, $2.00, $2.50.
Wool, Light Weight $1.50.
SILK, $2.00.

FANCY VESTS.

$1.50, $2.00, $3.00, $5.00.

RAY MENS FURNISHER,

500 Washington St., Cor. West,
641 Washington St., Cor. Boylston,
BOSTON.

street, formerly owned by Mrs. Holden.

—The second Sunday in June will be generally observed as Memorial Day by the Veteran Firemen of New England.

—Rev. Dr. Fauce served as chairman of the nominating committee at the annual meeting this week of the Alumni of the Newton Theological Institution.

—Triton council, R. A., will observe its tenth anniversary in Knights of Honor Hall, Monday evening, May 22.

—The 74th anniversary of the Sunday school of the Second Congregational church will be observed Sunday evening, at 6 o'clock. Rev. F. N. Peloubet will deliver the address.

—The Ladies' Clover Whist Club of Boston, who held their last meeting for the season, at the residence of Mrs. F. D. Childs, Putnam street, are to have an outing June 17th, at the Atlantic House, Nantasket.

—Mr. David Conant attended the reunion of the 21st Connecticut regiment, U. S. volunteers, at Willimantic this week. He exchanged pleasant greetings and reminiscences with old comrades.

—Church of the Messiah, Auburn street. The Messiah Circle of King's Daughters will hold a May sale in the Parish house, Tuesday May 23, afternoon and evening. Ice cream and cake will be served. Come one, come all.

—The church organization of the Second Congregational Society held a meeting last Friday evening, and appointed a committee of the deacons to confer with the parish in regard to the retirement of Rev. H. J. Patrick. An account of the meeting is given elsewhere in this paper.

—The annual meeting of the Newton Woman's Suffrage League will be held at the residence of Mr. George A. Walton, Chestnut street, next Tuesday evening. An address will be given by Rev. Lorenza Haynes of Waltham.

—There are letters at the post office for Harriet Drew, Miss Jennie Devine, Miss Laura Ducker, Mrs. Mara Deady, Mrs. W. A. Drinkwater, Miss Regine Fisher, Mrs. L. Lord, Michael Kennedy, Patrick Lyons, F. D. Newton, Mrs. J. F. Newman, Rev. Isaac F. Porter, Kittie Ryan and Michael Ryan.

—The members of the public property committee had an unpleasant experience Wednesday while bowling along in S. F. Cate's wagonette on Washington street, the forward wheel of the vehicle glided into a sunken place in the road near the car tracks, and the sudden wrench completely demolished it, snapping the tire and spokes and scattering the wreckage about. No other damage resulted. It was an unavoidable mishap due to the condition of the highway, in a spot where some repairs are needed at once.

—The three degrees of Odd Fellowship were exemplified in Odd Fellows' Hall, Boston, Tuesday evening before a large assembly of prominent members of the order. The first degree was worked by Franklin Ide of Boston, the second by New England lodge of East Cambridge, and the third by Newton lodge of this city. Grand Master James M. Price was in charge of the ceremonies, the grand instructor and his assistants having direct oversight of the work. Prior to the exercises the grand officers and the degree staffs partook of a banquet.

—On Thursday evening last, Hon. Gorman D. Gilman gave a lecture in the City Hall, under the auspices of Newton Lodge, No. 92, I. O. O. F. His subject was "Hawaii." The exquisitely beautiful illustrations by the stereopticon accompanied the fascinating story and made the journey to the "Paradise of the Pacific" a reality to the audience. The long residence of Senator Gilman in the Islands adds the interest of personal observation to his knowledge of their wonderful history and characteristics. A more charming evening is seldom enjoyed by an appreciative audience. A very agreeable feature of the entertainment was an illustration of Hawaiian music with piano accompaniment.

—At the annual meeting of the Women's Educational Club, in the Unitarian church, Tuesday, these officers were elected: Mrs. E. N. L. Walton, president; Mrs. J. M. Hastings, Mrs. Sarah Davis, Mrs. Adelaide L. Gilman, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mrs. Ellen G. Pratt, Mrs. Kathleen M. Phelps, vice-presidents; Mrs. Freda B. Fisher, treasurer; Mrs. Susan E. Crockett, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Anna L. Bailey, recording secretary; Miss Anne C. Ellis, Mrs. Harriett H. Lord, Mrs. Adell Elliot, Mrs. Mary Tolman, Mrs. Ellen E. Bassett, Mrs. Helen M. Howard, Mrs. Annie M. Cobb, Mrs. Adeline Kershaw, Mrs. Isabella Bacon, Mrs. Mary P. Peabody, Mrs. M. Theresa Rowe, directors. After the business meeting there was a collation, with the usual post-prandial exercises. The after dinner topic was, "The Ideal Husband." The festivities closed with a bright flow of witty sayings, introducing a number of clever countridians. Mrs. J. M. Hastings was toast-mistress.

WABAN.

—Mr. Alex Davidson is seriously ill.

—Mrs. J. H. Robinson is in Middleboro.

—Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Philip Dresser and Miss Ida Collins.

—The engagement is announced of Mr. Harry Dresser and Miss Prudence Simpson.

—Mr. Wm. Saville is driving a fine new horse.

—Mrs. L. K. Harlow has recovered from her recent illness.

—Mr. Thomas Mulligan, who has been in the employ of Mr. Wm. C. Strong for a number of years, died at his home here this week.

—The Tryangle on Beacon street has been greatly improved.

—Page & Henshaw's land near the station has been graded and put in fine condition, under the superintendence of Mr. W. C. Strong.

AUBURNDALE.

Mothe prelatives, all kinds at Thorn's.

—Mrs. Charles Wilcombe is quite ill.

—Mrs. John Frost improves very slowly from her fall.

—C. G. Tinkham has just purchased a car load of Canadian horses.

—Harry Hildreth is riding a new safety bicycle.

—Mr. Edward L. Pickard, Woodland avenue, returned Tuesday from an extended business trip.

—Howard Bourne is at work in Mr. Geo. E. Mann's store.

—Mr. Jan's Vickers has early peas high enough to stick.

—The residence of Rev. Henry A. Hazen on Auburn street, is being improved by quite extensive alterations.

—Mr. Charles Chase of Melrose street, has sold his home to Boston parties, and has purchased a new house of Mr. Higgins.

—Mr. Henry R. Turner is enjoying a ten days' trip to the Columbian Exposition at Chicago.

—Mr. Moses W. Richardson, now stopping at the Woodland Park Hotel, has engaged apartments for July at the Senter House, Centre Harbor.

—Mr. Jared Whitman and family of Worcester, who passed the winter at the Woodland Park Hotel, are stopping at the Woodland Park Hotel for a few weeks.

—Some 42,000 square feet of land on Seavens street, belonging to Hannah W. Sampson, has been purchased by F. W. Sprague, Jr., through Henry W. Savage.

—Mr. F. H. Manning and family of Boston have moved to the Field estate in Weston which they have leased for the summer season.

—John Fanning has severed his connection with Mr. V. A. Pluta where he has worked for a number of years, and has secured a position with F. M. Dutch at West Newton. His place here has been taken by Ernest Harlow of Cotuit.

—The Lynn Orpheus Club, of which Mr. Clarence Ashenden is director, closed their season on Thursday with a concert of great excellence.

—Word received Wednesday from Mr. Charles R. England and family, telling of their safe arrival at Queenstown, the voyage being a very pleasant one. They will spend the summer in Europe.

—Herbert Beard has sold his fast mare, Belle Coaster, with a record of 2:30 to a Boston gentleman. The price paid is said to be about $300. Mr. Beard purchased another fast horse this week with an accredited record of 2:21 1/4. It is a handsome black pacer.

—Mr. E. B. Haskell and family of Auburndale, Henry R. Turner, Mrs. Turner and Helen Turner of Auburndale, A. L. Barbour, Mrs. Barbour and Grace Barbour of this place, are registered for ten days at the Raymond & Whitcomb Grand Hotel, Chicago, in attendance at the World's Fair.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Miss Bertha Blaisdell, Mr. John Collins, Mrs. R. L. Cushing, Miss Supple Deriz, Mrs. Denniman, Mrs. S. Snyder, Mr. Frank Phippen, Mr. Geo. P. Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Threshie.

—A Vesper service will be held in the Congregational church Sunday evening. Among the musical selections being prepared is a soprano solo with violin obligato, tenor solo and chorus, "Seek ye the Lord," and the bass aria from The Holy City. All are invited.

—The Schwartz and Anderson farms in Weston, located near the estate of Gen. Charles J. Paine, have been sold through the agency of Train & Jenkinson, for about $34,000. The purchaser is a Mr. Armitage of that town. The property consists of 120 acres of land and buildings, and will be improved.

—The interesting talk on, "Down to Jericho," by Prof. Bragdon at the Methodist vestry last Sunday evening, among other important information, cleared away some popular myths about the Dead Sea, such as the inability of birds to fly over it, the excessive buoyancy of its water and the absence of any form of life in it.

—Mr. Martin Hartman, father of Mrs. Thos. J. Marble, Central street, was found lying upon the floor of the bathroom early Wednesday morning dead. The picture presented to heart failure. It is supposed he went into the bathroom sometime after retiring for the night, and expired. The deceased was about 62 years of age and had been a resident of Auburndale for some little time, making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Marble.

—An agent of the Boston Art & Cragdon Co. so called, went through this village some weeks ago offering to furnish a life size crayon portrait for 50 cents to be delivered in thirty days on condition the portrait should bear the firm's advertisement on its back. Only a limited number were offered at this "remarkably low figure" of course, and some of our village people were tempted to invest a half dollar and loan a smaller portrait from which to enlarge the crayon drawings. A printed receipt was signed by the agent and left with each customer and the picture promised all framed in thirty days time. The investment has not yet materialized in any one case that has come to our knowledge. The Boston address of the firm, 194 Washington street is said to be a common every day stable.

—It was visitors' day at the Lasell Seminary gymnasium, Saturday. The pupils' exercises were held during the afternoon. The events comprised march and free movements, vaulting, bar, dumbbells, pommel horse, vaulting, and other exercises, giant stride, wand drill, running high jump, rope and ladder exercise, club swinging, ring exercises, fancy steps and running. The instructor, Miss McMartin, a graduate of Dr. Sargent's school, was in charge of the exhibition, which was very creditable. Miss McDuffee of Bradford, Vt., carried off the honors in the running jump. J. C. Caswell of Lowell, Mass., was very clever in the rope and ladder exercise. On the flying rings and bar vaulting Miss Shepherd of this place was especially graceful and skillful. Miss Hoyt of Washington and Miss Case of Manchester, Ct., also took honors for excellence in the same exercises. One of the fine features was the clever Indian club swinging of Miss Hogg of Fort Worth, Tex.

—Lasell Notes.

Dr. Latham's course of lectures on Physiology, which has extended almost through the year, is not closed, as also Miss Call's work with the pupils in concentration.

Mr. Ryder took a party of those students interested in art, to the Art Museum the other day. The work of the art classes at the Museum was on exhibition and was of interest to the Lasell students. A little bit of good luck they enjoyed a delightful trip to Japanese art by a chance met artist friend of Mr. Ryder's who is an authority on the subject.

The Plymouth excursion on Monday was a success every way. The party comprised about sixty persons. An early start was made and Plymouth reached a little after ten o'clock, the party returning in time for six o'clock dinner. This is one of the most interesting of all the excursions, and is always well attended and greatly enjoyed.

On Saturday afternoon last the gymnasium pupils gave an exhibition of their attainments in this branch of work at which all other members of the school were invited to be present. The invitation, it is needless to say, was generally accepted, and at the time appointed the gymnasium was lined with interested onlookers. The program included, marching, free movements, dumb bell drill, Indian club drill, vaulting, flying and travelling rings, fancy steps, running, etc. The class acquitted themselves with great credit, winning many compliments upon their free and graceful motions, agility and muscular power. Miss McMartin is to be congratulated upon the results of her careful work of the past year, the thoroughness of which her pupils amply demonstrated.

NONANTUM.

—James Maguire has raised a new house on Crescent street.

—Mr. A. W. Frye of this village passed with a high percent in the civil service examination for the addition to the police force.

—The new hose wagon arrived last night.

—Fred La Croix, the grocer, has raised another business block on Watertown street.

—Mr. Reuben Forknall has been elected superintendent of the North Evangelical Sunday school and will begin his services June 1st.

—The addition to the Nonantum mills is almost finished.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Lamb spent last Sunday in this village.

—Fairmount Division No. 87 of Hyde Park will visit St. Elmo Division next Friday evening in a body.

—Mr. Richard Mills and Patrick McMullen arranged a bicycle race to West Newton and back last Tuesday, but disaster befell them both early in the race.

—The Sons of Temperance gave a very successful entertainment in the lower Athenaeum hall last Friday night. A short play called "The Quiet Family" was well rendered. Mr. Frank Travers gave an exhibition of his most skillful and difficult work with the clubs, which was received with tumults of applause. The proceeds, about eighteen dollars, is to fix up the stage.

Hotels.

The MOOSILAUKE

Breezy Point,

WHITE MOUNTAINS.

Located high up on the southern spur of Mt. Moosilauke, this favorite family hotel is unrivalled as a health resort.

Table and service unexcelled. An ideal spot to spend the vacation or summer. Prices very reasonable. Many Newton references. For circulars, rates and reservation of rooms, apply to

E. B. WOODWORTH, Concord, N. H.,

OR

F. P. DART, Newtonville, Mass.

HOTEL HUMAROCK,

Sea View, Mass.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT. A most desirable and healthy location on the South Shore. Extensive improvements are being made to the hotel. For further particulars, address R. W. CARTER, care of Messrs. Jackson & Greeley, No. 10 Congress street, Boston, until June 21. After that date, Sea View, Mass. Boston office hours between 10 and 12 A. M., Mondays and Wednesdays.

317

LADIES

Who delight in good fitting, stylish clothing, that wear well, too, should patronize

REED, GOWELL & Co

52 Temple Pl., Boston,

where they are fitted and kept in repair free of expense. A friend will result in complete satisfaction and you will be properly gloved at reasonable prices

Bicycles.

Union Bicycles

Sold on the Instalment Plan. Also Second

Hand Wheels taken in part payment for New ones. Call and see them before purchasing and get Catalogue.

A. W. PORTER, 63 Richardson St.

28-St

EDW. P. BURNHAM,

BICYCLE DEALER,

Agent for the Victor and all the Leading Wheels

Machines Rented to Responsible Parties.

Residence, 25 Park Street, - Newton.

dm

THE POPULAR

NEW MAIL.

1893 MODEL.

NEW MAIL.

Diamond Frame.

Highest Possible Grade.

All Drop Forgings.

WITH

Pneumatic Tires, - $125.

LADIES' PATTERNS, $105 and $125

The Handomest Ladies' Wheel made.

BOYS' NEW MAIL, A High Grade

boys' wheel, $60 and $65.

Cheaper Quality Boys' Wheels $25 and $35.

Call and get a Catalogue.

BARBER BROS., Agents,

OPPOSITE LIBRARY, - 415 CENTRE STREET.

CORNS CURED

By Mrs. Drs. Craven and May

CHIROPODISTS AND MANICURES.

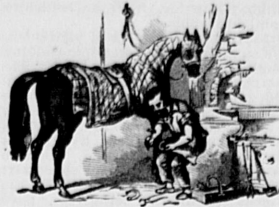

Corns, Bunions, and all ailments of the feet,

skillfully treated at our office.

21 AVON ST., BOSTON.

Opposite Jordan's Market. Right only.

21 135,

W. J. O'BRIEN & CO.,
HORSE SHOERS.

Special attention paid to interfering, overreaching and tender footed horses. Horses sent for and returned to any part of the city.

Washington, opp. Lowell St.,
Newtonville, Mass.

MILLINERY THE FINEST!

Customers very emphatically declare that our "TRIMMED HATS and BONNETS" are remarkable for beauty and modesty in price. We are uncommonly busy in this department. We carry the largest line of French and domestic novelties in the city to select from. Ladies will find our Styles correct. We invite inspection.

J. W. MACURDY,

133 Moody Street, Waltham, Mass.

To find our Store, leave the electric cars at Hall's corner and turn to the right.

BARGAINS.

BRASS AND IRON BEDSTEADS

Larger variety than found elsewhere in N. E.

H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,

70 WASHINGTON ST.

BOSTON.

111 W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

Druggists

FOUND AT LAST!

Relief for aching feet. You can wear shoes a size smaller, with perfect COMFORT.

HUDSON'S

FOOT - POWDER

Is a harmless antiseptic and deodorizer.

It can be applied with perfect safety.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

REV. F. W. BAKEMAN, D. D., PREACHES
THE BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

The students and faculty of the Newton Theological Seminary attended services in the First Baptist church, Newton Centre, Sunday morning, where the baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. F. W. Bakeman, D. D., of Chelsea. The text was taken from John, iii, 30: "He must increase, but I must decrease."

Rev. Dr. Bakeman commenced with a reference to John the Baptist and the time of his preaching at Enon. Some of his disciples, he said, moved no doubt by a kindling of partisan feeling, come and reported the growing popularity of Jesus. The language of these disciples, continued the speaker, betrays a rising jealousy for their master's honor. Is this newcomer a rival? Must their leader yield his place to another? These are the unasked questions that lie back of their report. Already the party spirit, that devouring flame which springs up so easily in the human breast, is beginning to burn. A word of encouragement from their master and it will soon be raging. But the word is never spoken.

"A man can receive nothing except it be given him from heaven," is the answer with which the Baptist allays the rising passions of his followers. "Heaven's sanction is upon his labors, let us rejoice. As for me, I must now decrease in order that He who is from above may increase." Thus did John calm the swelling tide of feeling in the minds of his disciples.

He revealed to them how his own mission must be merged in the greater work of Christianity, as the morning star precedes the rising sun, but melts away in the greater light. He plainly declares the superiority of Jesus. Without a murmur, he who but lately was the central figure of Palestine, surrounded by admiring thousands, now yields his place to another, sees the popular wave roll on past himself and toward this new man, and yet rejoices. Without a tinge of envy, he expresses it all in the simple words: "He must increase, but I must decrease." How brief, but how vastly significant the utterance. This sentence, so short and so simple, has folded in it the germ of nearly all that is truest and noblest and most deeply characteristic in the spirit of Christianity. In this one expression of generous self-surrender, John the Baptist, that child of the desert, voiced what is most essential in the religion of Jesus Christ.

Notice the magnanimous and unselfish spirit of Christianity which inspired the Baptist to utter so profound and generous a saying. At the height of his power Jesus appeared on the scene, and John recognizes that his work as the forerunner must soon draw to its close; the great Commander has come upon the field, and the authority and the supremacy must be yielded to him. The man who will cheerfully yield a place of honor or position of power at the call of duty is one of 10,000. The unfeigned alacrity with which John the Baptist surrendered his leadership is one of the finest examples in history of that noble unselfishness which Christianity produces and fosters.

The essential and deepest principle of the Christian religion is brought to light in the words of the text, and that is the spirit of self-sacrifice—of self-surrender. When John, in his noble self-renunciation, spoke these words, he uttered what is most profound and vital in Christianity. Self-surrender for the sake of the higher good breathes in this declaration. Service as the true end of life was thus early recognized. This saying of the Baptist is the seed-thought from which have sprung all that noble endeavor, that sacrifice of self, that generous helpfulness, that patient toil, that suffering love, that heroic endurance, that holy consecration, which have made glorious the Christian ages.

"He must increase, but I must decrease" has been the watchword of apostles and martyrs, of reformers and defenders of the cross, for Christianity during 1900 years of Christian history.

The very core and kernel of Christianity is forgetfulness of self and remembrance of others. The oldest and most radical altruism is the religion of Jesus. John struck the keynote for all Christian action. The spirit of the new religion was to be such as this, a generous abandon of self; a willingness to decrease that the good cause may prosper. The Baptist did even more for the new religion in his self-surrender than he had done in the days of his greatest fame. A timely self-sacrifice may open the door for a good cause that years of faithful toil. Christianity needs men and women who can suffer for it as well as labor, who can die for it as well as live.

When Jesus came to point out the way to eternal happiness, he began his mission by veiling his God-head, laying aside his majesty, surrendering his authority and descending into the hard lot of humanity to become the servant of all. Among all the new moral forces which Christ brought into the world, none was more radical than the idea of the nobility of self-sacrifice, the blessedness of service. The development of this great principle has been the gradual regeneration of society.

There is a revolutionary spirit in the saying of the Baptist, and it is that revolutionary spirit which distinguishes Christianity from the world. Christianity is a persistent and continuous moral revolution. It contemplates an entire overturning of human society. It comes into a world that is wrong and its purpose is no less than to make it right. This saying of John is radically and entirely opposed to the spirit of the world.

It is a most revolutionary idea, for it proposes a complete reversal of the most deeply seated characteristics of human nature. Its full development is to be the final overthrow of sin.

The spirit of the world says, "I must increase whoever decreases." Men climb to places of power and fame and advantage over the bodies of those who have fallen in the same wild endeavor. Selfishness in all degrees, from the most subtle and refined to the grossest and basest, curses our world. The words of the Baptist make a very unwelcome motto for the majority of men. "What can I get?" or "What can I be?" are the commonest forms in which human selfishness expresses itself. When these become the ruling questions of a young life, it is apt to prove a heartless, barren and selfish one. And yet there is reason to fear that the genius of our American civilization tend in that direction and fosters that unchristian spirit.

The one most urgent and comprehensive reform needed in modern society is a transformation of ideals and ambitions from the material to the moral, from the sordid to the noble, from the selfish to the philanthropic.

Self-surrender as the law of betterment in the moral world is a principle running through all human life with hardly less constancy than gravitation in the natural world. Out of the self-devotion of the individual comes the higher good. In the improvement of mankind progress is through suffering. Easy lives cannot work the world much good. He who serves men best must spare neither heart nor brain, nor toil, nor blood. Not the self-seekers, but the self-givers, have lifted the world to higher levels. Every step of progress has been marked with blood. Every reform in history has had its army of martyrs. Every moral victory has been hard won. The new and better order in human society comes only with throes of pain. The sufferers have helped our race most. The men of ease, the sleek, the soft bedded are not the moral forces that have shaped the world. Those whom the world has oftenest persecuted and killed have been its best friends and benefactors. Humanity is under deepest obligation to those whom it has most ill-treated—the men of sorrow—and acquiesced with grief. The best lives have been freely given to make civilization what it is today.

There is no danger against which the youth of our time need to be more urgently warned than the subtle tendency to make "I must increase" the ruling idea of their lives. The ruling idea of life should be neither material nor intellectual, but moral. The supreme end of the world is a moral one, and the art of arts is the art of living. True happiness can never take root in selfishness any more than the rarest lily can spring from the salt sea sand. To be willing to be least is the way to true greatness; to be willing to suffer is the school for happiness; to be ready to lose life is the secret of keeping it forever.

In conclusion, speaking the final words to the members of the graduation class, Rev. Dr. Bateman says: "My young brothers in Christianity, what more truthful motto for your own life work can you take than this text offers? If you are faithful to your Master, your highest service will be in the completeness of your self-surrender. By your decrease the kingdom of your Lord must prosper. The world has honors, but you cannot seek them; the world has wealth, but you have no time to acquire it. Your mission is not to gain, but to give; not to save your lives, but to cheerfully lose them. You are to decrease, that Christianity may increase. May the lives which you are now willing to lose for the sake of the gospel be found with glory and honor in the life to come."

In Memory of Prof. Stearns.

Services in memory of the late Prof. Oakman Sprague Stearns, D. D., who for 25 years occupied the chair of Old Testament interpretation in the Newton Theological Seminary, were held in the First Baptist church Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance, including the faculty of the institution, many of the present and former students, a large delegation of Newton people and former friends of the deceased from various sections of New England.

The opening prayer was made by Prof. G. D. B. Pepper, D. D., of Colby University. The scripture selections were read by Prof. Bullen of the Newton Theological Institution, and its president, Rev. Alvah Hovey, D. D., delivered the memorial address.

Rev. Dr. Hovey commenced by giving some facts of Prof. Stearns' early career. He was born, he said, in Bath, Me., Oct. 20, 1817. His father, continued the speaker, was the pastor of the Baptist church in that place from 1810 until 1840. Dr. Stearns at first contemplated a business life, but after his conversion, in accordance with his father's wishes, he commenced his preparation for the ministry. He entered Waterville College, now Colby University, at the age of 19, and after graduating taught school for two years in New York, and then succeeded in his native place. During this time he continued his theological preparation and entered the Newton Theological Institution in 1843, graduating in 1846.

He was next assistant in the department of biblical literature in the seminary, and then, in that capacity, called to his first pastorate in Southbridge. His public services covered a period of 46 years—21 in pastoral service and 25 in the Newton Theological Institution. He possessed qualities that rendered him a valuable pastor. He was not a brilliant talker, but the words that fell from his lips were remembered and cherished. He brought to the pulpit the fruit of careful study. Some pages of his sermons glittered with life. They were pungent with sense to the last syllable. With exquisite simplicity and naturalness he was effective in reaching the heart and filling it with the love of God. In the capacity of teacher and professor his aim was to lead his pupils to search and know the oracles of God. His success was due to his mental candor and caution, his spiritual insight, and love of the truths of the gospel. He saw the beauty of holiness. He was faithful and true to a degree that filled all with admiration.

Boating Season at Riverside.

The season at Riverside promises to be full of interest. The management of the Newton Boat Club is mapping out a program of events which will prove the most attractive, probably, in recent years. There will be a series of canoe races over the course from the Riverside bridge to a point near the boat house of the Boston Canoe Club, the usual summer contests, closing probably with a river pageant, affording a spectacular scene of more than ordinary beauty.

The Newton High School Athletic Association is arranging for a series of boating events, which will include competitions in canoes, ordinary row boats and sculls. It is intended to make these races an annual feature and to develop that phase of athletic sport among the students.

The Boston Athletic Association will commence work on its track and club building—which will include a boat house—on the western side of the river in August. Next year this great acquisition to the amateur sporting fraternity will make things lively on the river and about the spacious grounds where the half-mile track is to be laid out. Some idea of the popularity of canoeing in the vicinity of Riverside was indicated by the big turnout of paddlers who took advantage of the recent warm days. The collection of boats was a very large one, probably due in part to the backwardness of the season and the desire of the lovers of the sport to enjoy the seductive and healthful pleasure it affords.

Alumni Day Fittingly Celebrated.

Among the events of anniversary week at the Newton Theological Institution none are looked forward to, except those of the graduating exercises, with more interest than the annual observances and meetings of the alumni.

Wednesday was alumni day at the seminary and back to its portals came many of its graduates from near and far, glad of an opportunity to again recall the scenes of the beloved alma mater.

The address to the alumni was delivered in the First Baptist church, Newton Centre, in the afternoon by Rev. H. E. Dewhurst of Indianapolis, whose topic was "Christianity and the New Age." He said among other things:

Each age has left out of its religious conception one of three important factors. The problem for this age is to reconcile the three—man, God and nature. The question to consider is how religion is related to democracy and modern progress. The ideal we reached is a spiritual democracy, which is the highest type of theocracy. The church is not to be kept free from the world, but made an integral portion of it.

The need of the present age is to find the true relation of liberty and privilege, right and authority. This can be found when the church loses its separate identity and makes itself the whole of society.

After the address in the church a luncheon was served in Sturtevant Hall, preceding the annual meeting of the alumni. Rev. Dr. W. Hoyt of Worcester presided. These officers were elected:

President, Rev. A. J. Gordon; vice-president, Rev. B. A. Green; secretary, Rev. C. R. Brown; treasurer, Rev. E. A. Capen.

Rev. F. W. Rydner of the class of '76 was chosen orator.

Several addresses were given. Chairman Hoyt initiating the speaking. He referred to the great loss sustained by the death of Dr. Stearns, and spoke of his large-hearted Christian character. He also made some allusions to his own student days at the institution, especially referring to the genuineness of the religious life of the students and the manliness of the teachers.

Rev. C. V. Hanson of Skowhegan, Me., the next speaker, spoke of the needs of the institution. The Newton Theological Seminary, he said, is a place where the young men of the world are trained. It is a place where the best equipment should be found for theological training. More money is required to place the institution on a better basis than it now carries on a greater work. The alumni has pledged $300, and the president of the class of '93 authorizes me to state that $500 additional will be paid within the year, representing the contribution of the class.

In conclusion, the speaker said that he hoped a vigorous effort would be made by the alumni to help swell the fund for an endowment, assisting in every way possible Rev. Dr. Adams labors in that direction.

Remarks were made by Rev. J. K. Ewer of Concord, N. H., Rev. L. C. Barnes of Newton Centre, Rev. Frank Rector of Fitchburg, and President Alvah Hovey, D. D., of the institution.

The necrology record was read at the close of the speeches. It is as follows:

Stephen Pillsbury, class of '71, died in Fresno, Cal., April 27, 1892, aged 68 years. Born in Hallowell, N. H., Jan. 26, 1824; Dana Pratt Morgan, class of '72, died in New London, N. H., July 7, 1892, aged 52 years; John Pryor, D. D., class '31, died in Hallowell, Me., Aug. 17, 1892, aged 68 years; July 7, 1895; Amasa Brown, class '38, died in Newton Junction, N. H., Sept. 15, 1892, aged nearly 88, born in Winchendon, Nov. 22, 1804; Asahel Camp, class '33, died in Fresno, Cal., Oct. 3, 1892, aged 78; Robert Francis Tolman, class '78, died in Somerville, Mass., Nov. 21, 1892, aged nearly 45; John Dana Edmund Jones, class of '49, died in Worcester, Mass., Jan. 12, 1893, aged 73, born in Needham, Mass., Nov. 11, 1819; Fletcher Osceola Marsh, class of '51, died in New Orleans, La., March 13, 1893, aged 73, born in Townsend, Vt., Dec. 14, 1819; Noyes William Miner, D. D., class of '49, died in Paterson, N. J., April 14, 1893, aged 71, born in North Stonington, Ct., March 10, 1822; Oakman Sprague Stearns, D. D., class of '46, died in Newton Centre, April 20, 1893, aged 75, born in Bath, Me., Oct. 20, 1817; James Upham, D. D., class of '40, died in New Orleans, La., May 3, 1893, aged 78, born in Salem, Jan. 23, 1815.

At the meeting of the trustees in the afternoon, Hon. E. C. Fitz was re-elected president. Rev. B. A. Green was chosen secretary and William A. B. Hovey, treasurer. Dr. R. J. Adams, formerly of Dorchester, was appointed an agent to raise an endowment fund for the institution of $300,000.

H. T. DeWolfe and U. R. Hatch, graduates of the class of '93, were appointed instructors, the former in the New Testament department and the latter in Old Testament interpretation.

If the endowment fund is raised, many improvements will be made at the seminary. The new library building, to cost about $50,000, will be pushed rapidly toward completion, and for that special edifice a portion of the necessary amount has been already raised.

Thursday evening an address before the Missionary Society was given in the First Baptist church by Rev. George J. Dana, Boardman of Philadelphia. His topic was "The Kingdom of God."

Brookline and Newton.

[Boston Real Estate News.]

Of all the suburbs of Boston, they are destined to be better developed as homes for former residents of old Boston, than their neighbors, the towns forming a belt around the Hub. The great natural beauty of the landscape, varied at every turn; the well-kept, broad avenues, some of them even now being made broader; the beautiful ponds and reservoirs; the liberality of their citizens in advocating and carrying out great public improvements, as parks, boulevards, drainage, water supplies, and, last but not least, first-class schoolhouses.

The taste shown in the choice of designs for residences, the well-kept gardens and lawns, make delightful drives over the boulevards, through these delightful spots to the right and left, or walks for those less favored in the possession of one of these charming homes,—the whole seeming like one vast park, to be enjoyed and admired by all as a landscape; a study for the young, where they may see, within a few miles of the city, landscape, architecture, broad avenues, and beautiful planting of trees, shrubbery, and flower gardens not excelled by any in Europe.

Our Back Bay and South End residents are rapidly leaving their old homes (but not so old either, for the South End and Back Bay houses have all been built within a generation) for new ones in the suburbs; and Brookline and Newton are receiving their share. With the boulevards now projected in these suburbs, connecting with those already completed in Boston; with rapid transit lines, our business friends can come and go from their offices by the shortest and most direct routes, making quicker time at less risks.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla CURES

Mrs. Lizzie Clark
Washington, D. C.

Two Attacks of the Grip.

"I have had the Grip the last two winters. Last winter it prostrated me so that I had no strength and could not do my work. I

Sat Down and Cried

many times, I was so blue and discouraged. I had great pain in my back and across my kidneys and through my whole body. I also had a bad cough. Hood's Sarsaparilla just about saved my life. It gave me strength so that I could do my work. I feel well. I shall always be a warm friend of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I do not want anything better for a family medicine." Mrs. LIZZIE CLARK, Washington, D. C. Be sure to get Hood's.

Hood's Pills cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.

Expressmen.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 6:30 A. M. to 8 P. M. Where a call may be left, or leave orders at G. P. Atkins, Grocer, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Froster's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing of every description promptly attended to.

Residence: 152 Adams Street, Newton, Mass.

PEARSON'S NEWTON AND BOSTON EXPRESS.

Boston Offices: 91 Kilby St., 105 Arch St., 28 Court St., Order Box, 91 Faneuil Hall Market.

Newton Office at H. B. Coffin's, Order Boxes at Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins'.

Leave Newton at 9.30 a. m.

Leave Boston at 3 p. m.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER, NEWTON & BOSTON EXPRESS.

Leave Newton, 7.30 and 9.30 a. m.; leave Boston, 12 m. and 3 p. m.

NEWTON CITY MARKET, BOSTON OFFICES: 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court Square, 55 Merchants Row, 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave., Extension. Post Office address Box 420, Newton.

Personal Attention Given all Orders.

S. L. PRATT, FUNERAL AND FURNISHING UNDERTAKER

Newton Centre, Mass.

First-Class Appointments and Competent Assistants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the office of Fanning Printing Co. which will immediately be forwarded to me by telephone. Also shall continue in the Back, Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand corner of Beacon and Station Streets.

DO YOU COUGH
DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S
BALSAM
THE BEST COUGH CURE

It Cures Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Ripans Tabules relieve scrofula.

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

RENNE'S
PAIN KILLING MAGIC
OIL

CURES Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lameness, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Burns, Sprains, Strains, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Dyspepsia, Stomach, &c. Sold Everywhere. 25 cents.

Ripans Tabules relieve headache.

Don't Drink Impure Water longer when for 50c. you can get a good filter. They will fit a faucet without a hole. Call and see of Barber Bros.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank wife of the said Frank E. Burbank, and W. Otis Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, libro 1982, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises on the fifth day of June, A. D. 1893, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, A certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in that part of Newton in said County of Middlesex called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot numbered Three upon a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smille, Surveyor, dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number four upon said plan at point distant fifty (50) feet westerly from lot number Four, thence southerly by said lot number Four, being land now or late of said Mitchell one hundred and thirty-one and fifty-five one-hundredths (131 55/100) feet to lot number Seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number Seven and lot number Sixty (60) feet to lot number Two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number Two one hundred and thirty-four and seventy-one one-hundredths (134 71/100) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing thousand six hundred and thirty-one and one-hundredths (1631 1/100) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW, Assignee of said Mortgage.

J. B. PHIPPS, Auctioneer.

258, Washington Street, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John Butland of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to George D. Cox of said Newton, dated Sept. 10th, 1892, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2143, Folio 489, duly assigned to Daniel W. Desmond by assignment dated Sept. 15th, 1892, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, Folio 482, will be sold for breach of condition contained therein at Public Auction, upon the premises, on Monday, 5th day of June, 1893, at 8 o'clock in the forenoon, all the right title and interest in and to the premises conveyed by said Mortgage Deed, viz:—

Being lot numbered fourteen (14) on a plan of land made by Wm. Bradford, Surveyor, dated April 15, 1889, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, with plan-book No. 62 containing 2000 square feet, situated on that part of Newton called Kensington Street in that part of Newton called West Newton and bounded and described as follows viz:—Easterly by Kensington Street as shown on said plan, forty (40) feet,—northerly by lot number fifteen (15) on said plan eighty (80) feet,—westerly by land of Monks, forty (40) feet,—southerly by lot number thirteen (13) on said plan eighty (80) feet and is subject to a prior mortgage of $2000 and interest. Terms at Sale.

The assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

J. B. PHIPPS, Auctioneer.

258 Washington Street, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John Butland of Newton in the County of Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to George D. Cox of said Newton, dated Sept. 10th, 1892, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2143, Folio 487, duly assigned to Daniel W. Desmond by assignment dated Sept. 15th, 1892, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, Folio 482, will be sold for breach of condition contained therein at Public Auction, upon the premises on Monday, 5th day of June, 1893, at half past eight o'clock in the forenoon, all the right title and interest in and to the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed viz:—

Being lot numbered sixteen (16) on a plan of land made by Wm. Bradford, Surveyor, dated April 15th, 1889, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds with plan-book No. 62, containing 3200 square feet, situated on the westerly side of Kensington Street in that part of Newton called West Newton and bounded and described as follows viz:—Easterly by Kensington Street as shown on said plan, forty (40) feet,—northerly by lot numbered seventeen (17) on said plan, eighty (80) feet,—westerly by land of Monks, forty (40) feet,—southerly by lot numbered fifteen (15) on said plan, eighty (80) feet, and is subject to a prior mortgage of $2000 and interest. Terms at Sale.

The assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

DANIEL W. DESMOND, Undertaker.

Undertakers.

GEO. W. BUSH, Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Coffins, Caskets, Robes.

And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand. Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

JOHN PHILLIPS

would respectfully inform the citizens of Newton that he can be found at the above address and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over ten years experience in the business, under the instruction and in co-operation with the late Mr. Wm. H. Phillips, I trust I can attend to all calls that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker.

S. F. CATE, FURNISHING - UNDERTAKER.

WASHINGTON STREET,

WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 8119

HOWARD ICE CO., SUCCESSORS TO HOWARD BROS.

Orders can be left at

342 Centre Street, - Newton.

Office Hours: 7.45 to 11 A.M.; 3 to 5.45 P.M.

ABRAHAM L. HOWARD, Proprietor.

OFFICE, 46 GALEN ST., WATERTOWN.

NEWTON COAL CO.

SUCCESSORS TO HILLS, BULLENS & CO.

DEALERS IN—

COAL & WOOD

Family Orders a Specialty.

OFFICE, ELIOT BLOCK.

BRANCH OFFICE:

JOHN F. PAYNE'S DRUG STORE,

NEWTONVILLE.

A FOOL

never wants to learn, but the

WISE MAN

reads that

OLD HONESTY

CHEWING TOBACCO

is the best that is made, and at ONCE tries it, and saves money and secures more satisfaction than ever before.

AVOID imitations. Insist on Financial.

NORTHERN
INVESTMENT COMPANY.Regular Dividends 6 1/2% Per Annum.

INVESTS IN CHOICEST BUSINESS CORPERS, in a large city where real estate continually increases in value and increased rentals will add to the income from year to year.

Cash Capital paid in March 1st, over $900,000.

Price of Stock 103 50-100 per share.

H. L. Warner, Pres. of Nat'l Bank of Sioux City (Capital One Million) Says:

"Everything considered, I can assure you that in my judgment, the NORTHERN INVESTMENT COMPANY has shown great wisdom and foresight in the selection of its real estate in this city, and it seems to me almost impossible that its investments here should prove otherwise than safe and profitable."

For further particulars apply at the Company's Office, Nos. 7 to 11 Advertiser Building, 340 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., where Plans and Photographs can be seen, to

GEORGE LEONARD, Pres.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

INCORPORATED 1831.

Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Banking Rooms in Newton National Bank Building.

JAMES F. C. HYDE, President.

JOHN WARD, Vice President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treas.

TRUSTEES: Joseph N. Bacon, Jas. F. C. Hyde, Daniel Lacey, Francis Murdock, Samuel M. Jackson, William Dix, William C. Strong, Charles A. Miner, Elliott J. Hyde, John Ward, Chas. J. Pulsifer, Warren P. Tyler and Harry W. Mason.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT:

James F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock.

CHAS. A. MINER, Clerk and Auditor.

H. W. MASON, Attorney.

Quarter days, TENTH day January, April, July and October. Dividends declared the Tuesday following January 10th and July 10th, are payable the next day.

West Newton Savings Bank

Incorporated 1857.

West Newton, Mass.

AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees—Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Prescott C. Bridgman, Charles A. Potter, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Cate, Adams K. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter.

Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Charles A. Potter, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m., 1.30 to 4 p. m.

Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

Newton National Bank,

NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS:

From 9 A. M., to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M.

On Saturdays, from 9 A. M., to 2 P. M.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President.

B. FRANKLIN BACON, Jr.

DO YOU WANT
To learn Watchmaking?

If so, attend the American-Waltham Watchmakers School, where any and all parts of the trade are taught in the most thorough manner.

For further information address or apply to

SAUL BROTHERS,
135 Moody St., Waltham

T. F. GLENNAN.

Carriage Trimming & Harness MAKING.

BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c.

Washington Street, Newton.

J. J. JOHNSON,
FLORIST.

CONSERVATORIES,
School Street, Newton.

Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions
Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

SULPHUR BITTERS

Ladies:—

The Secret

Of a Fair Face

Is a Beautiful

Skin.

Sulphur Bitters

Will give you

A lovely

Complexion.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

Berthelot, P. E. Marceline. Explosives and their Power; trans. and condensed by C. N. Hake and W. Macnab; with a Preface by J. P. Cundill.

Cambridge, Ada. A Little Mink; a Sketch.

Carey, Rosa Nouchette. But Men must Work.

Carpenter, Stephen H. English of the XVII Century; illustrated by Notes Grammatical and Philological on Chaucer's Prologue and Knight's Tale.

Designed to serve as an introduction to the study of English Literature.

Compayre, Gabriel. Abelard, and the Origin and Early History of Universities.

Seeks to give an idea of what these great associations of masters and students were in their organization, their methods in their general spirit and influence.

Conder, R. Tell Amara Tablets; tr. by C. R. Conder.

Dickens, Charles. Masterpieces of Dickens; a Treasury of Gems from his Works as portrayed by Artist and Author.

Eminent Persons; Biographies reprinted from the [London] Times.

Vol. 2, 3.

Everett, Charles Carroll. The Gospel of Paul.

Prof. Everett presents his view of Paul's doctrine of the atonement, preceded by a study of the significance of sacrifice in the ancient world and followed by an examination of Paul's philosophy of history and his doctrine of salvation.

Gladden, Washington. Tools and the Man; Property and Industry under the Christian Law.

Gordon, Sir Arthur. The Earl of Aberdeen. (Queen's Prime Ministers).

Hamilton, Henry R. Classic Greek Dictionary; English-Greek, containing the Words in General Use.

Hulme, F. The Birth and Development of Oratory.

Chapters on Egyptian, Greek, Roman, Gothic art, and the art of Islam, etc.

Irving, Henry. The Drama; Addresses.

Contents. The stage as it is. The Art of Acting. Four Great Actors.

Kellogg, Eva M. C. Grandma's Darling.

Mallet, Charles Edward. The French Revolution.

The author has tried to summarize and collect in a concrete form information scattered through larger volumes.

Morse, Edward S. First Book of Zoology.

Gives a personal knowledge of the structure, habits, modes of growth and other leading features concerning the common animals of the country.

Owen, John. The Skeptics of the Italian Renaissance.

Pater, Walter. Marius the Epicurean; his Sensations and Ideas.

Perry, Joseph Frank, Jr. (Ashmont). Kennel Secrets; how to Breed, Exhibit and Manage Dogs.

Peterson, A. H. The Gods of Olympus; or Mythology of the Greeks and Romans; trans. and edited by K. A. Raleigh, with a Preface by Jane E. Harrison.

The translator has condensed the work in many places, and made additions in others supplying necessary references.

Picturesque Hampden, 2 vols.

Vol. 1. Springfield and the Eastern half of the county. Vol. 2. Holyoke and the Western half of the county.

Savage, Minot Judson. The Evolution of Christianity.

Stevenson, Robert Louis. Island Nights' Entertainments.

Trenholm, W. L. The People's Monks.

Seeks to furnish some practical ideas upon financial matters, and the principles and laws which govern the operations of trade and exchange.

Watson, J. H. Schelling's Transcendental Idealism; a Critical Exposition.

E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.

May 17, 1893.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

PARK THEATRE—The next attraction at the Park Theatre to follow the remarkable run of six months which closes Saturday night next, will be a musical piece by Fred Miller, Jr., the composer of that nautical comic opera, "Ship Ahoy," which had a long run at the Park Theatre two seasons ago. There is a pretty romantic story running through the piece which tells of a rich sea captain of Portsmouth, N. H., who having been at sea all his life and having amassed a large fortune concludes to make one last sea-voyage and take all his family with him. Before doing so, however, he has entrusted all his property in the hands of his Boston bankers. Having made the journey on his favorite ship the "Genevieve," upon his return he is just nearing America, when they are wrecked near the coast of Newfoundland, and as supposed all on board including the captain's family lost. It happens, however, that by some miraculous escape, two of his youngest children, a son and daughter, are saved. By a strange coincidence, they both grow up in the same town, which is in New Hampshire, and the identity of one is unknown to the other. They make love and are about to be married, the ceremony to take place at the celebration of a golden wedding in the village, when an old sailor turns up to disclose their identity and put them on the track of obtaining their father's (the old captain's) wealth, which they inherit. There will be a heavy of bright pretty girls and an equal number of competent comedians and sinners in the male roles. Owing to the lateness of the season, the management has been able to secure some of the best of light comedy and musical talent.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE—Boucault's famous drama of the south, "The Octoroon" will be presented by the full company next week and it will be made one of the best productions seen on the Boston stage this season. All the scenery will be new and among the notable scenes will be the burning of the Mississippi steamboat, "Magnolia," the cane break, the cotton picking, the wharves along the river and many other picturesque and interesting southern scenes.

Miss Annie Clarke will present the role of the Octoroon, Mr. Charles Barron will be seen as Salem Scudder, Mr. Mark Price, a new member of the company, as Jacob McClusky, Mr. James S. Maffitt, especially engaged, as Wah-no-tee, Mr. Frank J. Keenan as Capt. Rattle, Mr. Edward Wade as Col. Poindester, Mr. Fred Warren as Old Pete, Mr. C. W. Burrill as Mr. Sunnyside, Miss Helen Dayne as Dora Sunnyside, and that sweet child actress, who has been such a great success in every role which she has presented, Miss Lillian Masterson, as Paul, the yellow boy. For this week's matinee, "Little Lord Fauntleroy" will be repeated.

ed and beautiful photograph souvenirs of little Miss Masterson will be presented to the children. An elaborate and beautiful production of "Rosedale" will follow the "Octoroon."

The Price of Bicycles.

The price of bicycles has long been a question of debate between the dealers or makers and the public, and the Springfield Republican has just been investigating the condition of affairs in that city and finds the following:

It has been generally thought that the bicycle business has been one of fabulous profits, if conducted properly, and this idea is probably what has induced so large a number of bicycle firms to start up all over the country. No less than twenty-five concerns are represented in this city alone by twelve different agencies, and the fact that all the agents seem to be hurrying around for a $100 wheel looks as if overproduction was forcing down the price of the article. The question is, "Will the price come tumbling down like that of the sewing-machine of old?" There are different opinions on the subject.

In the first place A. H. Overman, who is certainly in a position to be the greatest local expert on the matter, thinks it will not. This year will see no drop in prices in the wheels made by his company and none, he thinks, in those made by any other responsible concerns and it will be several years before any reduction can be made. What keeps the price of a $150 now, is the necessity for changes every year in machines, which call for very expensive changes in machinery. As soon as these improvements cease there will be a large reduction in prices, but it will be years before the lines of a bicycle are perfected and the changes in the details of machines are very many.

The manufacturers of the best wheel have always been brought into competition with firms putting out a machine, which they claimed was high grade and in reality was nothing of the sort. Often firms were compelled to bring down prices because the bicycle makers were wheels and must in some way unload. Most of the wheels were worth but little in the first place, being made in factories where there were no proper facilities for manufacture. The Victor wheel has never been sold one cent under $150. As a matter of fact, the bicycle manufacturing company's old trainer saw the matter in the same light. Every year saw great improvements in the wheel and there seemed to be no immediate probability of the changes ceasing. That the whole matter was in an experimental stage was shown by the fact that every maker is putting out a wheel peculiar to himself. Only when the changes cease and the model becomes uniform can it be made cheaply, and probably it will be made very cheaply at that time.

George M. Hendee, who was really the pioneer in selling the $100 wheel here this season, sees the bicycle millenium nearer at hand. This year has seen a larger number of high grade wheels from $150 to prices varying from $100 to $125, a thing before unknown in the trade. Formerly cheap wheels were made cheaply, but the ones sold for $100 this year compare favorably with those sold $150 before, and the fact that agents are all looking for some wheel of the kind, shows that the higher-priced wheels are becoming hard to sell under the competition. Their makers may stand the strain a season or two, because they have committed themselves to the nation by advertising against cheap wheels, but they will eventually have to give in and follow the others. And when the price is once down it would be impossible to raise it again.

CLASSIFYING BOWLING CLUBS.

LEAGUE MEN LOOK WITH FAVOR ON MR. FOLLETT'S PLAN.

The managers of the amateur bowling league met at the Parker House, Boston, Wednesday evening, and transacted some very important business. President Warren P. Hill was in the chair. Votes of thanks were extended to the committee of arrangements who had charge of the recent dinner, also to the retiring officer, W. W. Davis.

Mr. W. J. Follett of the Newton Club brought the classification scheme before the meeting. His scheme was based on the supposition that 20 clubs belonged to the league. With that basis he would have a championship class of six clubs, a senior class of six clubs, a junior class of 8 on the basis of 20, 10 if more than 20. If there were more than 24 clubs in the league a novice class would be formed.

These clubs would be arranged in their several classes according to their averages each season. It is believed the scheme would arouse even greater enthusiasm than before, and inspire clubs with more good natured rivalry. Smaller clubs would be given a chance, and as their games improved their standing would be higher. Prizes would be provided for the winning club of each class, and these prizes would be of equal value.

A copy of the classification scheme will be mailed to every club in the league, and an answer will be requested before June 11 as to the merits of the idea. At the meeting Wednesday night representatives of 11 clubs were sure their clubs would favor the scheme, while three did not know what to say in regard to the matter. Among the clubs anxious to join the league are the Medford, Calumet, Charlestown, Roxbury Centrals and Reading Athletic Association.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year, their duties to commence July 1:

President, Warren M. Hill, B. A. A.; vice-presidents, W. W. Davis of the Castinos, C. H. O'Dell of the Salems, S. T. Whittier of the Vespers; treasurer, C. W. Loring, Newton; secretary, J. H. Aubin, Allston; surveyor of alleys, J. R. Carr, Chelsea Reviews; committee on rules, W. H. Lent of Melrose, W. W. Davis, A. H. Aubin.

Founder of the McAll Missions.

Rev. Dr. Robert W. McAll, originator of the McAll missions, died in Paris recently. He was an English Congregationalist clergyman, who began his work over a score of years ago in the Belleville district of the French capital, gained the confidence of the poor people and became a power for good. The fact that the French government decorated him last year is evidence of the confidence that he won. He received much assistance from the American McAll association, of which Mrs. C. H. Parkhurst of New York is president. Dr. McAll was 71 years old.

Food's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. Sold by all druggists.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balm stops the cough at once.

Perhaps She was Correct.

(From the Indianapolis Journal.)
Laura—Mamma, can I sing a while?
Mrs. Figg—You mean "May I sing."
Mr. Figg—How do you know she does? Perhaps she really has her doubts.

Trusts and Combinations

Are unpopular. But there is one form of trust against which no one has anything to say. That is the trust which the public reposes in Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the best of it is the trust is fully justified by the merit of the medicine. For, remember, HOOD'S Sarsaparilla CURES.

I have had catarrh for twenty years, and used all kinds of remedies without relief. Mr. Smith, druggist, of Little Falls, recommended Ely's Cream Balm. The effect of the first application was magical, it allayed the inflammation and the next morning my head was clear as a bell. I am convinced its use will effect a permanent cure. It is soothing and pleasant, and I strongly urge its use by all sufferers.—Geo. Terry, Little Falls, N. Y.

Found Dead.

Last evening a person giving the name of G. R. Thompson registered at Hunt's Hotel, and desired to be called in season to take the 12 p. m. train for Chicago. Being unable to awaken him, the room was entered by means of the ventilator over the door, when the gentleman was found to be dead. He was advertising agent for Sulphur Bitters, which has an extensive sale. The coroner returned a verdict of death from heart disease. His body will be sent east immediately.—Cin. Commercial.

The Chilton Paint Co. does not make a fire-proof paint. If they did what a business they would do among the sinners. Fire-proof paint for outside work has never yet been a success. Many people are prejudiced against mixed paints, possibly rightly, too, at least they think so; but let them lay aside their prejudices, get a good painter, some Chilton Paint, and follow instructions. The stronger they were against us the better we like it, for once convinced of the superior qualities of Chilton Paint, they will use no other. The instructions are mainly, to have the paint applied to a dry surface. The painter who is not afraid of brushing his paint out, stretching it, as it were, is the man who will do for you the best work, and use the least paint in doing it. "Chilton Paint Co., New York and Boston."

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

J. HENRY BACON

Successor to Francis Murdock & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishing Goods

OIL and STRAW CARPET,

Trunks, Bags, &c.

BACON'S BLOCK

Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St.

NEWTON.

THE 15 LONG AMERICAN BICYCLE DISTANCE

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

Excels all others in lightness, strength, and durability. It is a triumph of American ingenuity, simple in construction, and wonderfully effective. The manufacturers fully warrant its wearing qualities in every respect.

OUR ART CATALOGUE gives description of both the Boys' and Girls' patterns, with letters from purchasers, and is sent free of charge to all applicants.

Bradshaw Mfg. Co.
615 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Ripans Tabules banish pain.

Scientific American Agency for PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, DESIGN PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, etc.

For information and free Handbook write to J. H. & Co., 361 Broadway, New York. Send stamp for securing patents in America. Every patent taken out by us is brought before the public by a notice given free of charge in the Scientific American.

Largest circulation of any scientific paper in the world. Splendidly illustrated. No intelligent man should be without it. Weekly, $3.00 a year in advance. Single copies, 10 cents. J. H. & Co., Publishers, 361 Broadway, New York City.

Waterbury Enterprise.

Waterbury Enterprise.

Waterbury Enterprise.

Waterbury Enterprise.

Livery Stables.

Daniels' Nonantum Stables

HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.

Livery and Hacking.

Patrons will find at these Stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.

Landaus and Hacks, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING.

Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention. Telephone 13-3.

GEO. W. BUSH.

Livery, Hack and Boarding Stable.

Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses.

Hacks at depot for conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages at for business or pleasure.

ELMWOOD STREET.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable

(Established 1861.)

Barge, "City of Newton."

Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."

S. F. CATE, West Newton

Carpenters and Builders.

G. W. RIGBY,

Carpenter and Builder.

ALL JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

Shop: WASHINGTON ST., opp. WABAN NEWTON MASS.

S. K. MacLEOD

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.

Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's Work a specialty.

Shop, Centre Place, opp. Public Library

Residence, Boyd street, near Court.

P. O. Box, 650, NEWTON, MASS.

Fish and Provisions.

Newton City Market.

ALL KINDS OF

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME.

Fish and Oysters

Butter, Cheese, Eggs,

Canned Goods, Fruit,

and Vegetables.

413 Centre St., Opposite Public Library.

Wellington Howes, Proprietor

FISH OYSTERS,

Vegetables & Fruit of all Kinds

—AT—

Bunting's Fish Market,

COLE'S BLOCK.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre

Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions. Also makes connections for the sale of the paper. Also receives orders for the sale of the paper. Also receives orders for the sale of the paper.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Ivers & Pond piano, Farley, Newton.
—Miss Mell Eastman of Melrose will spend a few weeks in Newton Centre.
—Miss Bessie T. Baer of Baltimore will spend a part of the summer here.
—William Rice, son of Mr. Marshall O. Rice, left town this week for Chicago.
—Mr. John A. Andrews and family have opened their summer home at Chestnut Hill for the season.
—Mr. John H. Sanborn and family, Chase street, left town this week for Chicago to attend the World's Exposition.
—Mrs. George A. Pierce and family have gone to Maple Hill, Kansas, visiting the Chicago Exposition en route.
—Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Claffin are attending the World's Fair at Chicago, leaving town Monday.
—Miss Louise Fitz is visiting Chicago and the Columbian Exposition.
—Mrs. Oliver J. Hall has been called to her former home in New York, by the serious illness of her mother.
—Miss Alice Robinson is somewhat better and is able to sit up a portion of the time.
—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Richardson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.
—Mrs. James S. Newell, Station street, is in Newark, N. J.
—Dr. S. F. Smith, who has spent the last few months in Chicago, is expected home this week.
—Mr. P. H. Lynch of the Institution has returned to his home in West Philadelphia.
—Mrs. Theodore Nickerson and Miss Marianne have gone to the Columbian Exhibition, leaving town this week.
—The engagement is announced of Miss Kate Agnes Dee and John J. Hooley.
—Mrs. B. V. Degen has returned from a visit of a few weeks with friends in New Hampshire.
—A son of Mr. Stephen Green of Centre street broke his arm last Saturday while at some athletic game in the play room.
—The marriage of Miss Hannah Drennan and Mr. Alexander D. Mills is announced to take place on the 29th of May.
—The Rev. Harry P. Dewey of Concord, N. H., preached at Wellesley College last Sunday.
—There is no better time than the present to see Newton Centre in all its natural and architectural beauty.
—Miss Margaret Whitman of Chestnut Hill has sent out cards for Tuesday and Friday afternoons in May and June.
—Mrs. Wm Macomber and young son returned this week from New Hampshire. Her son's health is considerably improved.
—An unusually large hydraeema is on exhibition on Maple park, also beautiful blue lilies (the Agapanthus) at Mrs. Rogers.
—The legislature paid a very handsome and well deserved compliment to Judge Dunbar, in exonerating him from the baseless charges brought by Stillman.
—There are letters at the postoffice for A. B. C. Centre street, H. E. Chandler, Mrs. M. E. Clarke, Dame Veve Goddard, Giroux, Alfred Leghorn, John D. McNeil, Barbara Makenzie, Michael Prendergast, Mary Powers.
—Mrs. Nutting of Royalston has been quite ill for some weeks at Mr. D. B. Claffin's where she was visiting her brother-in-law. Dr. Adams of Royalston and Dr. Loring have attended her. She is now much better.
—Next Sunday (Whitsunday) the services in Trinity church will be as follows: sermon and Holy Communion at 10.30, evening prayer at 7.30. The Sunday School will meet hereafter at 9.30 a. m. instead of 12 m. There is a short service with a brief address every Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock.
—At the meeting of the Newton Centre Associates stockholders on Tuesday evening it was decided to proceed with the erection of the contemplated block on Centre street between Pleasant and Pleasant street and the directors were instructed to sell the stock in the treasury, and a committee was appointed to take charge of the building, as follows: Wm F. Harbach, H. W. Mason, A. L. Harwood, Wm B. Young, and Frank Edmunds, who will proceed to carry out the plans.
—Mrs. Bartholomew Quinlan died at her home on Beacon street on the 12th at the age of 65 years. The family came to Newton some thirty years ago. Mr. Quinlan has worked most of the time for Mr. Henry Ross at the Newton cement ry. They are a very estimable family and well connected, and Mr. Thomas Desmond is a son-in-law. The funeral services were held Sunday from the Church of the Sacred Heart, Rev. D. J. Wholey officiating, and the interment was at Holyhood.
—Percy Barton, the 12 year old son of Dr. R. J. Barton was so fortunate as to again win the first prize offered by the Newton Horticultural Society for the greatest number of tent caterpillars nests destroyed this spring. Last year several prizes were distributed and he took first prize. This year one prize of $10 was offered and he won and each one at work was paid $1 per 1000 nests destroyed. Percy destroyed 36,400 nests netting him $36.40 in addition to the $10 prize and John Hawes was second with a total of 3,000 nests.
—The reception given Saturday by Mrs. Mary W. Mason in honor of her daughter, wife, Mrs. Dawes, was a most delightful affair. The rooms were fragrant with flowers, the decorations being quite elaborate. Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Dawes, and Miss Mabel Mason arrived in a front room, the recess in which they stood being banked with palms and potted plants and on either side rested a magnificent branch of bigonia in full bloom. During the reception hours from four to seven the rooms were filled with guests, who fully enjoyed themselves. Mrs. Mason having long since proved herself one of the most charming of hostesses.
—This has been Institution week and the village has seen many visitors who came to attend the exercises of graduation. The exercises have been interesting and instructive in many ways, but there has been no service perhaps which has been so thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated as the memorial service upon the late Prof. Stearns conducted by Prof. Hovey on Tuesday evening. Dr. Hovey commenced with a description of the life of the father of the deceased and from this emanated a detailed description of Prof. Stearns life from his infancy to his death. It was one of the finest eulogies that could be given, and told by one who knew him as did Dr. Hovey, and to those who had known and loved Prof. Stearns during his many years here it was doubly interesting and touching. So rapid was the attention that hardly a whisper stirred the large audience during Dr. Hovey's remarks.
—It begins to look as though our citizens would have need of further patience regarding the advent of the electric cars. The work laying the rails on Homer street has come to a standstill at the intersection of Cedar street, and now that the city government has refused the company a temporary location on the side of the street to enable them to avoid the sewer digging the completion of the line is very indefinite. The sewer department have gone to work on Homer street re-laying the tile piping which is found to have broken up because of quick sands there and how far the tile pipe now being put in will last, is a matter of some conjecture although it was stated at the Monday night meeting, a work which would complete the sewer. A frame and tracks for shifting the gravel by steam have been brought there this week for use, which would seem to indicate that a week would not nearly suffice. The railroad people say the roadbed can be completed within ten days, and it was their intention to have cars running June 1st. It will now be necessary for the city to extend the time for building the road a second time, the six months extension running out the first of June.

—Bradford K. Pierce Chapter, No 1536 of the Epworth League, celebrated the fourth anniversary of their organization last Sunday evening by an especially interesting meeting at the Methodist church. The attendance was unusually large and the vestry added to the main auditorium no more than accommodated the audience present. The exercises were opened by an organ voluntary, followed by congregational singing and the opening prayer by Rev. W. E. Huntington, D. D. Mrs. Lewis H. Spear contributed a soprano solo, "Gloria to God," and an offering, "Elevation," was followed by responsive scripture reading. The annual report of the League for the past year was read by the secretary, Miss Clara E. Wade, showing encouraging progress. The address of the evening was delivered by the pastor, Rev. E. H. Hughes, who took for his topic, "The Peril and Power of Young People's Movement." A tenor solo, "Cujus Animam," from "Stabat Mater" by Signor Augusto Rotoli, added to the enjoyment of the service which concluded with the benediction by the pastor. The present cabinet of the Bradford Chapter are president, Wm. M. Flanders; vice-president, Miss Minnie G. Spear; secretary, Miss Clara E. Wade; treasurer, B. V. Dewey; directors, Miss Julia E. Fowle, T. Snowden Thomas.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Unsigned communications go into the waste basket.
—Mr. John Procter is quite ill, being confined to his bed with an abscess. Dr. Thompson is attending him.
—Mr. Frank Jones will open his new hardware store in Procter's block on Saturday.
—Miss Fannie Sparks, a missionary in India since 1870, will conduct the morning service at the Methodist church next Sunday, for the "Missions in India." The subject of her sermon will be "The Power of the Cross." She will preach on Temperance at 6.30 p. m.
—The Clover Club at its last meeting with Miss Gertrude Breck enjoyed a cosy party, Miss Edith Newell securing the first prize and the booby prize falling to Miss Ida Hutton. The next time the club will meet with Miss Florence Hildreth of High street.
—Another crowd was brought out by the Sunday excursions of the land speculators on the Wellesley and Needham side of the river last Sunday. It is good land, but its desirability as a residential location is not enhanced by the fact that there are no public schools, water, gas, electric lights, fire protection or sanitary conveniences available for their use within four or five miles. The land is close to Newton, but it does not furnish either Wellesley or Needham with these conveniences.
—Thomas Fields, a machinist employed at the Pettie machine works, committed suicide in his room in this place yesterday afternoon by cutting his throat with a razor, completely severing the jugular vein and cutting through the larynx. He roomed in Mrs. Moore's boarding house, Chandler place. Fields had a slight attack of delirium tremens early in the day and resolved to end his life after partially recovering from its effects. He was 37 years of age, and has no relatives in this vicinity, so far as can be learned. His sinking was periodical and when not in his cups he was industrious and orderly. Medical Examiner Mead was summoned by the police, who was at once notified of Fields' last act, and after he had viewed the body the body was turned over to a local undertaker.
—Thomas Lee had quite an adventure last week. He has been at work for the Fanning Printing Company for some weeks and one day received word from an acquaintance in New York, dialing upon the case with which work at big wages could be secured in that city, and promising to meet him at the Fall River steam boat wharf. Tom got his pay Wednesday night and that night went to New York on the Fall River boat. His friend failed to meet him in the metropolis and after some hardships, including a day and night in the city with only a quarter left in his pocket, he returned to the captain of one of the Fall River boats for a passage home, telling his story in such a pitiful way that the captain consented and Saturday saw Tom back home in Upper Falls. It has since been learned that his friend tired of waiting for him and took passage for Fall River the same night Lee left for New York. The latter has New York enough for a time.

—The picnic ground of Messrs. Phipps & Traill is one of the most attractive resorts that could be set off for public recreation. The work is being pushed rapidly forward on the various buildings and work is in progress in the entrance foot bridge to be thrown across the river. A derrick is in place and the stone foundation being put down. The entrance to the grounds will be near what is known as the boarding house, where a covered walk will lead part way to the bridge. The boarding house is being remodeled and fixed up as a hotel for patrons of the grove and grounds. Crossing the bridge to the grounds a stairway leads up the rocks to the highest part of the ground. At one's feet nearly 30 feet below rolls the river, while on the other side, in the valley, the band pavilion, now being erected and farther to the right, the dance hall, 60 x 100 feet, not yet commenced, can be plainly seen. At the further end of the grove a foot path, leading to a landing beneath Echo Bridge, is being grooved. The grove is composed mainly of oak and birch trees with a picturesque sprinkling of hemlock and pine. The grounds are precipitous in places with deep ravines and great boulders scattered about, making one of the most attractive spots that could be desired for such a purpose.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Mrs. W. E. B. Ryder is improving and has been riding out.
—Mr. James W. Foster has been appointed a notary public.
—Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Garey of Eliot have returned after an absence of two weeks.
—The Chautauque Circle will meet next Monday at Mrs. J. F. C. Hyde's.
—Mr. Leonard Bacon, who has been sick in bed for two weeks, is not improving.
—Mrs. A. F. Hayward has been confined to the house for a few days past on account of illness.
—Mr. F. R. Moore has returned from Old Point Comfort improved in health, and is attending to business.
—J. R. Smith, Esq., is having a veranda built to house occupied by Mrs. Kendrick, on Lake avenue.
—We hear that the black snake that lost his life the other day while enjoying the sunshine, was full six feet in length.
—Mr. and Mrs. C. Peter Clark have returned from their trip to Chicago and visit to the World's Fair.

—Miss Gould, teacher in Hyde school, has a cellar staked out for a house on her land, near Tappan place.
—Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Crafts are at Mr. M. O. Rice's, Newton Centre, making a visit with Mrs. Crafts' sister, Miss Paul, during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Rice at the World's Fair.

—Mr. Horace Bacon has sold a lot of land on Elliot Heights, with some old buildings, to Mr. F. W. Gates of Upper Falls. Mr. Gates will remodel one of the buildings for a house and the other for a stable.

—Rev. Dr. Quint will have charge of the services at the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening.

—Home Lodge is having its hall re-furnished in fine style, and when completed will be the equal, if not superior to any other in this vicinity.
—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. True and child of Bowdoin street sailed for Europe on Saturday. They will make a visit to the former home of Mrs. True in England.

—M. E. services next Sunday in the hall at 10.45 and 7 o'clock. At the evening service the pastor will preach, "Lyons and Mr. Wiggins will assist in the music with his cornet."

—A temperance meeting will be held by the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society, Tuesday evening, at 7.30. Mrs. Barton of Boston will conduct the meeting. All cordially invited.

—The Unitarian Society will hold services in the Episcopal chapel next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. J. C. Jaynes of West Newton will preach. All are cordially invited to be present.

—Next Sunday being Whitsun-Day will be duly observed at St. Paul's church. Services will follow: Morning service, sermon and Holy Communion, 10.45 a. m.; Sunday school, 12.15 p. m.; evening prayer and address, 7 p. m. The rector will officiate and preach.

—At the next meeting of the Monday Club to be held with Miss Webster, Mrs. Kate Tryon of Cambridge will deliver her illustrated lecture on the Birds of New England. This lecture which has been given in Boston, Brookline, Wellesley, Newton and other places has won much popularity and is expected to give much satisfaction.

—Mr. C. B. Guild delivered a very enjoyable and instructive lecture before the Monday Club at their meeting this week. The lecture was in part a description of his personal experience during a recent visit to Venice, with pertinent allusions to the history, present condition, customs, manners and employments of the Venetians. The lecture was illustrated by maps and by many pictures personally selected by Mr. Guild during his visit. The audience was in imagination taken in a gondola up and down the Grand Canal and to the Lido. They visited St. Marks and the Santa Maria della Salute, the Museum of Fine Arts, the Palazzo connected with Desdemona and in which Browning lived, the Campanile, the Ducal Palace including the Piombi, the Rialto and the Piazza Mouth, and the room in which the Council of Ten held their meetings. Not by any means the least enjoyable part of this experience was the singing of Venetian songs which were interspersed during the lecture. These were rendered by the Misses Nickerson of Somerville, traveling companions of Mr. Guild. These ladies not only selected these songs during their visit, but so entered into the feeling of the Venetian that the audience were fairly transported by their songs to an experience of Venetian spirit and life.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. C. H. Spring lost a valuable horse last week by death.
—Wm Grant, of the firm of Miller & Grant, ice dealers, has withdrawn from the partnership.
—The Finley Paper Co. have started their works with full number of help after a short shut down, caused by the recent fire.
—Mr. C. H. Spring has a large force of men at work at Holliston this week loading telegraph poles on cars.
—Hose 6 was called out on a still alarm last week, Thursday afternoon, to extinguish a brush fire in woods on Concord street near the Weston line. The company worked until late in the evening before getting the blaze, which was a fierce one, wholly extinguished. A quantity of cord wood was consumed.

ATTITUDES FOR WOMEN.

THEY HAVE THEIR FASHIONS, LIKE HATS AND WRAPS.

(From the Washington Star.)

"Have you noticed the latest fad?" said a gay girl with laughing blue eyes this afternoon.

The man with whom she was talking followed the direction of her glance and saw a group of half a dozen fashionably dressed young women talking with a single naval officer, whom they had got all to themselves.

"You mean?"

"The attitudes, of course. Don't you see that every one of those girls is standing with her arms akimbo?"

"Why, so they are."

"Well, that is the very newest thing. In order to make the balloon sleeves look as big as possible the proper fashion is to put the hands on the hips. Observe the effect now when I do it!"

"I shouldn't think that was necessary."

"Oh, that is because you don't understand. Everything is necessary that is the fashion. It is even done at meals."

"I think I've observed it."

"Of course not. Men have no eyes. But when you go into dinner presently take notice and you will see that the accepted form is for a woman to hold her left arm akimbo, the hand on the hip, while she eats with her right hand. All the swiftest girls do it."

"You don't, I suppose?"

"I haven't adopted it at meals just yet, but I am trying to learn. You see, it is rather uncomfortable at first. But I dare say it comes easy after a while."

"I never heard of anything more absurd."

"Every new fashion is absurd until one gets used to it. I have been practising lately at standing with my arms akimbo. The first time mamma saw me do it she was startled. She called me to her and asked me if I was trying to look like a milkmaid."

"The attitude is certainly not a graceful one."

"That doesn't make the slightest difference so long as it is the accepted form."

The Tobacco Habit.

The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of Hill's Double Chloride of Gold Tablets, recommended as a sure cure for the tobacco habit, by taking away the longing for tobacco, and even rendering it distasteful.

Lane's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. It is really to be healthy this is necessary.

Real Estate Changes.

Henry W. Savage has made the following sales of real estate:
The estate formerly owned by Geo. Strong, on Vernon street, to W. M. Gregware of Cambridge, and the price is reported as not far from $27,000.
The six flat house on Maple street, owned by Jno. C. Rochford, to a Boston investor, for about $15,000.

In Newtonville, six large lots of land, nearly 100,000 feet altogether, have been sold for the syndicate now developing the property on Cabot street and adjoining the new park in that section, the principal buyers, S. O. Gray, J. C. Rochford and Mr. Buylan, will erect several handsome houses on plans of Rand & Taylor, architects. Two have already been commenced on Cabot street and Winchester Road. This section should become one of the most attractive in Newton. The prices of land vary from 15 to 20 cents per foot.

Another parcel of land on Norwood avenue, three building lots, containing some 25,000 feet, has been purchased by Samuel E. Shea of Taunton for improvement.

Henry W. Savage has a large list of houses to rent in all the Newtons, furnished and unfurnished.
Through H. W. Savage has also been sold the past week four lots of land aggregating nearly 48,000 feet, on Seaverns street, Auburndale, for Mrs. Hannah Sampson to E. Sprague, and the account of Chas. A. Wellington another of the pretty new houses on Warwick Road off Waltham street, West Newton, Mr. Gregware being the purchaser at $50,000. This is the third house on this street sold by Henry W. Savage this season.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Cooks Like

anything that makes cooking easy. Baking is made easy with Cleveland's

Baking Powder

It always works and works well. Helps the cook out wonderfully. Keeps food moist and fresh, too.

"Absolutely the Best."

Building Stone For Sale.

Stone suitable for foundations now lying on the Hill at West Newton all ready for laying.

BLANEY & ROBINSON,
510 Sears Building, Boston.

MINER ROBINSON,
Chestnut Street, West Newton.

Tel.: Boston 3311; West Newton 234.

Miss MARY E. THOMPSON,
graduate of
New York City Training School for Nurses,

is prepared to do medical, surgical and obstetric nursing. Residence, Hartford Street, Newton Highlands. Telephone 24.

REAL ESTATE
To Sell or Rent.

INSURANCE, MONEY TO LOAN.

Carriages ready to take customers to see property.

Newton Centre Office: Union Street, opposite Railroad Station.

Boston Office: 113 Devonshire St., Room 24.

SIDNEY P. CLARK, Newton Centre.

Dr. Elbridge C. Leach.
DENTIST.

422 COLUMBUS AVE., BOSTON.

The correcting of irregular teeth in children months a specialty.

Residence, Crystal St., Newton Centre. Will make appointments at residence after 6 p. m.

W. A. PARKS & CO.
—DEALERS IN—
Boots, Shoes and Rubbers.

All kinds of Repairing a Specialty.

Also Special Agents for

VICTOR and LOVELL DIAMOND.

Second-hand wheels taken in exchange. Complete line of Sundries on hand.

NEWTON CENTRE, MASS. 3m

WILLIAM E. DOYLE,
FLORIST.

No. 43 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

Conservatories: 1509 Cambridge St., Cambridge.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.,

Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

Fashionable Garments for Men.

You cannot afford to lose the opportunity of seeing our exclusive styles of fine Spring Woolens for Gentlemen's wear. Moderate prices prevail.

C. B. SOMERS, Tailor,

149 A Tremont St., cor. West St., BOSTON.

Newton Horse Shoeing Shop

DELANEY, LELAND & HEWITT,

Successors to

P. A. MURRAY,

Washington Street,

NEXT TO

Murray's Carriage Manufactory,

Having purchased the horse shoeing branch of the business formerly conducted by Mr. P. A. Murray, we desire to state that we have worked at his stand several years and established a first-class reputation and we therefore feel assured of a continuation of your patronage. The shop in which we will continue the business is fitted up exclusively for horse shoeing and we can guarantee to give better satisfaction than ever. Special attention will be given to over reaching, interfering and tender footed horses, and also gentlemen owning trotting horses, can have them shod in any of the various styles of weighted shoes desirable for track work.

BLANEY & ROBINSON,
510 Sears Building, Boston.

P. A. MURRAY,
Carriage Builder.

FOR REAL COMFORT IN RIDING

Use Rubber Tires.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGHS

WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

W. O. KNAPP & CO.

Are well equipped with

GARDEN TOOLS,

Steel Rakes, Hoes, Spades, Spading Forks, etc.

GARDEN SEED

of every kind, Grass Seed, Lawn Grass Seed, White Clover, etc. Lawn Mowers, Fertilizer for field and garden, Lawn Dressing, Tree Protectors and Wire Netting.

First Class Groceries,

Fresh Print Butter twice a week from creamery Maple Syrup, Lemons, Oranges, Esvp. Apples FLOUR—"Knapp's Favorite," "Bridal Veil," "Pillsbury's Best," Washburn's, etc., at Boston prices.

Station Street,

NEWTON CENTRE.

A. MACCONI & CO.,
Wholesale and Retail

Fruit Dealers.

Rear Noble's Drug Store, Pelham St., NEWTON CENTRE.

NUTS OF ALL KINDS.

Fruits of every description in their season. Orders by mail promptly attended to.

A. MACCONI & CO.

C. Caterino & Co.,
Wholesale and Retail dealers in

FIRST CHOICE FRUITS, AT BOSTON PRICES.

BEST INDIAN RIVER ORANGES, NUTS AND CONFECTIONERY, —ALSO—
CIGARS and TOBACCO.

Fruits of every description in their season. Farnham's Block, cor. Beacon & Centre Sts., NEWTON CENTRE.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXI.—NO. 34.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1893.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR

NEW AND EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS BRASS AND IRON BEDSTEDS.

Fine Bedding of Every Description.
The Furnishing of COUNTRY and SEASHORE HOUSES
A SPECIALTY.

We have the best facilities for remaking and renovating bedding of all kinds.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,
346 Boylston Street,
(Opposite Arlington Street.)
BOSTON, - - - MASS.
TELEPHONE—TREMONT 1019.

MINER ROBINSON,
ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton. 12 Pearl St., Room 27, BOSTON.
The fitting of private residences for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT
a specialty. High grade electrical work of every description. Agent for the
MATHER SYSTEM

Complete electric light and power installations. If your electrical gas lighting system is constantly giving trouble, have a

"ROBINSON" ELECTRICAL GAS LIGHTING SWITCH
Satisfaction guaranteed. Send for estimates.
Telephones, Boston, *3311; West Newton, 234.

Bicycle Repairing of Every Description.
Brazing, Enameling, Nickel-Plating, Etc.
WHEELS CHANGED FROM SOLID TO CUSHION OR PNEUMATIC.
Best cycle oil 25 cents per pint. Lawn Mowers cleaned and sharpened for $1.00. Called for and delivered for 25 cents extra.

HADDOW & BATCHELOR,
49 Galen Street, - - - Watertown, Mass.
Connected by Telephone.

HARRY BROOKS DAY,
TEACHER OF PIANO-FORTE
Organ, Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION
Elliot Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

JAMES PAXTON,
Manufacturing
Confectioner.

Cakes in Variety, Ices and Creams,
Fancy Ices, Frozen Pudding.

Pure Candies of our own Make.
CHOICE WEDDING CAKE.
FRED A. HUBBARD,
PHARMACIST
P. O. Block, - - - NEWTON.

SUNDAY CLOSING HOURS:
From 10:30 A. M. to 12 M.; 2 P. M. to 4 P. M.

Ornamental Trees,
Shrubs and Herbaceous Plants
FOR SALE.

A Large and Valuable Assortment at the NEWTON CEMETERY NURSERIES
HENRY ROSS, Supt.
Please Call and Examine Before Purchasing.

MISS CLARA E. WADE,
TEACHER OF PIANO FORTE,
Cypress St., Newton Centre.
6 28c

BRACKETT'S MARKET
COMPANY
Established 1851. incorporated 1892.
Telephone No. 16-3.

The Best
Meats, Poultry, Game, Cream, Butter, Eggs,
Fruits and Vegetables
AT THE LOWEST PRICES.
This Market intends to fill all orders as if the customer was present. Goods which are found to be of poor quality may be returned.
7 & 8 COLE'S BLOCK,
Washington near Centre Street.
NEWTON, MASS.

FOUND AT LAST!
Relief for aching feet. You can wear shoes a size smaller, with perfect

COMFORT.
HUDSON'S
FOOT-POWDER
Is a harmless antiseptic and deodorizer.

It can be applied with perfect safety.
By promoting a healthy action of the skin, it checks excessive perspiration and entirely removes the odor. As a chafing powder it is unequalled.

Prepared only by ARTHUR HUDSON,
Pharmacist,
Newton, - - - Mass.

Special Patterns

Electric Combination Gas Fixtures.

Our own Designs and Importations.
Artistic Goods at Reasonable Prices.

R. Hollings & Co.,
523-525 Washington Street,
Opposite R. H. White & Co.'s.

Wall Papers.

We are offering a handsome selection.
Fine Chamber Papers, 6c., 8c., and 12 1/2c.
Fine Dining Room Papers, 12 1/2c., 15c., and 20c.
Fine Parlor Papers, 15c., 20c., and 25c.

LARGEST VARIETY.
LOWEST PRICES.
Mail Order Dept. Samples for 3 two-cent stamps.

Window Shades.
Hand Made Tint Cloth, with fixtures and trimmings,
made and put up, 60c. each.
WARRANTED NOT TO FADE.
Store and Office Shades a Specialty.
Our Prices Are the Lowest.

Window Shades, ready to hang,
25c., 35c., 50c.

Chenille Portieres
At $3.10 Per Pr.
Drapery Poles and Trimmings.

Lace Curtains.
Swiss, Irish Point, Brussels.
A bargain in Irish Point Lace at $7.75
Art. Muslins, for seaside cottages, in great variety. A choice line at 7c. per yard.

J. A. GLASS & CO.,
119 Washington St.
BOSTON.

DRESSMAKING
Evening and Street Outcomes in Latest Designs.
Moderate Prices.
S. A. MERRITT, 33 PARSONS STREET,
NEWTONVILLE.
Waltham & Newton electric cars pass the street.

Physicians.
Clara D. Whitman-Keed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jewett Sts.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith.)
Office Hours: 10 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. P. Wesselhoef, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville 464.

J. FRANKLIN FULLER, Jr.,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor,
12 PEARL ST. BOSTON.
Rooms 24 and 25.
Surveys, Plans, and Estimates for the Improvement, Drainage, and Development of City
and Suburban Real Estate.
Residence Highland St. West Newton
Tel. 3-33-611

CREAM.
THE FAMOUS
Turner Centre Cream,
FOR SALE BY
C. P. ATKINS
Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

Shirts Made to Order
By E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 THORNTON STREET, - - - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.
Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands,
15c.; Collars, 25c.; Cuffs, 25c.; Centre
Plaids, 25c.
Badly fitting shirts made to fit well.

Newton and Watertown
Gas Light Company.
All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 28-4

NEWTON.

—Fine bedding plants at Irving's greenhouse, 161 Pearl street. Come and see. If Remember "Our Corner Market" when ordering fine dinners. If

—Rev. Francis B. Hornbrook has been re-elected president of the Boston Browning Society.

—Mr. Henry E. Cobb, Miss Lucy Cobb and Mr. Norton Cobb returned this week from their European trip.

—Mrs. J. L. Francis has bought an estate in Marblehead and removed there this week.

—Mrs. C. B. Prescott and family have returned from their prolonged visit to Europe.

—Mr. L. D. Whittemore, formerly in the jewelry business here, has removed from Allston to Stamford, Conn.

—Mr. John Merritt has been very ill with pneumonia, but is now reported to be improving.

—Mr. Walter Stearns and family left this week for their summer residence.

—Mr. J. L. Bailey has sold his estate on Huntwell Hill, to Mr. Conant of Newton Centre.

—Mr. Jesse C. Ivy has taken a house at Turro, on the Cape, for the summer, and moves down next month.

—Rev. T. W. Bishop of Abundantdale preached a most excellent sermon at the Methodist church last Sunday in exchange with Mr. Bronson.

—Rev. Dillon Bronson will address the Boys' meeting at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All boys under 16 years of age are cordially invited to be present.

—Mr. John Gilman of Baldwin street will leave here on a visit to the World's Fair about the middle of June.

—Residents of Nonantum have contributed funds which have been utilized for the purchase of a flag for the Eliot school.

—Mr. Leslie R. Moore of Hunnewell avenue leaves here for Chicago on a visit to the World's Fair next week.

—The men's meeting conducted by the Y. M. C. A. will be held on next Sunday afternoon by H. S. Dow, general secretary.

—The Y. M. C. A. Bicycle Club enjoyed a twenty-six mile run last Saturday afternoon, and has planned another run for next Saturday.

—Mr. Edward F. Barnes has negotiated a lease of the J. H. Wheelock house on Eldridge street, to Mr. Samuel M. Crosby of Grafton.

—Mr. Chas. M. Gay and family left this week for Boston, and will make their home at 222 Marlboro street. Mr. John A.
Gilman has leased their house on Franklin street for five years.

—Usual services at the Methodist church next Sunday. At 10:45 a. m. Rev. Mr.
Bronson will preach from the theme "How may we best honor our nation's brave defenders?" All strangers welcomed at all services.

—The three applicants who passed the civil service examination for a carrier at the Newton postoffice, were H. E. Chapin, W. J. Dunn and P. McGrath.

—J. H. Looker's French cleansing and laundry work has increased to such an extent that he has bought a team to call for and deliver goods.

—Mr. Levi B. Gay and family have returned to Newton from the Hotel Huntington, where they have been spending the winter.

In addition Mr. Heinrich Meyn will sing in the St. James' church an aria from "Hera Novissima," Horatio W. Parker's new work.

—A volume of the sermons of Rev.
Francis B. Hornbrook has just been added to the Public Library, under the title of "The New Testament and the Value of Life in Common" and other sermons.

—The second and last of the informal organ recitals announced by Mr. Goodrich will be given in Eliot church next Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to be present.

—The highway department has put Washington street in good order this week, from Nonantum square to Adams street, where the street roller has been at work every day, making a solid road bed.

—St. Agnes Society will have a sale in the Grace church parish house, Saturday afternoon from 3 to 9 for the benefit of needy and sick children. Ice cream, strawberries, home-made cake and candy will be
for sale.

—Mr. George Augustus Clouston, son of the former organist at Channing church, was married Wednesday evening at All Souls' church, Elm Hill, to Miss Cora Mabel Rowe, and a reception was held afterwards. Mr. and Mrs. Clouston will live at Oak Ridge, Abundantdale.

—Mr. George Bailey has the contract for Mr. John Whittier's new house on Hunnewell Hill, which was designed by Mr.
Wentworth. Work has begun upon it, and Mr. Whittier expects to take possession in the fall.

—Mrs. A. J. Ring of Avon place died very suddenly last Saturday from apoplexy.
The funeral services were held on Tuesday, Rev. Dillon Bronson officiating, and the interment was at Hampstead, N. H.

—Mr. Geo. E. Stuart, Mrs. P. A. Murray and Miss Josie Stuart have returned from their western trip, during which they travelled some 3400 miles, and visited the World's Fair at Chicago, Minneapolis, St.
Paul and Fort Dodge, Iowa.

—Charles Hean met with an accident at the Nonantum Worsteds mills Wednesday morning. His arm became entangled in a carding machine and was injured so badly that he was sent to the Newton Cottage Hospital where part of his hand was amputated by Dr. Winslow.

Misses Tower and Stevenson; yellow, Mrs.
George Barber and Mrs. J. E. Lawrence; lavender, Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. Brannan.

—The Claffin Guard, Co. C, 5th Regt., M. V. M., will partake of a collation in Armedy Hall, and there will be a spread in the drill hall for the High school boys following the Memorial Day parade.

—See adv. of horse wanted, safe for lady to drive.

—Messrs. Timothy Stuart & Son, the well known contractors, have done a very handsome job of grading in front of the Cottage Hospital, and have generously sent a receipted bill to the hospital trustees.

—Next Sunday evening, May 28, instead of the usual choral service, a special discourse will be given by Rev. James M.
Whitton, Ph. D., of New York, on "The art of living." All are cordially invited.

—At the Memorial service at Grace church, Sunday evening, the following music will be rendered:
Processional, Onward Christian Soldiers.
Magnificat, King Hall.
Nunc Dimittis, King Hall.
Anthem, Give Peace in Our Time. King Hall.
Recessional, The Son of God goes Forth to War. Elmhurst.

—Mr. Geo. W. Bush will put on a barge next Tuesday to run from the Newton station to Oak Square, leaving the station at 10 o'clock, and half hour, and connecting with the Oak Square electric. A handsome new barge, with seats for 25, has been secured; the running time will be from 7 to 11 a. m., and 2 to 8 p. m. If patronage sufficient is secured, the barge will be run during the summer, and it will be a great convenience to many people. A ten cent fare will be charged at first, but if enough ride to make it pay, the fare will be reduced to five cents.

—A meeting of the local committee of the Associated Charities of Newton and Watertown was held in the selectmen's rooms, Watertown, Monday evening, to discuss the New England conference of Associated Charities to be held in Newton, June 24 and 25. Hiram McLaughlin, general secretary of the Watertown Associated Charities, is chairman of the committee, and Mrs. Mary R. Martin, secretary of the Newton association, is secretary of the conference. The conference will probably be held in the Channing church, Newton.

There was a large attendance from Newton at the meeting, and among the guests was Miss Smith, general secretary of the Boston Associated Charities.

—The Grace church choir will take part in the third section of the Choir Guild Festival, which will be held at Emmanuel church, Boston, June 8th. The program for each section will be the same, the selections being as follows:

Processional, "Forward Be Our Watchword." Gadsby Choral Evensong, Tallis & Co.
The Psalm, Medley
Magnificat, in E flat, Hall
Nunc Dimittis, in E flat, Hall Hymn, "The Son of God goes forth to War." Hall
Anthem, "To Thee do I lift up my Soul." Hall Anthem, "Awake, Awake, put on Thy Stainer
Anthem, "Arise, O Jerusalem." King
Anthem, "Lord, for Thy Tender Mercies" Farrant
Anthem, "It Came Even to Pass," Onseley
Te Deum, in E flat, Stainer Retrospection, "Go Forward, Christian Soldiers." Smart

—Evangelist John M. Dick of Boston delivered an address in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Sunday afternoon, speaking especially to boys, of which the audience was entirely composed. His subject was: "A Duel with the Devil." "Win, Win, Win." The speaker alluded to the many temptations of the devil, and of the necessity of courage in making a decision for the Christian life.
What the boys need, he said, is sand to stand firm for the right. The Christian life, he added, is worth a great deal to boys, it is the only safe guide for the future. The nobility of boyhood is in the nobility of the Christian boy. There is need to emphasize the desirability of loyalty to the Christian life. Loyalty is a grand principle. Be loyal to your own convictions through life, do your duty and you will win the fight. Above all, said the speaker, remember, save yourselves. Make your decision now for Christ.

—A. W. Porter of this city won the great bicycle race for the Lincoln diamond, and for the world's record. There were twelve entrants G. L. Gay, J. P. Clark, E. J. Clark, W. G. French, E. H. Snow, E. J. McDuffee, E. G. Merrill, R. M. Muzzey, E. H. Pratt,
A. W. Porter and A. F. Wisner. The men were bunched nearly all the way. About six miles out French was ahead, closely followed by Quinn, Pratt and the others.
At the turn French, Clark and Pratt were leading and they kept in this order until near the finish. Coming down over the hill on the home stretch, Porter made a brilliant start and came over the tape a few feet ahead of French, but two-fifths of a second behind. The time was 18.18.45, just 1m. 35s. behind the world's record for 25 miles. The time for the first three is as follows: A. W. Porter, Waltham Cycle Club, 18m. 45s.; W. G. French, French
Cycle Club, 1h. 18m. 45s. 2.5s.; G. E. Quinn, 1m. 18m. 46s. The rest were only a few seconds behind these.

—The annual May festival of the Channing Unitarian Society was held in Armory Hall last Saturday, the afternoon being devoted to the children's exercises and the later hours for the adults, who enjoyed the usual terpsichorean features, dancing lasting from 8 until 11 o'clock. In the afternoon there was a May pole dance, Hope Mudze, a pretty and charming miss, was the May Queen. Besides this feature there was a newsworthy dance, (from "1892"), solo dance by Louise Brackett and May Crowell, and a flower dance in which the children participated. Misses Cox, French, Mon-Mandell, Hill, Ford, Robinson, Shepard, Slack, Brown, Pain, Leavitt, Grigg, Currier, Childs, Fields, Walton, Bailey, Hunt, Barrows, Moore and Bacon. The newsworthy comprised Master Hill, Bailey, Poole, Mar, Pike and Burnham. The committee of arrangements comprised Mrs.
North, Mrs. Huff, Mrs. Loveland and Mrs.
Bailey. Miss Whitton had charge of the flower table and the supper arrangements were supervised by Mrs. Bailey.

NEWTON CLUB BOWLERS.
TEAM THREE WINS THE TOURNAMENT
WITH 10 VICTORIES AND ONE DEFEAT.
The final match in the Newton club bowling tournament was played last evening between teams 3 and 18. The former won the game and first prize. Its record for the season is 10 games won and 1 lost. The score of last night's game is appended:

Bowlers.	TEAM THREE.			Total
	First	Second	Third
Brown	164	183	147	494
West	147	148	184	479
Langdon	144	145	165	454
Baker	127	155	166	448
Benyon	143	140	131	414
Team total	725	731	791	2247
TEAM EIGHTEEN.
Plummer	182	183	171	536
Raymond	168	158	159	485
Felton	159	162	140	461
Paine	118	147	151	416
Spiggle	110	110	100	320
Team total	738	660	721	2119

Benyon leads the fifth-class men. He knocked down 715 pins, an average for the tourney of 147. He led his nearest competitor nearly 800 pins.

MEMORIAL DAY.

PROGRAM OF EXERCISES BY CHARLES
WARD POST.

The following general orders for Memorial Day have been issued by Charles
Ward Post:

Chas. Ward Post No. 62, G. A. R. }
Headquarters Chief Marshal. }
Newtonville, May 22nd, 1893.

General Order No. 1.
Par. 1. Having been appointed Chief Marshal for the Memorial Day Exercises, May 30th, 1893, I hereby assume the duties pertaining to that office.

Par. 2. The following named gentlemen I hereby appoint on my staff. They will be obeyed and respected accordingly. To be Chief of Staff, Col. I. F. Kingsbury; Adj. Gen., Lieut. Col. Alexander
M. Ferris; Asst. Adj. Gen., Maj. Geo. H.
Benyon.
Aids: Winfield S. Slocum, Lieut. Robt.
B. Edes, Lieut. Walter H. Stearns,
Lieut. Frank H. Mudze, John W. Weeks,
A. S. Kimball, Elliott J. Hyde.
Geo. W. Morse,
Chief Marshal.

Official:
ALEXANDER M. FERRIS,
Adj. Gen.

Chas. Ward Post No. 62, G. A. R. }
Headquarters Chief Marshal. }
Newtonville, May 22nd, 1893.

General Order No. 2.
Par. 1. The commanders of organizations who are to participate in the Memorial Day Parade, with Charles Ward Post No. 62, G. A. R. Tuesday, May 30th, will report to Col. I. F. Kingsbury, Chief of Staff, at 1:30 p. m. in Newtonville square and be assigned to their positions in line.

Par. 2. The line will be formed on Central avenue right resting on Washington street, and will move promptly at 2
p. m. over the following route: Walnut street to Newton Cemetery, where the graves of deceased soldiers and sailors will be decorated. The column will then reform and move through Walnut, Homer, Valentine, Highland, Temple, Putnam, Margin, Washington, Watertown streets, to open ground corner Watertown and Walnut streets, where parade will be held, after which the several commands will be dismissed. By command of GEORGE W. MORSE,
Chief Marshal.

Official:
ALEXANDER M. FERRIS,
Adj. Gen.

EXERCISES OF THE DAY.
The general order of the day, issued by Commander G. W. Morse, given the following details of Memorial Day exercises.

MORNING EXERCISES.
Comrades resident of Newton, Wards 1 and 7, are detailed to decorate the graves in Centre Street Cemetery, and will report to O. G., John Flood, at Newton Depot, 8
a. m.

Comrades resident of West Newton are detailed to decorate the graves in Cemetery at West Newton, and will report to O. D., S. A. Langley, at City Hall, 8 a. m.

Comrades resident of Newton Centre, Highlands and Upper Falls, are detailed to decorate graves in Cemeteries at Highlands and Upper Falls, and will report to Surgeon Benjamin Hopkins, at Evergreen Cemetry, Highlands, 8:30 a. m.

The J. Wiley Edmunds Camp 100, S. of V., is detailed to decorate the graves of J.
Wiley and J. C. Edmunds and Comrade
Geo. F. Hitchings, at Mount Auburn.

Comrades will report to commander at headquarters, 11:45 a. m. sharp.

Dinner called at 12 noon precisely.

The commander wishes to impress upon all the absolute necessity of conforming to time as indicated.

AFTERNOON EXERCISES.
Procession will form at 1:30 p. m., and column moves at 2 o'clock, sharp, in following order:—

Police.
Chief Marshal, Comrade Geo. W. Morse.
Chief of Staff, Comrade Isaac F. Kingsbury.
Adjutant-General, Comrade A. M. Ferris.
Asst. Adjutant-General, Major Geo. H. Benyon.

Aids.
St. John's Cadets' Band.
Chas. Ward Post No. 62, G. A. R., Com. E. G. Pratt.
J. Wiley Edmunds Camp, Capt. J. L. Sears, Jr.
St. John's Cadets, Capt. James H. McVillier.
High School Battalion, Major H. E. Page, Com.
Mayor and City Government.

The following sailor comrades are detailed as a guard representing the navy:
Comrades S. E. Shattuck, J. Pickens, T.
Pickthall, W. H. Ayres, W. H. Cunningham.

Guard representing the Army: Comrades
O. W. Gray, O. C. Jones, A. Libby, Geo.
H. Osborne, C. A. Twitchell.

O. G., John Flood, commanding.
O. D., S. A. Langley will have entire charge of the barges en route.

Comrade F. H. Hunting will have charge of the flower wagon.

A committee from Tent No. 2, D. of V., consisting of Miss Emma E. Stearns,
Miss Grace E. Owens and Miss Sibyl H.
Spaulding, will have charge of the arrangement of flowers at headquarters Memorial Day morning.

Old soldiers and sailors not members of the G. A. R. are cordially invited to participate in the exercises of the day.

Comrades of Charles Ward Post will address the various schools on Monday, May 29th, at the different school houses.

Memorial services will be held on Sunday morning at the Methodist church, Newton Centre, and Congregational church, Newton Highlands, and evening services at Grace church, Newton.

Charles Ward Post, 62, G. A. R.
Contributions of flowers are solicited for use on Memorial Day and may be left at the following places:

Newton, Hubbard's drug store.
Newtonville, Payne's drug store.
West Newton, Ingraham's drug store.
Abundantdale, Vickor's store.
Lower Falls, Freeman's drug store.
Upper Falls, Billings' drug store.
Highlands, Moulton's store.
Newton Centre, Noble's drug store.

Flowers must be left prior to 10 o'clock
a. m., May 30th.

Per order committee.

10,000 Pansies
now ready at Mansfield's finest shades and old colors a specialty. P. O. Box 111, Crafts street, Newtonville. 23 ct.

The New Mail
is on exhibition at Barber Brothers, who have the agency for Newton, and have samples of various styles. Call and get a catalogue. If

CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE ORDER APPROPRIATING MONEY FOR THE PURCHASE OF THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL LOT PASSED WITH AN AMENDMENT, BY THE LOWER BRANCH.

The meeting of the common council, Monday evening, was attended by all the members, Councilman Ross being detained until late in the evening, and President Weed presided.

At 7.45 hearings were opened on taking land for sewers in various streets. No remonstrants appeared and the hearings were closed.

Papers from the board of aldermen were submitted and passed in concurrence, the budget being unusually long. The only question raised was on the order to pass to be enrolled a new ordinance relating to the board of health.

The new ordinance in brief provides for a board of health to "consist of three members, appointed by the mayor and aldermen, all residents of the city of Newton and one at least a regular practicing physician." The other five sections relate in detail what is required of the board in the disposition of its accounts and giving it power "subject to the authority of the mayor" to execute and make contracts, etc.

Councilman Degen wanted to know more about the contemplated change before voting.

Councilman Staples asked if the ordinance had been drafted by the board of health.

Councilman Green said it was drafted by the ordinance committee and then submitted to the city solicitor and from his suggestions a second draft was prepared.

Councilman Staples thought there was a good deal left out that ought to be included in the ordinance. No provision was made for representation from the city council, which he looked upon as a serious omission and did not believe it was in accord with the city charter.

Another objection to the ordinance in its present form was the power given the mayor to appoint its members without interference from the city council. Then nothing was said as to the time members should hold office. He moved to table the order. He was a member of the board of health, but was perfectly willing to be relieved.

Councilman Tolman asked Mr. Staples if, as a member of the board, it was necessary for him to be there.

Councilman Staples reiterated his former statement, that the city council should have some representation.

Councilman Green said the ordinance was almost identically the same as that in use by Fall River, Chicopee and a half dozen other cities in Massachusetts. He moved an amendment that "No member of the city council should be eligible for appointment," but Councilman Staples renewed his motion to table and it was so voted.

The extra appropriation of $1900 for the board of health was next taken up on Councilman Bennett's request.

Councilman Staples said the increase in the gathering and disposal of garbage was the cause, and this year's contract included the gathering of garbage and house offal at Nonantum where nothing has before been done. The order passed.

The $3000 awarded to E. C. Dudley and E. A. Shaw for land taken in widening Beacon street, caused another discussion. Councilman Parker said the matter had not come before the highway committee.

Councilman Knapp explained the matter, saying the land was taken under the betterment act, and the price asked for the city for the land was 35 cents per foot. The matter had lain until the time had nearly expired, but within a few days those parties had been visited, and a compromise effected at about 20 cents a foot or $3000. Passed.

Petitions were received and referred, from Geo. E. Crassey for price asking out of Fountain street as a public way; John Greenwood, Jr., attorney, for sewer in Temple street; James P. Foster for fire alarm station, corner Chester and Forest streets; Joseph Byers for concrete walk on the east side of Lowell street across Foster place.

Councilman Parker for the ordinance committee reported the highway ordinance well and timely enrolled and moved its passage to be ordained. The report was accepted and the ordinance passed to be ordained.

Councilman Knapp submitted a resolution calling attention to the danger of the railroad crossing near Concord street which is insufficiently guarded and requesting the mayor and aldermen to take such action as allowed by the statutes to secure greater safety. Passed.

Councilman Knapp of the highway committee reported giving certain petitions leave to withdraw. Accepted.

Councilman Degen wished to have the list read, which was done by the clerk.

Councilman Hatch moved to take from the table the order for purchasing the Claffin land for the High school.

Councilman Knapp seconded the motion and stated further that he was heartily in favor of the passage of the order with an amendment, which was to be submitted, although he had opposed the order heretofore.

The order was then taken from the table and Councilman Hatch submitted an amendment to be inserted in the order as a provision, that "said Wm Claffin contract for and convey to the city of Newton a street from Elm road to Walnut street 40 feet in width on the northerly line of the land purchased by the city."

The object of the amendment is to place a street between the city land and any houses that may be erected in that vicinity.

The amendment was adopted.

Councilman Turner saw no reason for changing his opinion about the order. The additional land thus gained by the High school he thought, would allow additions to be made which would defeat the erection of a High school on the south side of the city. He moved the order to specify distinctly that the land should not be used for building purposes before he could consistently favor it.

Councilman Degen said his position was the same as that taken by Mr. Turner.

Councilman Green thought that argument rather unreasonable in view of the fact that the land now being considered would add only about 30 feet to the south side of the High school lot when there was already land enough on the north side to build another High school of the same size. Naturally any additions would be made where there was the most available land.

A recess was then taken to look at the plan, which City Engineer Noyes exhibited by request.

After reassembling the order and amendment was submitted to vote and passed, Councilman Degen, Parker, Turner, and Staples voting nay.

An order was submitted by Councilman Staples, from the water board authorizing the laying of 2201 feet of water pipe in Cabot, Cherry, Crafts, Cushing, Woodbine streets and Essex road, at a cost of $2574. Passed. Adjourned.

TAKE AN INTEREST IN POLITICS.

REPUBLICAN CLUB SENDS A LETTER TO EACH OF ITS MEMBERS.

The following letter has been sent to all the members of the Republican Club of Massachusetts:

"Dear Sir: The Republican Club of Massachusetts respectfully and anxiously calls your attention, and the attention of all the Republicans, to the necessity of personal interest in political affairs.

"To give thought to matters of public concern and to attend his party caucuses are among the first duties of every citizen. Therefore, in order that the nominees of the Republican party may represent beyond all question, the intelligent thought of their party and be the well considered choice of the voters, we ask you to attend your party caucuses and to select as delegates to conventions your ablest and most respected citizens.

"If primaries and caucuses are largely attended—if a general and widespread interest in public affairs is manifested—the delegates chosen to the conventions will deem it no slight honor thus to represent the people, and, with a deep sense of their responsibility, will not only attend the conventions in person, but will give careful consideration to the duties of their trust, and will neither transfer their credentials nor carelessly pledge their support to the first applicant for office. If this is done, then, in a state notable for the character and intelligence of its people, it is certain that the nominees of the conventions will be men of ability, men of character, men of honor. Nominated in this way, the candidates will go before the people untrammelled by personal pledges, and under no obligation to political cliques. Thus nominated by the people, they will receive the support of the people.

"This is the first practical step toward purity in politics. The responsibility for the character of their nominees rests with the people. They have it in their own hands to determine what and who their standard bearers shall be.

"It is too often the case that delegates to conventions are selected beforehand by town committees in the interest of certain candidates, or that men seek to be delegates in order to transfer their credentials to friends for personal reasons, heedless of public sentiment, or that delegates to conventions, flattered at being personally solicited, lightly promise their support to the first applicant without considering the qualifications of all the candidates. Thus, through the carelessness or inattention of the voters themselves, unfit or unpopular nominations may be forced upon a party to its injury, if not always to its defeat.

"The remedy is with the people. If they will attend their caucuses and select their delegates for themselves, after manipulation will be impossible. Moreover, the city and town committees are chosen at the caucuses. These committees are, as it were, the fingers of the party organization. If the fingers are helpless, the hand cannot do good work. These committees should never be the resting places for useless political trimmings, but should be the honorable instruments of honest political conduct.

"We, therefore, request you for the good of the party and the ultimate triumph of its principles, to so constitute your local committees that they shall consist of your wisest advisors and your most active and patriotic men. By taking part in your caucuses, and thus attending to your first duty as citizens, you will also do much to insure the triumph of your principles and the election of your candidates at the polls, for there are many in this commonwealth who are at present but little bound by party ties in state affairs, and who will vote only for candidates whom they know to be of high character and without reproach, and who, having been nominated by the people, are in touch with them and have no promises to redeem to individuals for political service.

JOHN SIMPKINS, President.
FRANCIS H. APPLETON, Secretary.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE LEAGUE.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOCIETY AT WEST NEWTON.

The annual meeting of the Newton Woman Suffrage League was held Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. George A. Walton, Chestnut street, West Newton.

There was a large attendance and a very interesting program of exercises. The reports of officers were first presented, outlining some plans in the interests of the cause for the coming year. Then followed a conference to discuss the best methods of increasing public sentiment in favor of equal suffrage. These officers were elected:

Mr. Edwin F. Kimball, president; Mrs. E. N. L. Walton, Mr. N. T. Allen, Mrs. J. P. Tolman, vice presidents; Mrs. Richard Anders, secretary; Mr. S. R. Urbino, treasurer; Mrs. Charles D. Travis, Mrs. Kate Mead, Mrs. G. H. Brown, Mrs. B. L. White, Mrs. J. M. Hastings, Mrs. G. D. Gilman, Mrs. George Crosby, Mrs. Joseph Newhall, Mrs. T. E. Stutson, Mrs. S. E. Howard, directors.

An address was delivered by Rev. Lorenza Haynes of Waltham. She spoke of some of the objections urged in opposition to equal suffrage. It is said that women do not want to vote, that is, the majority of women. Don't believe that statement, said the speaker. Give the women a chance who declare that they do not want to vote and see if they are not first in the ballot box. The faithful workers in the cause will stand back and give them a chance to vote early. They will see that they do not vote often in the same election. The idea that a woman would lower herself by exercising the right of the ballot is ridiculous. It is surely lamentable if the condition of politics is so bad that a woman to vote or legislate would destroy her womanliness. It is time, indeed, to regenerate politics, to introduce some new element to purify them. If they are so infectious of evil they need the elevating influence of woman more even than she needs the ballot. We believe that women would raise the character of the whole political machinery, instead of its degrading her.

At the close of Rev. Lorenza Haynes' address, remarks were made relative to the cause and its future by ex Senator Graham D. Gilman, Miss Miles of Boston, Mrs. C. D. Davis, Mr. Nathaniel T. Allen and others. Following the speech making, social features were enjoyed. An excellent collation was served.

A recess was then taken to look at the plan, which City Engineer Noyes exhibited by request.

After reassembling the order and amendment was submitted to vote and passed, Councilman Degen, Parker, Turner, and Staples voting nay.

THE NEWTON CEMETERY.

ITS ATTRACTIVENESS INCREASED EVERY YEAR UNDER WISE MANAGEMENT.

The Newton and Boston electric cars have made it easy for people to visit the Newton cemetery, and certainly no more beautiful spot can be found in the vicinity of Boston. The natural advantages have been made the most of under the wise management of the board of trustees, and the superintendent, Mr. Henry Ross, and new beauties greet the eyes of visitors every season.

The warm weather has enabled the cemetery officials to make their spring planting of foliage and flowering plants before Memorial day, this year, and a visit there this week found a large force of men busily at work. The cemetery possesses one great advantage over most others, in having a never failing stream of water flowing through it, and this has been utilized in the making of a chain of miniature lakes, which greet the eye soon after passing the entrance gate, and fine driveways and rustic stone bridges enable the visitor to drive around them and admire the beauty of the banks, which are lined with evergreens and other shrubs, aquatic plants, and grass plots, and see the mimic water falls, dashing over their rocky beds, which connect the upper and lower lakes. The past year a new rustic stone bridge has been built on Fairview avenue, above the upper lake, and it is the intention to build another avenue winding along the brook, through the wild land to the upper part of the cemetery. This is already wooded, and it will be left as far as possible in its natural condition.

Between two of the lakes a square has been arranged, filled with forest trees and shrubbery, which has been called Edmonds square, in honor of the late J. Wiley Edmonds, who was one of the first to help the cemetery project, by a liberal subscription for lots, which his family afterwards gave to the cemetery.

A new feature this year is the setting out of a great number of perennial flowering plants, which will not have to be renewed every year, and which make fully as beautiful a display as the annuals. The beds of tulips are now in full flower and present a gorgeous picture with their brilliant colors, and the pansy beds are also very attractive.

At the conservatory the special attraction just now are the orchids, some rare specimens being in full flower, and are worth going a long distance to see. The Farlow Memorial chapel is being repainted inside, and the woodwork outside, and with one side opening into the conservatory, it is a beautiful place for the holding of burial services.

A number of large monuments have been erected the past year, in memory of the late Charles Robinson, in memory of Geo. Hyde, another of what lot of E. B. Wilson, and another on the Colburn and Crafts lots, the latter being of very attractive design.

The cemetery grounds are in their usual well kept condition, the perpetual care fund seeming to be wisely expended. A large number of the graves are being set off with marble, for which a fee of $10 is charged, and with a covering of leaves it has so far wintered in good condition.

The low land recently purchased on the north side of the cemetery is now being ploughed up and drained, and will be set out to nursery stock, for which the rich soil is well fitted.

The nurseries belonging to the cemetery are in finer condition this year than ever, and are well filled with the trees and shrubs desirable to decorate our streets and lawns. Some of the owners of new houses in Newton give Mr. Ross a general order to supply them with everything needed to decorate their grounds, and when the owner is a busy man of business this is a very convenient method, and owing to Mr. Ross's long experience it is always a satisfactory method. The sales of nursery stock make an important part of the cemetery's revenues, and it is always best to get trees and shrubs that are acclimated, than to order them from a distance.

One of the larger greenhouses has been rebuilt the past year, and so many flowers are needed for the cemetery that it was at first the intention this year not to sell any greenhouse plants, but when an inventory was taken there were many more plants than could be used, that the sign that had been painted was laid away for another year, and greenhouse plants will be sold the same as usual.

Newton people have reason to feel proud of their cemetery, and while it is not as large as Mt. Auburn or Forest Hills, and has not the age of either, yet for natural beauty, for skillful landscape gardening, and for the careful manner in which every portion is looked after, it is not inferior to either of those noted cemeteries.

HAD TO LET IT BURN.

FIREMEN COULD NOT SAVE KELLY'S GLUE FACTORY AT WELLESLEY.

The glue manufacturing plant of Hugh Kelly, comprising three wooden buildings, located off Worcester street, Wellesley, near the Newton line, was destroyed by fire last Saturday evening.

The only available source of water supply was a pond near by, but that was useless, as the Wellesley department has no steamer.

A hose company from Needham was the first on the ground, and its members laid 500 feet of hose and waited, but no steamer put in an appearance, and within an hour after the fire was discovered the three wooden structures were burned to the ground.

The fire started in factory No. 1. It is thought that it was set, as the works have not been in operation for a week.

A large stock of glue, estimated at 15 tons, was destroyed.

The total value of the buildings, stock and machinery was about $10,000. The loss will be between $5000 and $6000. There was only a small insurance.

Mr. Kelly will not rebuild in Wellesley, owing to the lack there of what he considers sufficient fire apparatus.

Shed's glue factory, in the rear of Kelly's, caught from sparks, but was saved by a bucket brigade.

Found Dead.

Last evening a person giving the name of G. R. Thompson registered at Hunt's Hotel, and desired to be called in season to take the 12 p. m. train for Chicago. Being unable to awaken him, the room was entered by means of the ventilator over the door, when the gentleman was found to be dead. He was advertising agent for Sulphur Bitters, which has an extensive sale. The coroner returned a verdict of death from heart disease. His body will be sent east immediately.—Cin. Commercial.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, ss.
LUCAS COUNTY.
FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY.
Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1888.

SEAL.
A. W. GLEASON,
Notary Public.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.

It is very probable that some comma-shaped microbes may be found in the United States this year. The comma-shaped fellows mean cholera. The surest preventive of cholera is cleanliness. House cleaning this year should be most thoroughly done, and we suggest to the good housewife that a coat of Chilton Paint for inside work will not only beautify the home, but will kill any stray comma-shaped microbe that by any misfortune may find its way into the house. We suppose that almost any kind of paint would kill cholera microbes and perhaps if that were the only object in painting, some of the cheap paints that contain benzine in such liberal quantities would be as good, but we think that while you are using paint as a preventive of cholera, it is well to use the Chilton, not because it will kill more microbes than any other paint, but because it will last longer, keep brighter, and look better than any paint you can use. Get a pound can and see for yourself. "Chilton Paint Co., New York and Boston."

PURE - MILK

supplied daily from

PROSPECT VALLEY FARM

One Cow's Milk supplied where desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,

WALTHAM, MASS.

Lock Box, 192.

Are you coming to the Seashore?

Come to Wessagussett. The most delightful resort accessible to the towns of Eastern Massachusetts. On the south shore of Boston Bay, 9 miles from Boston, at the mouth of Weymouth Fore River. Beautifully located; reached by steamer from Boston, by Old Colony to North Weymouth, by Electric Road from Quincy. Deep water at all stages of the tide. No mud flats. Cottages and a new Hotel under way.

We run a steamer at 1 o'clock every day to Wessagussett. Come to Boston and make the trip with us. It's free and a pleasant excursion. Lots at Wessagussett are sold on easy payments—$25 down, balance by week or month. Discount for cash.

S. D. HANNAH & CO., 109 Ames Building, Boston.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

WHITE'S NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COM'Y.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal.

SIMON A. WHITE.

P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street

Buy Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 60 cts.

HILL'S REMEMBER WE GUARANTEE A CURE and invite the most careful investigation as to our responsibility and the merits of our Tablets.

Double Chloride of Gold Tablets
Will completely destroy the desire for TOBACCO in from 3 to 5 days. Perfectly harmless; cures no sickness, and may be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the patient, who will voluntarily stop smoking or chewing in a few days.

DRUNKENNESS and MORPHINE HABIT can be cured at home, and without any effort on the part of the patient, by the use of our SPECIAL FORMULA GOLD CURE TABLETS. During treatment patients are allowed the free use of Liquor or Morphine until such time as they shall voluntarily give them up. We send particulars and pamphlet of testimonials free, and shall be glad to place sufferers from any of these habits in communication with persons who have been cured by the use of our TABLETS.

HILL'S TABLETS are for sale by all FIRST-CLASS druggists at $1.00 per package. If your druggist does not keep them, enclose us $1.00 and we will send you, by return mail, a package of our Tablets.

Write your name and address plainly, and state whether Tablets are for Tobacco, Morphine or Liquor Habit.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED into purchasing any of the various nostrums that are being offered for sale. Ask for HILL'S TABLETS and take no other.

Manufactured only by
—THE—
OHIO CHEMICAL CO., 51, 53 & 55 Opera Block,
LIMA, OHIO.

PARTICULARS FREE.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN:—It gives me pleasure to speak a word of praise for your Tablets. My son was strongly addicted to the use of liquor, and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was a heavy and constant drinker, but after using your Tablets but three days he quit drinking and will not touch liquor of any kind. I have waited four months before writing you, in order to know the cure was permanent. Yours truly
MRS. HELEN MORRISON,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.

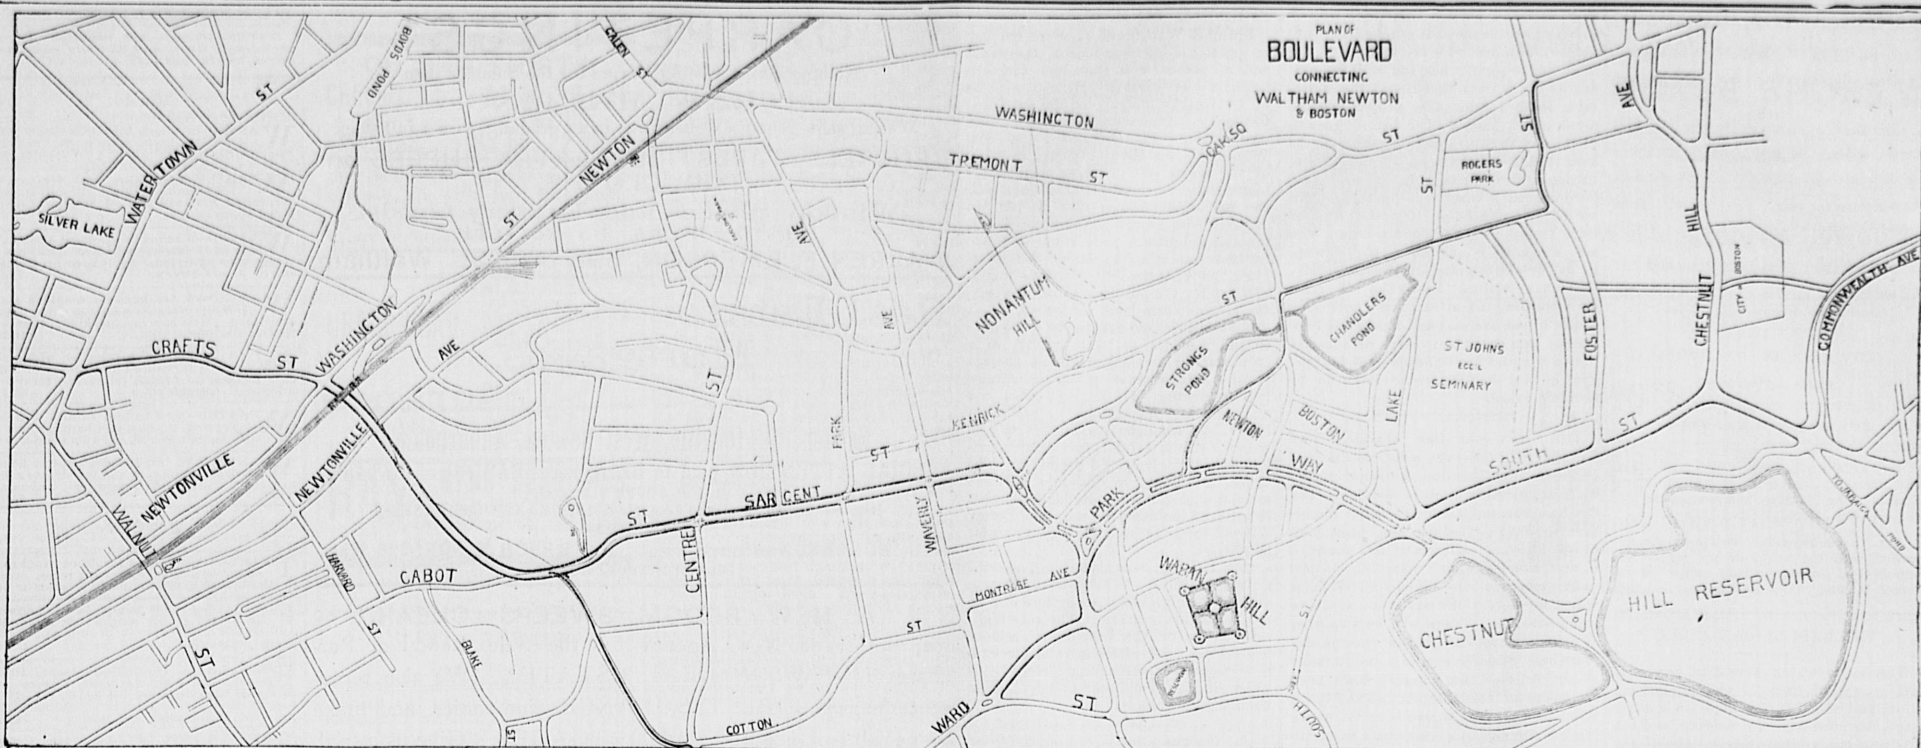

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.—GENTLEMEN:—Your Tablets have performed a miracle in my case. I have used morphine, hypodermically, for seven years, and have been cured by the use of two packages of your Tablets, and without any effort on my part.
W. L. LUTEGAY.

Address all Orders to
THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.,
51, 53 and 55 Opera Block, LIMA, OHIO.

RESPONSIBLE AGENTS WANTED
(In writing please mention this paper.)

HAVE YOU SEEN AROUND THE HUB THE QUESTION BOX THE BOSTON HERALD EVERY EVENING?

Suburban news treated as it should be. New features. Ladies' column. Answers to Queries. Everything of interest to suburban readers collected together and printed Every Evening.

Boston-Newton-Waltham Boulevard.

To the Editor of the Graphic:
A few years ago a gentleman who resides in Newtonville requested me to look through Newton with a view to a possible railroad connected with Boston, and directed me to take the Oak Square car, where at Lake and Kenrick streets I would strike the Garden City at its most central point.

So one bright morning in June I found myself leisurely walking up Kenrick street enjoying the hope inspiring atmosphere, not particularly interested in my surroundings until I reached a point opposite Magnolia avenue.

Then as the valley with its lakes nestled at the foot of this amphitheatre of hills opened on my vision, I became impressed with the rare beauty of the situation.

A little way down the roadway I perceived what appeared to be a memorial monument of some kind, a natural curiosity induced me to inspect it, to my surprise I found that I had stumbled on the historic spot where the apostle Eliot first preached to the Indians in front of Waban's wigwam.

A most fitting place to dispense the gospel of peace, a temple formed by God's own land.

This valley which lies at the vestibule of your fair city I have shown as the initial point of the system of parkways and connecting boulevards, which I present for the inspection of the citizens of Newton, Boston and Waltham.

If the reader will assume himself standing at the memorial, facing the junction of Kenrick with Lake streets, he will observe that the plan contemplates absorbing the lakes into a system of parks of which Rogers Park (which is to be much larger) is one, and a park on Chestnut Hill avenue (marked city of Boston) is another, the whole to be connected by the extension of Kenrick street and other roadways which continue to Commonwealth avenue.

Turning to the right a parkway 135 feet wide extends to the junction of Lake with South street in Boston. A connection is also shown with the reservoir's driveways; a heavy black line running north between the lakes and through Kenrick and Foster streets is a proposed line for electric cars; it has been determined to build this line in any event.

South street in Boston, by this plan, is to be 100 feet in width and will also connect with a boulevard through the reservoir grounds with Jamaica Pond, the grades as shown at South and Lake streets, at the ventilator, the monument and along the route show the avenue to be practicable; the broad avenue which leads to Waverley avenue near Ward street which is designed to connect Newton Centre with this parkway is an easy slope. The other driveways on the plan are suited to the topography of the land and propose the harmonious development of a superb natural situation.

Facing towards Newtonville we pass through the estates of Kenrick and Wm. H. Blackett, taking a portion from the lots which bound Sargent street we pass through and absorb Sargent and pass through and absorb a section of Cabot street until we pass the estate of Geo. C.

Lord, when we deflect to the right and pass into the low lands under the railroad to Washington street opposite Crafts street, which street it is proposed to widen and connect with direct roadways with Waltham. This boulevard will connect west with West Newton and Auburndale via Washington and other streets by easy grades, and will connect east via Washington and Gaten streets with Newton, Watertown and Cambridge.

I will not insult the intelligence of my reader by arguing as to the directness, centrality or feasibility of this system, neither will I presume to suggest to so intelligent a person as the city engineer how this might connect with Bulloughs Pond, and the water ways from the Colby and Edmands estates. I think, Mr.

Editor, a diagram to be good for anything should explain itself, certainly when most of the salient points of this new plan were presented to me by one of Newton's most intelligent and honored citizens, I at once consented to present them for the public consideration.

The avenue which runs from Centre street, opposite Cotton, with heavy black lines, means a connecting electric line from the great park system of Boston via Jamaica Plain, West Roxbury, Brookline and Newton Centre, which will be shown by a diagram that will supplement this one.

If the reader will preserve this paper until the other is published, he will have a more intelligent idea of the problem which the writer is trying to work out.

AJAX.

LASELL'S GIRL SOLDIERS.

ANNUAL PRIZE DRILL OF THE SCHOOL BATTALION.

One of the interesting events preceding the commencement exercises at Lasell Seminary is the annual prize drill of the school battalion, made up of charming girls who have become skilful in the art of military tactics and movements.

The battalion exercises this year took place Monday afternoon on the seminary grounds in Auburndale, and were witnessed by a large company of spectators and students, comprising an assembly of about 600 persons.

The site selected for the marching movements and other events was a wide strip of lawn west of the seminary, presenting an almost unbroken surface, and apparently, designed by nature for the best efforts of the pretty girl soldiers. At the east end of the building, on a gentle incline, a platform had been placed in position, and there the invited guests, including the officers of the M. I. T., Malden and Newton high school battalions, sat and watched the various evolutions. The school military contingent of the sterner sex were given the seats of honor and evidenced their appreciation of the distinction by the most friendly applause and encouragement.

Beautiful decorations lent an added charm to the surroundings. The company colors—red, green and yellow—were grouped and fancifully festooned from every window on the west side of the school building, and, beside, there was a lavish display of flags and bunting, festooned from the broad veranda, and draped from the tall shade trees skirting the strip of lawn utilized for the exercises. The residence of Prof. Bragdon, in the background, was tastefully decorated, green being the predominant color, in honor of company B, of which his daughter, Miss Belle Bragdon, is the commander. The "lookout," the girls' famous retreat during the hot months toward the close of the school term, was gay with color, and presented a very attractive appearance. At the main entrance two arches were erected, stretching across the gravel walks leading to the main building. One of the arches was treated in green effects and the other in warmer red coloring.

The exercises commenced at 3 o'clock, and comprised, first, the company competitive drill, individual competitive drill, sword exercise, Acting Major Helen B. Medsker commanding, and the dress parade. The company drill was the best since the introduction of the department of military training at the seminary. In the individual competition, the work in the manual was admirable, and elicited the most hearty and deserved commendation. From the original 40 the squad was gradually reduced until only 5 remained in line. These were Sergt. Florence Ray, Sergt. Grace E. Loud, Sergt. Julia E. Hogg, Corp. Blanche C. Howard and Priv. Helen Holden.

The first individual prize, silver medal and pendant, the former inscribed with the monogram of the school, was awarded to Sergt. Florence A. Ray. Sergt. Grace E. Loud won the second prize, a silver medal, and the others of those above mentioned left in line at the close of the competitive individual drill received honorable mention.

The prize for the best company drill, the Lasell colors, a blue field with monogram in gold, was awarded to company A.

One of the best features of the program was the sword exercises. The cuts and guards were very cleverly executed. In regard to the exercises as a whole, it may be said with truth that the girls not only drilled well, but carried themselves with the ease of veterans. They went through the marching movements and manual with precision and accuracy, and made few noticeable blunders. They looked very charming in their uniforms with their wooden guns. They wore blue serge skirts, ankle length, Norfolk jackets and leather belts and the regulation blue cadet cap with "L. S. B." in silver lettering on the front. The officers wore the shoulder straps with the insignia of their rank, stripes of gold braid down the sides of the skirts and gilt buttons on the jacket fronts and sleeves.

The judges were Capt. Locke, Capt. H. P. Billard and Lieut. H. A. Clark of the 5th regiment, M. V. M. The company and battalion roster is appended:

Company A—Captain, Helen B. Medsker; lieutenant, Julia W. Anderson; first sergeant, Lillie S. Tukey; second sergeant, Florence A. Ray; third sergeant, Mary M. Miller, fourth sergeant, Marie McDonald; corporals, Blanche C. Howard, Mary P. Hanson, Jennie May Rich.

Company B—Captain, Belle Bragdon; lieutenant, Lottie F. Appel; first sergeant, Alice Andressen; second sergeant, Grace L. Allen; third sergeant, Julia E. Hogg; fourth sergeant, Grace E. Loud; corporals, Lotta J. Proctor; corporals, Mabel Tomlinson, Frances D. Holmes.

Company C—Captain, Carrie E. Gilman; lieutenant, Sibyl Spaulding; first sergeant, Louise C. Whitney; second sergeant, Mollie S. Taylor; third sergeant, Carrie L. Steel; fourth sergeant, Bertha Lillibridge; corporals, Anna E. Crocker, Anna Walslow, Effie E. Symms.

Battalion roster—Acting major, Capt. Helen B. Medsker; acting adjutant, Lieut. Sibyl Spaulding; acting sergeant-major, Sergt. Bertha Lillibridge; acting color sergeant, Corp. Anna Walslow.

After the exercises the officers of the Lasell battalion entertained the judges, their instructor, Maj. G. H. Benyon, and members of the press. A collation was served in the dining hall of the seminary. An event not on the program was the presentation of some handsome bouquets, a large bunch of "Jacks" to Acting Major Medsker, and a bunch of pinks and white tea roses to Sergt. Grace E. Loud.

NEWTON SCHOOL BOARD.

THE HIGH SCHOOL SESSION REMAINS UNCHANGED THIS TERM—MISS LITTLEFIELD RESIGNS—APPOINTMENTS.

The meeting of the school board was held Wednesday evening, the mayor presiding. Messrs. Hollis, Hornbrooke and Drew were absent.

Ellen L. Bond and Sarah L. Dix were appointed teachers of sewing on full time at salary of $480 per annum, and Sarah Ayles was appointed a sewing teacher on half time at $240.

MISS LITTLEFIELD RETIRES.

A communication was received from Miss Josephine W. Littlefield of the Underwood school tending her resignation as a teacher.

The following resolve was offered and passed after the acceptance of the resignation.

"Whereas Miss Josephine W. Littlefield, for more than twenty years as a teacher in Underwood school, is about to sever her connection with the Newton school department, the secretary of the board is hereby instructed to express to Miss Littlefield the thanks of the school committee for her long term of service, and their hearty wishes for her continued health and prosperity."

The resolve was unanimously adopted.

Superintendent Aldrich submitted his regular report in which he recommended establishing a kindergarten school at the Williams school house, to be opened next September, also recommending the passage of an order to establish a kindergarten at once in the old Claflin school house, Newtonville.

Mr. Hale presented the report of the committee to whom was referred the matter of lengthening the High school session. The report recommended a session of five hours with a recess not to exceed thirty minutes.

Mr. Bond reported recommending that $1,200 be allowed for janitor's services at the High school.

The text book committee's report recommended that commencing in Sept., the study of Latin be introduced in the grammar grades.

These reports were accepted. Mr. Ward asked if any difficulty would be in securing competent Latin teachers in the grammar grades.

Superintendent Aldrich said a first and second choice would be made in each school to teach Latin pupils. One teacher would have the Latin class, but a second choice was made to carry on the work in case of her absence or resignation. The intention is to have one Latin class in each school. This study would remain optional with the pupil, but would be considered advisable for all intending to take the High school course. This was allowing them to take their choice in this study rather than later.

An order was passed appropriating $12,119.33 for expenses of the current month.

Company B—An enquiry about two boys at the truant school for whose expense he had approved a bill of $95, about $4 a week. He wished to know if it was advisable to keep these boys there at such expense to the city, and was extremely sorry to learn that such discipline was found necessary.

Superintendent Aldrich thought a careful investigation would show the money was well spent. The boys instance were fast going to the bad when placed there and the discipline and influence for good was making new boys out of them. He thought no money spent by the city did as much good as that spent on these boys. There has been very little truancy within the past sixteen months and he knew of no city of 25,000 inhabitants so free from this evil.

Orders were passed authorizing the head master to employ clerical assistance at an expense not exceeding $6 per week; authorizing the ward committees and superintendent to establish kindergartens at the Williams school house in September, and the old Claflin school house at once.

Mr. Bond called up the High school matter.

He moved an amendment that the High school session be changed from five hours and twenty minute recess to five hours and thirty minute recess, and to suspend the action upon it until the next meeting of the board. In explanation he said the committee did not intend to put the change in force this session. The motion passed.

Orders were passed to close the High school on Tuesday, June 27, and the grammar schools on Friday, June 29, authorizing the Ward Five committee and the committee on school houses to attend to the erection of the new school house at the Highlands, appropriating $100 for the June drill of the High school battalion.

Truant officers were appointed as follows to serve at fifty cents per hour: James H. Hoyt, W. J. Fiske, John W. Howe, Geo. Linn, Chas. Tapley. Adjourned.

Hood's Cures.

In saying that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, its proprietors make no idle or extravagant claim. Statements from thousands of reliable people of what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for them, conclusively prove the fact—HOOD'S Sarsaparilla CURES.

Lane's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each Day. In order to be healthy this is necessary.

FOR BILIOUS AND NERVOUS DISORDERS. No mineral water will produce the beneficial results that follow the taking of ONE or more of "Beecham's Pills" with a glass of water immediately on rising in the morning.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

PAINLESS EFFECTUAL

BEAUTIFULLY COATED.

"WORTH A GUINEA A BOX."

TASTELESS—SOLUBLE.

SOLD ALL OVER THE WORLD.

CURE SICK HEADACHE

What a world of Misery is embodied in Sick Headache! Physical and mental anguish combined! Why will people suffer from this evil when they can free themselves from it permanently by the use of Beecham's Pills, which also cure

Constipation Weak Stomach Loss of Appetite Impaired Digestion

DISORDERED LIVER AND ALL KINDRED DISEASES.

Prepared only by THOS. BEECHAM, St. Helena, Lancashire, England.

B. F. ALLEN CO., Sole Agents for United States, 365 Canal St., New York, who (if your druggist does not keep them) will mail Beecham's Pills on receipt of price, 25c—but inquire first.

Concrete Walks and Driveways.

The season for this work is now open, and we should be glad to receive orders or make estimates for parties wishing work in private grounds.

Having laid the Newton public sidewalks for the past sixteen years, the quality of our work is well known. Communication by mail will receive prompt attention.

SIMPSON BROTHERS, Newton.

Boston Office, 166 Devonshire St., Room 58.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS, STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY

MAYNARD MAS

On a d after July 2nd next, our Salesroom will close at 12 o'clock noon Saturday.

Ranges, Parlor Stoves, Water Heaters, Steam Boilers.

AT FACTORY STORE OF

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.,

GALEN STREET, WATERTOWN MASS.

TELEPHONE No. 30, NEWTON.

—ALL KINDS—

Copper, Sheet Iron and Tin Work.

FURNACES AND RANGES REPAIRED.

We have a few Second-Hand Ranges at a Bargain

Water Bugs and Roaches CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR XTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.

Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO.,

7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON. FOR SALE BY BARBER BROS. NEWTON.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

55 WASHINGTON ST., NEWTON,
MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable toEDWARD D. BALDWIN, Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday
afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.ALL communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

THE REPUBLICAN CLUB.

The letter which President Simpkins has sent to members of the Republican Club, and which is reprinted on another page, deserves a careful reading, and the advice given would pay both Republicans and Democrats to follow.To have the nominees of a party represent the intelligent thought of their party is a necessity if the party hopes to enjoy a permanent prosperity, and it would be even better if a step in advance of this were taken and those men nominated who represent the intelligent thought of the people.President Simpkins points out the way to do this, which is to have the people so interested in public affairs that they will attend the caucuses in large numbers, to see that only fit men are chosen as delegates to conventions, not the men who go about asking for the honor, but men who will give careful consideration to their trust and not transfer their credentials or carelessly pledge their support to the first applicant.This advice applies to Newton as well as other places, for it is the usual thing here to have the caucuses attended by only half a dozen men who have some friend they wish chosen as a delegate, and the great majority of voters do not take enough interest in the caucuses to take the trouble to attend. This is not confined to Newton, but it is the general practice, as President Simpkins implies, and no practical step toward purity in politics can be taken until the voters feel more interest in the trust confided to them, and endeavor to discharge it conscientiously.The result of this indifference has been seen in recent elections and the danger to any party that hopes for success lies in the fact that there are so many voters who have come to disregard all party ties, and vote for those "whom they know to be of high character and without reproach, and who, having been nominated by the people, are in touch with them and have no promises to redeem to individuals for political service." If the Republican Club enters into the next campaign on the lines indicated in this letter it will deserve to succeed.

LET EVERY ONE HELP.

The highway department have taken hold in earnest of the matter of freeing the trees in the streets from tent caterpillars and their nests, and have done a large amount of work already this season.
The wild cherry tree on the country roads have been grubbed up, and the apple trees carefully gone over, and our streets will probably be nearly free this season from the ravages of this pest.Every resident who has an apple or other tree liable to be infested should feel it a patriotic duty to join in the good work, and see if Newton cannot be freed from the caterpillars, this season. The boys, inspired by the generous prizes offered by the Newton Horticultural society, have gathered so many thousands of eggs that there ought not to be a great number left.The work of destroying the worms is very simple. They will be found at home either early in the morning, or in the evening, or on cloudy days, when rain is threatened, as they do not like to get their fine clothes dampened by rain or dew, and at such times they can be destroyed by a campaign torch, which will serve a useful purpose in this case, or a rough torch can be easily made, by writing some cotton to a long pole and saturating it with kerosene. The work only takes a short time, and two or three illumination generally do the business.
Now is the time to make the effort to destroy them, as a few weeks later they will have left their nests permanently and scatter about the lawn or buildings in search of a place to spin their cocoons.
If the pests can be kept down for a year or two, there will probably be little trouble from them in the future. Last year they had become so numerous that they stripped the apple trees in many places entirely of their leaves, and in some cases the trees were killed while the fruit was nearly destroyed. This year promises to be a good fruit year if the insect pests do not destroy the crop.The Highway Committee are taking hold of the Newton Boulevard project in earnest and have gone over the plans, and made such alterations as they deemed for the best interests of the city, and next week they will hold a confer-ence with the parties interested, and if they consent to the changes, as they probably will, an order for the seizure of the land and a public hearing will be presented at the next meeting of the aldermen, on June 5th. The project is of so much importance to the future growth of the city that it is very encouraging to hear that there is a prospect of its going through the council, and the boulevard becoming an accomplished fact. It will be of even greater benefit to the city than to the landowners who are directly interested. If Newton is to get its share of the prosperity that has visited Brookline it must do something to attract residents who desire broad avenues and handsome residences, and there is no part of the city better adapted for building sites for elegant houses than the route followed by this boulevard.THE Memorial Day exercises next Tuesday will be of the usual nature, and the route of procession and other particulars are given in another column. The day has become one of the most important holidays of the year and something of its old sacred character still clings to it, and every one feels a special interest in the veterans who take part and those whose memories the day is set apart to commemorate. There will be a number of memorial services in the various city churches, Sunday evening, and in many of the schools the veterans have been invited to address the scholars and teach them something of the events which caused the day to be set apart as a holiday, so that the children may always have occasion to feel that they have come in contact with the men who sacrificed so much for their country.THE Common Council was in a receptive mood Monday evening, and passed two measures which it has hitherto opposed more or less strenuously. One was the highway ordinance, containing the much talked of sidewalk provision, requiring abutments in Wards One and Seven to keep their sidewalks clear of ice and snow, and the other was the order for the purchase of the Clafin land for an addition to the High school lot. The latter was amended by adding the condition attending the purchase, that Mr.
Clafin build on the further line of the lot a forty foot street at his own expense, which will be a still further protection for the High School building, and which it is said Mr. Clafin intended to build in any event.A CORRESPONDENT sends us a description of a proposed boulevard connecting Boston, Newton and Waltham, and the article together with a diagram illustrating its important features will be found on the third page. Another diagram illustrating a boulevard connecting Newton Centre with Brookline, Roxbury and Jamaica Plain, is promised in a future issue. All these plans are of value as showing the great possibilities which exist in the future development of Newton.THE Senators evidently were not very enthusiastic over their visit to Milford, as the Storage Battery bill was defeated by a vote of 30 to 5. Senator Butler led the opposition and said the cost of running the road was from their own figures 37 cents a mile, and he did not think any more foreign corporations should be allowed to fatten on the Massachusetts public.THE Flower Mission has begun its excellent work for the summer, in supplying flowers to the sick and poor in Boston, and Newton people who have flowers will find their contributions very acceptable to the young ladies who so generously give their services to the cause.

MARRIED.

MACKERRON-BOWMAN-At Newton, May 25, by E. F. Ringdahl, James Mackerron and Matilda Bowman.PHIPPEN-JONES-At West Newton, May 19,
by Rev. D. W. Fausse, Frank Henry Phippen and Henrietta Ida Jones.

DIED.

KELLY-At Newton, May 17, John J. Kelly, aged 23 years, 8 months.FIELDS-At Newton Upper Falls, May 18, Thomas Fields, aged 37 years.WETHERBE-At Auburndale, May 19, Avery son of Louder and Mary E. Wetherbe, aged 3 years, 7 months.HAITMAN-At Auburndale, May 17, Martin Hartman, aged 62 years, 11 months, 25 days.WATSON-At Newtonville, May 19, Albert Edward, son of Edward and Anna Watson, aged 3 years, 1 mo. 19 days.MEALE-At Newton, May 20, Mrs. Alice Meale, aged 39 years.COSTELLO-At Newton, May 20, Lucy, daughter of Walter and Catherine Costello, aged 3 years, 10 mos. 16 days.RING-At Newton, May 20, Mrs. Delana Ring, aged 52 years, 5 mos.NORTON-At Newton, May 21, Charles P., son of Charles and Hannah Norton, aged 4 years, 9 mos., 21 days.BROWN-At Newton, May 23, Mrs. Maria G.
Brown, aged 53 years, 10 months, 4 days.

Royal Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

A cream of tartar baking powder.
Highest of all in leavening strength.
-Latest United States Government Food Report.

Royal Baking Powder Co.,
106 Wall St., N. Y.

The Highway Committee are taking hold of the Newton Boulevard project in earnest and have gone over the plans,
and made such alterations as they
deemed for the best interests of the city, and next week they will hold a confer-

Chinese Tea.

Phillip S. Watkins of a London tea firm is making a business tour of the world and at present is in this city. His firm is one of the oldest and richest tea firms in the world's metropolis, the head of it for many years having been the millionaire Baronet Sir Richard Peck. Mr.
Watkins is an old and trusted member of the house and has been selected for many years to conduct negotiations with the principal Chinese and Indian tea growers who control the markets of Canton and Calcutta."It is our rule," explained Mr. Watkins, "to visit the best plantations and arrange for the purchase of the new season's crop while it is yet growing. It takes considerable experience to be able to judge of the probable quality of a crop during its early stages, as the tea plant is subject to so many vicissitudes before picking. If the crop does not come up to expectations, we are often losers, but the usual practice is to bargain for the first offer, for which privilege of course we pay a premium. The China tea, however, does not rule the market as it did before India and Ceylon discovered the fact that they could grow several kinds as well as their Celestial neighbors."All the best sorts, however, are still grown in China. Gunpowder, Hyson and all the high class green teas can be produced nowhere else. The very highest quality of the first named seldom leaves the land of its growth, the Chinese connoisseurs forming a ring which keeps it for the home market."—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Black Jack Inn.

A few days ago the ancient "hostel-rie" familiar to readers of Dickens as the "Black Jack" in Portsmouth street, Clare Market, closed its doors forever, as the entire block of buildings surrounding it is about to be demolished. The "Black Jack" is the house to which Sam Weller escorted his master when that gentleman was in search of Lowton, Mr.
Perker's clerk, on which occasion Mr.
Pickwick heard the story of the "Queer Client," related by the mysterious lawyer's clerk.The "Black Jack" has for many years been a veritable mecca to the medical students who have successfully braved the terrors of the examination room, for it was customary for them to adjourn to its hospitable bar and duly inscribe the names of the fortunate medics in a register kept in the house for that special purpose. Among the signatures to be seen are those of James Paget and Andrew Clarke, together with many others who have since attained celebrity.
The death of the "Black Jack" adds one more to the ghostly taverns which have abounded in the immediate vicinity. The "Spotted Dog," the "White Lion" of Jack Sheppard's notoriety, the "Bull's Head," where Hogarth met his brother artists, and the "Spiller's Head," the Savage club of those days, all stood within a few yards.—London News.

Dunning by Postal Card.

There is a very general impression among merchants and others who are particularly interested in the subject that it is a criminal offense under United States laws to mail a dunning letter written on a postal card. A person in this neighborhood wrote to the first assistant postmaster general, asking for information, and received a reply giving the decision of Judge Thayer, Dec. 14, 1889, on the wording of a postal card that was mailed and one that was not.
The mailable one read: "Please call and settle account, which is long past due, and for which our collector has called several times, and oblige." The unmailable one reads: "You owe me $1.80.
We have called several times for same.
If not paid at once, we shall place with our law agency for collection."The last sentence, it is stated, ruled out this communication. Postal cards are not mailable if they contain language of "a threatening character," and it is a very serious threat to the average man to tell him that you are going to sue him.
There is no law, however, to prevent you from putting an X on your card to let your debtor understand that you are really cross with him.—Itasca Journal.

What the Presidents Died Of.

Rutherford B. Hayes was the only occupant of the White House to die of heart disease. Washington expired of pneumonia, John Adams of natural decline. Thomas Jefferson of chronic diarrhea, James Madison and James Monroe of natural decline, John Quincy Adams of paralysis, Andrew Jackson of consumption, Martin Van Buren of asthmatic catarrh, William H. Harrison of pleurisy, John Tyler of a bilious attack, James K. Polk of chronic diarrhea, Zachary Taylor of bilious fever,
Millard Fillmore of natural decline, Franklin Pierce of inflammation of the stomach, James Buchanan of rheumatic gout, Abraham Lincoln assassinated, Andrew Johnson paralysis, Ulysses S.
Grant cancer, James A. Garfield assassinated, Chester A. Arthur Bright's disease. Mr. Hayes was one of the three Methodists to become president, Johnson and Grant being the other two.—Columbus Journal.

The Inevitable.

We all cry out against the monstrous hoopskirt which is coming in vogue, but there is no human power capable of fending off that fashion, which even the women folk profess to regard with dislike. When Dame Fashion utters her dictum, the men are nowhere in it, and the ladies, God bless 'em! have simply to obey.—Exchange.A contract for the cutting and hauling of 200,000,000 feet of fir timber was entered into in Tacoma recently by a mill company and a railroad company. It is the largest logging contract ever made in the state and will take five years to execute.A bankrupt merchant at Acadia Mines, N. S., has been sentenced to two months in jail for having willfully contracted a debt without having at the time a reasonable expectation of being able to pay it.

CARPETINGS!

Nothing makes a better Carpet for the Summer than STRAW MATTING.We can show you an excellent line in all grades. Also a full stock
BRUSSELS, TAPESTRIES, EXTRA SUPERS and OIL CLOTHS.Window Shades and Drapery Goods.
CUSTOM WORK A SPECIALTY.
WARREN F. EMERSON, 698 Main St. Waltham.

Real Estate.

Mortgages.

Insurance.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.

SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATE
in the above villages.
Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES;
OFFICES.J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston."A NEW BROOM SWEEPS CLEAN," so why not try a New Agency for the Sale, Rental or Purchase of NEWTON REAL ESTATE? We also represent the best FIRE INSURANCE Companies, and make a specialty of negotiating MORTGAGES. Give us a trial.
ROYAL B. LEIGHTON & CAMP, 27 Kilby St., Boston.

RUBBER GARDEN HOSE.

ORDER

BOSTON

BELTING

Company's

MAKE.

BOSTON BELTING COMPANY,
256, 258, 260 Devonshire St., Boston.

Tent Caterpillars.

The total number of belts of the Tent Caterpillar destroyed this year by the committee of the Newton Horticultural Society, on which the bounty of $1 per 1000 belts were paid, was 203,446. The society received $197 from citizens in aid of its work and in answer to a circular sent out asking for contributions. It extends its thanks to the citizens of Newton who so generously responded.
The largest individual collection was that of Percy A. Barton of Newton Centre, amounting to $400, and to whom the special prize of $10 was awarded. The following is the list in detail:

Percy A. Barton	26,400	John Hawes	31,400
Willie Dolt	25,280	Willie Gies	12,400
Paul Ward	9,600	G. M. Allen	4,000
W. E. Sanderson	4,000	Willie Ulmer	3,420
Edward Broad	3,300	Paul Burrage	3,150
J. A. W. Hunter	3,100	Carl B. Knapp	3,000
St. Wood Cobb	3,000	Geo. H. Frost	2,800
Allie W. Fuller	3,000	Ralph Mandell	3,000
Edward Wales	3,000	Thomas Haydon	2,900
Geo. S. Maynard	2,100	E. L. Price	2,000
L. O. Tilton	2,200	Donald Tucker	2,014
Henry C. Clark	2,000	Chester Hall	2,000
Charles C. Seaver	2,000	C. A. Dexter	2,000
J. Moore	1,000	Willie Abbott	1,013
R. Barry	1,000	G. G. Sherman	1,000
L. Meyers	1,000	G. Pympton	1,000
Carl Blaisdell	1,350	G. Bailey	1,000
Samuel Wright	1,000	Annie Hurley	1,000
Edwin Ward	1,000	A. A. English	1,000
D. Bear	1,000	Paul Porter	1,000
M. Fellows	1,100	A. Woodland	1,000
Wm. Bowman	1,000	R. W. Shapleigh	1,000
Harry Cabot	1,000	Willie Bent	1,000
Harry Hobbs	1,100	Wm. Wall	1,200
S. and T. Bradley	1,000	Chas. Burns	1,300

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

TREMONT THEATRE—On Monday next,
May 26th, Mr. E. S. Willard will enter upon the last week of his successful season at the Tremont. It will be the closing week of the regular season. For his farewell appearances Mr. Willard has accepted to very numerous requests for a repetition of J. M.
Barrie's delightful play, "The Professor's Love Story," which will be presented two times only—on Monday evening, May 26th, and at the extra matinee, Decoration Day, Tuesday afternoon, May 30th. On the evening of Decoration Day, and at all other performances of next week "The Middleman" will be given. It will be necessary to apply very early for seats, the sale already having been enormous. The Tremont will remain closed for three weeks beginning June 5th, and then will begin (on Monday, June 26th) the second summer season. The theatre will be beautifully rearranged and refitted. All the operas will have the advantage of lovely scenery, costumes and appointments. The company will be one of the highest excellence, headed by the graceful artist, Pauline Hall.
It is proposed to open the season of light opera the week of June 26th, by a grand production of "Czibulka's Comic Opera, Amorita, the English version used by this company being by Prof. Louis C. Elson.
There will be an extensive repertoire, including last year's great success, "Puritania," and some other operas of rare merit not at all familiar to Boston.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, ss. PROBATE COURT.

To all persons interested in the estate of Sanford K. Drake late of Newton in said County, deceased.
Whereas, Eliza J. Bigelow the executrix of the will of said deceased, has presented for allowance the second and final account of her administration upon the estate of said deceased;
You are hereby cited to appear at the Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County, on the second Tuesday of June A. D. 1893 at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed.
And said executrix is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once a week in the Newspaper printed and published at Newton three weeks successively, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.
Witness: George M. Books, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this 26th day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.
S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

HOWARD B. COFFIN

DEALER IN FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEESAND NEWTON AGENT FOR DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.

363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.

COLE'S BLOCK NEWTON.

Carpets Cleaned

and laid in first class manner.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

MYLES J. JOYCE

Box 42 Newton, Mass.

Or at Campbell's Hardware Store, 3 Hyde Block.

REMINGTON

BICYCLE.

SECOND-HAND WHEELS
taken in part payment.SEND FOR CATALOGUES.
H. L. WOOD Agent,
255 Washington Street, Newton.

CALL AT

Bent's Furniture Rooms,

—FOR YOUR—

HOUSEKEEPING GOODS!

We carry one of the Largest
Stocks outside of Boston.

Carpet Work and Upholstery.

Tailors.

C. S. DECKER,

Custom Tailor

326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

CORN CURED

By Mrs. Drs. Craven and May CHIROPODISTS and MANICURES.Corns, Bunions, and all ailments of the feet, skillfully treated at our office,
21 AVON ST., BOSTON.
Opposite Jordan & Marsh. 1 flight only.
Chiropodist and Manicure Taught 21 1/2

BUSINESS NOTICES

RATES—50 cents first insertion for not exceeding 5 lines, and 35 cents each time
thereafter, in advance.

Wants.

WANTED—A nicely furnished Room in a quiet locality. Address H. Box 108, Newtonville, Mass. It 34WANTED—First class girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. H. H. Matter, corner Fern and Central Streets, Aubur-dale. It 34WANTED—A young to wheel out a baby and do light nursery work. One who can go home high is preferred. Apply at corner Orchard and St. James Streets. It 34WANTED—A family horse weighing about 1100 lbs., safe for a lady to drive, afraid of nothing, and be sound and kind. In care of Newton Graphic. It 34WANTED—Single gentleman wishes elegantly furnished room with meals Sundays in a private family. References furnished.
Address A. Graphic office. It 34WANTED—By 2 Ladies, furnished House the care of which will be equivalent to the rent. Address Box 304, Newton Centre, It 32WANTED—An experienced general housework girl, good cook and laundress. Apply to Mrs. C. F. Hale, Melrose street, Auburdale, Mass. It 33

For Sale.

TO LET—A good sized furnished front room on the same floor with bath room. Apply to Miss Lovering, 16 Avon Place, Newton. It 34FOR SALE—A fine family horse; perfectly sound and gentle; weighs 1100; stands 15.2 Address Box 155 Newtonville or corner Cabot and Walnut Streets. It 34FOR SALE OR TO LET—On Lowell street, Newtonville, Mass., a small house, modern bath, gas, furnace, cemented cellar, etc., 15,000 feet of land. For particulars, address C. A.
Arkenon, 20 Summer street, Boston. It 34FOR SALE OR TO LET—At Newton Centre, corner of Union and Main Streets, modern size house of 9 rooms and bath, furnished or unfurnished. Moderate rent. Apply to Wm. Young
Newton Centre, or at No. 25 Russell Avenue,
Watertown, Mass. It 32FOR SALE OR RENT—In Needham, six new houses, centre of village, seven or eight rooms each, finished in natural wood, bath, range, hot and cold water, furnace, cemented cellar. Corner lots, 700 feet each, 20 minutes from churches, stores, schools, library, post office and railroad station. Prices $2600 to $3500, easy terms. Rent $18 to $25 monthly.
Apply to F. E. Stedman, corner Maple street and Plains avenue, Needham. It 34FOR SALE OR TO LET—In Newtonville, house of nine rooms, with bath and large
attic, cemented cellar and furnace, in first class neighborhood, and within five or six minutes
walk to railroad. Everything in good order. Apply to V. Wentworth & Co., 41 Bristol street, Boston, or Mr. Wentworth, Foster street, Newtonville. It 34

To Let.

FOR SALE—A splendid saddle and Driving Horse, 8 years old, weighs 1000 lbs. A first class roadster, fast, good courage and great endurance, kind, round and good style. Wm. O.
Knapp, Newton Centre. It 34FURNISHED ROOM TO LET—A large and pleasant room on second floor, in private family. Four minutes from steam cars. Apply at 60 Jefferson St., Newton. It 32TO RENT—House of 10 rooms on Elmwood street. Apply to H. B. Coffin. ItTO LET—A lady and her adult son would like to let their furnished house to parties who would board them. Address L. Graphic Office. It 32TO LET—Furnished or unfurnished, house of 12 rooms, all modern improvements, including screens, screen doors, awnings, etc., with stable and nearly an acre of land. Address "House," Graphic Office. It 31TO LET—In Newton, a large iron room and small one; hot and cold water in large one.
Very desirable location near station on south-side. House has all modern conveniences.
References required. Dr. Utley house, 20 Richard

NEWTONVILLE.

—Miller pianos, Farley, Newton.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Charles Hushen and Miss Katie Clark.

—Mr. C. S. Crain left here last Saturday for Poland Springs.

—Capt. and Mrs. Gilbreth left here yesterday for their summer place in Cummert.

—Mr. Dustin Lacey is out again, following a very severe illness.

—All kinds of fruit, syrups made by myself from selected fruit. J. G. Kilburn.

—Mr. James Richards and son Eddie left here this week for a trip in the Adiron dacks.

—Mr. A. A. Savage has returned from a visit to Oxford and Henniker, N. H.

—Mr. J. L. Richards and family leave here for Chicago and the World's Fair, June 15.

—Mr. Arthur N. Bates of Portland, Me., is the guest this week of Mr. George L. Bean, Appleton street.

—Mrs. McNamara (nee Stowell), from the West, is visiting her parents here and will make quite an extended stay.

—Mrs. Edwin Lane of Gloucester is visiting at the home of Mr. W. S. Higgins, Brooks avenue.

—A union Christian Endeavor meeting was held in the Central church last Sunday evening. Very interesting exercises were held.

—Mr. Aldrich, (superintendent of schools), has leased Mr. Francis Waterhouse's residence on Highland avenue for a year.

—Mr. Francis Waterhouse and family leave soon for Europe and will remain abroad for about a year.

—Do you want fine ice cream soda? Go to Kilburn's.

—Rev. and Mrs. Edgar F. Davidson will pass a portion of the summer months in Chicago, taking in the manifold attractions of the World's Fair.

—The date of the annual drill of the High school battalion has been changed. The exercises occur Saturday, June 3.

—Work was commenced on the construction of the tracks through Walnut to Watertown street, Wednesday afternoon.

—Miss M. E. Abbott of the High school staff soon departs for Europe. She will stay abroad nearly a year.

—Miss Lila Page of Watertown street leaves today for New York, where she expects to spend the month of June.

—The Rev. W. H. Dearborn will occupy the Universalist pulpit on Sunday morning, May 28.

—Ice lemonade at Kilburn's, 5 cents a glass.

—The annual meeting of the "Lend a Hand" was held yesterday afternoon at "Fairlawn," the home of Miss Mamie Metcalf.

—Mr. B. F. Grant has sold his house on Walnut street to Mr. Charles Pulsifer, who takes possession about June 1. Mr. Pulsifer has sold his house to Mr. Edward Sands.

—Rev. Mr. Dearborn, brother of Mr. Henry P. Dearborn of this place, will occupy the pulpit in the Universalist church next Sunday morning.

—Mr. F. P. Dart, who has proved so popular as clerk of the Newton club, will officiate at the Moosilauke, White Mountains, this summer as usual.

—Druggist J. G. Kilburn has a handsome new script sign put in position this week. It replaces the sign of the original proprietor of the store, which was put up in 1869, and held its sway for twenty-four years.

—Mrs. Edward Sands has purchased of Charles T. Pulsifer, of Pulsifer, Jordan & Co. his estate, lately occupied by him, at the corner of Walnut and Cabot streets. This fine estate consists of a large 15-room house, a large stable and about 28,000 feet of land.

—The passengers in the Raymond & Whitcomb excursion from this place for a fortnight's stay in Chicago, at the World's Fair, to start tomorrow morning, are Dr. O. E. Hunt, Miss Adelle H. Fenno, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall W. French, Mr. Samuel W. French, Miss Anna Chisholm, Miss Alice French.

—Mr. W. Henry Cottle wishes to contradict a statement in a recent edition of a local paper to the effect that he is in consumption. He had an attack of the grippe which he had for a week, and probably the rumor emanated from that. He is now as well as ever and is very busy at work, as he always is, at his desk.

—Mrs. Conolly of Newton Upper Falls made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide last Friday evening by jumping into Bullough's pond. She was rescued by Asst. Supt. McLean of the Newton & Boston Street Railway Company. The woman was suffering from mental aberration. The details of the affair are given elsewhere in this paper.

—Eddie, the four year old son of J. Edward Watson, fell into a tub of boiling water at his grandparents' home last Thursday and died the following afternoon from the effects of the terrible scalding. The case is a peculiarly sad one, as the little boy had been sent from his own home on account of scarlet fever, it being feared that he would contract the disease. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved relatives.

—The new tennis grounds off Washington street are in fine condition. The court is controlled by a private club, and has a membership. It is one of the best in the city and was laid out at a cost of about $250. Mr. Arthur M. Crain is the treasurer of the club. The idea of the organization originated with Messrs. H. W. Chase and H. K. Stiles, who interested themselves in pushing the plan through.

—The pupils of Miss Alice F. Peirce of Boston gave a piano recital at the residence of Mrs. A. S. Dennison, Walnut street, yesterday afternoon. They acquitted themselves with great credit and won deserved commendations. Miss Lydia Dennison, with the advantage only of one-quarter of instruction, played correctly and with good accentuation one of Kohler's compositions, "Zwei Melodien." The Sonata in D (Seiss), was finely rendered by Master Harold Hunt. The other details of the excellent program are given in the following summary: Duet, Nooton, Field; Miss Fenno, Master Brewer; "Tanzchen in Fren," Kullak, Miss Nancy Noyes; Minuet, From Don Juan, Mozart, Miss Beatrice Springer; Dorothy, Old English Dance, Smith, Master Roy Brewer; Trio Minuet, (From Symphony in E flat), Mozart, The Misses Shapleigh; Master Hunt; "In May Time," Spindler, Miss Mildred Fenno; "Für Elise," Beethoven, Miss Alice Shapleigh; Two Pianos, Allegro Brillant, Low, Miss Richardson, Miss Ineslee; Gipsy Rondo, Haydn, Miss Amy Shapleigh; Loure, From Violoncello Suite, Bach, Miss Leslie Allen; Duet, "Nella Valse," Delibes, Mrs. L. C. Wadleigh, Jr.; Miss Ethel West; Sonata in C, Haydn, Miss Florence G. Elms; Agitato, Wilm, Miss Nellie Ineslee; Impromptu, Opus 90, No. 2, Schubert, Miss May Richardson; Two Pianos, "Rakoczy March," Liszt, Miss Richardson, Miss Elms, Miss Ineslee and Mrs. J. C. Elms, Jr.

OUTING SHIRTS.
CHEVIOT $1 00, $1 50,
and $2 00.
MADRAS. $2 50, 2 75

Special designs and new colorings made up with the fashionable Lord Kennard collar in stock and to measure.

UNDERWEAR.
Gauze, 50c.
Balbriggan, $1.00
Long and Short
Sleeved, 50c. to $1.00.
Liste Thread,
$2.00, $2.50.
Wool, Light Weight
$1.50.
Silk, $2.00.

FANCY VESTS.
$1.58, $2.00, $3.00, $5.00.

RAY MENS FURNISHER.
500 Washington St., Cor. West,
641 Washington St., Cor. Boston,
BOSTON.

WEST NEWTON

—Pianos rented and tuned, Farley, Newton

—Miss Ida Forte is seriously ill with pleurisy.

—Mr. Charles Davis has returned from a trip to Minneapolis.

—The adjourned parish meeting of the Congregational Society, will be held Wednesday evening next.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wise have gone to Chicago and intend to visit the World's Fair.

—Mr. E. A. Marsh and family have returned from a month's trip through the West.

—The Allen school nine played the Waltham High on Monday on the home grounds, and won by a score of 9 to 8.

—An interesting memorial service will be held in the Second Congregational church, Sunday evening. There will be a fine musical program under the direction of Mr. Trowbridge.

—Miss Dora, the daughter of our former citizen, Mr. Edward Drew, now resident in China, arrived in this country this week to pursue her studies. She will probably be admitted to the Harvard annex in the fall.

—Miss Mamie Metcalf, of "Fairlawn" has returned from a visit to New York accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Williamson and daughters.

—The cards are out for the wedding of Miss Alice Mary Newell, daughter of Mrs. Sarah H. Newell, and Mr. Francis Newhall. The ceremony will take place in the Church of the Messiah, June 7, at 3 p. m.

—"The first members' tennis tournament of the Neighborhood Club is announced for Memorial day. The competition will be in singles and doubles.

—Mr. George L. Lovett and family are in Chicago for a short stay.

—Mr. Moore of Chicago, a former resident, was here this week visiting friends.

—Messrs. E. B. Wilson and G. T. Lincoln have returned from a visit to Old Point Comfort, Va.

—C. E. Hatfield of Cherry street is in Chicago for a short stay.

—Mr. W. G. Bell has been elected auditor of the Massachusetts Law and Order League.

—Alderman and Mrs. Henry H. Hunt are receiving congratulations. It is a girl.

—The son of ex-President Zavala of Nicaragua, the leader of the revolution there, is a member of the Allen school. He is a bright fellow and popular with his schoolmates.

—The committee on the Allen school are soon to decide on nominations for officers for the association. Unless one's "coupon" for membership has been sent in, he or she are sure not to be among the selected officers of the association.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Mrs. L. M. Bush, Michael F. Connor, F. H. Davis & Co., Lassen, Frees, C. E. Hibbard, Mrs. Hatch, Henrietta L. Jones, Mrs. Della Kline, Mrs. H. S. Leonard, Nanno Lyons, David L. Mecher, Miss M. Mallin, Mr. R. D. Naas, Mrs. B. Prince, John T. Taylor, William A. Taylor, Henry Wallace, Mrs. Henry Wight, Oscar O. Warren.

—A service appropriate to Decoration day will be held in the Congregational church, next Sunday evening, at 7:30. The pastor will deliver an address, and the musical selections will be rendered by a double male quartet. The new "Soldiers Memorial Hymn," by Granville B. Putnam, music by J. E. Trowbridge, will be one of the selections. All cordially invited.

—Invitations to the Allen School Reunion, June 21st, were sent only to those pupils who have attended the present school, established in 1854, and do not include those who attended the "Model school" during the four or five years previous. As the attendance will be very large in any event, those who have omitted to reply to the invitation as requested should consider the necessity of doing so during the coming week.

—The will of the late Adam Kinsman Tolman of this city was presented at the probate court, East Cambridge, yesterday morning. The document names his widow, Martha A. H. Tolman, as sole executrix, and gives to her and Nathaniel Corning of Fitchburg to hold in trust, for his father, Thomas Tolman, his farm at Troy, N. H. To his daughters, Emma Francis and Myra Fenno, $50 each is bequeathed. All the rights and titles in a certain cloth cutting machine, and all shares in the Fenno Cutting Machine Company, and all the remainder of the property is left to his wife.

—The 74th anniversary of the Sunday school of the Congregational Society was observed in the Second Congregational church, Sunday evening. The large audience room was completely filled. The decorations were an especially attractive feature, the change being utilized for an elaborate display of palms, hydrangeas and pretty groupings of cut flowers. The order of exercises was as follows: Organ voluntary, Mr. J. E. Trowbridge; singing, "The Lord's Prayer," reports of officers, exercise, primary department; exercise, Pine Farm boys; address, Rev. F. N. Peloubet, D. D., of Auburndale; singing, "Praise the Lord," Ye Heavens, Adore Him; Sunday school chorus and choir; remarks, Rev. H. J. Patrick, D. D., Supt. W. G. Bell, and others; congregational singing; Benediction, Rev. Mr. Peloubet. From the treasurer's report these figures were gleaned: Contributions for charities during past year, $350; expenditures for Sunday school department, $170; balance on hand, $80. The number of scholars in the schools is 312; average attendance, 225.

—A gang of toughs have been hanging about near the dividing line of Newton and Waltham of late, with the benedict view of relieving of their watches and other valuables men under the influence of stimulants. Several fellows have been pretty roughly handled, and their watches and money taken from them. The Newton police have suspected an old offender of being concerned in the robberies. Thomas Manning, who has done time for assaulting and robbing ex-Alderman Nickerson and who has been sent down to the house of correction for various misdemeanors, has been closely watched. City Marshal Richardson and Inspector Henthorn were sat-foot that Manning was up to his old tricks, and soon found out that he had pawned a gold watch, which, it was believed, he had stolen. A warrant was issued, and Wednesday evening Manning was arrested. He was in court Thursday morning charged with larceny from a person and pleaded not guilty. He claimed that he had bought the watch from a man, but could not produce the evidence of it. His story was altogether so thin and flimsy, that Judge Kennedy was satisfied of his guilt of the charge, and accordingly sentenced Manning to a term of six months in the House of Correction. The watch is now in the possession of City Marshal Richardson, and is the property, it is thought, of a Waltham man.

—Last week C. H. Stimpson of Weston reported to the Waltham police that a New Mail bicycle had been stolen the night before from his home. The same day a wheel was stolen in Danvers, and the thief was offered for sale in Waltham. Wednesday evening the police of Danvers had occasion to serve a warrant on George and Charles Elderkin, in that place. Upon attempting to arrest the men the Elderkins showed fight, got the best of the officers and got away. After they had skipped the wheel which were stolen in Weston was found at their home and returned to Waltham. The Newton officers were notified of what was taking place, and as two more of the Elderkin boys, Harvey and William, were living in a barn off Crescent street, this morning Inspector McKenna of Waltham and Officers Shannon and Davis of the local police made a search of the barn Saturday night. They found a lot of tools that had been stolen recently, and a lot of blankets, the property of C. E. Kirwin of Waltham, which was stolen from a camp on the Sudbury river last winter. The finding of the property resulted in the arrest of Harvey and William Elderkin, who were locked up at police headquarters. On Sunday morning, George and Charles Elderkin were arrested about a mile west of Concord and brought to the Waltham lock-up. Harvey and William were arraigned in the police court here Monday morning. The former was charged with larceny and the latter for receiving stolen property. They asked for a continuance until Tuesday, which was granted. The latter, Capt. Locke, Capt. H. P. Ballard and Lieut. H. H. Clarke of the 5th regiment, M. V. M. The exercises consisted of a competitive company drill, competitive individual drill, sword-swing exercise and dress parade. In the competitive company drill, company A, (red) came off victor and was awarded the prize banner of blue silk; the first prize in the competitive individual drill was won by young sergeant, Florence A. Ray of Ottawa, Canada; the second by fourth sergeant, Grace E. Lord, Everett, Mass.; while Misses Blanche Howard of Concord, N. H., and Julia F. North, Texas, and Helen Holden of Albany, N. Y., received honorable mention. The following held their places in the ranks till the end of the fourth trial drill: Misses Allen, Capt. Wier, Trilbridge, Roising and Walston.

AUBURNDALE.

—Orange Malt at Thorn's soda fountain.

—Mr. Charles Johnson intends to build several houses on his land.

—A handsome new butcher cart has been put on the road by Mr. V. A. Pluta.

—Mr. F. C. Smith made a short visit to Montpelier, Vt., the first of the week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cogshall are spending some time at Mrs. Mother's.

—Rev. Mr. Gutterston has gone for a three weeks' tour in the South, on the part of the American Missionary Association.

—Rev. and Mrs. Hume have gone to Cliff Springs on account of Mrs. Hume's health.

—Mrs. Alanson Bigelow and Miss Ware of the Berkeley, Boston, will pass the summer at the Woodland Park Hotel.

—Mr. Bishop has plans for a fine house, to be built on his lot, corner of Woodlawn and Vista avenue.

—Mrs. E. B. Haskell and son Clarence will visit Minneapolis before returning from the West.

—Mr. H. H. Mather has sold his stone house on Central street to Mr. Smith of Boston.

—Mr. Betts has had his fox-terrier returned to him. Master Frank Davis was the finder.

—The front of Miller's block, occupied by Geo. E. Mann and V. A. Pluta, is being improved by a coat of paint.

—Mr. Francis Blake and family are expected to return from Chicago early in June.

—Mrs. B. F. Field and family depart from Weston Monday for Northboro, where Mrs. Field will make her home.

—Mr. Lee of the Woodland Park Hotel accommodated over 400 guests Sunday at his famous hostelry. Most of the visitors took dinner at the Park.

—Chief Benjamin Cox, of the Woodland Park Hotel, has resigned and accepted a similar position at the clubhouse of the Newton club at Newtonville. He assumes his new duties June first.

—The store clerks are very busy just at present practicing base ball, a game being under consideration for June 17, with the railroad men. The latter are confident of victory.

—Mr. E. B. Haskell has returned from Chicago.

—The Boston Herald asks, "Who says the women aren't getting their rights now that they are making colonels and majors and captains out at the Lasell Female seminary?"

—Rev. Dr. G. M. Steele will give the next talk in the "Ten Principles of the Doctrines" at the Methodist vestry this Friday evening at 7:45. Subject, "The Character and Office of the Holy Spirit."

—There are letters at the postoffice for Mr. Edward Burns, Mrs. M. E. Burns, Mrs. Sarah W. Burroughs, Miss Lizzy Cronin, Miss Isabel Cook, Miss Julia C. Noyes, Pat Carlen, May Hallisey, Mrs. Minnie Lewis, Mr. F. J. McBaron, J. E. Miller, Mr. Johnnie T. Russell, Mr. Chas. A. Read, Mrs. S. W. Smith, Miss Thayer.

—Last evening the Methodist church society gave a reception to the church choir at the residence of Rev. T. W. Bishop. It was an informal affair but thoroughly enjoyable, and the attendance was very large, the usual social features obtaining, and refreshments being served during the evening.

—The sewer department commenced work in this vicinity the first of this week on Auburn street at its intersection with Washington street. The Italians have been provided with quarters on the Ware land, Melrose street, where a shanty has been erected and about seventy-five Italians are fed and lodged. Work on the sewer will be vigorously pushed forward and the more important mains will probably all be in by fall.

—A largely attended meeting of the Auburndale Improvement Society was held Wednesday evening at Auburn hall. Many of our most prominent citizens showed their interest in the improvements now undertaken here. New members were elected, and there was every indication of activity. It was reported that the new River park is being seriously hurt by quartering in it a gang of Italian laborers, workmen on the sewer, that a barrack for eighty men has been erected, that trees have already been badly mutilated, and fires have been kindled at their roots, thus insuring the complete destruction of the natural beauty of the place. Resolutions were unanimously adopted protesting against this misuse of the park, and instructing the officers of the society to petition the city government to remove the laborers at once. It is hoped this may be done immediately. It would certainly be a very poor return for the liberality of those who paid for one half of this park, and gave it to the city absolutely without conditions. If the city were to allow a tract of land to be used in this manner, it would be a disgrace to the city. Another important matter is the condition of certain lots on Seaverns street where water has filled in the lower ground and the basements and cellars are overflowing. The following was passed unanimously. Whereas, it has come to the knowledge of this society, that a nuisance exists on Seaverns street in this village, by reason of defective drainage, which seriously menaces the health of this community, therefore it is voted, that the officers of this society be instructed to request the City Council to cause such nuisance to be abated without unnecessary delay. A roadway from Weston bridge to Riverside was regarded as very desirable. It would connect two streets, of which one now opens only at one end, and would add greatly to the pleasure of all frequenters of the river banks, and would be an important link in a driveway all along Charles River. After voting to accompany the public park committee of Newton on an inspection visit to the Cameron lot, proposed to be included in the river park, the meeting adjourned.

Lasell Notes.

On Thursday afternoon the school was photographed in group by Mr. Fritz, the students, teachers and others standing on or about the piazza in front of the building.

Exhibition drill at Lasell on Saturday afternoon. The drill was held on the seminary lawn, which was gaily decorated in honor of the occasion with red, green and yellow, the colors respectively of the companies A, B and C, composing the Lasell Battalion. The windows fronting that part of the lawn also displayed the companies' colors, zealous partisans vying with one another in the taste and beauty of their decorations, and even the driveway entrance flaunted its delicate green banner in the breeze. The crowd's nest and the slopes of the lawn were crowded with spectators. The young cadets did credit to the careful training they have had from their drillmaster, Major Benyon, and received hearty applause from the on-lookers and unqualified commendation from the judges, Capt. Locke, Capt. H. P. Ballard and Lieut. H. H. Clarke of the 5th regiment, M. V. M. The exercises consisted of a competitive company drill, competitive individual drill, sword-swing exercise and dress parade. In the competitive company drill, company A, (red) came off victor and was awarded the prize banner of blue silk; the first prize in the competitive individual drill was won by young sergeant, Florence A. Ray of Ottawa, Canada; the second by fourth sergeant, Grace E. Lord, Everett, Mass.; while Misses Blanche Howard of Concord, N. H., and Julia F. North, Texas, and Helen Holden of Albany, N. Y., received honorable mention. The following held their places in the ranks till the end of the fourth trial drill: Misses Allen, Capt. Wier, Trilbridge, Roising and Walston.

DR. CHAPIN'S
Malaria and Ague Cure.

A sure cure and preventative for all Bilious Fevers and Malarial Diseases. It has been long and successfully used by Dr. Chapin in his practice in Michigan, and is now put up by his son at Auburndale, Mass. Every family should keep it in the house. If your Druggist does not have it, send one dollar to

J. B. CHAPIN,
AUBURNDALE, MASS.

And it will be sent, Express Paid.

Hotels.

The MOOSILAUKE
Breezy Point,
WHITE MOUNTAINS.

Located high up on the southern spur of Mt. Moosilauke, this favorite family hotel is unrivalled as a health resort.

Table and service unexcelled. An ideal spot to spend the vacation or summer. Prices very moderate. Many New England references. For circulars, rates and reservation of rooms, apply to

E. B. WOODWORTH, Concord, N. H., OR
F. P. DART, Newtonville, Mass.

HOTEL HUMAROCK,
Sea View, Mass.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT. A most desirable and healthy location on the South Shore. Extensive improvements are being made to the hotel and the grounds. Mr. W. C. CARTER, care of Messrs. Jackson & Greeley, No. 19 Congress street, Boston, until June 21, will be the agent for the hotel. Hours between 10 and 12 A. M., Mondays and Wednesdays.

LADIES:
Who delight in good fitting, stylish GLOVES, that wear well, too, should patronize

REED, GOWELL & Co
52 Temple Pl., Boston.
where they are fitted and kept in repair free of expense. A trial will result in complete satisfaction and you will be personally gladdened at reasonable prices

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

MIDDLESEX, ss. PROBATE COURT.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary A. Derby late of Newton in said County, deceased.

GREETING:

Whereas a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for Probate, by Manuela J. Harding who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her one of the executrices therein named, the other having declined the trust and that she may be exempt from giving a surety or securities on her bond pursuant to said will and statute:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the second Tuesday of June, A. D. 1893, at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against the same.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic, printed at Newton, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George M. Brooks, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

S. H. FOLSON, Register.

W. J. O'BRIEN & CO.,
HORSE SHOERS.

Special attention paid to interfering, overreaching and tender footed horses. Horses sent for and returned to any part of the city.

Washington, opp Lowell St.,
Newtonville, Mass.

BARGAINS.

B BRASS B BEDSTEADS
Larger variety than found elsewhere.
H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,
70 WASHINGTON ST.
BOSTON.
H. W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

Bicycles.

Union Bicycles

Sold on the Installment Plan. Also Second Hand Wheels taken in part payment for New Ones. Call and see them before purchasing and get Catalogue.

A. W. PORTER, 63 Richardson St.

BICYCLES.

If you desire to realize the benefits of cycling, to the utmost, you should call, examine and try the

COLUMBIA AND HICKORY
BICYCLES.

The easiest running wheels made. Both are equipped with the COLUMBIA PNEUMATIC Tire which holds the World's records from 1 to 5 miles, and the broadest guarantee of the largest manufacturer of Bicycles in the World. Drop a card for a descriptive catalogue of their qualities, which place them at the head in their respective classes. Purchasers taught free.

JOHN S. SUMNER,

Sole Agent for the Newtons.

352 Centre Street, - - Newton, Mass.

EDW. P. BURNHAM,
BICYCLE DEALER,

Agent for the Victor and all the Leading Wheels

Machines Rented to Responsible Parties.

Residence, 25 Park Street, - Newton.

THE POPULAR
NEW MAIL.

Diamond Frame.

Highest Possible Grade.

All Drop Forgings.

Pneumatic Tires, - - $125.

LADIES' PATTERN, - - $105 and $125

The Handsomest Ladies' Wheel made.

BOYS' NEW MAIL, a High Grade

boys' wheel, - - $60 and $65.

Cheaper Quality Boys' Wheels $25 and $35.

Call and get a Catalogue.

BARBER BROS., Agents,

OPPOSITE LIBRARY, - 415 CENTRE STREET.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Michael Devitt to Thomas S. Pingree dated November nineteenth 1874 and recorded in the Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds folio 1322 folio 288 will be sold at public auction upon the premises on Saturday the third day of June 1893 at three o'clock in the afternoon all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described as follows, namely:—A certain piece or lot of land situated in said Newton and in Ward No. 1 and it is bounded and described as follows:—beginning at a point on the northerly side of Pearl Street and two hundred and twenty feet Easterly from the corner of Spring Street, thence running Northwesterly by land of John Cavanaugh one hundred fifty six feet, thence Southeasterly by land of George E. Pike about fifty feet to land of James Dorsey, thence Southeasterly on s'd land of said Dorsey about one hundred and thirty five feet to Pearl Street, thence Westerly on said Pearl Street about fifty feet to place of beginning. Containing about seven thousand square feet of land and being a part of the lot conveyed to me by deeds of John Cavanaugh Trustee and Leonard Ware Jr. by deeds recorded with Middlesex Deeds Book 1063 Page 281 & Book 1023 & Page 281.

Terms: $200, at time and place of sale.

THOMAS S. PINGREE,
Mortgagee.

J. C. KENNEDY, Attorney,
25 State Street, Boston.

Examine Styles
and Compare Prices

WITH THE FINEST LINE OF

Jackets & Capes

EVER OPENED IN WALTHAM.

107, 109, 113 Moody St.,
WALTHAM.

Dentists.

DR. S. F. CHASE,

DENTIST.

Office and Residence, 303 Walnut St., Newtonville.

Careful and thorough operating in all branches

NEW METHOD FOR ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

DR. GEO. A. BATES,

DENTIST,

THORPE HOUSE, MAPLE STREET

Auburndale, Mass.

Office Hours: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

DR. H. E. JOHNSON, D.D.S.

OVER INGRAM'S DRUG STORE.

Refers to many patients of this city.

Office Hours: 8:30 to 11:45 a.m., & 1:30 to 5 p.m.

WEST NEWTON

MILLINERY!

The Milliners at the Juvenile have been in New York the past week selecting the

Latest Novelties for Spring and Summer

trade, and are now prepared to show all the

NEWEST IMPORTATIONS.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,

Elliot Block, Newton.

MRS. E. A. SMITH,

202 Moody St., opp. Walnut St.

WALTHAM, MASS.

FREE CIRCULATING LIBRARY

of Swedenborg's Works,

and other New Church Literature, at the Church

of the Newtonville New Church Society.

Open immediately after the ruling service,

and from 4 to 5 Sunday afternoon

ESTIMATES

On all kinds of Printing cheerfully furnished

the GRAPHIC OFFICE.

A great variety of trimmed hats and bonnets at very moderate prices. Mrs. M.

J. Pendergast, Main street, Watertown. 34

FOR THE LAST TIME.

For the last time we stand together here
And look across to where the lines of light
Along the harbor to the city's height
Flash out with radiance clear.

I cannot help but think how many a night
Your eyes have watched those red lights Drawing near.
When they were all by which you had to steer.

Yet ever sped the little craft aright.

Swift as a bird it flew from pier to pier.
And still I know 'twill wing its watery flight,
And still will happy hearts and faces bright Crowd all its length, as in the bygone year.

Only one face will vanish from our sight,
Only the presence that made all so dear,
Forever from our lives will disappear;
I only know that here you stand tonight
For the last time!

And all the world grows dear.
A sudden, blinding mist shuts from my sight
The distant splendor, blinding red and white.
I will not lift my eyes to yours for fear

That you, too late, should read my soul aright.
I may not touch your hand in parting here,
Yet can no darker cloud o'er life appear
Than when I answer to your calm "Good night!"
For the last time!

—Ida L. Gould in New York Sun.

REVENGED.

It was about half an hour after sunset, but an orange light still burned above the lonely southern valley. The trembling evening star was hanging over the green silences of the fragrant Tennessee woods. Vapor wreathed phantoms from the river course and from the dense thickets that skirted the camp ground came ever, and anon the mournful sound of whippoorwills, sounding faint and low, like the remembered echoes of a dream. Yet Wallace Keene would have given well nigh all he was worth to exchange his luxuriant verdure, one moment only, for the pine clad heights and salt winds of Maine, with russet winged robins chirping their familiar madrigals in the apple orchards below.

"Two years ago I left home," murmured Wallace Keene as he gazed thoughtfully out where the purple sky seemed to touch the waving woods. "Two years since young Harney told me he never would give Marion to a common mechanic," yet the wound rankled sharply still.

"Captain?"
"Is that you, Spicer? What now?" Captain Keene turned his face toward the opening of the tent, where Private Spicer's head was just visible.

"Why, sir, our fellows have just brought in that lot of men that was hurt in that scrimmage across the river this morning, and some on 'em is wounded bad."

"I will be there directly, Spicer."
There was a little crowd of men gathered on the river shore in the warm glow of the spring, but they silently parted right and left for Captain Keene's tall figure to pass through their midst.

Six or seven dusty, bleeding men were sitting and lying around in various posures, their ghastly brows made still paler by the faint, uncertain glimmer of the young moon. Keene glanced quickly around, taking in the whole scene in that brief survey.

He stopped short as his eye fell on a new face, half shadowed by the green sweep of drooping alders—a pale, blood streaked face with a gaping cut on the forehead.

"This is not one of our men!" he exclaimed sharply. "How came he here?"
"No, sir," explained Spicer, stepping forward. "I think he belonged to the Eight. I'm sure I don't know how he ever got mixed up with our fellows, but there he was, and I thought we'd better not wait for their ambulance, but bring him straight here."

"Right," briefly pronounced Keene, stooping over the insensible figure. "Let them carry him to my tent, Spicer."

"I beg your pardon, captain—to your tent?"
"Didn't you hear what I said?" sharply interrogated the superior officer. "Bruce, make the others comfortable in Lieutenant Ordway's quarters. There will be plenty of room for them there."

"Well, I'm beat!" ejaculated Spicer five or ten minutes afterward as he came out of the captain's tent scratching his shock of coarse red curls.

Meanwhile the dim light of a lamp swinging from the center of the little tent shone full on the singular group within its circling folds—the wounded private lying like a corpse, still and pale, on the narrow iron bedstead, the young officer leaning over him and supporting his head—and the brisk, gray eyed little surgeon keenly surveying both as he unfolded his case of phials and powders.

"He is not dead, doctor?"
"No; but he would have been in another half hour. Your prompt remedies have saved his life, Captain Keene."

"Thank God! oh, thank God!"
The surgeon looked at Keene in amazement.

"He doesn't belong to your regiment.
Why are you so interested in the case?"
"Because, doctor," said Keene, with a strange, bright smile, "when I saw him lying under the alders, dead, as I thought, I rejoiced in my secret heart. At first—only at first. The next moment I remembered that I was a man and a Christian. For years I have carried the spirit of Cain in my breast toward that man;
now it is washed out in his blood."

It was high noon of the next day before the wounded man started from a fevered doze into the faint dawn of consciousness.
"Where am I?" he faltered, looking wildly around him, with an ineffectual effort to raise his dizzy head from the pillow.

"Now, be easy," said Private Spicer, who was cleaning his gun by the bedside.
"You're all right, my boy. Where are you? Why in the captain's tent, to be sure, and that's pretty good quarters for the rank and file, I should think."

"The captain's tent? How came I here?"
"That's just what I can't tell you—you'll have to ask himself, I guess. You ain't any relation to Captain Keene, be you?"

"Keene—Keene?" repeated the man.
"Because," pursued Spicer, "if you'd been his own brother, born, he couldn't have taken better care of you. His consin, maybe?"

"No! God forgive me, no!" faltered the wounded man with a low, bitter groan.

"Here he is now," said Spicer, the familiar accents of his voice falling to a more respectfully modulated tone as he rose and saluted his officer. "He's all right, captain—as clear headed as a bell!"

"Very well, Spicer; you can go."
The private obeyed with alacrity.
When they were alone together in the tent, Wallace Keene came to the low bedside.

"So you're all right, Mr. Harney?" he asked kindly.

"Captain Keene," murmured Harney, shrinking from the soothing tone as if it had been a dagger's point, "I have no right to expect this treatment at your hands."

"Oh, never mind," said the young man lightly. "What can I do to make you more comfortable?"

Harney was silent, but his eyes were full of the tears he fain would drive back —tears of remorseful shame—and he turned his flushed face away lest the man he had once so grossly insulted should see them fall.

The next day he again alluded to the home subject.

"Captain Keene, you asked me yesterday what you could do for me?"

"Yes."
"I want you to obtain leave for May to come and nurse me when I am transferred to hospital."

Captain Keene turned toward the sick man a face white and hard as marble and said in a strangely altered voice:
"Do you mean your sister?"

"My sister—yes."

"Of course, if you wish it, I can obtain permission, Harney. But?"

"Well?"

Keene's cheek colored, and he bit his lip.

"I should not suppose she would be willing to leave her husband for the very uncertain comforts of hospital life."

Harney smiled, looking into his companion's face with keen, searching eyes.

"May is not married, Captain Keene.
She has no such appendage as a husband!"

"Not married?"

"I know what you thought. She was engaged and almost married. We had nearly induced her to become Lisle Spencer's wife, but she refused on the very eve of the wedding day."

Keene had risen and was pacing up and down the narrow limits of the tent with feverish haste.

"Because," went on Harney, "she loved a certain young volunteer who left S—about two years ago too well ever to be come any other man's wife."

"Harney—you do not mean to say?"

"I do, though, old fellow, and, what is more, I mean to say that since I've been lying in this tent my eyes have been pretending to be shut, but I've been pretending to be open to my own absurd folly and impertinence."

Captain Keene wrung his companion's hand and hurried away, to mistake the bootjack for the instandant and to commit several other no less inexcusable absurdities.

"I see you'll get nothing written today," sighed Harney as he lay watching Wallace Keene tear up sheet after sheet of condemned note paper.

"I shall, though," smiled Wallace.
"Only I can't tell exactly which end of my letter to begin at."

Captain Keene did write—and if he inserted a little foreign matter into the epistle it didn't matter, for Harney, considerate fellow, never asked to see it.

Marion came, and when her brother was promoted into the convalescent ward, and she went home again, it was only to lose herself in bowers of orange blossoms, forests of white satin ribbon and acres of pearly, shimmering silk, shot with frosty gleams of silvery brocade, for the course of true love, after all its turn and intricacies, had at length found its way into the sunshine and was running smoothly over sands of gold.—
A. R. in New York News.

Simultaneous Games of Chess.

The perfection to which chess may be carried almost implies its imperfection as an amusement. Chess giants like Mr.
Blackburn and the late Henry Zukertort act as warnings rather than ideals to ordinary people in search of amusement.
The latter gentleman once undertook to carry on 18 games simultaneously without looking at the boards. The performance did not end very satisfactorily, for after more than two days' play the mental acrobat surrendered the contest. But the fact of having carried it so far implied a bewildering feat of cerebration, for if the first four moves on either side in a single game admit of 72,000 variations the first four in 18 games make the appalling total of 1,296,000 possible combinations.

Mr. Blackburn is unrivaled as a blindfold player, and he has actually succeeded in winning the majority of 12 simultaneous games without the assistance of sight. The possible variations in the first four moves of these number 864,000.
Performances such as these leave on the mind the oppressive and somewhat humiliating impression of infinity. It is too much of a good thing. One can scarcely imagine how a brain called on to steer through such vast and barren complexities can have any faculties in reserve for useful ratiocination.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Wall Street Full of Schemes.

A feature of market reporting should be the daily statement of the number of men in the street with schemes. They are numerous now and are steadily on the increase, as the railroad brokers and money getters will testify. One of the former was heard to remark the other day, "If you were to stand at the corner of Wall and Broad streets and break with a club the head of every man that came along, the air would be so full of schemes that the sun would be darkened."—New York Tribune.

The Wrong Flower.

Little Miss Goldenhair (proudly)—"We is descended from zee Mayflower." Little Miss Frocks (regarding her intently)—"Is you sure it wasn't a chrysanthemum?"—Good News.

John Thomas' Prayer in a Lighthouse.

John William Thomas, assistant keeper of the Wolf Trap Light station, which encompassed to the ice light week, says he had an experience calculated to quicken his wits and open his weather eye. Mr.
Thomas was alone at the station, which is in 13 feet of water and three miles from the shore. It is not easy to appreciate the dreadful forebodings which filled his mind as day after day he watched the thickening ice, conscious as he was of the great peril which environed him, his distress signals unnoticed, with that vast field of ice expanding its mighty power against the piles and gathering additional strength every moment as it overlapped and piled up against the doomed structure.

To pray in such a crisis was a most natural thing to do, and pray he did, long and fervently, and he feels assured that his prayers were answered, for it was not very long before he descried in the distance the smoke of a steamer battling with the ice. Slowly she proceeded along until, getting almost at the station, she was stopped by the thick ice.

Although the steamer was some half mile out toward the ship channel, the nervy keeper determined to abandon the station to its impending fate and make the effort to reach her. Getting upon the untried ice he proceeded toward her, waving his hat to attract the attention of those on board. When within hailing distance, he cried out lustily to the officer in command, and was told to come aboard, which he did in safety. On leaving the steamer higher up the bay for the shore he broke through the ice in eight feet of water and came near being drowned.—
Cor. Washington Post.

A Salt Lake In Africa.

The French government has just sold to Mr. Chefnieux the right to refine and export salt from Lake Assal, one of the most remarkable sheets of water in the world. The lake is in the district of Obok, East Africa, only a few miles from the head of the bay of Tadjoorah.
The gentleman who has purchased the concession agrees to pay into the colonial office the sum of $10,000 a year, and if, during the 50 years that he is to have the exclusive right to export salt from Lake Assal, the annual product exceeds 50,000 tons he is to pay a tax of 20 cents for every ton in excess. The government will designate a part of the lake where the natives may secure all the salt they want without tax or hindrance. All along the edge of this little lake, which comprises only 16 square miles, is a bed of nearly pure salt about a foot in thickness.

The water of the lake is so surcharged with salt that it is impossible to sink in it. The bottom is apparently a bed of solid salt. The heavy waters have the bases of jagged and precipitous mountains which descend to the edge of the lake, making it almost impossible to travel around it. Mr. Chefnieux will probably carry on his work by floating machinery on the lake and dredging in the salt bed at its bottom, though on the west side of the lake an enormous quantity of salt is in sight when the lake is at its lowest level.—New York Sun.

An English Note on Phillips Brooks.

Those in England who were accustomed to look forward to Phillips Brooks' too rare appearance in London pulpits as to a sort of golden opportunity for new thought and fresh inspiration will sympathize deeply with American Christians who have suffered this great re-virement. They will forget the foolish and undignified controversy which was associated with his name when the Cowley Fathers, in alarm at what they thought to be latitudinarianism, withdrew one of their own number from fellowship with him. And they will remember only the strength, purity and nobles-s of his teaching, his scholarly and chastened eloquence, his deep insight into character, and his extraordinary power of lifting up every subject he discussed into a higher region than that of theological discussion—the region in which conscience and the voice of God are clearly audible, in which the small interests of life seem smaller and the great ones greater, because both are seen in the light of deeply bought spiritual experience, of profound faith and of boundless hope.—London Spectator.

A Well Traveled Letter.

A Rockville man about nine months ago received a letter from his brother, employed on a steamship running out of Bombay, India, asking him to send a United States $5 gold piece, which he wanted to wear as a watch charm. He obtained the coin, inclosed it between two pieces of heavy cardboard, put it in a letter and registered it. The letter started on its way, and Friday it returned to the Rockville office. The envelope presented a remarkable appearance and is a great curiosity, having traveled over 50,000 miles. The letter went to the dead letter office at Bombay, and the coin had disappeared, having probably worn its way out of the letter.

The letter went to various points in the east, as well as England and the continent, in search of the person to whom it was addressed. Every stoppage is registered on the letter, which is covered with marks and writings in all colors.
The letter was returned by Postmaster
Randall to the man who sent it, and although the coin is missing he considers the letter of more value than when he sent it.—Norwich Bulletin.

Reading the Thermometer.

A bellboy at the St. Nicholas, who will one day make his mark as a natural wit if his precociousness is not dimmed by a collegiate education, made a funny report to Clerk Harry Clark one morning last week. A guest of the house on the morning in question came down to the office, and remarking to Clerk that the weather must be very cold asked what the thermometer indicated. Calling up the bellboy, Clark requested him to go out and see what the thermometer indicated, if he could read the same. Going out, he quickly returned, and when asked how cold it was quickly replied that it was "one inch below freezing." Clark fell over a chair, and the patron of the house had a fit.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Clifford Blackman

A Boston Boy's Eyesight

Saved—Perhaps His Life

By Hood's Sarsaparilla—Blood Poisoned by Canker.

Read the following from a grateful mother:
"My little boy had Scarlet Fever when a year old, and it left him very weak and with blood poisoned with canker. His eyes became so inflamed that his sufferings were intense, and for seven weeks he

Could Not Open His Eyes.

I took him twice during that time to the Eye and Ear Infirmary on Charles street, but their remedies failed to do him the faintest shadow of good. I commenced giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla and it soon cured him. I have never doubted that it saved his sight, even if not his very life. You may use this testimonial in any way you choose. I am always ready to sound the praise of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

because of the wonderful good it did my son."
ANDIE F. BLACKMAN, 2883 Washington St.,
Boston, Mass. Get HOOD'S.

HOOD'S PILLS are hand made, and are perfect in composition, proportion and appearance.

Expressmen.

HOLMES'

Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 6.30 A. M. to 8 P. M. When a call may be left, or leave orders at G. P. Atkins, Newton Office at Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins'.
Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing of every description promptly attended to.

Residence: 152 Adams Street, Newton, Mass. 48

PEARSON'S NEWTON AND

BOSTON EXPRESS.

Boston Offices: 91 Kilby st., 105 Arch st., 33 Court st., 100 Essex st., 100 Faneuil Hall Market.
NEWTON OFFICE at H. B. Coffin's, Orde Houses at Post Office and Blanchard & Atkins'.

Leave Newton at 9.30 A. M.

Leave Boston at 3 P. M.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER, NEW-

TON & BOSTON EXPRESS.

Leave Newton, 7.30 and 9.30 A. M.; leave Boston, 12 M. and 3 P. M.
NEWTON OFFICE: 334 Centre Street, Orde
Houses: Newton City Market, BOSTON OFFICES:
15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court Square, 26 Merchants Row, 67 Faneuil Hall St., 11
Harrison Ave., Extension. Post Office address:
Box 420, Newton.

Personal Attention Given all Orders.

S. L. PRATT,

FUNERAL AND FURNISHING UNDERTAKER

Newton Centre, Mass.

First-class Appointments and Competent Assistants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the office of Fanning Printing Co., which will immediately be forwarded to me by telephone.
Also shall continue in the Hack, Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand corner of Beacon and Station Streets. 31

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND

NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c and $1 a package. If you cannot get it, send your address for a free sample.
Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy this is necessary.
Address ORATOR F. WOODWARD, LE ROY, N.Y.

Ripans Tabules relieve scrofula.

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

RENNE'S
PAIN KILLING MAGIC OIL

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lameness, Migraine, Toothache, Sore Throat,
Diphtheria, Burns, Sprains, Strains,
Gripes, Cholera Morbus, Dyspepsia, Stomachic, &c.
Sold Everywhere. 25 cents.

Ripans Tabules relieve headache.

Don't Drink

Impure Water longer than for 50c. you can get a good water. They will fit a faucet which it has thread or

ot. Call and see at Barber Bros.

Mortgagee's Sale
of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Mary T. Hall, Mary A. Hall, Frank E. Burbank, Sarah C. Burbank wife of the said Frank E. Burbank, and W.
Otis Hall to Austin R. Mitchell, dated the twenty-first day of June, A. D. 1890, and recorded in the South District Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex, Libro 1882, page 155, will be sold at public auction on the premises on the fifth day of June, A. D. 1893, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all at singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely, A certain tract of land with the buildings thereon situated in that part of Newton, in said County of Middlesex called Newtonville upon the southerly side of Court street, being lot numbered Three upon a plan of land in Newtonville, late belonging to Austin R. Mitchell, made by E. S. Smith, Surveyor, dated July 1887, bounded and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northeasterly corner of the granted premises at said Court street and lot number four upon said plan at a point distant fifty (50) feet westerly from land of William Claflin, thence southerly by said lot number four, being land now or late of said Mitchell one hundred and thirty-one and forty-five one-hundredths (131.45) feet to lot number Seven on said plan; thence westerly by said lot number Seven and lot number Six fifty (50) feet to lot number Two on said plan, being land now or late of said Mitchell; thence northerly by said lot number Two one hundred and thirty-one and seventy-five one-hundredths (131.75) feet to said Court street; thence easterly by said Court street fifty (50) feet to the point of beginning, containing six thousand six hundred and forty-nine (6649) square feet of land more or less, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.

Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of the sale.

SAMUEL J. SHAW,
Assignee of said Mortgage.

J. B. PHIPPS, Auctioneer.

258 Washington Street, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale
of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John Rutland of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to George D. Cox of said Newton, dated Sept. 10th, 1892, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2143, Folio 469, duly assigned to Daniel W. Desmond by assignment dated Sept. 19th, 1892, recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Libro 2145, folio 482, will be sold for breach of condition contained therein at Public Auction upon the premises on Monday, 5th day of June, 1893, at 8 o'clock in the forenoon, all the right title and interest in and to the premises conveyed by said Mortgage Deed, viz:

Being lot numbered fourteen (14) on a plan of land made by Wm. Bradford, Surveyor, dated April 15, 1889, and recorded with Middlesex So.
Dist. Deeds, with plan-book No. 62 containing 3200 square feet, situated on the westerly side of Kensington Street in that part of Newton called West Newton and bounded and described as follows viz:—Easterly by Kensington Street as shown on said plan, forty (40) feet; northerly by lot number fifteen (15) on said plan eighty (80) feet; westerly by land of Monks, forty (40) feet; southerly by lot number thirteen (13) on said plan eighty (80) feet, and is subject to a prior mortgage of $2000 and interest. Terms at Sale.

DANIEL W. DESMOND

The assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

J. B. PHIPPS, Auctioneer.

258 Washington Street, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale
of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by John Rutland of Newton in the County of Middlesex, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to George D. Cox of said Newton, dated Sept. 10th, 1892, and recorded

Financial.

NORTHERN INVESTMENT COMPANY.

Regular Dividends 6 1/2% Per Annum.

AS INVESTS IN CHOICEST BUSINESS CORPERS, in a large city where real estate continually increases in value and increased rentals will add to the income from year to year.

Cash Capital paid in March 1st, over $900,000.

Price of Stock 103 50-100 per share.

H. L. Warner, Pres. of Nat'l Bank of Sioux City (Capital One Million) Says:

"Everything considered, I can assure you that, in my judgment, the NORTHERN INVESTMENT COMPANY has shown great wisdom and foresight in the selection of its real estate in this city, and it seems to me almost impossible that its investments here should prove otherwise than safe and profitable."

For further particulars apply at the Company's Office, Nos. 7 to 11 Advertiser Building, 240 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., where Plans and Photographs can be seen.

GEORGE LEONARD, Pres.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.
INCORPORATED 1831.

Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Banking Rooms in Newton National Bank Building.

JAMES F. C. HYDE, President.

JOHN WARD, Vice President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treas.

TRUSTEES: Joseph N. Bacon, Jas. F. C. Hyde, Duane Lacey, Francis Murdock, Samuel M. Jackson, William D. Strong, Charles A. Miner, Elliott J. Hyde, John Ward, Chas. T. Folsom, Warren P. Fyfe and Harry W. Mason.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT: James F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Murdock, Chas. A. Miner, Clerk and Auditor.

H. W. MASON, Attorney.

Quarter days, TENTH day January, April, July and October. Dividends declared the Tuesday following January 10th and July 10th, are payable the next day.

West Newton Savings Bank
Incorporated 1837.

West Newton, Mass.

AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees: Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Prescott C. Brigham, Charles A. Potter, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Cate, Adame R. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter.

Committee of Investment: Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Charles A. Potter, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business daily, 9.30 to 11 a. m., 2.30 to 4 p. m.

Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President.

B. FRANKLIN BACON, Clerk.

DO YOU WANT
To learn Watchmaking?

If so, attend the American-Waltham Watchmakers School, where any and all parts of the trade are taught in the most thorough manner.

For further information address or apply to

SAUL BROTHERS,

135 Moody St., Waltham

T. F. CLENNAN.

Carriage Trimming & Harness

MAKING.

BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, &c.

Washington Street, Newton.

J. J. JOHNSON,

FLORIST.

CONSERVATORIES,

School Street, Newton.

Floral Decorations for Weddings, Receptions, etc., etc.

Cut Flowers and Bedding Plants.

SULPHUR BITTERS

IT WILL drive the humor from your system, and make your skin clean and smooth. Those Pimples and Blisters which mar your beauty are caused by IMPURE BLOOD.

They can be removed in a short time, if you are wise and use the great blood purifier, Sulphur Bitters.

TRY A BOTTLE TO-DAY.

Why suffer with Boils? Why rave with that terrible headache? Why lay and toss on that bed of pain with RHEUMATISM? Use Sulphur Bitters. They will cure you where all others fail. The dose is small—only a teaspoonful. TRY IT and you will be satisfied. The young, the aged and tottering are made well by its use. Remember what you read here, it may save your life, it has SAVED HUNDREDS.

If you are suffering from Kidney Disease, and wish to live to old age, use Sulphur Bitters. They never fail to cure. Get it of your Druggist.

DON'T WAIT. GET IT AT ONCE.

Sulphur Bitters will cure Liver Complaint. Don't be discouraged; IT WILL CURE YOU.

Send 3 2-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

Adams, W. L. Lincoln. Amateur Photography; a Practical Guide for the Beginner.	101.663
Written by the editor of the Photographic Times.
Bremont, Anna, Comtesse de. The World of Music; the Great Composers.	92.72
Bremont, Anna, Comtesse de. The Great Singers.	92.73
Bremont, Anna, Comtesse de. The Great Virtuosi.	92.74
Short sketches of some great musicians, in which the writer depicts the trials and struggles of their lives.
Crockett, S. R. The Stickit Minister and some Common Men.	64.1305
Sketches of Scottish life and character.
Densmore, Emmet, M. D. How Nature Cures; comprising a New System of Hygiene; also, the Natural Food of Man.	104.479
A statement of the principal arguments against the use of bread, cereals, pulses, potatoes and all other starch foods.
Edgeworth, Maria. Waste not, Want not; and Barring out; Two Tales with Bios, Introd. and Notes. (Riverside Literature Series.)	61.836
Granny's Glasses, and a Peep through them.	66.713
Grinnell, George Bird. Blackfoot Lodge Tales; the Story of a Prairie People.	55.478
Indian stories, pictures of Indian life from the Indian's point of view, telling of the history, customs and oral literature of the tribe.
Gummere, Francis B. Germanic Origins; a Study in Primitive Culture.	83.182
Hamilton, Edward John. The Modelist; or the Laws of Rational Conviction; a Text-Book on Formal or General Logic.	55.472
Hornbrook, Rev. Francis B. The Necessity and Value of Life in Common, (and other Sermons.)	93.617
Hungerford, Margaret. (The Duchess.) Nora Greina.	64.1304
Macpherson, William Charteris. The Baronage and the Senate; or the House of Lords in the Past, the Present and the Future.	85.185
An attempt to trace the growth and constitution of the British Peerage.
Merodith, George. Modern Love; additional. Stage Enamoured and the Honest Lady.	52.531
O'Keefe, Katherine A. A Longfellow Night; Sketch of the Poet's Life, with Songs and Recitations from his Works; for Schools and Literary Societies.	52.528
Portraits and Biographical Sketches of Twenty American Authors. (Riverside Literature Series.)	91.759
Redford, George. Sculpture; Egyptian, Assyrian, Greek, Roman; with a Chronological List of Ancient Sculptors and their Works.	103.583
Arranged under the sections of Technique, Aesthetic, Historic and Examples.
Roberts, R. D. The Earth's History; an Introduction to Modern Geology.	101.651
Deals more especially with the geology of Great Britain.
Stuckenberg, John Henry William. The Age and the Church.	94.543
A study of the age, and of the adaptation of the Church to its needs.
Whitby, Beatrice. In the Sunshine of her youth.	62.937
Willard, Frances E. and Livermore, M. A. eds. A Woman of the Century; 1470 Biog. Sketches of Leading American Women in all Walks of Life. Rel.	77.184
Wilson, Jas. Grant, ed. Memorial History of New York. Vols. 1, 2.	101.659
Wright, J. Horticulture; Ten Lectures.
These lectures were delivered before audiences mainly composed of the industrial classes, chiefly workers on the land.
E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.
May 24, 1893.

PROUD OF ITS WORK.

REPORT OF THE NEW ENGLAND TARIFF REFORM LEAGUE.

The annual report of the New England Tariff Reform League has just been issued. It shows the receipts for the year to have been about $5000, and the expenses about the same. There is a balance of about $1000 on hand. The report says, among other things: "The membership of the league has increased to 1500, against 1440 last year, and has been multiplied by not a few former adherents of the protectionist party. "This league will have no period of deserved rest until the goal of revenue duties only is attained. While any class of Americans is permitted by law to prosper at the expense of the people, through special grant of Congress, no protest must be spared and no opportunity for popular enlightenment overlooked. "If the Home Market Club, and protectionists generally, draw inspiration from defeat, how much greater inspiration must the tariff reformers draw from unqualified success. With a President and Congress belonging to a party whose campaign cry was uncompromising tariff reform, the outlook is more than favorable, and the members of the New England Tariff Reform League have every reason to be proud of the work accomplished thus far."

The Newton Boulevard.

(Brighton ten.) Newton is keenly alive to the importance of the proposed South street boulevard, and from the partial report submitted to the Aldermen, Monday, by the boulevard commission the residents along the proposed line assume a most satisfactory position.

As we have remarked before the continuation of the Beacon street boulevard, by way of Chestnut Hill avenue and South street, and through Newton means a great deal for the southerly section of our district, such being the case it is pleasant to have the matter considered almost sure of speedy materialization. To Newton the thoroughfare is practically a necessity, and it ought to be safe to depend much on our neighbors' agitation of the matter in the early accomplishment of a move in the scheme.

Waltham Races.

The following Newton men are entered in the Waltham cycle races, for Decoration day:

One-third mile open—J. C. Bell, Newton.

One-third mile open—J. C. Bell, Newton.

Two mile handicap—Geo. H. Carter, Wm. Pettigrew, J. C. Bell.

Two mile team—E. P. Burnham and J. F. Clark of the Press Cycling Club.

Two mile handicap—Geo. H. Carter, Wm. Pettigrew.

One-third mile open—Geo. H. Carter, E. P. Burnham, J. C. Bell.

"Uncle Sam's Housekeeping."

The following very bright response to the above toast was given by Eloise A. Sears, M. D., at a supper of the W. S. of Waltham, and as the hearers considered it too good to be lost, some of those present from Newton have secured it for publication in the GRAPHIC:

Did you ever see a man try to keep house alone? Perhaps some of the gentlemen before me have experimented in this line. If the good wife when she goes away leaves plenty of food in the pantry; if the dishes hold out on their journey from the table to the sink; if she takes all the children with her, and relatives and friends make no visits during his solitary reign, he gets along after a fashion, always provided she doesn't stay too long.

Now I think Uncle Sam is the only example we can call to mind, who has tried this melancholy method of housekeeping for himself. He has a poor old man making wretched work of it. He has this vast establishment of forty-three compartments, many of them of immense dimensions, with his eastern windows looking out on the Atlantic, and the sparkle and dance of the sunlight as it is reflected from the broad Pacific lighting up the western windows; it requires a great deal of time to keep everything running smoothly. He has many sons and daughters of his own, and although he has often been remonstrated with, he is continually adopting more. He does not seem to have the heart to turn away any of them when they come knocking at his door, asking permission to enter, i. e. only occasionally. If they wear their hair braided down their backs, and their shoes turn up at the toes, he tells them they had better run home, and he even now thinking of sending them back at his own expense. Nevertheless it is his wont to take in all, from the highest to the lowest, if they have any suggestion in their appearance of belonging to the human family. And does not this very large family of boys and girls help the old gentleman in his domestic affairs? Truly they do. Well, he has some very peculiar notions. He allows the boys to take hold and help. Son Grover seems to be quite a favorite just now, and Daniel and John and Hoke and Hilary and Nilson, but he says, he thinks too much of his daughters to allow them to do anything; he is afraid the girls will be corrupted if they work with the boys. True they have always lived together, have been sent to school and church together, and are on pretty good terms with each other, but they mustn't work together, in the general household.

The girls have often wondered, if when the boys work, they are obliged to go through some process which changes them into wild beasts, and they become dangerous. Daughters Lucy and Susan B. and Elizabeth C. and a host of others who now live under the sod, have importuned Uncle Sam for more than forty years to let them help him. If they see so many ways in which they could be of immense service, but he, for so many years, has given them "leave to withdraw" from his presence, and he and the boys go sauntering on alone, a lot of men trying to keep house alone. The old paternal head is shaken when the girls ask for the privilege of helping along, and he says, no, no, it will never do, you will be unsexed. Women trying to keep house, what folly, and if I let these my own daughters help me, whom I have reared so carefully—there are my adopted daughters, who must be allowed the same privilege, and although I have placed my adopted sons on the same footing with my own sons, here in my household, I am afraid of the girls. No! no! no letting down the bars. Of course it takes a great deal of money to carry on an establishment like Uncle Sam's, and he is obliged to call upon both sons and daughters to contribute to the family fund, and I have heard that there has been some discontent among the girls on this account. I have even heard it whispered that this way of requiring them to help support the family, while they have no voice in its management, is unjust and tyrannical. The blood of the daughters is boiling, and sometimes rises in revolt when they remember that they sacrificed their lives for the principle that "Taxation without representation is Tyranny," and they sometimes feel that this inequality in the family management is unworthy of the Father of such a family.

Quite often the old gentleman has a good deal of company to entertain. This summer in particular he is expecting a small army of visitors, so he has asked Bertha P. and a few of the girls to help entertain a little. Their response has been so gracious and they have been so generous in their preparations, and have managed so admirably, and shown such skill and such a dextrous tact and ability that the old man may get his eyes open, and discover what he has missed all these years in not letting the girls take a hand at helping in other matters, some of which have been in such a angle.

There is a legend that Uncle Sam once had a sweet heart, but he thought her too lovely to be a helpmeet, so he made her into a goddess, that he might worship her, and he sends her picture out each year to the inhabitants of his realm as a memorial. I suppose it is the same goddess that once passed through his mind. Take up a quarter or half dollar and you will see the fair lady in flowing robes, with her shield beside her, bearing the one word "Liberty," but that word is only put there for effect, it doesn't mean anything. Things are not always what they seem. There is a getting to be a feeling among many people, and it is rapidly increasing and intensifying, that Uncle Sam's housekeeping isn't all that it should be. Many think the feminine element which is always instructive and economical, has been left out of his domestic arrangements, greatly to the detriment of this family, and that he needs the woman's heart and brain to help in this great undertaking, and that when he secures these he will have a home, over the gateway of which he can write "Republican," and "Liberty" will be a reality, then can all his children—both sons and daughters honestly join in singing "My Country 'tis of Thee, Sweet land of Liberty."

Then can the goddess look upon the inscription on her shield without a blush, then can she extend her sheltering arms and clasp in her embrace all the foster children whom she has always loved and longed to endow with her own force, that they might thus attain, the end and object of being; attainable only through freedom; a brighter sight than hitherto Uncle Sam has been afraid to recognize as the common property of all his legitimate children. "But the good time coming" girls, "wait a little longer."

My Wife Said

to me last night: How much do you suppose we have paid out for doctors and medicine in the last year? I told her I did not know. To doctors I have paid nothing, and five dollars' worth of Sulphur Bitters has kept health in our family. L. Andrews, 12 Bowdoin street, Boston.

How to Build Sewers.

A Newton gentleman sends us the following from the Public Ledger of Norfolk, Va.:

The city of New Orleans appears to have started on the right track years ago in dealing with franchises for city railroads. This is a system of roads in the city, the franchises for which for a period of twenty-five years, cost the companies $720,000. These franchises will shortly expire and they are to be sold for a period of fifty years and the money is to be used for establishing a system of drainage for the city. The franchises are estimated to be worth at least a million and a half dollars, and this large sum will go a long way towards paying for the improvement of the city's sewer system. The people of New Orleans take a practical business view of this franchise matter and by selling the use of the streets to railroad companies, obtain money for public purposes which would otherwise come out of the pockets of the taxpayers. There is no good reason why valuable privileges, which are the property of municipalities, should be given away when large sums could be obtained for them. The New Orleans plan commends itself to other cities.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

Coughing Leads to Consumption, Kemp's Balsam stops the cough at once.

I have had catarrh for twenty years, and used all kinds of remedies without relief. Mr. Smith, druggist, of Little Falls, recommended Geo. Terry's Catarrh Pills. The effect of the first application was magical, it allayed the inflammation and the next morning my head was clear as a bell. I am convinced its use will effect a permanent cure. It is soothing and pleasant, and I strongly urge its use by all sufferers.—Geo. Terry, Little Falls, N. Y.

Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for
Pitcher's Castoria.Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Livery Stables.

Daniels' Nonantum Stables
HENRY C. DANIELS, PROPRIETOR.
Livery and Hacking.

Patrons will find at these stables the best of Horses and Carriages for hire.

Landau and Hack, with good horses and experienced drivers, for Pleasure Service and Funerals. Safe and reliable horses for ladies to drive.

BOARDING.

Superior accommodations for Boarding Horses, and comfortable stalls; careful and prompt attention.

Telephone 13 3.

GEO. W. BUSH.

Livery, Hack and Boarding Stable.

Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses.

Hacks at depot for conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages at for business or pleasure.

ELMWOOD STREET.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable

(Established 1861.)

Barge, "City of Newton."

Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."

S. F. CATE, West Newton

Carpenters and Builders.

G. W. RIGBY,

Carpenter and Builder.

ALL JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

Shop: WASHINGTON ST., opp. WABAN

NEWTON MASS.

S. K. MacLEOD

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.

Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's Work a Specialty.

Shop, Centre Place, opp. Public Library

Residence, Boyd street, near Everett.

P. O. Box, 650, NEWTON, MASS.

Fish and Provisions.

Newton City Market.

ALL KINDS OF

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME.

Fish and Oysters

Butter, Cheese, Eggs,

Canned Goods, Fruit,

and Vegetables.

413 Centre St., Opposite Public Library.

Wellington Howes, Proprietor

FISH OYSTERS,

Vegetables & Fruit of all Kind.

—AT—

Bunting's Fish Market.

COLE'S BLOCK.

Established 1877. Connected by Telephone

Lumber.

LUMBER.

GILKEY & STONE,

ARSENAL ST., WATERTOWN.

C. A. HARRINGTON

LIME, CEMENT

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre

Agent of the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes a specialty of advertising, handbills and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald. A boy.

—Mr. G. J. C. White of the Hill is to travel through the West for a time.

—Miss Barton has returned from a visit to Beaumont.

—The old Ireland house has been removed from Ward to Irving street.

—The markets and stores will not be open Decoration day.

—Mrs. Nancy P. Coffin of Nantucket is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Oliver J. Hall.

—Miss Wardwell, Irving street, has returned from a visit to Worcester.

—Mr. Ezra C. Dudley returned from the West this week.

—Mrs. W. S. Brien, Marshall street, has gone to Pittsburg, Pa.

—Miss Jennie Scott of Glasgow, Scotland, is the guest of Miss Kate Clark, Institution avenue.

—Mr. Denning and family who have been occupying Mr. C. Howard Wilson's house, returned to New York Friday.

—Mr. W. H. Johnson of the Hill, residing on Pleasant street, has received an appointment to a church in Connecticut.

—Mr. C. Brewster and family of New York have moved into Mr. Chas. Everett's house on Park street.

—Miss Henshaw of Paul street has taken a position as bookkeeper at Richardson's market.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Mrs. Daley, Minnie Downie, Geo. Oxford, J. W. Peterson, Geo. Sweet.

—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Richardson have named their infant son, Hughes, after their pastor, who is deservedly popular among his people.

—Notes and queries, No. 1. How shall property be protected that is on exhibition in front of our stores.

—Mr. Edward B. Bowen of Denver, Col., will soon visit his mother at Mr. Thompson's, Hartford street, have returned to Newtonville.

—Miss Julia A. Huestis, who kept a boarding house so many years here, has taken the Bidalia Cottage at Winthrop Beach.

—Mrs. J. H. Sawyer of Hammond street is in Chicago at the World's Fair, and attended the Woman's Congress held in that city.

—Mr. W. C. Bray is putting in the foundation for a large greenhouse to be built on his estate, Institution avenue. Another tennis court is also being laid out.

—Mrs. Levi C. Wade of Oak Hill is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Rogers of Bath, Me.

—Mrs. A. R. Dyer and daughter, Miss Grace Dyer, arrived home on Friday from Europe and Italy, where the latter has been pursuing her studies.

—Mr. John A. Andrews of Hammond street, who has made many improvements on the estate he purchased of Mr. Bell, left this week for Chicago with his family.

—Mr. Frederick W. Turner, Jr., and family, Norwood avenue, have gone to their summer residence at Atlantic Hill, Nantasket.

—Rev. Geo. H. Geyer, pastor of Hope chapel, Boston, preached at the Methodist church, Sunday evening, in exchange with the pastor.

—N. H. S. visited Milbury Saturday and defeated the local team by a score of 9-5, in seven innings.

—Mrs. Chas. Estey has returned from a visit down east, and on the evening of her return was surprised by a small party of friends.

—On Saturday afternoon, May 27th, the Newtons will play the Newton Highlands baseball club. On May 30, at 3:20 p. m., the Newtons will play the Bridgewater Normal school team.

—Mr. H. L. Morse of the Institution has accepted an appointment to have charge of the mission transfer work at a station in Africa. He will leave for his new field about July 15.

—Prof. J. B. Thomas and family have left town for the season. They are at the Quince House, Boston, for a few weeks, before going to their summer home at Newport. Their residence on Warren street has been taken by Mr. C. Cotton.

—The street railway employees have been busy this week putting up the wires for the electric and they are now nearly ready. Some work has been done on the Homer street track and every effort is being made to get things in running order so as to start the cars on Memorial day if the sewer is finished in time.

—Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes are to leave for Pittsburg, the first of next week and the people of the Baptist church will take leave of them on Monday evening from seven to nine in the church parlors. They invite all friends in the village and elsewhere to come and say good bye.

—James Coveny, clerk for W. O. Knapp, was thrown from the wagon by the horse stumbling when descending a hill on Station street on Saturday. The wagon passed over him and his face and shoulder were badly bruised, preventing his working this week.

—On next Sunday morning, The Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R., of this city, will worship at the Methodist church. There will be special music and a sermon by Rev. E. H. Hughes on "The Two Memorials." In the evening the pastor will preach on "The Duty and Habit of Church Attendance."

—Rev. Joel H. Metcalf of Roslindale, will occupy the pulpit of the Unitarian society, next Sunday. Service at 10:45, Sunday school at 12.

—A beer team driven by George Imberschied was held up by Officers Fletcher and Condon in the Thompsonville district, Wednesday afternoon. Imberschied is accused of illegal sales, and the entire stock of the wagon was seized, consisting of 58 gallons of lager, three gallons of porter and three gallons of ale. Imberschied was arraigned in court Thursday morning, but desired time to secure counsel and the case was continued until Saturday.

—The Boston Record says of Hovey: "A great deal of honest regret has been caused in the sporting and college worlds by Fred Hovey's action in leaving the second base of Harvard's nine. Hovey is one of Harvard's best players, and he can ill afford to lose him. He is a great second baseman and an almost sure hitter. Hovey played in 31 games last year, during which he made 39 runs and 38 base hits, three of which were home runs. He made 62 put-outs, 53 assists and 22 errors."

—Rev. Professor Henry S. Nash, of the Episcopal Theological school, Cambridge, will preach in Trinity church, Sunday evening at 7:30. At the Sunday evening services, leaflets containing the service in consecutive order are furnished for those who may not be familiar with the Prayer book. Next Sunday (Trinity Sunday) the services will be as follows: Holy Communion 9, Sunday school 9:30, morning prayer and sermon 10:30, evening prayer, 7:30. There is a short service with a brief address Wednesdays at 5.

A party of twelve young men, nine of them from Newton Centre, had a narrow escape from drowning the first of the week. A yacht was chartered and they started Saturday night on a cruise to fish and take a look at the New York. Everything went well the first of the trip, the New York was visited early in the morning and then they cruised off Minot's Ledge and fished until afternoon. About three o'clock the wind freshened, the water became rough and the homeward voyage was begun. Sea sickness soon prevailed, and to add to their peril the boat sprung a leak, necessitating continuous bailing. At four o'clock a heavy squall struck the boat, throwing her nearly on her beam ends and she was struck by the wave and knocked through the skylight into the cabin below, and the same sea loosed the anchor, which fell over the bow and stove two holes in her bottom before the accident was discovered. Some of those aboard were badly frightened, one man stripping off his coat and grabbing a water cask, ready to jump overboard, and others offering as high as $50 to be landed on a rock 20 feet from shore, an impossibility, with the wind then blowing off shore. The new leak soon flooded the cabin to the depth of two feet, and four men were kept busy bailing, the others being too sea sick to leave the bunk, until 10:45 Sunday night, when they finally reached their mooring at City Point.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Mr. Leonard Bacon is some better and is able to sit up.

—Miss Minnie Hyde has gone to Chicago in company with friends.

—Mr. A. R. Cook and Mrs. Blood have had their houses newly painted.

—If the walls of the postoffice were nicely tinted it would be a great improvement.

—Mrs. Cobb and the Logans have arrived home from their stay in Chicago.

—Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Ward will go to their summer home at Gloucester on Saturday.

—Next Sunday, Trinity Sunday, services at St. Paul's will be at 10:45 a. m. and 7 p. m. with Sunday school at 12:15 p. m.

—The Chautauque Circle will meet next Monday at Mrs. Geo. A. Moore's on Floral avenue.

—Rev. C. A. Shatto has been invited to preach a memorial sermon at Waban next Sunday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Merriam, who have been boarding the past winter at Mr. Thompson's, Hartford street, have returned to Newtonville.

—Mrs. O'Connor has been at Dorchester for a few days to visit her father and mother, who have just returned from Florida, where they have spent the winter months.

—Rev. Dr. Dunning will have charge of the services at the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening. Subject for the evening will be the Book of Job.

—The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. Brackett. This will be the last meeting for the season and a full attendance is desired.

—The house belonging to Mr. E. H. Tarbell, corner of Lincoln and Chester streets, started on its journey to Erie avenue on Wednesday.

—At the annual meeting of the Woman's Educational Club held at West Newton, last week, Mrs. Kathleen M. Phelps was chosen one of the vice-presidents and Mrs. Annie M. Cobb a director.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Parker of Bowdoin street have an addition to their household by the birth of a daughter.

—Harry Kimball, who has been several days very ill with pneumonia, in addition to the rheumatic fever, is not improving, but remains about the same.

—The paper read before the Monday Club by Mrs. Tryon, on "Birds," was an entertaining and instructive one and was highly appreciated by the members.

—Meeting of the Young Peoples' Christian Endeavor Society at the Congregational church, Tuesday evening at 7:30. Topic, "Trust." All cordially invited.

—Unitarian services will be held in the Episcopal chapel next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. J. C. Jaynes of West Newton will preach. This will be the last service until after the summer vacation. In the autumn it is hoped that arrangements may be made so that the regular Sunday services shall be held in the morning instead of the afternoon.

—Home Lodge, I. O. O. F., dedicated their new lodge rooms in Stevens Hall, last evening, with the initiation of six members, and a fine banquet. The grand officers were present and the new rooms were much admired. The lodge has been burned out twice, but each time has come out with finer quarters.

—A strawberry festival will be given by the Congregational Ladies' Sewing Circle at the chapel on Thursday evening, June 1st. Those who patronize the festival may be sure that they are aiding the ladies in carrying on their charitable work and that it will be worthily bestowed.

—The third annual festival of the Massachusetts Choir Guild is divided into three series. The service, which the choir from Newton Highlands takes part will be held in Emmanuel church, Boston, June 8th, in the evening. Master Franklin L. Wood of Newton Highlands has been selected as soprano soloist by the conductor, Mr. Geo. L. Osgood.

—Sunday's music at the Congregational church will include, among other numbers, "The Invocation" for basso, "Jehovah guide us," by Mozart. Special music will be given for the Grand Army service Sunday, May 28th. The church quartet will sing arrangements of "To Thee O dear country," "Fencing tonight on the old camp ground" and "The vacant chair."

—Services appropriate to the Sunday before Memorial Day will be held Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in Stevens Hall, M. E. Society. Rev. C. A. Shatto will give a memorial address. Mr. Williams will play patriotic hymns on his cornet and there will be singing of war songs. All veterans, sons of veterans and those interested in the soldiers are specially invited to be present. The usual services will be held at 10:45 in the morning.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Where are the Brighton ball tossers?

—Frank Jones opens his store on Monday.

—Joseph Mason is in New York on business.

—Mr. James Leach has returned from Brooklyn, N. Y.

—Mr. James Leach, Jr., is tearing down the ell to his house and making improvements.

—A bath room is being put into the Methodist parsonage on High street. J. W. Redmond of the Highlands is doing the work.

—Mr. Amos L. Hale is building another double house on Oak street, Contractor Hurley doing the work.

—Miss Belle Cusick and Miss Hannah Percy have left the silk mill, and are at work in Highlandville.

—Mrs. Wm. A. Leonard of High street, after an illness of several weeks, passed away very peacefully Wednesday evening. Her home had always been in Upper Falls and it was only a year ago she was united in marriage. One of those quiet, lovely characters which always win friends, there are many who mourn her departure. The funeral takes place tomorrow morning.

—There are all sorts of rumors about the street railway building more track. Some say they are going to build down Summer street and stop in the square, others that they are going to run down to the corner of Eliot and Chestnut street and others think they will build the loop line through Summer, Chestnut and Oak streets. None of these rumors have any foundation in fact. The probability is that when any change is made the road will run via Chestnut, Beacon and Washington street to the Lower Falls and connect at some future time with the line at Newtonville for Watertown making a continuous trip from Lower Falls to Watertown.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Conoly, 55 years of age, made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide Saturday afternoon. She jumped from a stone causeway off Walnut street, Newtonville, into Bullough's pond. The woman was seen by Asst. Supt. McLean of the Newton & Boston Street Company, just as she leaped into the water. He went at once to her assistance and succeeded in getting her safely ashore. She, although the woman strenuously resisted. After getting the woman out of the pond, a messenger was dispatched for the police patrol wagon and in that she was taken to the Cottage Hospital. Aside from the uncomfortable condition of wet garments, the woman was not much the worse for her plunge into the pond. Her act was due, it is thought, to mental aberration. Mrs. Conoly resides on Ellis street.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. Geo. Reed has removed to South Boston.

—Congratulations to our newly appointed postmaster.

—Mrs. A. M. Prentiss made a short visit here among friends last week.

—Mrs. Stoddard has rented the Bullock house, Wellesley Hills, for the summer.

—Mr. E. T. Rice is slowly recovering from a long and painful illness, being now able to be out.

—The Newton Ice Co. is now composed of the firm of Miller & Hatch, formerly Miller & Grant.

—Mr. M. H. McAvoy has returned to the position in the Dudley mills he resigned three weeks ago.

—Fitzgerald Bros. have purchased a handsome pair of horses to add to their well fitted stable.

—Mr. W. A. Leonard has the heartfelt sympathy from a host of friends here by the sad and sudden death of his wife, occurring at Upper Falls Wednesday morning.

—All are pleased to learn that Mr. James A. Early our popular grocery dealer located in Freeman block, is to be our next postmaster. The office will be fitted after some improvements and attractions for it have been completed.

—A musical and literary entertainment at Freeman block, Wednesday evening, given by a quartet from the Boston University, attracted a large and select audience. The program was well rendered and met with the hearty approval of all present.

—The burning of the Kelley glue factory at Nahant Saturday evening was a very distinctly here. Hose 3 from this end of Wellesley was at the scene quite early, but could do nothing toward stopping the blaze as the hydrants are within a half mile from the factory. The buildings were totally consumed.

WABAN.

—Mrs. Mary A. Dresser has had her house painted this week.

—Mr. L. K. Harlow arrived from Europe last Friday.

—Miss Ida Collins and Mr. Philip Collins are to be married next Wednesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gould and Master Anna Gould have taken their departure for the World's Fair.

—Rev. Mr. Shatto of Boston University will preach the "memorial sermon" here next Sunday.

—Eliot Robinson, Esther Saville, Marston Woodbury, Lillian Buffum, Marshall Raymond are among the sufferers from measles this week.

—Through error it was stated last week that Thomas Mulligan had died, such is not the case however, the deceased name was Morris Kelly.

—A still alarm Saturday evening brought Hose 7 of Upper Falls to a brush fire in the woods in rear of the house of Mr. Wm. Dresser. The fire caught from sparks blown over from the burning glue factory across the river.

—The magnificent mastiff belonging to the City Farm was shot through the shoulder last Saturday night by an unknown man. The dog is one of the largest of its kind in Newton and weighs about 140 lbs. The wound may not prove fatal.

—A man entered the houses of Mr. Childs and Mr. Flint last Friday night, but only obtained a small amount of money. An unsuccessful attempt was made at the house of Mr. L. K. Harlow. The police are working on the case.

NONANTUM.

—The weaving department of the Aetna Mills is shut down for ten days.

—Paddy McMullen is again able to be out after the accident. Mr. Mills, the barber, wants to get up a surprise party on himself so as to be presented with a new (second hand) bicycle.

—James Hartley, formerly of this village, has again returned and will be employed at the Nonantum Mills.

—Mrs. A. O. Davidson is so far recovered from her recent illness as to go west for a short period.

—Mr. Albert W. Frye met with quite a serious and very painful accident on Thursday morning. While cleaning and reloading a revolver the weapon in some way became cocked, and while inserting a cartridge went off, the ball entering the leg at the knee and passing down to the ankle. Dr. Stearns and Baker were called, but after a long effort were not successful in locating the ball. Mr. Frye is as comfortable as can be expected at this writing. He has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Tent Caterpillars.

The action of the Newton Centre Improvement Association last year and that of the Newton Horticultural Society this year and last year in connection with the first named Society has had an effect in different parts of the State, particularly in Essex and Middlesex counties.

The secretary of the Horticultural Society has received a letter from the Beverly Improvement Society saying, "As it was to the work of your society and that of the Newton Centre Improvement Society that we owe our inspiration for tent caterpillar work it seems most fitting that we send you a little report of what we have done this year. We have collected 220,344 tents by 80 persons with the largest individual collection of 20,840 tents. And we have also written to every similar society in Essex County trying to send on the inspiration received from you. Tonsfield, North Andover, Wenham and Manchester have worked also.

The Newton Society has received many enquiries concerning its work from interested persons living in Hingham, Canton, Bedford and Watertown, and its circulars have been sent to many other places.

Favorable reports have come from the localities in Newton, where collecting was done last year, stating that there was an appreciable diminution of the caterpillars this year. However, the management expected the greatest results to be accomplished by the individual efforts of the owners and hoped that the instructions and influence of the society would induce the residents to do the work which it had laid out. The action of the city in authorizing its highway department to look after its highways has had a very beneficial effect both as to ridding the streets of unsightly vermin and also inducing the abutters to look over their places and remove the nests from their own trees.

The importance of this work is admitted by everyone and only by continuous efforts can this terrible pest be removed.

The Vacation Coupons.

Newton people interested in the vacation contest over the Boston Journal coupons, to secure a vacation for Phillip Cotting, will be interested in the fact that a consultation was held this week, over the invalid, and that Dr. F. W. Webber was called to confer with the attending physician. The result was that Dr. Webber has advised Mrs. H. S. Crowell to continue in her efforts to secure one of the vacations for the young man. All interested can send their coupons to Mrs. Crowell at Newton.

Electric Lustra Starch makes collars and cuffs look like new. Blue papers 10 cts. each. For sale by John J. Blake.

A pure cream of tartar powder. Used in the U. S. Army and by teachers of Cookery. Cleveland's is the standard, it never varies, it does the most work, the best work and is perfectly wholesome.

Building Stone For Sale.

Stone suitable for foundations now lying on the Hill at West Newton all ready for laying.

BLANEY & ROBINSON,

510 Sears Building, Boston.

MINER ROBINSON,

Chestnut Street, West Newton.

Tel.: Boston 3311; West Newton 234.

Miss MARY E. THOMPSON,

graduate of

New York City Training School for Nurses,

is prepared to do medical, surgical and obstetric nursing. Residence, Hartford Street, Newton Highlands. Telephone 21-4.

REAL ESTATE

To Sell or Rent.

INSURANCE, MONEY TO LOAN.

Carriages ready to take customers to see property.

Newton Centre Office: Union Street, opposite Railroad Station.

Boston Office: 113 Devonshire St., Room 24.

SIDNEY P. CLARK, Newton Centre.

Dr. Elbridge C. Leach,

DENTIST.

422 COLUMBUS AVE., BOSTON.

The correcting of irregular teeth in children months a specialty.

Residence, Crystal St., Newton Centre. Will make appointments at residence after 6 P. M.

W. A. PARKS & CO.

DEALERS IN—

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers.

All Kinds of Repairing a Specialty.

Also Special Agents for

VICTOR, and LOVELL DIAMOND

Second-hand wheels taken in exchange.

Complete line of Sundries on hand.

NEWTON CENTRE, MASS. 3m

WILLIAM E. DOYLE,

FLORIST.

No. 43 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

Conservatories: 1509 Cambridge St., Cambridge.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.,

Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

Fashionable Garments for Men.

You cannot afford to lose the opportunity of seeing our exclusive styles of fine Spring Woolens for Gentlemen's wear. Moderate prices prevail.

C. B. SOMERS, Tailor,

149 A Tremont St., cor. West St., BOSTON.

Newton Horse Shoeing Shop

DELANEY, LELAND & HEWITT,

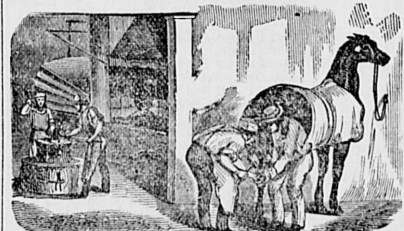

Successors to

P. A. MURRAY,

Washington Street,

NEXT TO

Murray's Carriage Manufactory.

Having purchased the horse shoeing branch of the business formerly conducted by Mr. P. A. Murray, we desire to state that we have worked at his stand several years and established a first-class reputation and we therefore feel assured of a continuation of your patronage. The shop in which we will continue the business is fitted up exclusively for horse shoeing and we can guarantee to give better satisfaction than ever. Special attention will be given to over reaching, interfering and tender footed horses, and also gentlemen owning trotting horses, can have them shod in any of the various styles of weighted shoes desirable for track work.

BLANEY & ROBINSON,

510 Sears Building, Boston.

MINER ROBINSON,

Chestnut Street, West Newton.

Tel.: Boston 3311; West Newton 234.

Miss MARY E. THOMPSON,